MODERN POLITICAL HISTORY

GRUESOME HARVEST by Ralph F. Keeling, Paperback, pp. 135 $2.00

Subtitled "The Costly Attempt to Exterminate the People of Germany", Keeling's book details the grim results of the triumph of "American ideals" in post-war Germany. In short, this book proves that the "peace" imposed on this broken nation was intended to destroy a whole people. These facts will bring shame to every American reader for the ignoble policies of his government following this disastrous war.

The author, a former communist, testifying before the Dies Committee gives invaluable insight into the origins and machinations of the world-wide communist movement.

THE SPANISH REVOLUTION by Stanley G. Payne, Paperback, pp. 398 $3.25

More than a good history of the Spanish Republic and Civil War, The Spanish Revolution is also a penetrating study of the revolutionary leftist extremism of Spain which erupted in the 1930's.

THE MORGANTHAU ERA LETTERS by Austin J. App, Ph.D., Paperback, pp. 109 $2.00

Consisting of 119 hard-hitting letters written to journalists and newsmakers, Dr. App's correspondence unrolls panoramically the tragic events from 1941 to the inevitable Cold War which followed. They unveil the blunders and lies that got the United States into World War II, and the sell-outs and vindictiveness that lost the peace for America and gave the communist half of Europe and Asia. A valuable feature of the letters are the facts and figures, which should be repeated often by conscientious Americans.

HISTORY'S MOST TERRIFYING PEACE by Austin J. App, Ph.D., Paperback, pp. 109 $2.00

This book consists of thirteen articles by Dr. App which attack the Roosevelt doctrine of unconditional surrender of the Axis Powers in World War II and the terrible Morgenthau plan for dealing with the defeated Germans. Told with uncompromising truth, it is a bitter account of the attempt to destroy the very soul of a defeated people.

SACCO-VANZETTI, THE MURDER AND THE MYTH by Tobert H. Montgomery, Paperback, pp. 323 $1.00

Montgomery has made a brilliant attempt to get at the truth of this intriguing case, which aroused a flood of controversy in the 1920's. The author brings unparalleled reason to the two long-standing questions over this case: "Were they guilty?" and "Did they receive a fair trial?" A spellbinding story!

WHILE YOU SLEPT by John T. Flynn, Paperback, pp. 152 $1.00

Here is a responsible study of the methods of modern propagandists which have broken America's will to resist arbitrary involvement in Asian disputes, which hold no clear objective except confusion of the masses.

THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT by Dan Smoot, Paperback, pp. 194 $1.00

This study, which deals with the tragic effects upon the political life of America brought about by private political societies like the Council on Foreign Relations, has become a classic since its publication in 1962. THE GREAT TERROR by Robert Conquest,
Hardback, pp. 633 $9.95

A most readable book on the truculent methodology of communism. The Great Terror is a valuable documentary for both historian and general reader on the Stalin Purge Trials, as well as the fake suicides, the extorted confessions, the slave labor camps for political adversaries, and the elimination of political rivals outside the Soviet Union which are associated with the Purge era. Woven through the account is a penetrating analysis of Stalin's devious, power-starved personality. All-in-all, a thoroughly absorbing account of the heaviest blow to fall upon the Russian people. Illustrated.

CRIMES DISCREETLY VEILED by F. J. P. Veale,
Hardback, pp. 240 with maps $5.95

This important book lifts the veil on seven major atrocities committed by the Allied powers, which establishment historians have been at pains to muffle since World War II. Includes the real story of the Katyn Forest Massacre, the murder of Mussolini, and the perverse crimes of murder-mad Dr. Marcal-Petiot of the Paris Underground.

ADVANCE TO BARBARISM by F. J. P. Veale,
Hardback, pp. 363 $6.95

Advance to Barbarism traces the evolution of the unwritten code for the conduct of warfare through World War II. As man became more civilized, his conduct of warfare became proportionally humane, especially where civilian populations were concerned. The author shows that this code of conduct has been torn assunder by the War Crimes Trials at Nuremberg and Tokyo, as well as the barbarous mock trials which were held in Eastern Europe following World War II. The only result of these precedent-setting trials can be future wars of greater destruction, as national leaders resort to techniques of "total war" in an effort to avert defeat—which will ultimately mean their personal executions and the enslavement of their people. The author is a distinguished British jurist and military historian whose book is a major contribution to revisionist history.

TENNY REPORTS ON WORLD ZIONISM by Sen.
Jack B. Tenny, Paperback, pp. 214 $5.00

OPERATION SLAUGHTERHOUSE by John Precla
and Stanko Guldescu, Hardback, pp. 557 . . $10.00

During this time, the fields, rivers and streets were littered with the bodies of more than two hundred thousand Croations, both military and civilian. The publication of Operation Slaughterhouse commemorates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Bliburg Tragedy, an act of peacetime genocide, which is recounted in its pages.

THE SUICIDE OF EUROPE by Prince Michael
Sturdza, Hardback, pp. 331 $6.95

This book is an important contribution to the history of modern times, especially of the events leading up to the Second World War and its baleful aftermath. The author is the former Prime Minister of Rumania, and was therefore in an especially strategic position to judge the events and personalities responsible for this great world tragedy.
