Dr. Edward R. Fields, Editor

URGENT REMINDER

Dear Fellow Patriot:

I know that it is easy to put things off in the hustle and bustle of today's busy world. As of today your subscription to THE THUNDERBOLT has lapsed and you have already received the last copy. We want to place you back on the list immediately but we cannot do anything until we receive your instructions.

You need to act now ! THE THUNDERBOLT has been praised internationally for the work of our research department which continually comes up with original and sensational articles that you cannot find anywhere else. Actually, you dare not miss a single issue, because this newspaper is the best vehicle you can find anywhere to effectively awaken your friends and co-workers to the dangers facing our race and nation.

I personally await your affirmative reply to this letter. I know that your intention is to continue your study through the revelations found within the columns of THE THUNDERBOLT.
