

Hawaii Pacific Beach

Hotel Overlooking Waikiki Beach

Here your dream of a Hawaiian Holiday comes true.

Here at the sparkling new Pacific Beach Hotel, superbly situated in the heart of the bustling resort mecca of Waikiki, overlooking the sun-splashed expanse of the world's most famous beach. At Pacific Beach Hotel, you'll enjoy gracious luxury at reasonable prices, elegance without formality and the ultimate of comfort and convenience. Here in the shadow of majestic Diamond Head, you're just steps from the smooth sands of Waikiki where you can take surfing lessons from an island beachboy, then rent a surfboard and skim the crests of the gentle waves yourself. Here you'll arrange for a thrilling outrigger canoe ride or a cruise in a swift catamaran. Here you'll swim in the hotel's pool or the warm crystal-clear waters of the Pacific Ocean, bask on its sunny golden sands or wander leisurely along its palm-fringed shore. You're right in the center of exciting Waikiki with its cosmopolitan restaurants serving the world's finest gourmet cuisine, its myriad of intriguing shops filled with tempting merchandise and its glittering night clubs which run the gamut of after-dark offerings from quiet sing-along piano bars to lavish Polynesian revues to America's top name entertainers performing

'til the wee small hours hours for your enjoyment. Just a coconut's toss from Pacific Beach Hotel you can play a round of golf at the Ala Wai course or a set of tennis at Kapiolani Park. You're steps away from Honolulu Zoo, Waikiki Aquarium, the picturesque International Market Place and countless other attractions. Your surprisingly large room features its own private lanai, a broad balcony offering a breathtaking view of the Pacific panorama. Casual elegance is accented by beautiful Polynesian-styled contemporary furnishings, a decor which reflects the sparkling blue of the Hawaiian sky and the rich luxuriant green of tropical foliage. For your ultimate comfort, each room has two double beds, individually controlled air conditioning as well as a completely equipped kitchenette where you may choose to prepare breakfast, assemble the makings of a picnic lunch or mix an icy tropical cooler to savor as a glorious flaming sunset casts romantic shadows on the beach. Crowning the 360 room Pacific Beach Hotel, are two 17th floor penthouses

... the Queen Liliuokalani Suites ... inspired by the queen on whose royal beach estate the hotel now stands. The staff at the Pacific Beach Hotel, trained in the finest traditions of gracious Hawaiian hospitality, is eager to make every moment of your holiday a delightful experience.

They'll anticipate your every desire and pamper you with special attentions. Does a sightseeing tour of the Polynesian Cultural Center or Sea Life Park strike your fancy—or perhaps a Hawaiian luau? The travel desk in the lobby can help make your vacation complete by assisting with transportation, sightseeing and entertainment. If you'd rather explore the fascination of Hawaii on your own, there's a car rental firm ready to provide a new vehicle to suit your needs as well as maps and helpful tips on discovering scenic surprises island-style. And ample parking is available. You'll savor delicious cuisine in the Surf Restaurant, overlooking the Palm-bordered crescent of Waikiki Beach or linger a while in the polynesian lounge. The tropical lobby with its elegant brass chandelier and lush foliage is complemented by an array of specialty shops offering Hawaiian fashions, exotic pearls and jade from the Orient and exciting gifts from all over the Pacific basin. For your convenience, you'll also find a store stocked with groceries, liquors, camera supplies and sundries. All this—plus year-round perfect weather—assures you of a wonderful

Hotel Corporation of the Pacific, A. Tatibouet, President

October 1969

Hawaiian vacation at Pacific Beach Hotel, one that sends you home relaxed, refreshed and overflowing with memories of fulfilled days and enchanting nights. Why Just Dream of a Hawaiian Holiday—when it all can come true at Pacific Beach Hotel? Pacific Beach Hotel is one of three gracious hostelryes owned and operated by the Tatibouet family, host to island visitors since 1948 and thoroughly experienced in meeting the special needs of vacationers.

For reservations, see your travel agent or write Pacific Beach Hotel, 2490 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii 96815

Royal Grove • Pacific Beach Hotel • Kuhiolani Hotel Major credit cards welcomed