Dear Friend:

"Without your help, I would be in prison." "I had really given up hope for getting my CO classification before I called you." Young men who feel they must say "no" to war are expressing thanks for the help we have given in words like these.

Your encouragement and support have made it possible for us to give increased and improved assistance to these men. I am writing now to give you a brief report on recent developments here and to invite you to share the mounting costs of this vital work.

Our new Guide to Alternative Service, just recently off the press, is the only publication of its kind. This booklet is just one of the expanding services we make available to conscientious objectors with alternative service concerns.

Our new edition of Religious Statements on Conscientious Objection, also the only publication of its kind, is getting wide distribution as part of the assistance available to young men agonizing over the phrasing of a CO claim.

"The new look of the Reporter is great. I especially appreciate the memo inserts and Honorable Advisor," is the comment being shared frequently by subscribers to our monthly publication.

All of our materials are distributed at cost, and all of our counseling is done without charge. Your financial sharing will help to provide the people who make this work possible.

You may be interested in knowing that our application for tax deductible status is now being processed by Internal Revenue Service and that we believe it will be approved soon.

A return envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Warren W. Hoover
