

US ARMY DIVISIONS

REAL WAR PHOTOS
P.O. BOX 728
HAMMOND, INDIANA 46325-0728

1ST INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2335 On a wall in the street of Caserne, Vienna Austria, the history of the 16th Inf. Regt is depicted 7-1-47.
- A-2336 Infantrymen of 1st Div., move through the streets of Uckarath, Germany on their way to the front, Co "L" 26th Regt. 3-25-45.
- A-2337 Riflemen of the 1st Inf. Div., take cover behind a fallen tree as Nazi mortar fire comes in, Altenau, Germany 4-13-45.
- A-2338 Troops of Co "I", 3rd Battery 26th Regt. 1st Div., move out of Bleisheim, Germany to attack positions in woods just out side of town, tank in foreground is a new American med. tank 3-5-45.
- A-2340 1st gun section of Battery "C" 7th F.A. 1st Inf. Div., ready to fire on enemy at Grafenwohr, Germany 10-19-48.
- A-2341 1st Div., cross Roer River, near Kreuzau, Germany. Co "B" 16th Regt. 2-25-45.
- A-2342 Pfc James R. Kennedy from Jacksonville, FL aims at sniper who wounded him a few moments previously. Sharfenberg, Germany 26th Regt 1st Div. 4-2-25.
- A-2343 1st Div., move out of Kufferath, Germany to cross Roer River. Co. "A" 1st Bn. 16th Regt. 2-25-45.
- A-2344 Co "A" 1st Bn. 16th Regt. 1st Div., move out from Rufferath, Germany to cross the Roer Bridge 2-25-45.
- A-2345 1st Div., move out of Scheidhausen, Germany to cross Roer River, Co "B" 1st Battalion 16th Regt. 1st Div. 2-25-45.
- A-2346 1st Engineer Bn. 1st Div. 16th Regt. Read a sign which was left by the Germans, when they pulled out of Vettewiss, Germany. It read Victory or Chaos 2-28-45.
- A-2347 1st Div., rest by German slogan in Vettewiss, Germany, the sign reads we are victorious, because we believe in Adolf Hitler's Greater Reich. Co. "I" 3rd Bn. 16th Regt. 1st Div. U.S. F.A. 3-1-45.
- A-2348 1st Div., dead German lies on the ground in the foreground, Co. "H" 2nd Bn. 16th Regt. 1st Div. Vettewiss, Germany 2-28-45.
- A-2349 1st Div. U.S. 1st Army rest beside tank in Gladbach, Germany. Which will support them when they attack enemy positions in this front line area 3-1-45.
- A-2350 Co. "E" comprising first wave in Wellerwist, Germany 3-5-45.
- A-2351 Co. "F" takes position in Wellerwist Germany, in the second wave, 3-5-45.
- A-2352 Co. "G" moves out shoulding heavy weapons in Wellerwist, Germany, to support first elements of the attack on Metternich 3-5-45.
- A-2353 Infantrymen of the 1st Div. U.S. Army cross the Erft River on a treadyway bridge. Bliesheim, Germany, Co. "I" 3rd Bn., 26th Regt. 1st Div. U.S. 1st Army 3-5-45.
- A-2354 Waves of Infantrymen and tanks attack the high ground between Wellerwist and Metternich, Germany 3-5-45.
- A-2355 Waves of Infantrymen and tanks attack the high ground between Wellerwist and Metternich, Germany. Troops of Co. "A" 80th Chemical Brig. during the advance, set up mortars on the outskirts of Wellerwist, men of Co. "H" 2nd Bn. 16th Regt. forming the 3rd wave of the attack against Metternich, file past as trucks unload fresh supplies of ammunition. Other participating units in the attack are the 745th Tank Bn. Battery "B" 7th F.A. Bn. 1st Div. 3-5-45.
- A-2356 18th Inf 1st Div., landing craft. Infantry practice landing operation at Port Aux Poules near Oran Algeria. Invasion training 1st Div., under direction of 5th Army, Commanded by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark 6-5-43.
- A-2357 Landing craft Infantry (LCT) landing operation at Port Aux Poules,

1st Inf. Div. Cont

- near Oran Algeria, 1st Div. under Com. of 5th Army, Command of Lt. Gen Mark W. Clark, 18th Inf 1st Div. 6-5-43.
- A-2358 U.S. Infantrymen of Co. "F" 2nd Bn. 16th Inf. 1st Div., advance through the Staa's Forest of Germany on the allied road to Berlin near Hamich 11-18-44.
- A-2359 These soldiers on a tank and the other are Nazis, lay dead after a hand to hand encounter on hill 203, overlooking the German village, Langerwehe, 2nd Bn. 11-30-44.
- A-2360 With gun poised, Sgt Ralph H. Nunn, of Knoxville, Tn., waits for German paratroopers being driven out of the woods by men of Co. "M" 3rd Bn. 18th Inf. Regt. 1st Div. Sourbrodt, ETO 12-19-44.
- A-2361 1st Div. troops complete with snow camouflage equipment advance on a narrow road near Faymonville, Belgium Co. "C" 2nd Bn. 16th Inf. Regt. 1-16-45.
- A-2362 U.S. 1st Army soldiers take time out to rest as tanks of an attached Bn. continue their advance through Germany Co. "K" 16th Inf. Regt. 1st Inf. Div. 4-10-45.
- A-2363 Sgt. Mallory J. Yacopine and Sgt. Werner W. Kahl, put out a welcome sign for the 100,000th prisoner taken by the 1st Div. U.S. 1st Army Harte Mt. Area, Germany 4-23-45.
- A-2364 Members of the 1st Div. examine a German supply container, Bullingen, Belgium, 3rd Bn. 26th Inf. 1-30-45.
- A-2365 Infantrymen of the 1st U.S. Army enter a German town after crossing the Roer River, Co. "K" 3rd Bn. 16th Regt 1st Div., Lendersdorf, Germany 2-25-45.
- A-2366 No building in this section of Jakobsullesheim, Germany, remains intact. The town was recently taken by units of the U.S. 1st Army, 1st Div. 2-28-45.
- A-2367 Co. "E" 2nd Bn. 26th Regt 1st Div., 1st Army sector, Infantrymen preparing to move on Soller, Germany, rest amid brush and foxholes until the artillery barrage ceases 2-27-45.
- A-2368 A small treadyway bridge is lowered into place on the site of a ruined bridge near, Moderscheid, Belgium by 1st Div. Engineers 18th Inf. Regt. 1-25-45.
- A-2369 1st Div. landing operations, New River Area, N.C., ferrying of trucks 8-41.
- A-2370 1st Div. landing operation, erecting pontoon bridge, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2371 Men of 1st Div. landing operation erecting pontoon bridge, New River Area N.C. 8-41.
- A-2372 1st Div. landing operation, using foot bridge, build by them, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2373 1st Div. landing operation, tanks land rapidly from lighters in New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2374 1st Div. landing operation, using employment of logs for temporary roads, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2375 Machine gun holding strategic position, 1st Div. landing operation, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2376 1st Div. landing operation, machine gun holding strategic position, New River Area N.C. 8-41.
- A-2377 Mortar in firing position in sand pit, 1st Div. landing operation, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2378 1st Div. landing operation, anti aircraft gun and crew in action, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2379 1st Div. landing operation, covering beach approach, New River Area, N.C. 8-41.
- A-2380 Maj. Gen. Tr. Allen third from right C.G. of the 1st Div., and his staff Sicily 1943.

1ST INFANTRY DIVISION

VIETNAM

- A-2230 Members of Co. "C" 1st Bn. 18th Inf. Regt. 1st Inf. (Big Red One) Div., waist deep in swamp water during operation "Lexington" in the Rung Sat Special Zone 1966.
- A-2331 Members of the 2nd BDE 1st Inf. Div., prepare to move into battle near Siagon as VH-1 helicopter swarm into landing zone 1966.
- A-2332 Members of Co. "A" 1st Bn. 16th Inf. 1st Div., take a break during operation "Junction City" 15 miles from Soval Da 3-5-67.
- A-2333 Members of 2nd 28th 1st Inf. Div., being dropped during operation "Billings" 1968
- A-2334 SP4 Jack Brinson, of the 28th Inf. 1st Inf. Div., lays down a heavy base of fire with his m-60 machine gun at Battle At Thu Duc 1968.
- A-2339 President Nixon greets members of the 1st Inf. Div., during his tour of Vietnam 7-69.

2ND INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2405 2nd Inf. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., take cover from Nazi fire, Koenigsfeld, Germany.
- A-2406 M-4 tank in Dampelfeld, the tank belongs to Co. A. 741st Tank Bn. 2nd Inf. The only one left of the Co's original tank after D-Day, 3-9-45.
- A-2407 38th Field Artillery 2nd Inf. Div., Base, Elsenborn, Belgium 12-16-44.
- A-2408 Co. G 38th Regt 2nd Div., take refuge during mortar barrage European, Theater 12-16-44.
- A-2409 Co. G 2nd Bn. 9th Inf. Regt 2nd Div., march back from front lines for regrouping at Elsenborn, Belgium 12-20-44.
- A-2410 Co. G 38th Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., Combat patrol, crouch behind a bush near Ondenval, Belgium 1-16-45.
- A-2411 Members of the 9th Regt. 2nd Div., march into Butgenbach, Belgium 1-25-45.
- A-2412 Co. G 33th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., peer through doorway of abandoned barn near Werzeld, Belgium 1-31-45.
- A-2413 Camouflaged Infantrymen of the 9th Inf. 2nd Div., pass a machine gun and a dead German as they advance along a road in the Monschau Forest, Germany 2-2-45.
- A-2414 Machine gun crew of Co. A 23rd Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., move through Monschau Forest, Germany 2-12-45.
- A-2415 Riflemen of Co. A 23rd Inf. 2nd Inf. Div., move through Monschau Forest, Germany 2-2-45.
- A-2416 Infantrymen of Co. A 1st Bn 9th Regt 2nd Div., move through streets of Schevan, Germany to advance toward, Elserfry, Germany 3-6-45.
- A-2417 Co. F 2nd Bn. 38th Regt 2nd Div., move to the town of Holzheim from Breitenbenden, Germany.
- A-2418 A member of Co. B 1st Bn. 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., in his foxhole located in a wooded area near Rockenfell, Germany 3-22-45.
- A-2419 Lt. Gen. George Patton Jr., C.G. U.S. Third Army standing in jeep to salute troops of U.S. 2nd Div., under his command in Armagh, Northern Ireland 4-1-44.

2nd Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-2420 Infantrymen of the 2nd Div., listen to an address by Lt Gen. George Patton Jr., in Armagh, Northern Ireland 4-1-44.
- A-2421 23rd Inf 2nd Div., train for invasion of Europe, England 4-4-44.
- A-2423 Czechoslovakian civilians line the street to cheer on the 1st Bn. 38th Regt. who liberated the town of Stankov, Hestya 5-6-45.
- A-2424 Infantrymen of the 9th Regt. and 741st Tank Bn. 2nd Div., pass through Giessen, Germany 3-30-45.
- A-2425 Near Krinkelter, Co. A 38th Inf 2nd Div., 1st U.S. Army 12-17-44.
- A-2426 Co. I of the 2nd Inf. Div., advance near Brest, France, many GI's lost their lives when Germans blew up their own pillboxes to prevent capture, by the 23rd Inf. Regt.
- A-2428 British 25-pounder is operated by an American crew of the 2nd Div., near Schonessiffer, Germany. 76th F.A. Bn. 2-3-45.
- A-2429 Men of the 2nd Inf. Div., guard German prisoners taken in the drive on Schonessiffer, Germany. 9th Regt. 2-2-45.
- A-2430 Confined in a prisoner of war cage constructed by their own forces German prisoners watch U.S. soldiers of the 2nd Div., pass by in Monschau Forest, Germany. This cage formally held U.S. captives. 1st Bn. 23rd Inf. Regt. 2-2-45.
- A-2472 1st Platoon Bty. D 456 Coast Artillery Gun Section # 4. Camp Lake James, Ottawa National Forest, Michigan 3-10-43.
- A-2473 66th Arm'd Regt. 2 Inf. Div., Hunxe, Germany 3-28-45. Troops resting.
- A-2474 Co. A 38th Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., Berg, Belgium 1-5-45. Troops in trench
- A-2475 102nd Cavalry Reconnaissance, Bruch, Germany, 2nd Div., trucks crossing bridge.
- A-2476 9th Regt. 2nd Inf. Div. 741 Tank Bn., near Schonessiffer, Germany 2-2-45.
- A-2477 2nd Inf. Div., rest in Lalpzig, Germany 4-18-45.
- A-2478 2nd Inf Div., load tanks and prepare to move to Harscheid, Germany 3-8-45.
- A-2603 Gun fire is directed across the Rhine to the town of Ronnigen, Co "C" 1st Inf. Bn. 23rd Inf. Regt., Germany 3/15/45.

2ND INFANTRY DIVISION KOREA

- A-2392 A .50 caliber machine gun crew of the 2nd Inf Div., covers the advance of U.S. tanks somewhere in Korea 8-13-50.
- A-2393 9th Regt. combat team 2nd Div., on board U.S. Navy ship Gen. D.I., Sutan, Pusan, Korea 8-1-50.
- A-2394 9th Regt. combat team 2nd Div., arriving in Pusan, Korea, aboard U.S. Navy ship, Gen. D.I. Sultan 8-1-50.
- A-2395 Gun crew of the 2nd Inf. Div., digs in for action against the 77th Korean forces near front lines, somewhere in Korea 8-27-50.
- A-2396 A field artillery Bn. of the 2nd Inf. Div., digs in near hill 409. Somewhere in Korea 8-27-50.
- A-2397 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., Receives Silver, Bronze and Purple Heart Awards, Nakdong River Front 8-28-50.
- A-2398 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., Northern Korea forces in the Vonlgan Hills 9-2-50.
- A-2399 An Infantryman of the 2nd Inf. Div., fires a 30 caliber machine gun during the attack on Yongsan, Korea 9-2-50.
- A-2400 Men of the 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., spread out along the Nakdong River front to intercept communist troops 9-3-50.
- A-2401 Men of the 9th Inf. Regt., seated on an M-26 tank await an attempt by north Korean troops to cross the Nakdong River 9-13-50.
- A-2402 Men of 9th Inf Regt 2nd Inf. Div., in an M-6 tank wait for communist attempt to cross the Nakdong River 9-13-50.
- A-2403 Men of 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., wait for an expected communist North Korean attempt to cross the Nakdong River 9-13-50.
- A-2404 MP's of 2nd Inf Div., search a North Korean captive in town of Yongsan 9-11-50.
- A-2422 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Div., in review before Maj. Gen. Harry J. Collins, at Fort Lewis 6-10-49.
- A-2431 Members of the 1st platoon Btry "C" 82nd AAA 2nd Inf. Div., move up to the front 9-23-50.
- A-2432 The UN Military Cemetery in Miryang, Korea 9-27-50.
- A-2433 Korea bound USNS Gen. H.B. Stewart 2nd Inf. Div. troops sun themselves and relax enroute to Pusan; Korea 8-16-50.
- A-2434 Landing operation maneuver on Vieques Island 2-17-48.
- A-2435 Aboard the USS Gen. Wm. Mitchell, the 2nd Inf. Div., troops at sea, enroute to Korea 8-8-50.
- A-2436 Inf. and rifle Platoon of the Inf. Regt. 2nd Div., in a group before moving out for North Korea 1950.
- A-2437 Scottish pipers of the 2nd Div., play for Maj. Gen. E.E. Partridge's 5th A.F. Hd qtrs personal 10-14-50.
- A-2438 The wire team of the 2nd Battery 9th Inf. Regt 2nd Inf. Div., checks damaged lines near the fighting front in Korea 10-16-50.
- A-2439 Battery "B" 503rd Field Artillery Bn. U.S. Inf. Div., Korea 3-8-51.
- A-2441 Heavy mortar 9th Inf. Regt. U.S. 2nd Div., move up to the front lines in Korea 3-9-51.
- A-2442 Battery "B" 503rd F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div. Korea 3-4-51. Fires at a communist.
- A-2443 The 20th Medical Bn. 2nd Inf. Div. area in Korea 3-7-51
- A-2444 Co. "E" 23rd Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., Move along a road on Eastern Central Front 3-9-51.
- A-2445 15th F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div. Artillery fires at enemy 3-9-51.
- A-2446 503rd F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., preparing to fire on an enemy, Korea 3-9-51
- A-2448 Suicide Six pose for group picture, 2nd Inf. Div. Korea 3-21-51.
- A-2449 First 2nd Inf. Div. 40mm flair wagon Korea 9-27-51.
- A-2450 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., man machine gun along river bank, Korea 1-20-51.
- A-2451 2nd Engineer Group U.S. 8th Army, repair road, Ussolchi-choi-gal Road Korea 3-23-51.
- A-2452 M-4 tanks of the 9th RCT 2nd Inf Div., advance against the Chinese communist forces in Korea 1-26-51.
- A-2453 Tanks of Co "C" 72nd Tank Bn 2nd Inf. Div., move across fields 2-16-51.
- A-2454 Co. "H" 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., move through village, Korea 2-3-51.
- A-2455 Co. "C" 72nd Tank Bn. 2nd Inf Div., 25 miles North East of Wonju, Korea 2-6-51.
- A-2456 1st Platoon Co "F", rides tank into action in Korea 2-8-51
- A-2457 CO. "F" 187th RCT U.S. 8th Army, Arm'd Bn. Tank moves into action, Korea 2-10-51.
- A-2458 Battery "B" 38th F.A., 2nd Inf. Div., fires at communist in Korea 2-15-51.
- A-2459 Battery "B" F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., dig in on the Korean hills Southeast of Wonju, Korea 2-16-51.
- A-2460 2nd reconnaissance Co. 2nd Inf. Div., near Chipyeong-ni, Korea, move along road 2-10-51.
- A-2461 23rd RCT 2nd Inf. Div., dead North Korea 2-17-51.
- A-2462 Battery "A" 37th F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., Dig in front lines, Korea 3-1-51.
- A-2464 38th Inf. Regt 2nd Inf. Div., ride tank to the front lines in Korea 9-19-50.
- A-2465 38th F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., along Nakdong River, N.W. of Chongnyong, fires on enemy, Korea 9-19-50.
- A-2466 38th F.A. Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., moves on enemy, Korea 9-19-50.
- A-2467 Battery "A" 1st Platoon 82nd anti-aircraft Artillery Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., Korea 11-23-50.

2nd Inf. Div. Korea Cont.

2nd Inf. Div. Korea Cont.

- A-2468 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., on road to Seoul, Korea 12-5-50.
- A-2469 Co. "E" 23rd Inf. Regt 2nd Div., at Muster, 12-5-50.
- A-2470 2nd Reconnaissance Honor Guard Platoon 2nd Inf. Div., group shot, Pyongyang, Korea 10-31-50.
- A-2471 23rd Inf. Regt 2nd Inf. Div., unload ammunition from train, Tangdok Korea 11-12-50.
- A-2581 Members of an anti-craft artillery unit with the 2nd Div., use their 10-ton wrecker to salvage a communist led north Korean tank on a mountain road near the Nakdong River, Korea, 9/18/50.
- A-2582 Maj. T.A. Hume a member of the 2nd Inf. Div., firing a captured Russian made 45mm field gun, Korea, 9/18/50.
- A-2583 Men of Headquarters 9th RCT, 2nd Inf. Div., work together to put out fire in a hut, that was use for Hdqs, Korea, 11/17/50.
- A-2584 Men of the 23rd Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., consolidate 500 tons of captured communist ammo, Korea, 11/12/50.
- A-2585 The mortar section of 2nd Inf. Div., heavy mortar section, who had gone to far, were pinned down, when they try to turn back, Korea, 11/20/50.
- A-2586 Members of the 2nd Inf. Div., points at communist led north Korean positions to his gun crew, Korea, 11/20/50.
- A-2587 Men of Battery A, 1st Platoon 82nd anti-aircraft, Artillery Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., manning an M-19, mounting twin 40-mm cannon, Korea, 11/25/50.
- A-2588 A tank, column of the 2nd Inf. Div., by passes a damaged bridge, Korea, 9/21/50.
- A-2590 Tank crew of the 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf Div., sitting on a tank prior to moving up to the front lines in Korea, 9/16/50.
- A-2591 Members of the 23 RCT, 2nd Inf. Div., fire a 4.2 mortar at Chinese Comm. positions, Korea, 3/1/51.
- A-2592 13 of the 22 tanks which landed in Korea, along with the 2nd Inf. Div., are lined up for inspection, Korea, 3/1/51.
- A2595 Men of the weapons Platoon Co "F" 187th A/B RCT., U.S. 8th Army, ride on one of the tanks of the 72nd tank Bn. U.S. 2nd Div., Korea 2/10/51.
- A-2596 M-4 tanks of Co "C", 72nd tank Bn. 2nd Inf. Div., fire in support of the 187th A/B RCT. U.S. 8th Army Korea, 2/6/51.
- A-2597 A platoon of Co "H", 38th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., going out on patrol in Korea, 3/2/51.
- A-2598 Men of the 9th Inf. Regt. 2nd Inf. Div., fire an M-75 recoilless rifle at the Korea communist, 3/11/51.
- A-2599 2 tired men of a gun crew of the 37th F.A. Bn., 2nd Inf. Div., supporting the 9th RCT, sleep unheedingly as the rest of the crew fires on, Korea, 3/18/51.
- A-2600 Tanks and troops of the 38th RCT 2nd Inf. Div., advance thru a burning village in their drive northward, Korea 3/13/51.
- A-2601 A 155mm gun section of the 503rd F.A. Bn., 2nd Inf. Div., in action against the Chinese Communist Korea, 3/9/51.
- A-2602 Gunners of the 15th F.A. Bn., 2nd Inf. Div., Artillery, prepare to fire a mission, called on Chinese communist targets, Korea, 3/9/51.
- A-2603 Gun fire is directed across the Rhine to the town of Ronnigen, Co "C" 1st Inf. Bn. 23rd Inf. Regt., Germany 3/15/45.
- A-2604 Members of the Heavy Mortar Co., 9th Inf. Regt., U.S. 2nd Div., loaded aboard tanks and personnel carriers of the 9th Inf. Regt. prepare to move to the front lines in Korea, 3/9/51.

3RD INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2490 Men of the 7th Inf. Regt. 756th tank Bn. drinking beer out of any thing they can get their hands on in Wetzhausen, Germany XV corps 4-19-45.
- A-2493 Inf 15th Regt. 3rd Div. take their positions in 12 battle sleds, designed by Brig. Gen. John W. O'Daniel, 5th Army, Nettuns Italy 5-6-44.
- A-2494A This is a view of the wreckage of Nuernberg, Germany. The center of Nazism 3rd Inf. Div. U.S. 7th Army, XV corps 4-20-45.
- A-2494 Members of Co. "B" 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., pass near a bridge which was blown up by retreating Germans, Cassino Sector, Italy 11-6-43.
- A-2495 Men of 3rd Div. Inf. Regt. Co. "A" climb ladders to allow crossing of Doufa River in Besancon, south of France, U.S. 7th Army 9-8-44.
- A-2496 A squad of battle sleds, carry men of the 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., to strategic locations, the sleds are pulled by a tank 5-6-44.
- A-2497 Flexibility of the battle sleds on a turn 5-6-44.
- A-2498 2 Infantrymen walk up a hill to Hitler's home, over looking the city of Berchtesgaden. The house is burning from a fire started by SS troops who were left to guard it. 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. U.S. 7th Army XV corps 5-4-45.
- A-2499 U.S. 7th Army Mortar Squad are given orders to leave the partial protection of a bomb crater, and make a run for the assault boats that will take them across the Rhine, Frankenthal, Germany 3-26-45.
- A-2500 U.S. troops of the 3rd Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps U.S. 7th Army advance to attack the town of Wetzhausen, Germany 4-8-45.
- A-2501 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps U.S. 7th Army. Nuernberg, Germany, fires his M-1 rifle down the steps into the cellar of a building to route out the Germans 4-18-45.
- A-2502 Troops of the 3rd Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., march thru a muddy street in Belotte, France 9-14-44.
- A-2503 Co. "F" 2nd Bn. 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps U.S. 7th Army. Support the forward elements, as they move into a small burning town on the way to Munich, Germany 4-30-45.
- A-2504 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps U.S. 7th Army on the outskirts of Munich, Germany 4-30-45.
- A-2505 U.S. 7th Army Inf., move thru the town of Zweibrucken, Germany 2nd Bn. 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps 3-20-45.
- A-2506 Co. "A" 30th Inf. U.S. 7th Army, move out of Zweibrucken, Germany to take positions on the ridge above the town 3-20-45.
- A-2507 3rd Div. in Southern France, 1st Bn. 7th Regt. 8-13-44.
- A-2508 15th Inf. Regt. 7th Inf. Regt. and the 163rd Signal Photo Co. rest in Larnod, France 9-6-44.
- A-2509 81mm mortar crew 3rd Div., in action in Rigney Area, Southern France 9-9-44.
- A-2510 1st Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., entering the town of Faucognay, France 9-20-44.
- A-2511 634th F.A. Bn. 3rd Div., aboard baby aircraft carrier the LST-906 in Gaeta, Italy 7-31-44.
- A-2512 Troops of the 7th Army, 3rd Div., mechanized units, unload from an LCT 1144 in the south of France 8-15-44.
- A-2513 Men of the 7th Inf. Regt 3rd Div., line up for chow, Latina, Italy 12-10-43.

- A-2514 Berchtesgaden, Germany 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., U.S. 7th Army, XV corps 5-4-45.
- A-2515 Burning home of Hitler over looking the city of Berchtesgaden, Germany, 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. U.S. 7th Army XV corps 5-4-45.
- A-2516 Berchtesgaden, the Bavarian retreat of Adolf Hitler, 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., U.S. 7th Army XV corps 5-4-45.
- A-2517 30th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., in Carno, Italy 2-13-45.
- A-2518 1st troops to arrive at Carno, Italy 9-22-43.
- A-2519 Troops enter Zweibrucken, Germany, U.S. 7th Army 1st Bn. 30th Inf. Regt.
- A-2520 U.S. 7th Army Inf. of the 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., cross the Rhine River 3-26-45.
- A-2521 Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark C.G. of the 5th Army and Col. J. Rogers from the 3rd Div. in Italy 9-22-43.
- A-2522 The 3rd Div., moving around a hill to attack Pietravairano, Italy 10-26-43.
- A-2523 LCIs leaving port for North Africa invasion, 3rd Div. 7-2-43.
- A-2524 LCIs loaded with men of the 3rd Div., and their equipment wait to sail for North Africa 7-2-43.
- A-2525 3rd Div., troops aboard LCI-14 North Africa 7-2-43.
- A-2526 2nd Bn. 15th Regt. marching to Volturmo front over mountain trail, in Italy 10-21-43.
- A-2544 Sgt. Richard Jensen, of Clements, Mm. gives orders to fire 105mm howitzer. Bn. of Btry "C" 10th F.A. 3rd Inf. Div., gun crew puts shell in gun in Italy 10-12-43.
- A2445 Gun crew of 195mm howitzer of Btry "C" 10th F.A. firing at Germans machine gun nest in Italy, 10-12-43.
- A-2546 Gun crew of Btry "C" 9th F.A. Bn. 3rd Inf. Div., the guns are within 400 yards of front lines Mignano, Italy 11-20-43.
- A-2553 Co. "D" 7th Inf. Regt 3rd Div., XV corps, machine gun crew on alert in their position on high ground near Altheim Area, France 7th Army 3-17-45.
- A-2561 Infantrymen of the 1st Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div. XV corps 7th Army move thru the shattered town of Guiderkirch, France, near the German border 3-15-43.
- A-2562 7th Army Inf. track down snipers in the town of Altheim, Germany
- A-2575 1st Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., 7th Army, is crossing a bridge in Faucogney, France, in which they had just captured 9-20-44.

3RD INFANTRY DIVISION
KOREA

- A-2528 Staff Officers of the 2nd Bn. 7th Inf. Regt 3rd Inf. Div., Korea 1-14-52.
- A-2529 A communications team of the 2nd Platoon Co. "L" 7th RCT U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., keep in touch with advancing troops assaulting a hill, one of the objectives of operation "Doughnut" 8-3-51.
- A-2530 Rifleman of Co. "L" RCT U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., fire at a Communist sniper on a ridge during a assault on a hill, one of the objectives of "Operation Doughnut" 8-3-51.
- A-2531 Men of the 3rd Inf. Div., on the side of a hill shortly after it was taken from the Communist who still hold the surrounding territory 8-3-51.
- A-2532 Co. "K" 7th RCT U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., machine gunners watch for nt of Communist forces
- an artillery tank on a hill, one of the objectives of operation. "Doughnut" 8-3-51.
- A-2533 U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., men rest before clearing the far side of the hill of communist snipers "Operation Doughnut" 8-3-51.
- A-2534 2nd squad 2nd Platoon Co. "L" RCT U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., "Operation Doughnut" 8-3-51.
- A-2535 A casualty is attended to, by a Corpman of the 7th RCT U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., "Operation Doughnut" 7-3-51.
- A-2536 Troops of Co "C" 15th RCT 3rd Inf., attack communist: position in Korea 3-23-51.
- A-2537 Men of 15th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., on firing line near a village, attack Communist 3-23-51.
- A-2538 Pinned down by Communist, men of the 15th RCT, take cover during drive near 38th Parallel 3-23-51.
- A-2539 Men of Co. "B" and "C" 1st Bn. 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., taking up a position behind the river dike in Korea, prepare to blast Communist in hills 3-24-51.
- A-2540 Americans Rangers of the 3rd Inf. Div., in close combat action on their first advance in Korea
- A-2541 3rd Inf. Div., Rangers in close combat action 4-11-51.
- A-2552 Self propelled 90mm guns of the 58th F.A. Btry 3rd Inf. Div., Blast Communist across the the Imjim River 4-12-51.
- A-2543 Encampment of the 204th F.A. Btry, Eusak, where the units of 155mm guns are supporting the 3rd Inf. Div. 4-12-51.
- A-2547 Men of the 3rd Ranger Co. 3rd Inf. Div., advance in Korea, under heavy mortar fire from the Communist 4-11-51.
- A-2548 Ranger unit of 3rd Inf. Div., advance north of the Imjim River, across 38th parallel in Korea 4-11-51.
- A-2549 Men of the 3rd Ranger 3rd Inf. Div., advance to higher ground north of Imjim River, in Korea under heavy mortar fire from Communist 4-11-51.
- A-2550 Captain A.W. Myers of the Tank Co. 65th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., briefs his tank crew, prior to their departure for a mission in Korea 3-1-51.
- A-2551 Crew members of a 40mm gun 3rd AAA attached to the 3rd Bn. 15th Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., keep on the alert for Chinese Communist action on the banks of the Han River, Korea 3-5-51.
- A-2552 Btry "B" 101st F.A. Bn. 3rd Inf. Div., fires the 105mm howitzer at Chinese Communist positions near the Han River, Korea 2-12-51.
- A-2554 Men of Co. "C" 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., thunder their way thru the Korea battle ground for advance positions in the move to north of Lorea 2-13-51.
- A-2555 A refuge from Chinese Communist mortar fire for men of Co. "C" 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., north of Korea 2-13-51.
- A-2556 Elements of the 15th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., ready M4 tanks for action against the Chinese Com. forces along the Han River, Korea 2-14-51.
- A-2557 A squad of Co. "A" 15th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., capture 2 Communist soldiers after an action against the Chinese Communist forces on a ridge in Korea 2-14-51.
- A-2558 Crews of the 16th Heavy Tank Co. 3rd Div., check equipment in Korea before moving into battle 2-12-51.
- A-2559 Men from Co. "G" 15th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., patrols and burns the Communist post of Chamsi-11 one of the Communist bases of operations in the Han River Area 2-20-51.

3rd Inf. Div. Korea Cont.

- A-2560 15th RCT 3rd Inf.Div., Tank Co. in group after ceremonies awarding them the Bronz Star, after actions against the Communist in the Han River Area, near front lines in Korea 2-23-51.
- A-2563 Men of Co."G" 2nd Bn. 30th Inf. 3rd Div., from Fort Benning, Ga., relax after the war is over officially, in Puerto Rico 3-11-50.
- A-2564 Protecting the left flank of the 2nd Platoon Co."A" 65th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., in the vicinity of Kwangch-on Korea 11-25-50.
- A-2565 Men of the 3rd Signal Co. 3rd U.S. Infantry Div., eat Thanksgiving dinner in their mess hall in Wonsen Korea 11-23-50.
- A-2566 First Lt. Daniel Boone, direct descendent of the famous frontiersman, has his men of Co."C" 64th Div. Heavy Tank Bn. 3rd Inf. Div., run their tank up behind a embankment to form a defense perimeter, Kagac-dong, Korea 12-7-50.
- A-2567 Heavy Tank Co. 2nd Bn. 7th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., work on their tank, Hamhing, Korea 12-7-50.
- A-2568 A tank of the 2nd Bn. 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf.Div., fires on the Chinese Communist emplacements near Singsong, North Korea 12-11-50.
- A-2569 65th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., working with men of the 1st ROK Corps, prepare to ram and demolish trains on a bridge before completing their evacuation of Ham-hung, Korea 12-17-50.
- A-2570 A 75mm Recoilless rifle team fires in support of Co."A" 65th Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., while engaged in action against Communist forces in the Kwangch-on vicinity of Korea 11-25-50.
- A-2571 Co. "C" 65th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., fire light machine gun on Chinese Communist troops on a hill, Haejung, North Korea 11-27-50.
- A-2572 Men of the 39th F.A. 3rd Inf. Div., dug in on the beach at Hungnam, Korea fire at Chinese Communist 3,000 yards away 12-23-50.
- A-2573 Last element of Co. "B" 7th RCT 3rd Inf.Div., leaves the beaches of Hungnam, Korea during the evacuation of all U.N troops from the area 12-24-50.
- A-2574 Last element of Co."B" 7th RCT 3rd Inf.Div., leaves the beaches of Hungnam, Korea during the evacuation of all U.N. troops from the area 12-24-50.
- A-2576 Men of Co."C" 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Div., return from a mission on the Korea front 2-13-51.
- A-2577 Co."C" 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., assault against the Chinese Communist forces at the fighting front in Korea 3-23-51.
- A-2578 Co."L" 15th RCT 3rd Inf Div., are being presented the combat Inf. Badge, Maj. Clyde H. Baden Jr. CO. 3rd Bn. 15th RCT presents the awards 2-7-51.
- A-2579 Korean volunteers carry equipment for men of Co."C" 15th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., near Uijongbu, Korea 3-23-51.
- A-2485 Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Chief of Staff U.S. Army (front seat) and Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway, C.G. U.S. 8th Army (backseat) pause along roadside to greet Col. William Harris C.O. 65th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div., during their tour of inspection at the Korean fighting front 1-16-51.
- A-2486 Vehicles and equipment of the 65th Inf. Regt. 3rd Inf. Div. are loaded aboard small boats for transport to larger craft waiting in harbor to evacuate them from Hungnam beachhead in Korea 12-22-50.

3rd Inf. Div. Korea Cont.

- A-2487 Men of the 15th Inf. Regt. U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., prepare to supply covering fire while others move forward 1-27-51.
- A-2488 Four U.S. M-4 tanks of the 65th Inf. Regt. U.S. 3rd Inf. Div., submit orders to move up and rout out the rear guard, Communist defenders entrenched in a small village 1-27-51.
- A-2489 L to R Capt. Danials and Col. James O. Boswill C.O. 7th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., and Maj. Gen. Robert H. Soule C.G. 3rd Inf. Div. 2-11-51.
- A-2491 Lt. Gen. M.B. Ridgeway, C.G. U.S. 8th Army left, Gen. J.L. Collins, Chief of Staff U.S. Army and Maj. Gen. F.W. Milburn, C.G. I Corps hold a conference at 65th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., Headquarters in Korea during tour of inspection to the fighting front by Gen. Collins 1-16-51.
- A-2492 The 7th Regt. combat team of U.S. 3rd Div., Area Sinpoun-ni, Korea 1-5-51.
- A-2527 Men of 65th RCT 3rd Inf. Div., crowd the deck of the USN Marine Lynx in Panama Canal, enroute to Korea 8-29-50.

4TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

LIBERATION OF PARIS, FRANCE-US ARMY

- A-799 American tanks roll down the Champs Elysees on their way to the front after the liberation of Paris Aug. 25, 1944. Cheer-ing Parisians line the boulevard leading from the Arc de Triomphe.
- A-800 An American armored car rumbles past the Stars and Stripes as US forces roll through the streets of Paris to the front, 8/25/44.
- A-801 An armored vehicle loaded with battle-clad Allied soldiers rumbles through a Paris street in search of scattered units of German troops during the liberation of Paris, 8/25/44.
- A-802 French children and adults stretch out their hands to welcome as American soldiers enter Paris, August 25, 1944.
- A-803 Parisians line the streets, cheering and waving flags, as liberating units of the Second French Armored Division under General Jacques Philippe Leclerc roll into the French capital, August 25, 1944.
- A-804 Wacs line up on the Champs Elysees in Paris during parade that preceded ceremonies of the Paris committee of liberation, Sept 9, 1944.
- A-805 U.S. troops mass before the Colosseum, the "Cleopatra's needle" brought by Napoleon from Egypt to Paris, during their march through the French capital on their way to the front, Aug. 25, 1944.
- A-806 American soldiers in front of Cleopatra's Needle, Paris, 8/25/44.
- A-807 On many street corners, American soldiers of the 4th U.S. Inf. Div. found hastily constructed barricades where French partisans had fought against the Nazis and collaborators in Paris.
- A-808 American troops march through Paris on the heels of retreating Nazi forces, following the liberation of Paris, 8/25/44.
- A-809 Same caption as photo A-808 different view.
- A-810 American soldiers marching through Paris following its liberation, stop in front of Cleopatra's Needle before continuing through the city, 8/25/44.
- A-811 American troops and medical men salute as they pass the reviewing stand during the celebrations in Paris, 8/25/44.

5TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2618 A sign acts as a reminder to the 10th Inf Regt crossing a Bailey bridge over the Sauer River into Germany, Wellerbach, Luxembourg, 2/19/45.

5th Inf Div. WWII Cont.

- A-2619 Inf-men and tanks pass through Castell-aun, Germany, 737 tank Bn. 5th Inf Div US 3rd Army, 3/16/45.
- A-2620 Inf. Men of the 11th Inf Regt cut out trees which were felled by the retreating Germans to delay the US 3rd Army, 3/18/45.
- A-2621 Near Bollenadorf, Germany men of Co B 91st Chem Bn operate a 4.2 mortar to cover the troops of the 5th Div crossing the Sauer River, 2/8/45.
- A-2622 Men of the 10th Inf Regt seek refuge behind the stone masonry of a fence from the 20mm gun fire of the unseen Germans, Feb 19, 1945.
- A-2624 Infantrymen of the 11th Regt march across rough ground enroute to Winterbach, Germany to clean out German soldiers cut off from their units in retreat, 3/18/45.
- A-2625 Members of Baker Co. with tank support, move up through the woods outside Neuheim, en route to Schwanheim, Germany, Feb 1945.
- A-2626 Inf-men of the 737th tank Bn Co K 2nd Inf. Regt march thru a road of the newly taken town of Grevenstein, Germany en route to attack a nearby hill which the Germans are using as an observation post, 4/11/45.
- A-2627 A halftrack moving thru two columns of Infantry of the 2nd Inf. Regt 3rd Bn along a mountain road en route to Grevenstein, Germany in the Ruhr pocket, 2/11/45.
- A-2628 The drivers of the 5th Quartermaster Co. 5th Inf Div stand by their trucks just before they are ready to move out from Clough, County Down, N. Ireland, 3/8/44.
- A-2629 The 21st field Art. Bn 5th Inf Div maintain Art. post at Mt Panetru, County Down, N. Ireland, 3/10/44.
- A-2630 The 40th Field Art. Bn Camp area of the 5th Inf Div is located at Mourne Park near Kilkeel, County Down, N. Ireland, 3/13/44.
- A-2631 Men of the 48th Field Art. Bn. clean and work on their field pieces at the camp in Mourne near Kilkeel County, Down N. Ireland, 3/13/44.
- A-2632 Men of the 5th Inf Div artillery participate in a demonstration of Inf. and Engineers landing near Annalane County Down, N. Ireland, 3/23/44.
- A-2633 Gen G S Patton Co of the 3rd Army speaks to the men of the 10th Inf Regt after they completed an assault demonstration, near Kil Keel, County Down, N. Ireland, 3/30/44.
- A-2634 Lt Gen G S Patton CO of the 3rd Army inspects the 816th Tank Destroyer Bn attached to the 5th Inf Div under his command in Greencastle, County Down, N Ireland, 3/30/44.
- A-2635 Men of the 11th Inf Regt 5th Inf Div enter Chartres, France after driving the Nazis from the town, 8/19/44.
- A-2636 An American ambulance burns just after it had been strafed by a German plane near Gouderange, Luxembourg. 5th Med. Bn 5th Inf. Div. 12/25/44.
- A-2637 Artillery crew of the 46th F.A. Bn took up various positions at a forward observation post at Westdown fields, Tidworth Wills, England, 10/2/43.
- A-2638 Artillery crew of the 50th F.A. Bn rushes to prepare a 105mm howitzer for firing position while on maneuvers at Westdown fields Tidworth Wills, England, 10/2/43.
- A-2639 Gunners of Battery A 19th F.A. Bn near Haller. Luxembourg are in position with shells ready for rapid firing of a 105mm howitzer somewhere in Belgium, 1/12/45.
- A-2640 Soldiers of the 1st Bn Co G 11th Inf Regt moves into position in the line near Gallingier Luxembourg on the US 3rd front, 1/22/45.
- A-2641 Men of the 11th Inf Regt prepare to board trucks which will carry them to the Rhine River where they will continue attacks on the Germans, 3/7/45.

- A-2642 Men of the Hq. Co 2nd Bn 11th Inf Regt and vehicles move along the Moselle Bank opposite, Maden, Germany as they advance on Lutz, 3/15/45.
- A-2643 Men of the 11th Inf Regt move thru a road near Winterburg, Germany, 3/19/45.

6TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2644 Infantrymen of Co. I, 20th Inf. 6th Div., have reached the top of a hill on the Kobayashi Line, Luzon, P.I. 3/14/45.
- A-2655 Members of Co. "A", 63rd Regt, 6th Div., advance thru the jungle, 8/44.
- A-2646 A group of Formosan laborers, captured by U.S. troops of Co. "A", 1st Bn. 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div., 8/2/44.
- A-2647 During invasion of Sanapor, Dutch, New Guinea, men of the 3rd Bn., 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div., disembark from a Higgins boat, 7/31/44.
- A-2648 Along side of the beach men of Co. "K" 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div., are on the lookout for the enemy, 7/31/44.
- A-2649 Riflemen of Co. "I", 20th Inf 6th Div. are advancing towards the side of a hill on the Kobayashi line near Manila, Luzon P.I. 4-4-45.
- A-2650 Men of the 6th Inf. Div in the Cagayan Valley, Luzon, P.I. 6-21-45.
- A-2651 9 miles north of Bugabag in the Cagayan Valley, Luzon, P.I. Men of Co. "A" 1st Bn. of the 63rd Regt. 6th Div., are climbing up the side of a steep hill to relieve an outpost on the top 7-4-45.
- A-2652 Mortar fire is laid in to cover the advance of Co. I, 20th Inf. 6th Div., up the side of a hill on Kobayashi line near, Manila, Luzon 3-14-45.
- A-2653 Men of 20th Inf. Regt. attend an open air first aid class in the 6th Div. area, Seoul, Korea 1947.
- A-2654 Orientation meeting of all officers at Sanspor, D.N. Guinea 12-7-44.
- A-2655 Gen George C. Marshall U.S. Army Chief of Staff inspecting U.S. troops Hawaii 12-20-43.
- A-2656 Major Gen Orlando Ward. C.G. 6th Div. wearing garrison cap, inspecting the troops of the 2nd Bn. 1st Inf. Regt. assembled on the 2nd Bn. parade ground, Pusan, Korea 8-25-48.
- A2657 Brigadier Gen Julius Ochadler, USA Assistant Div. Com. 6th Div. 1941.
- A-2658 Tanks advance in smoke screen, soldiers of the 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div. advance in the Cabaruan Hills. Luzon Island, after throwing several smoke grenades ahead.
- A-2659 Reinforcements of Co F, 20th Inf. Regt. 6th Div., come to relieve troops engaged in an attack on Japanese held positions on hill # 225 adjacent to Maffin airstrip, Wakde Island, New Guinea 6-22-44.
- A-2660 Men of 3rd Bn. 1st Inf. Regt 6th Div., approach jetty at Sanspor New Guinea, on Higgins boat. 7-31-44.
- A-2661 U.S. Army and Navy personnel keep watch on conning tower of LST headed for invasion of Sanspor. New Guinea, as troops on deck relax in various ways 7-30-44.
- A-2662 Aboard the PC 1122 enroute to Sanspor, Dutch New Guinea, troops prepare for attack from air and surface vessels, sailors man the gun 7-29-44.
- A-2663 Anticipating an attack from air and sea, sailors stationed at General quarters aboard the PC 1122, man the guns. Enroute to Sanspor, Dutch New Guinea 7-29-44.
- A-2664 Patrol of 1st Platoon Co. "L" 3rd Bn. 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div. Moves west along the beach from Sanspor Village, Dutch, New Guinea.

- A-2665 Members of Co "A" 63rd Regt. 6th Div. Advance through the jungle with an amphibious tank of the 6th Caval Reconnaissance Co. Middelburg Island, Dutch New Guinea 8-44.
- A-2666 Members of the 863rd Eng. Aviation Bn. land their first bulldozers on Middelburg Island, Dutch New Guinea, to clear the jungle for an airstrip 8-44.
- A-2667 A patrol of Co "L" 1st Inf. Regt. 6th Div on lookout at river entrance, about 2500 yards southwest of perimeter at Sanspor, Dutch New Guinea 8-1-44.
- A-2668 Infantrymen of Co. L, 20th Inf. 6th Div., have reached the top of a hill on the Kobayashi line near Manila, Luzon, P.I. and sight guns on potential enemy 3-14-45.
- A-2670 The Shimba line in Seirre Madre Range, Japanese have dug in east of Manila, is now held by Co. "B" 82nd Chemical Mortar Bn. with the 63rd Inf. Regt. of the 6th Div. near San Mateo, showing ideal mortar position held by Co "B" 4-26-45.
- A-2671 Members of the 4th Bn. 1st Inf. 6th Inf. Div., receive orientation at viet Cong training village.
- A-2672 Lt. Robert Schibelski Platoon leader 4th Bn. 1st Inf. 6th Inf. Div. receives final instruction.
- A-2673 U.S. Infantrymen of the 1st Regt. 6th Div., unload from LCI-62 on Red Beach, near Cape Opmarai, Dutch New Guinea 7-30-44.

7TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2699 Colored troops of the 828th, Amphib. Unit 7th Div., move to the front lines near Julita, Leyte Island, P.I. 10-28-44.
- A-2700 GI's of Co. "K" 2nd Platoon, 184th Inf. 7th Div., wade across the Marabay River Leyte Islands, P.I. 10-44.
- A-2701 2 members of the 7th Div. 49th F.A. firing 105's on Japanese positions from the town of Julita, Leyte, P.I. 10-24-44.
- A-2702 Troops of the 7th Div., move up toward San Pablo, Leyte, P.I. while natives move back from the front with their belongings 10-24-44.
- A-2703 U.S. troops of the 7th Inf. Div., set up a machine gun positions on Kwajalein, Atoll 1-31-44.
- A-2704 Leaving blazing Jap installations behind them U.S. troops advance inland on Kwajalein, Atoll. They are members of the 7th Inf. Div., 1-31-44.
- A-2705 Maj. Gen Charles H. Corlett (center) and the other officers of the 7th Inf. Div. Examine the remains of shattered Jap defenses in the Kwajalein, Atoll. Gen Corlett is Commander of the 7th Inf. Div. 1-31-44.
- A-2706 This is a copy of a Japanese, propaganda leaflet found by troops of the 7th Inf. Div., on Okinawa, 4-23-45, 10 days after the death of Pres Roosevelt.
- A-2707 Cleaning out Jap's on Okinawa, men of Co. "C" 17th Inf. Regt. 7th Div., fire into a cave on the side of an embankment 6-25-45.
- A-2708 U.S. soldiers watch a Sherman Tank flame thrower in action against a Jap cave atop Hill 95 in Okinawa, 32nd Regt. 7th Div.
- A-2709 A flame throwing tank engulfs the entrance of a Jap cave, 711th Tank Bn. attached to 7th Div.
- A-2710 This is a view of the 7th Div., cemetery and chapel on Okinawa, 8-8-45.
- A-2711 Lt. Gen. Simon Boliver Buckner, salutes the Okinawa dead at the 7th Div. cemetery, 5-30-45.
- A-2712 Korean civilians watch troops of the 17th Inf. 7th Div. as they march through the street of Jinsen, 9-9-45.
- A-2713 Attempting to drive strongly entrenched Japs into the open a 7th Div. anti tank gun crew fires it's 37mm weapon point blank at a pillbox on shell-torn Kwajalein Island, 2-1-44.
- A-2714 Liberation of Korea by U.S. Army troops of the 7th Inf. Div., in the 9-10-45.

7TH INFANTRY DIV.

ATTU, ALASKA

ATTU - ALEUTIAN ISLANDS- ALASKA

- B-24126A Soon as the landing was made a battery of 105mm howltzers was located just above the beach. This photo shows the firing of one of these guns, May 12, 1943.
- B-24126B Japanese soldiers killed during the battle for Holtz Bay, Attu, 5/19/43.
- B-24127A A Japanese Lelut, killed when he was about to throw a hand grenade (held in his left hand) during the fighting for Holtz Bay, May 15, 1943.
- B-24127B US Troops digging fox holes near the beach during the first couple of days of the battle. This photo shows men eating a meal at the shore party C P, Massacre Bay, Attu, May 12, 1943.
- B-24128A On top of the ridge between the East and West Arms of Holtz Bay were found two Japanese 3-Inch howltzers. These guns overlooked both arms of the bay and were one of the objectives our troops had to eliminate before entering the east arm. This photo shows a front and side view of the guns, 5/19/43.
- B-24128B Closeup photo of Japanese 3-Inch howltzer shells. Holtz Bay, Attu, 5/19/43.
- B-24129 Bodies of five American soldiers who were killed in the battle of Holtz Bay. They have just been evacuated from the front and are to be buried shortly, Attu, May 13, 1943.
- B-24129A Dead Japanese soldiers killed during the battle for Holtz Bay, 5/15/43.
- B-24129B American 81mm mortars firing from high ground overlooking Holtz Bay, May 20, 1943.
- B-24130 A tractor load of life preservers picked up by the navy from along the beach area discarded by troops making the landing, May 16, 1943.
- B-24130A Hospital tents set up on Red Beach, Holtz Bay, Attu, May 12, 1943.
- B-24130B American soldiers dig a tractor out of the Aleutian mud, Attu, 5/12/43.
- B-24131 105mm howltzers set up 200 yards from the beach on Attu in early days of fighting, 5/16/43.
- B-24131A Loading camouflage into a trailer to be transported to the front, Massacre Bay, Attu, May 16, 1943.
- B-24131B Loading a trailer with cans of water to be taken to the front, Attu, 5/15/43.
- B-24132 Soldiers line up for a hot meal before heading up to the front, 5/17/43.
- B-24126 LST-451 unloading tractor-trailers on Attu Island, 9/24/43.
- B-24127 Different view of LST-451 unloading tractor trailers on Attu Is., 9/24/43.
- N-24128 Captured Japanese photo shows Japanese naval aviators on Attu Is., 1943.

7TH INFANTRY DIVISION
KOREA

- A-2675 Men of the 32nd Inf. Regt 7th Inf. Div., carrying wounded men of the 32nd Inf., 4-23-51.
- A-2676 Lt. Gen. James A Van Fleet, C.G. 8th Army, stands in his jeep during an inspection tour of the 17th Inf. Regt. 7th Inf. Div., at the Regimental Com. Post in Korea, 4-20-51.
- A-2677 Men of the 7th Inf. Div., fire their .50 caliber quad-mounted machine guns at a chinese communist held hill, as they continue the assault against the communist forces 4-24-51.

7TH INF. DIV. KOREA CONT.

- A-2678 Men of Co. "I", 17th Regt, 7th Inf. Div., open fire on Chinese communists fleeing an extensive barrage of shells on top of a hill 4-5-51.
- A-2679 Members of Co. B, 17th Inf. Regt, 7th Inf. Div., on a road march at Camp Fuji, Japan, 8-18-50.
- A-2680 2nd Lt. Edward F. Bainforth of the 7th Inf. Div. check for I.D. of soldiers killed in action, to notify next of kin, 11-17-50.
- A-2681 Men of the 32nd Inf. Regt, 7th Div., advance through a Korean village, 6 miles southeast of, Inchon, Korea, 9-18-50.
- A-2682 Men of the 32nd Inf. Regt., 7th Div., debark from a LST, in Korea, 9-16-50.
- A-2683 Maj. Gen. David G. Barr C.G., 7th Inf. Div., left center, and Maj. G. Edward M. Almond, C.G. X corps, discuss a map. Looking on is 1st Lt. Robert W. Porter, of Chicago, Ill.
- A-2684 Men of the 7th Signal Co., 7th Inf. Div., on the march across rice paddies to a new command post, 10 miles east of Inchon, Korea 9-19-50.
- A-2685 Major Gen. David G. Barr, C.G. 7th Inf. Div. on hill 233, near Seoul, looks at a village burning in the background, 9-27-50.
- A-2686 Men of the 17th Regt, 7th Div. assemble on the beach at Iwon, Korea, while their vehicles and equipment are unloaded from a LST, 10-28-50.
- A-2687 Elements of the 2nd Bn., 17th Inf. Regt. 7th Div., arrive in the town of Pungsan, Korea, 11-1-50.
- A-2688 Men of 92nd F.A. Bn. Battery "C" 7th Div., fire the # 1, 155mm self propelled gun at the communist targets, near Pukchong, Korea 11-6-50.
- A-2689 Men of Battery A, 92nd F.A., prepare to put their 155mm self propelled howitzers into action north of Huhngnam, Korea, in support of the 32nd Inf. Regt. 7th Div., 12-2-50.
- A-2690 Riflemen of the 7th Div., board LCVP's evacuating, Hungnam, Korea, 12-14-50.
- A-2691 C.G. of Co "A" 32nd RCT, 7th Div., consults a map and uses his radio during fighting in the streets of Seoul, Korea, 9-25-50.
- A-2692 Brig. Gen. Henry I. Hodges, Assistant C.G. 7th Inf. Div., (in jeep) confers with C. Polley, Exec. Officer, 17th Inf. Regt. 7th Inf. Div., in west Seoul, Korea, 9-28-50.
- A-2693 Troops of Heavy Mortars Co. 32nd Regt. 7th Div., Punggi, and Tanyang, Korea, 1-8-51.
- A-2694 Tanks of the 31st Inf. Regt. 7th Div. ford a stream somewhere in Korea. In a drive to bolster embattled foot troops, 1-6-51.
- A-2695 Gun crew of Battery "A" 48th F.A. Bn. 7th Inf. Div. Tanyang, Korea, 1-16-51.
- A-2696 Men of the 7th Div., U.S. Army, set up a radio in a bomb crater next to Red Beach, # 1, Kwajalein Island for inter-island communication and to report direction of artillery fire, 2-1-44.
- A-2697 LSTS unload supplies for the 7th Div., troops, stationed at Kwajalein Island, 2-1-44.
- A-2698 Men of the 32nd Regt. 7th Inf. Div., U.S. Army, advances to hill # 115, against only moderate resistance, Okinawa, 6-16-45.

8TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2720 Inf. Patrol Co. "L" 13th Regt. 8th Inf. Div., flushing snipers in Duren, Germany 2-24-45.
- A-2721 28th Inf. 8th Inf. Div., pass through French town on the way to Avaranches, France 7-31-44.
- A-2722 Armour of the 3rd Battery 121st Regt. 8th Inf. Div., line the quiet streets of Bergerhausen, Germany 2-28-45.
- A-2723 8th Inf. Div., men advance through the streets of Blankenburg, Germany 4-21-45.

8th INF. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-2724 Tank destroyer moves through the town of Binfield, Germany 28th Regt. "FUSA" 2-26-45.
- A-2725 "Grover's Ghosts" A combat patrol of the 1st Army 121st Inf. Regt. 8th Inf. Div., They captured the German town of Seilsdorf, using Nazi weapons after their own ammunition ran out 3-13-45.
- A-2726 Mine Platoon of the 28th Regt. 8th Inf. Div., sweep road for mines in Stockheim, Germany 2-26-45.
- A-2727 Infantrymen of Co. "A" 1st Bn. 8th Inf. Div., enter the town of Mordinghausen, Germany 4-8-45.
- A-2728 Men of the 28th Inf. Regt. 8th Inf. Div., advance toward Avranches, France 7-31-44.
- A-2729 Tanks roll through Kerpen, Germany in support of the 8th Inf. Div. 3-16-45.
- A-2730 Crew of a 57mm anti tank gun, looks for targets near town of Olpe, Germany 3rd Battery 13th Inf. Regt. 4-10-45.
- A-2731 Troops of the 87th Chemical Mortar, fire on German tanks in support of 121st Regt. 8th Inf. Div. 2-28-45.
- A-2732 8th Div. Infantrymen at Clerveaux, France, stop for rest after being in front lines for a month 10-22-44.
- A-2733 Infantrymen of 13th Regt. 8th Inf. Div., riding Tank Destroyer of the 644th T.D. Battery, advance near Olpe, Germany to clean out Ruhr pocket 4-11-45.
- A-2734 Men of Co. "M", 13th Inf. Regt. 8th Inf. Div., first U.S. Army fire 81mm mortar near Voss-Nach 11-30-44.
- A-2735 Co "B" 86th Chemical Bn. 121st Inf. Regt., 8th Inf. Div. 12-7-44.
- A-2736 A U.S. Army m-29 cargo carrier (Weasel) pulls a mud bound jeep out of the mire, 4 miles S.W. of Zweifall, Germany 11-22-44.
- A-2737 U.S. tanks somewhere in Germany, take shelter behind buildings which were previously damaged by their shell fire. 709th Tank Bn., 8th Inf. Div. Corps "FUSA" Kilewau, Germany 12-18-44.
- A-2738 This Nazi "Supervagon", believed to have been rocket propelled was captured on the outskirts of Drolshagen, Germany, by the 8th Div. Infantrymen. It carried a crew of 9 men and 8 projectiles, each weighing about 500 lbs U.S. 1st Army 4-11-45.
- A-2739 This is a pile of discarded ammunition boxes and shell cases indicates the barrage that is being maintained against Hurtgen, Germany by the 43rd F.A. 8th Inf. Div. 11-17-44.
- A-2740 Members of 1st Patrol of 8th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army, pass a tank destroyer on street of battle, scarred Duren, Germany as they enter the heart of the city, 2-24-45.
- A-2741 Infantrymen of the 8th Div., U.S. 1st Army, awaits orders to clear out a building in Duren, Germany Co. "L" 13th Regt. 2-24-45.
- A-2742 Machine gunners of the 8th Div., U.S. 1st Army, advance through Binfield, Germany, in a new push on German positions, Co. "D" 1st Bn. Regt. 2-26-45.
- A-2743 Infantrymen of Co. "B" 13th Inf. Regt. 8th Inf. Div. U.S. 1st Army, move along the road outside Wergeberg, Germany 4-13-45.

9TH INFANTRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2749 Infantrymen and tanks of the 60th Inf. Regt, 9th Div. U.S. 1st Army 746 Tank Bn., wait on the road near Path, Germany for orders to advance to front lines 2/27/45.
- A-2750 Infantrymen of the 60th Regt, 94th Div., U.S. 1st Army move up to Durkarn, before going on to attack Schneppenheim, Germany 3/5/45.
- A-2751 Men of Co "H" 3rd Bn, 60th Regt 9th Div., mortar crew, 1st U.S. Army lays down a barrage across the Roer River at Berstien, Germany, 2/23/45.

9th Inf. Div. WWII

- A-2752 Infantrymen of the 47th Regt, 9th U.S. Inf. Div., move thru the Newleif captured town of Destwig Germany, 4/9/45.
- A-2753 Gun crew and their 40mm anti-aircraft gun of the 376th AA Bn. 9th Inf. Div. 1st U.S. Army, Remagan, Germany, 3/16/45.
- A-2760 American tanks support Infantrymen in advance on a German town, previously softened up by allied fire. Despite the air-ground bombardment stiff resistance was encountered, cross Selgfried line, 11/25/44.
- A-2762 Infantrymen of the 47th Inf. Regt, 9th Inf. Div. hug the shelter of an embankment as they await the signal to advance near Huchelm, Germany 11/25/44.
- A-2763 Yanks of the 9th Inf. Div., advance into a Belgian town under the protection of a heavy tank, 60th Regt., Co "I" 3rd Bn. 9/9/44.
- A-2779 Members of a mortar section crouch in a hole waiting for the blast of a demolition shell to subside, 5/12/44.
- A-2780 American GI's with German refugees, Knoll, Germany, 3/16/45.
- A-2765 9th Div. Inf. occupying high ground over looking the Urft River, near Morsback, Germany. They fire at a Nazi attempting to retreat across the river in the face of the US advance, Co "U", 3rd Bn. 39th Regt., fusa
- A-2766 Members of the 6th Bn. 31st Inf. come ashore from an assault landing craft as the 9th Inf. Div., mobile Riverine Force begins a reconnaissance in the Mekong Delta, 1968.
- A-2769 Uniformed students parade at the Hitler youth training camp for the Nazi party leader, Ordensberg-Vogelsang, on the Urftstausse Lake, Germany, this photo was seized by the 9th Inf. Div. after capturing the German school., 2/7/45.
- A-2770 Hermann Goring. (wearing dagger) Supreme Marshal of the German Luftwaffe and Nazi party leader shown with a group of Nazi officials at the Hitler youth training camp on the Urftstausse Lake, Germany, 2/7/45.
- A-2774 Hermann Goring stands amid a flurry of activity on the patio at the Thenuzi SS training center, Ordensburg-Vogelsang, Germany, 2/7/45.
- A-2776 Yank Infantrymen afoot and riding the back of a bulldozer tank, passes easily thru a break in Siegfried Line, Germany's much vaunted impregnable Defense Line. This scene is near Rottgen, Germany, 39th Inf. 9th Div 3rd Arm'd Div., 9/15/44.
- A-2777 Men of the U.S. 1st Army wait in the wrecked town of Nidegger, Germany, for orders to move on. The sign reads "The enemy remains the enemy", Co "E" 2nd Bn. 9th Div. 60th Regt., 2/28/45.
- A-2778 Troops of the 29th Regt 9th Inf. Div. U.S. 1st Army march along a street in Remagan, Germany across the street is the Rhine River., 3/9/45.
- A-2781 Troops of the 3rd Bn 39th Regt. move past a house with white surrender flag, Fleizheim, Germany, 3/8/45.
- A-2782 Mortar platoon of Co "B" 1st Bn 60th Inf. Regt open up with their 60mm mortar on the edge of Dreilborn, Germany, 2/3/45.

9th Inf. Div WWII Cont

- A-2783 Maj Gen Louis A Craig CG of 9th Inf Div greets Russian Maj Gen Schonov CG of Russian 118th Div. at Pratau, Germany.
- A-2784 A soldier of Co "E" 2nd Bn. 39th Regt. peers through a hedge as his Co advances toward a pill box along the Selgried line, 9/20/44.
- A-2785 Men of the 1st Bn 60th Regt. lie in a roadside ditch seeking shelter from Nazi fire, awaiting orders to advance on the town of Obergeich, Germany, 12/10/44.
- A-2786 Snow capped Infantrymen of the 60th Inf. Regt. move to Words Dedenborn, Germany, as Nazis retreat during heavy fighting on this sector, 2/2/45.
- A-2787 Infantrymen of the 1st Bn 60th Inf. Regt. advance through the town of Dreiborn, Germany during the drive that netted the town, 2/3/45.

9TH INFANTRY DIVISION
VIETNAM

- A-2754 Men of the 2nd Bn. 60th Inf. 9th Div. Fort Riley, depart from the Manhattan airport in Kansas 11/30/66
- A-2756 A soldier of the 47th Inf. 9th Inf. Div leads his unit across a steam in Long An Province 7/67.
- A-2757 A soldier of the 3rd Bn. 60th Inf. 9th Inf. Div. crosses on a log.
- A-2758 Crew of Co "B" 2nd Bn. 47th Inf. 9th Inf. Div fire on North Vietnamese army position while in close contact south of the "F" bridge 5/11/68.
- A-2759 Members of Co "B" 2nd Bn. 47th Inf. 9th Inf. Div. fires his 50 cal. machine gun from an M-113 armored personnel carrier at North Vietnamese army positions south of the "F" bridge 5/11/68.
- A-2761 Members of the 6th Bn. 31st Inf. prepare to assault VC position in truline. Took place during mobile Riverine force reconnaissance force.
- A-2764 Members of troop "A" 3rd Sqdn. 5th cav, 9th Inf. Div, roll off a troop landing ship on their armored personnel carrier, LST 546, De Nang, Vietnam
- A-2766 Members of the 6th Bn. 31st Inf. come ashore from an assault landing craft as the 9th Inf. Div's mobile riverine force begins a reconnaissance in the Mekong Delta, 1968.
- A-2767 Members of Co "B" 2nd Bn. 47th Inf. 9th Inf. Div. fire on north Vietnamese army positions while in close contact south of the "Y" bridge, 5/11/68
- A-2768 Members of Co "B" 2nd Bn. 47th Inf 9th Inf Div., take cover behind a M-113 armored personnel carrier while in close contact with the enemy south of the "Y" bridge, 5/11/68.
- A-2771 Crew of the Co "B", 2nd Bn. 47th Inf 9th Inf. Div. fires his M-60 machine gun on north Vietnamese army positions south of the "Y" bridge.
- A-2772 Members of the 3rd Bn. 60th Inf 9th Inf. Div. commanded by Lt. Col. Peter B Peterson, stand in formation upon the arrival at McChord AFB from Vietnam, 7/8/69.
- A-2773 An M-60 machine gun team of Co "B", 2nd Bn. 47th Inf. 9th Inf. Div. fires on the VC army position south of the "Y" bridge 5/11/68.
- A-2775 Men of the 9th Inf. Div. conduct a house to house check in My-Thu capital of Dinh Tuong Province in the Mekong Delta, 1968.

9th Inf. Div Vietnam Cont.

- A-2768 Troop "A" 3rd sqdn 5th Cav, 9th Div, wait for the order to move out. The 9th Inf. Div. under operational control of the 3rd Marine Div. is now operating near the DMZ, 1968.
- A-2755 Bogged down in glue like mud near Tan An, this 9th Inf Div., machine gunner hand his weapon to a radio tele-operator. The men from the 5th Bn. 60th Inf. were conducting a search and destroy operation.

10TH MOUNTAIN DIV.
5TH ARMY WWII

- A-1032B Infantryman of Co. I 3rd Bn. 10th M.D., ride on a truck to advance to a more forward position, Castel D'Piavo, Italy 4-17-45.
- A-1033 Men of the 126th Mt. Eng., including the men driving the tank destroyers of the 701st T.D. Comm'd., wait to progress the 300 yards into Tole, Italy. The road in the area is under observation by the Germans., 4-16-45.
- A-1033A American Inf. of Co. K 87th Mt. Inf. 10th M.D., dig in on a ridge commanding the Parrettar-Moderna Highway, North of Sassomolare, Italy, as they protect the left flank of the main column moving up the road a few hundred yards below them 3-4-45.
- A-1033B American Inf. of Co. K, 87th Mt. Inf., 10th M.D., having occupied a ridge commanding the Parrettar-Moderna Highway find it necessary to hold another house about 100 yards down the ravine slope as protection for their left flank, a rifleman with fixed bayonet keeps the window of the house covered, while a mop up squad move across open ground toward the building, Sassomolare, Italy 3-4-45.
- A1034 U.S. rifleman of Co. F 87th Mt. Inf., 10th M.D. cautiously advance up a German held hill, north of Sassomolare, Italy. There were 5 Germans 100 ft beyond the house 3-4-45.
- A-1034A Co. D of 85th Mt. Inf., 10th M.D. winds its way up the face of Mt. Belvedere carrying heavy mortars and ammunition to throw against the resisting enemy who the night before was forced Mt. Belvedere, which commanded route 6 one of the main approaches to Bologna. 2-21-45.
- A-1034B A casualty is evacuated by a trammy, arrives at the end of its 4 minutes journey. This was built by Co. D 120th Mt. Eng. and saved 3 to 4 hours by litter, 2-21-45. Farne Area, Italy.
- A-1035 Americans of the 616th F.A. Pack Bn, 10th M.D. Venicinetta Area, Italy prepares to load an 75mm Howitzer. 2-18-45.
- A-1035A Brig. Gen. D. L. Reiffner, Co. O. Artillery section, talks with Second Lt. James Harry, platoon leader of the 3rd platoon, Co. A 701st T.D. Bn. Artillery Co. A's aid station near the top of Mt. Belvedere, Italy 2-20-45.
- A-1035B Battery A fires its 105mm howitzer, mounted on a full tracked gun carriage, into a German convoy advancing on the other side of lake Grada, near Gargnano, Italy 1125th F.A. Bn., 4-25-45.

10th Mountain Div. Cont

- A-1036 Stringing communication wire lines- men follow close behind the Inf. as it advances into the valley below, in the Carnidello Area, Italy 110th Signal Co., 4-16-45.
- A-1036A 200 German prisoners captured by Co. B, 87th Regt., are marched to the rear area, in Tole, Italy., 4-45.
- A-1036B A typical scene of activity on the slope of a mountain in Italy, taken by hard hitting units of the 10th M.D., an aid station has been set up in a small tent and tired litter bearers await calls to firing line to bring in the wounded, in the background: a column of Infantrymen wind up the slopes to bolster troops pushing a head, 2-21-45.
- A-1037 Engineers rest in the rear of a tank destroyer which offers them protection from sniper fire up the road, during the assault by the 10th M.D. 3-3-45.
- A-1037A Men of the 1st Bn. 86th Regt. on routine snow shoe patrol in the heavy snows on the 5th army front in Italy, 1-17-45
- A-1037B Patrol of Co. B 86th Regt. pause to put on their snow-shoes in Italy., 1-10-45.
- A-1038B Preparing to fire a captured German 81mm mortar are men of the heavy weapons Co. 3rd Bn. 85th Regt., Culigliano Area, Italy, 1-31-45.
- A-1039 Members of the Service Co. 87th Mount Inf. carrying supplies off the beach on the north side of the Po River, 4-24-45.
- A-1042 The 87th Mt. Inf. Regt. 10th Mt. Div., adds another village to the score of Carona Section, crest of Mt. Belvedere in Italy 1-28-45.
- A-2809 During a reconnaissance patrol in the snow covered Apennines in Italy, 2 members of the 10th Mt. Div., take aim with their rifles while still wearing their skies, 2-1945.
- A-2806 Troops of Co. "G" 2nd Bn. 10th Mt. Div., go thru newly liberated Verona to clear it for temporary quarters for the U.S. 5th Army, Verona, Italy 4-26-45.
- A2806 Infantrymen of the 1st Bn., 85th Mt. Inf. 10th Mt. Div., watch A-7 Thunderbolt, bomb and straf enemy positions about 600 hundred yards in front of their own positions, U.S. 5th Army, Mt. Belvedere Area, Italy 1945.
- A-2805 10th M.D. 105mm Btry C 616 F.A. Pack Bn. Relax during firing missions, Cutigliano, Italy 4-16-45.
- A-2804 Bn. "A" 604 F.A. give 75mm Pack howitzer final o.k. 10th M.D., Pisa Area, Italy 1-26-45.
- A-2803 10th M.D., men of Btry B 403rd F.A. on a firing mission, Campidello, Area Italy 4-16-45.
- A-2802 Troops of 85th Inf. Regt. 10th M.D. aboard the Marine Fox, N.Y. Harbor, 1945.
- A-2801 Manning gun of Btry "A" 616th F.A. 10th M.D., during push on Bologna, Italy 4-14-45.
- A-2800 Men of "F" Co. 86th Mt. Regt. 10th Mt. Div., advance on Bologna, Italy 2-14-45.
- A-1040A 10th Mt. Div., artillery at targeting area, using just received last instruction. Men of the 616th F.A. Pack Bn. mount their vehicles and prepare to move out in convoy to the front, Italy 1-26-45.

10th Mountain Div. WWII

- A-1040B To simplify the unloading of duffle bags from their transport ship, all bags are lined against the after deck rail and each man takes one as he files by toward the gang plank as the artillerymen of the 10th M.D. debark, Leghorn, Italy 1-24-45.
- A-1040 Sherman medium tanks of the 751st Tank Bn., in position on the crest of Mt. Belvedere, which was taken by troops of the 10th Mt. Div. after 3 days of bitter fighting. In the background is the Reno Valley and route 64 which leads toward, Bologna 2-23-45.
- A-1041B Soldiers of Co. "F" 87th Regt. 10th Mt. Div., cross the Italian countryside as they move up from the assembly area, while waiting at the line of departure the GI's dig holes in anticipation of the German shelling that is eminent, Italy 4-45.
- A-1030A White clad Mt. troops of the 10th Mt. Div., start the long trek back to camp after another patrol into the Apennines Mt. Italy 3-45.
- A-1030B Troops of the 10th Mt. Div., start their long hike back to their base in the Apennines Mt., Italy 3-45.
- A-1031 Soldiers take aim with their rifles on a ledge in the Apennines Mt. in Italy during a reconnaissance patrol 3-45.
- A-1031A Troops of Co. "G" 2nd Bn. 10th Mt. Div. go through newly liberated Verona to clean it for temporary quarters, Italy 4-26-45.
- A-1031B While making planes to cross the Po River, men of the 85th Regt 10th Mt. Div., use field glasses to survey the bank of the river. They are seated on the So. bank approximately 1 1/2 miles from San Benedetto, at a point where the river is a quarter of a mile wide 4-24-45.
- A-1032 Troops of the 2nd Bn. 86th Mt. Inf. 10th Mt. move down a dusty road into the Po Valley in the Badia Area, Italy 4-19-45.
- A-1032A Members of the 2nd Bn. 85th Mt. Inf. 10th Mt. Div. moves through Badia, Italy 5-3-45.

24TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-2857 Gen. D.D. Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, addresses groups of 24th Div. soldiers informally after calling off review 5-14-46.
- A-2858 Brig. Gen. K.F. Kramer, in glasses, assistant Div. Commander of the 24th Div., with members of his staff, passes through blast debris on a road near Digos, Mindanao P.I. 4-29-45.
- A-2859 U.S. troops of Co. "K", 186th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., Sibuko Bay Area Mindanao, P.I. cross a stream while on a patrol to cut off Japanese forces retreating from Zambanga City, P.I. 5-7-45.
- A-2860 U.S. troops of Co "A" 186th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., march in 2 columns behind a General Sherman M-4 A1 tank on the crest of a ridge north of Molmer airstrip. Biah Island, D.N. Guinea 6-17-44.
- A-2861 U.S. troops of the cannon Co. 34th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., Biah, Island, D.N. Guinea fire the entire Battery of self propelled mounts of M-8's at the Japs near Makmer Airstrip 6-20-44.
- A-2862 Co "L", 34th Inf. Regt. moves up from the rocky beaches at Matenta Hill on Corregidor, 24th Div. 2-24-45.
- A-2863 Co "L" Infantrymen of the 34th Regt., advance at the approaches to the ravine under cover of a tank. The purpose is to clear Malinta Hill of all Japs in caves and tunnels 24th Div. 2-24-45 P.I.

24TH INF. DIV. KOREA

- A-2840 Men of the 24th Inf. Div., open fire on the Chinese resistance, met at this point with machine guns and rifles 3-31-51.
- A-2841 Maj. Gen. John H. Church former C.G. 24th Inf. Div. in Korea, leaving to assume command of the Inf. School at Ft. Benning, Ga 1-31-51.
- A-2842 A rifle platoon of the 5th RCT, 24th Div., gives support to a advance platoon 1-30-51.
- A-2843 Men of the 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., stand by their .50 caliber machine gun on a Korea, mountain side 2-1-51.
- A-2844 Co. "C" 19th Inf. Regt., 24th Inf. Div., move up on M-46 tanks to engage in action against the Communist forces near the Han River in Korea 2-4-51.
- A-2845 Men of Co "H", 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., move a 75mm Recoilless rifle forward to protect the flank of the 2nd Bn. attacking towards the Hans River in Korea 2-5-51.
- A-2846 Co. "K" 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Div., prepare to move up to relieve men of Co. C along the Hans River in Korea 2-6-51.
- A-2847 Men of Co. "G" 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Inf. Div., pour .50 caliber machine gun fire at the Chinese forces dug in on a hillside along the Hans River Korea 2-6-51.
- A-2848 A squad from Co. "K" 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Inf. Div., receive instructions from their squad leader along the Hans River, Korea 2-6-51.
- A-2849 Men of the 1st artillery observation Bn. 24th Inf. Div., who were awarded medals during ceremonies in Korea 2-27-51.
- A-2850 U.S. Inf. troops of the 5th RCT 24th Inf. Div., advance over mountains along the Hans River in Korea 2-19-51.
- A-2851 Soldiers of Co. "B" 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Inf. Div., prepare their C rations around a fire 2-19-51.
- A-2852 Supporting artillery fire, men of the 21st Inf. Regt. plunge across the Nakdong River 9-19-50.
- A-2853 U.S. soldiers attempt to save a burning 3/4 ton radio truck at the headquarters of the 19th Inf. Regt. 24th Inf. Div. Taegu, Korea 9-18-50.
- A-2854 Men of the 19th Regt., 24th Inf. Div., rest after crossing the Nakdong River 9-20-50.
- A-2855 Maj. Gen. F.W. Milburn C.G. Intelligence Corps, Maj. Gen. J.H. Church C.G., 24th Inf. Div. and Captain R.L. Gregory, 24th Inf. Div., view action on Nakdong River front 9-20-50.
- A-2856 Troops of the 19th Inf. Regt., 24th Inf. Div., take a break after crossing the Nakdong River 9-20-50.

25TH INF. DIV WWII

- A-2891 Engineers of the 25th Div. across the Matanila River, Guadalcanal.
- A-2892 Troops of the 25th Div. unload on Arundel Is, Solomon Is., 9/19/43.
- A-2893 Troops of I Co 35th Inf 25th Div. knee deep in surf unload cases of grenades from landing craft, Luzon Is. P. I. 1945.
- A-2894 35th Inf cannon Co. 25th Div carry shells for M-7 tanks, Luzon Is 4/5/45.
- A-2895 Inf. of Co K 3rd Bn 161st Regt. cover a Japanese cave with their rifles after a phosphorus grenade was thrown in the cave, Batele Pass, Luzon, P.I., 4/19/45.
- A-2896 Members of the 161st anti-aircraft gun Bn attached to the 25th Div, 4/8/46.
- A-2897 Ships used to transport the 25th Div. to Luzon P.I. from New Caledonia, 11/24/44.
- A-2883 Members of the 1st Bn 161st Rct 25th

25th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- Div move forward behind a Sherman tank to a hill on a highway, 3/27/45.
- A-2884 The Dirty Dozen, the last remaining members of the original 161st Regt combat team, 25th Inf in San Manuel, Luzon, P. I. 2/8/45.
- A-2885 Gen Wolter Krueger C G US 6th Army on a tour of inspection and Maj. Gen C J Mullins Jr C G 25th Inf Div watch the fighting in Batele Pass, 5/11/45.

25TH INF. DIV KOREA

- A-2898 A rail bridge destroyed by members of the 65th Engineers Bn., 25th Inf. Div., 12-16-50.
- A-2899 A wire team of the 2nd Bn. 24th Inf. Regt., 25th Inf. Div. repairs a wire at Pongdong, Korea, 11-25-50.
- A-2900 Members of the 65th Engineers combat Bn. 25th Inf. Div., prepare to demolish a bridge north of Sairwon, North Korea in an effort to halt the advance of communist troops in that area. Left to right Sgt. Robert D. Jones, Neuburn, N.C. Sgt. Delbert L. Nidy, Charleston, W. Va. and Cpl. Mitsuo Yamamoto, 12-6-50.
- A-2901 Men of the 89th Medium Tank Bn, 25th Inf. Div., prepare a hog for cooking, during a lull in action against the communist led forces, near, Pyongyang, North Korea, 12-4-50.
- A-2902 Tanks of the 79th Heavy Tank Co., 25th Inf. Div., cross the Taedong River south of Pyongyang, Korea, during the retreat of the U.N. forces. M-4 tanks are at the right and in the back ground and a M-46 tank is in the center, 12-3-50.
- A-2903 Brig. Gen. George B. Barth, Artillery Commander 25th Inf. Div., directs operations of artillery near Chinju, Korea, during the offensive drive against the communist led North Korea forces in that area, 9-27-50.
- A-850 A gun truck crosses a temporary bridge built by the 65th Combat Engineers, 25th Inf. Div., in Korea, 9-27-50.
- A-851 Troops of the 65th Eng, 25th Inf. Div., repair bridge on the road to Chinju, during advance against communist-led forces in North Korea, 9-27-50.
- A-852 Troops of the 35th Regt., 25th Inf. Div., move up a hillside as they advance on the way to the city of Chinju, Korea, 9-27-50.
- A-853 Pfc. Allison D. Sherrod of Highlands, N.C. U.S. 8th army photographer, photographs the advances of the troops of the 35th Inf. Regt. 25th Inf. Div., against the No. Korea forces near Chinju, Korea from atop an M-4 tank, 9-27-52.
- A-854 Tanks of the 27th Inf. Regt., 25th Inf. Div., moves into country which has been infiltrated by communist-led No. Korea forces, as the artillery strikes at the No. Korean position on a nearby hill, 9-2-50.
- A-855 Members of the 27th Inf. Regt. 25th Inf. Div., follow a tank toward an area into which the No. Korea have infiltrated, on the Wasan front, 9-2-50.
- A-856 Heavy mortar crew of the 5th Regt. Combat team, 25th Inf. Div., returns communist-led No. Korea fire in the Wasan area, 8-28-50.
- A-857 Crew members of an M-4 tank, attached to the 5th Rct, 25th Inf. Div., prepare to fire at mortar positions of the communist-led No. Korea in Hakdong-ni area 8-23-50.
- A-858 Men of the 5th Regimental Combat team, 25th Inf. Div. ready to be taken to the rear for a rest after 15 days of fighting communist-led No. Korean's 6th Div., 8-28-50.
- A-785 Men of the 5th Rct, 25th Inf. Div., hunt out snipers in a burned out village in the Hakdong-ni area, 8-28-50.
- A-786 A 4.2 mortar crew of the 5th Regimental combat team, 25th Inf. Div., returns communist-led No. Korea fire in Hasan area, 8-27-50.

25th Inf. Div. Korea Cont.

26th Div. WWII Cont.

27th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-787 Pfc. Prentiss Thrower of Bennetsville, S.C. a member of the 27th Inf. Regimental combat team, 25th Inf. Div., uses his .30 cal machine gun in action against the No. Korea forces in the Taegu, Waegwan sector, 8-20-50.
- A-788 Elements of Co. "E" and Co. "I", 35th Inf. Regt., 25th Inf. Div., enter the walled city of Suwon, Korea thru the shattered gates of the city which suffered from the conflict as they continue their drive against the communist forces in that area, 1-25-51.
- A-789 Elements of the 35th Inf. Regt., 25th Inf. Div. patrol, enter the village of Yongdong-po, Korea as U.N. troops continue their offensive drive against the Chinese communist forces in that area, 2-9-51.
- A-849 Vehicles of the 25th Signal Co., 25th Inf. Div., start to Korea aboard LST-530, 7-13-50.
- A-848 Equipmt of the 25th Signal Co., being loaded on LST-530 for shipment to Korea, 7-13-50.
- A-2868 M-4 tanks of Co. "C" 89th tank Bn. Co. "C" stand by for fire mission in Korea, 2-3-51.
- A-2869 Co. "D" 35th Inf. Regt mortar squad fire at Chinese forces, 1-28-51.
- A-2870 Korean civilians killed by north Koreans lay in road while tanks of the 89th Bn. 25th Div., are on the alert, 2-4-51.
- A-2871 Troops of Co. "A" 27th Inf. Regt. 25th Div., take a break after taking a village, 2-5-51.
- A-2872 Co. "A" 27th Inf. Regt. 25th Inf. Div., move down road north of Suwon, Korea, 2-5-51.
- A-2873 25th Inf. Div., cemetery in Mason, Korea, 8-18-50.
- A-2874 Gen. J Collins Chief of Staff and Lt. Gen. W H Walker Omdr. of ground forces in Korea visit with Gen. Wm D. Keen, C G 25th Div., 8-24-50.
- A-2875 A 155mm howitzer gun crew of the 25th Inf. Div., fires on north Koreans near Uirson, 8-24-50.
- A-2880 Troops of the 35th Regt advance on city of Chinnju, Korea, 9-27-50.
- A-2882 Men of 89th Med Tank Bn. 25th Inf. Div., prepare to cook a hog near Pyongyang, north Korea, 12-4-50.
- A-2886 Men of the 25th Div., Battery "B" and equipt wait to board LST at Sasebo, Japan for Korea, 7-13-50.
- A-2887 The 25th Signal Co. of the 25th Inf. Div., forms a convoy in preparation for embarking for Korea, 7-13-50.
- A-2888 Equipmt. of the 25th Signal Co. being loaded on LST-530 for shipment to Korea, 7-13-50.
- A-2889 Men of the 25th Div., move up to the firing line in Korea, 7-18-50.
- A-2890 An 81mm mortar crew of the 25th Inf. Div., fires on north Korean troops entrenched in the city of Yongdok, 7-24-50.

26TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-2915 Sentries halt a jeep for the password as it leaves Saar River bridge and rolls into Saarlautern, Germany in 26th Div. sector 104th Inf. Regt., 2/18/45.
- A-2916 Inf. Men of the 26th Div. US 3rd Army ride into action on a light tank, just behind them a mortar crew has gone into action near Neustadt, Germany.
- A-2917 Men of 328th Inf Regt advance down road outside of Falkenstein, Germany, 4/26/45.
- A-2918 Signalmen string communication wires thru the just taken town of Wiltz, Luxembourg, 101st Inf. Regt, 1/22/45.
- A-2919 Men of Btry. "A" 180th Field Art. Bn. 26th Inf. Div. 3rd Army ram home a 95 lb shell in preparation to firing on German positions in Saarlautern, Germany, 3/4/45.
- A-2920 An army jeep crew takes cover behind vehicle while searching out snipers in the town of Fulda, Germany, 101st Regt 26th Yankee Div., 4/2/45.

- A-2921 With thier 105mm guns pointed on enemy occupied pine forests, south of Waldau, Germany gunners of the 225th FA 26th Div dig in near Lichtennau, Germany, 4/10/45.
- A-2922 155 howitzer of Bty "C" 180th FA Bn on the line near Aradort, Luxemborg, 1/11/45.
- A-2923 Men of the 390th AAA Bn 26th Inf Div stand guard at thier multiple 50 cal. machine guns Saarlautern, Germany, 2/15/45.
- A-2924 Engineers of Co "B" 101st Engs. 26th Div. who held defensive positions in a woods on outskirts of Wiltz, Luxemborg file through snow, 1/15/45.
- A-2925 Mortar crew of the 26th Yankee Div waits for radioed fire directions from forward observer Co "L" 101st Regt., 4/10/45.
- A-2926 2 Infantrymen of the 2nd Platoon 101st Inf. Regt set up road block. Dillingen, Germany, 2/12/45.
- A-2927 3 Infantrymen of Co "C" 328th Inf. Regt. chop logs for road shoulder, Wiltz, Luxemborg, 1/11/45.
- A-2928 Tank riding Infantrymen roll toward the Danube river city of Deggendorf, Germany to clean out pockets of Nazi resistance, April 29, 1945.
- A-2929 Tanks of the 778th tank Bn passing through Lembach, Germany on their way to Czechoslovakia, 5/6/45.
- A-2930 Infantrymen of the 101st Regt. move on the double thru the town of Fulda, Germany checking houses for Nazi soldiers in hiding, 4/4/45.
- A-2931 While shells drop in vicinity soldiers of the 26th Div unload supplies for the 3rd Bn 104th Inf. outside a town in Luxembourg, Jan 10, 1945.
- A-2932 A platoon leader of a heavy weapons plat. fires his M-1 from a burning building which was hit by a mortar shell in Saarlautern, Germany, 2/16/45.
- A-2933 Maj. Gen Willard S Paul CG of the 26th Div. checks on the map before leaving on an inspection tour of the front lines. 3/1/45.
- A-2934 Cut down by an american machine gun burst, a dead Nazi lies in the waters of the Schleuse River near Waldau, Germany 101st Regt. 3/9/45.
- A-2935 2 anti-tank Inf. Men of the 101st Inf. Regt. dash past a blazing German gasoline troller in the square of Kornack, Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-2936 German Field Marshall Von Kleist, seated and Brlg. Gen Russwain, standing Inspector of all German army signal troops, prepare to leave for XXII Corps Hdqtrs. following their capture by 3rd Army troops in Mittenfels, Germany, 4/27/43.
- A-2937 Gen George S Patton CG US 3rd Army Inspect 2nd Bn 328th Regt 26th Div during ceremonies held for the Gen. at St Martins, Austria, Aug 7, 1945.
- A-2938 Lt Gen Omar Bradley chats with Gen Patten in Sallins, France, 11/13/44.
- A-2939 Men of 101st Inf Regt. 26th Div move up to the front, 10/29/44.

27TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-2904 Ceremony being held at 27th Div., cemetery on Saipan 7-20-44.
- A-2905 27th Div., forward Command Post at Saipan 7-44
- A-2906 A patrol led by Capt. A.W. Brown of Poultney, Vt. of the 105th Inf. Regt on Okinawa 5-11-45.
- A-2907 A platoon from the 2nd platoon 105th Regt., unloads logs to repair a muddy road on Okinawa.
- A-2908 View of Co. "J" 2nd Bn. 105th Regt. mess hall, living quarters on Okinawa 8-1-45.
- A-2909 Soldiers of the 27th Inf. Div., Tenth Army XXIV Corps advance on Okinawa 4-21-45.

- A-2910 Troops of the 105th Inf Regt. 27th Div., stand at attention prior to presentation of awards by Maj. Gen. George W. Griner Co. 27th Div. Okinawa 7-13-45.
- A-2911 After spending weeks in the front lines, troops of the 27th Div., move through ruins of Garapan to bivouac Area, Saipan 7-44.
- A-2912 U.S. troops of Co. "C", 116th Inf. Regt. 27th Div. advance through Futema, Okinawa, on their way to the front lines 4-15-45.
- A-2913 Maj. Gen. George W. Griner, C.G. 27th Inf. Div., Okinawa, addresses troops of the 165th Inf. Regt. praising them for for the excellence of their work in helping to defeat the enemy on Okinawa 7-13-45.
- A-2914 Members of Co. "H", 2nd Bn. 105th Inf. Regt. 27th Div., inspecting former Japanese barracks found deserted in the hills of Okinawa 8-2-45.

28TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-2945 Troops of the 1st Bn, 28th Inf. Div. in the vicinity of Sour de Val, France advance across the peak of Les Monts D'Eron in France, 8/13/44.
- A-2946 Troops of the 28th Inf Div who have been regrouped in security platoons for defense of Bastogne, Belgium march down a street.
- A-2947 Troops of the 2nd Bn, 112th Inf Regt. 28th Div., US 1st Army near Gemund, Germany, pass the road junction 2 kilometers from Gemand, as they advance towards the Urft river, 3/6/45.
- A-2948 In an enemy drive on thier area, this group of Infantrymen of the 110th Regt. 28th Inf. Div. were cut away from thier Regt. They are gathering at Bastogne, Belgium to regroup.
- A-2949 Yank Infantry of the 109th Regt. 28th Inf. take positions in the square of Percey, France, 8/2/44.
- A-2950 Infantrymen of the 110th Regt., 28th Div. halt in Bonnerville, France on the drive into the interior of the country, 8/25/44.
- A-2951 Tanks and Infantrymen move into Bonnerville, France as they advance into the interior of the country, 110th Regt, 28th Div., 8/23/44.
- A-2952 28th Inf Div arrives in Kucon, Germany. Brlg. Gen Guy O. Kurtz CO of the 28th Div. artillery, and Maj Gen Daniel B Strickler, Comnd Gen of the 28th Div watch troops as they disembark from troop train at Y-79, Monnheln, Germany, 1951.
- A-2953 Still a bit leery of German snipers and mortar fire, these Infantrymen move into town of Percey, Normandy France, Aug. 8, 1944.
- A-2954 In pursuit of the retreating Germans, Infantrymen of the 2nd Inf Bn., 109th Regt. 28th Div. pass thru Wiltz, Luxembourg, 9/10/44.
- A-2955 In the Nambshelm area, France Maj. Gen. Norman D Cota, Commanding Gen of the 28th Inf Div accepts homemade cookies.
- A-2956 Lt. Col Rudder, Co. 109th Inf Regt in the 28th Inf Div., leads troops passing in review before the CO of the First French Army during the Colmar, France Victory parade, 2/8/45.
- A-2957 Maj. Gen D Cota, C.G. 28th Inf Div presents the Bronze Star Medal to the men of the 110th Regt., 4/2/45.
- A-2958 Jeeps of the 28th Inf Div move en masse down Champs Elysees passing thru the Arc de Triumphe in Paris, France, 8/29/44.
- A-2959 Bodies of soldiers of the 28th Inf Div found dead in the Ardennes Sector, all neatly shot in the head, Hascheldericht, Luxemburg.
- A-859 Maj Gen D Cota CO 28th Div presents the Bronze Star to men of the 110th Regt, 4/2/45.

28th Inf. Div. WW II Cont.

- A-860 110th Inf Regt anti-tank unit crosses the bridge over the Ahr River. Antweiler, Germany, 3/9/45.
- A-861 Bodies of soldiers of the 28th Div all neatly lined up and shot in the head two miles north east of Haschelderdt, Luxemburg.
- A-862 Inf of the 110th Regt halt in Bonneville, France, 8/23/44.
- A-863 Tanks & Infantry of the 110th Regt move into Bonneville, France, 8/23/44.

29TH INF.DIV. WWII

- A-2965 An American Sgt. lies dead, as 2 Infantrymen watch for snipers in Julich, Germany 2-23-45.
- A-2966 Maj. Gen. Charles H. Gerhardt, C.G. 29th Div.
- A-2967 Fearful of Russian retribution if captured, these Nazi's fled the front and were captured by the 9th Army troops as they landed on the west bank of the Elbe River, Gorleben, Germany. 175th Inf. Regt 29th Div. 5-3-45.
- A-2968 Maj. Gen. Charles H. Gerhardt, C.G. 29th Div., Discusses new assault tactics with Major Wm. Ratton of his staff, left 7-18-44.
- A-2969 Men of the 224th F.A. Bn. 29th Div., U.S. Army are at work under a camouflage net somewhere in Europe, 11-25-44.
- A2670 U.S. troops of Co. D, 1st Bn. 116th Inf. Regt 29th Div. U.S. 9th Army, move in to the town of Selterich, Germany 11-19-44.
- A-2971 Maj. Gen. C.H. Gerhardt, C.G. 29th Div., U.S. 9th Army, Addresses men of the 115th Regt. during a ceremony in Munchen, Gladbach, half for the presentation of Presidential Citations for D-Day operations in Normandy. 115th Regt. 29th Div. U.S. 9th Army 3-13-45.
- A-2972 Infantrymen of the 29th Div. 9th U.S. Army, take cover in a ruined building in Julich, Germany 2-23-45.
- A-2973 Men of the 116th Inf. Regt, 9th Army Co. K 116th Inf. Regt 29th Inf Div. getting a orientation lecture 2-19-45.
- A-2974 Sign outside of Julich, left by the 29th Inf Div. 2-25-45.
- A-2975 Yehudi Menuhin, famous American violinist is shown preparing for a Concert at a U.S. Red Cross Club in England 3-16-43.
- A-2976 D.D. Eisenhower Supreme Com. of Allied forces, demonstrates that he hasn't lost his Doughboy's touch as he fires a Browning Heavy machine gun, off it's mount from his hip, England 2-5-44.
- A-2977 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Com., talking to men of the 2nd Bn. 175th Inf. Regt. 29th Div. at the front in Europe 11-10-44.
- A-2978 A mortar crew, after selecting a position amid the rubble of a German house in Betterdorf, Germany, goes to work on the Germans, 92nd 175 Regt 29th Div. 29th Div. 11-20-44.
- A-2979 Soldiers of the U.S. 9th Army look at the mangled bodies of 17 Germans, near Julich, Germany, 29th AAA, 29th Div. 12-17-44.
- A-2980 Attack of the Roer River line # 2

29th Inf. Div. WW II Cont.

- Men of the 29th Div., U.S. 9th Army, prepare their gear and provisions for the attack on the Roer River from a town in Germany, 29th Inf. Div. 116th Regt 2-23-45.
- A-2981 U.S. 9th Army Inf. reserves move into Hasselsweiler, Germany, passing tanks riding out to attack, Gewelsdorf, 2-26-45.
- A-2982 Vehicle and troops of the 2nd Bn. Call a halt after moving into the town of Broich, Germany, 29th Inf. Regt. 29th Div. 9th Army.
- A-2983 Infantrymen of the 29th Div. U.S. 9th Army, hang out a welcome sign in Munchen-Gladbach Germany, 3-4-45.
- A-2961 American troops of the 29th Inf. Div., scurry for cover in "88" Alley as Nazis open fire on them in Public Square of St. Lo, France, 7-16-44.
- A-2962 Men of the 29th Div., Inf. Unit, who made the initial push against St. Lo, France, relax and rest as they watch a show presented by a group of French refugees, 7-24-44.
- A-2963 Same caption as # A-2962, different view.
- A-2964 Same caption as under photo # A-2962, different view, 7-2-44.
- A-2984 American troops scurry for cover on the road to St. Lo this photo is made in a section called "88" Alley 7-20-44.
- A-2985 A close up of the men of the 29th Inf. Div., Enjoying a vaudville show, north of St. Lo, 7-24-44.
- A-3037 Men of the 29th Inf. Div. who made the initial push against St. Lo, France. Relax at a vaudville show presented by French refugees north of St. Lo, France 7-24-44.
- A-3038 Men of the 29th Inf. Div., enjoy a vaudville show as they relax after battle of St. Lo, 7-24-44.

29TH INF.DIV.KOREA

- A-2940 An American M-4 tank fires on enemy position in the 29th Inf. Regt. area in Korea, 8-24-50.
- A-2941 Men of the 29th Inf. proudly display trophies captured from North Korean forces on the battle line in Korea, 8-24-50.
- A-2942 Korean civilians fleeing from the North Korean forces, killed when caught in the line of fire during night attack by Guerilla forces near Yongsan, Korea, 8-25-50.

30TH INF.DIV. WWII

- A-2986 U.S. 9th Army ordnance men inspect German Howitzer like gun, which fires a 15 inch shell weighing 1500 lbs 4-2-45.
- A-2987 Shell for Howitzer type German gun, shell weighs 1500 lbs is 15 inches dia. 4-2-45.
- A-2988 Lt. Col. W.C. Cantey Co. 2nd Battery, 120th Regt. 30th Inf. Div., explains military tactics to Officers of various units 12-14-44.
- A-2989 An advance patrol, nearing Maashricht, Holland, making its way thru an apple orchard, Co. "C" 1st Bn. 119th Regt. 30th Div. 9-13-44.
- A-2990 In Army assault boats and Dutch rowboats, Yank Inf. crossed the Meuse River at Maastricht, Holland Co. "H" 117th Inf. 30th Div. 9-14-44.
- A-2991 Infantrymen unload from a hand made ferry, manned by Belgians of the "White Army" Co. M 119th Inf. 30th Div. 9-11-44.

30th Inf. Div. WW II Cont.

- A-2992 Yank Infantrymen moves thru another town on the long list of those abandoned by the German Army as they flee East-Ward, Co. "L" 117th Inf 30th Div. 8-23-44.
- A-2993 Infantrymen take a short rest in the town of Tessy Sur Vire, before pushing on to France, 120th Inf. 30th Div.
- A-2994 Troops of 117th Inf. Regt 30th Inf. Div. at Kirkrade, Holland 7-44.
- A-2995 Damaged planes in a hanger and on the runways at a field near Detmold, Germany. They were hit by the U.S. Air Force and later by the 120th Regt. of the 30th Inf. Div., 9th Army 4-5-45.
- A-2996 G.I. fires his machine gun thru a hole in a wall, at Germans in a barn 300 yards away, beyond Kohlsched, Germany. He is flanked by 2 of his buddies Co. "K" 3rd Bn., 119th Regt. 30th Div. 10-16-44.
- A-2997 Men of 117th Inf. Regt. 30th Inf. Div. move thru Hevecrevon, France 7-27-44.
- A-2998 Heavy transports loaded with alligators, move thru Holland 458th Ord. Evac. Bn. Roermand, Holland 3-10-45.
- A-2999 Infantrymen of the 3rd Bn. 120th Regt., are forced to ignore a fallen comrade, hit by Nazi machine gun on outskirts of Stassfurt, Germany, 30th Inf. Div. 3-25-45.
- A-3000 Although these Infantrymen are tired and wet, they are happy, and the morale is high. 7th Army Bult, Area, France Co. "H" 2nd Bn. 30th Inf
- A-3001 A squad of Infantrymen of Co. K 3rd Battery 119th Regt. 30th Inf. Div., advance into enemy territory beyond, Kohlsched, Germany 10-16-44.
- A-3002 Troops of Co. "A" 120th Inf. Regt. 30th Inf. Div., advance across an open field in Euchen, Germany 11-16-44.
- A-3003 These hungry Infantrymen of the 7th Army waste no time getting, "seconds on cake" Co. "G", 2nd Bn. Bult Area, France 30th Inf. 11-22-44.
- A-3004 U.S. Infantrymen pass the city limits sign of Maashricht, Holland, on their way eastward to Germany Co. "C" 1st Bn. 117th Regt. 30th Div. 9-13-44.
- A-3005 Members of a U.S. 9th Army AA Unit on the alert for enemy aircraft. Dragons teeth of the Siegfried line are seen in the background. (531st AAA Bn., 30th Div.) 12-16-44.
- A-3006 3 Infantrymen are about to enter a house where several enemy snipers are holding out, Germans took the town and U.S. soldiers took it back, 12-21-44., members of the 117th Inf Regt. Stavelot, Belgium 30th Div.
- A-3007 USO performers pause for a affectionate greeting with soldiers in Herzogentath, Germany 30th Div. 12-16-44.
- A-3008 Infantrymen of the U.S. 9th Army cross a foot bridge over the Roer River, as they drive deeper into Germany. 2nd Bn. 120th Regt 30th Div. XIX near Schophoven, Germany 2-23-45.
- A-3009 9th Army 30th Inf. Div. soldiers move on the town of Echen, Germany 11-16-44.
- A-3010 9th Army Infantrymen move up in the initial attack on the town of Euchen, Germany 11-16-44.

31st INF. DIV. WWII

32ND INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3015 Co. "B" street of the 106th Engineers 31st Div., near Borio, Oro Bay, New Guinea 5-17-44.
- A-3016 The street of the 106th Medical Bn. 31st Div., near Borio, Oro Bay 5-17-44.
- A-3017 Troops of the 31st Div. 1st Platoon, 124th Regt. descend 60 feet down life line, Mindano, P.I. 4-30-45.
- A-3018 Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger, C.G. U.S. 6th Army and Maj. Gen. John C. Persons, C.G. 31st Div., talk to the men of the 3rd Bn. 161st Inf. who will be the troops of the Tornado Task Force.
- A-3019 Men of Co. "T" 2nd Bn. 167th Regt; 31st Div. Dixie Div. load supplies in waist deep water 9-6-44.
- A-3020 Soldiers operating an amplifier mounted on a 2 1/2 ton truck. They are from 155th Inf., Special Services, Maffin Bay, Dutch New Guinea.
- A-3021 Buffaloes back into the tank deck of an LST during loading operations by members of the 31st Div. 9-6-44.
- A-3022 Part of the 124th Inf. Regt. 31st Div., moves up the beach to the front lines Aitape, New Guinea 8-1-44.
- A-3023 Personnel of the Hdqtrs Co. 124th Inf. Regt. 31st Div., set up heavy machine gun quickly left to right Sgt C.H. Moore, Pfc D. Brumley, Pfc T. McAulley, Aitape, N. Guinea 8-1-44.
- A-3024 Sgt W. Wallace of the 124th Inf. 31st Div. is congratulated by Lt. Gen. R.L. Michelberger, C.G. U.S. 8th Army on his part in stopping the dawn attack by the Japanese on the perimeter of the 124th Inf. near Naramag Strip # 1 Central Mindano, P.I. 5-16-45.
- A-3025 Lt. Gen. R.L. Eichelberger (left) C.G. U.S. 8th Army and Lt. Col. R. Fowler of the 124th Inf. 31st Div., discuss with Pfc. I. Young of the 124th Inf. 31st Div. the futile dawn Jap attack on the perimeter of the 124th Inf. near Naramag Strip Central Mindano P.I., as the men of the Div. listen 5-15-45.
- A-3026 Lt. Gen. R.L. Eichelberger (center) C.G. U.S. 8th Army and his party inspect the 72 dead Japs found near the perimeter of the 124th Inf. 31st Div. following dawn attack, near Naramag # 1 Strip Central Mindano P.I. 5-15-45.
- A-3027 Maj. Gen. John C. Persons (center foreground) C.G. of the 31st Div. Dixie Div., aboard an Army picket boat with his staff before leaving on observation tour of mock landing to be made by troops of his command Maffin Bay, D.N. Guinea 7-6-44.
- A-3028 Troops of Co "L" 167th Inf. Regt. 31st Div., wait on a beach at Maffin Bay, D.N. Guinea to load on LSTs 9-6-44.
- A-3029 U.S. troops of the 31st Div. make their way ashore on D-day from an LCI on rough coral reef in water chest high to an island in the Mapia Group S.E. Pacific Area 11-15-44.
- A-3030 Amphibious tanks and water buffaloes, loaded with men of the 31st Div., are shown halfway to an island in Asia Group, while bombarding by U.S. destroyers continues, S.E. Pacific Area 11-19-44.
- A-3031 U.S. soldiers of the 31st Div., make their way ashore from an LCI on rough coral reef in water chest high to an island in the Mapia Area, 2nd Bn. 167th Inf. 11-44.
- A-3032 Maj. Gen. J.G. Persons and Lt. Gen. W. Krueger C.G. of the 6th Army, enroute to Wakda Island Strip on Gen. Persons boat confer on plans for invasion of Morotai Island of the Halmahera Group 9-9-44.
- A-3033 Gen. Douglas MacArthur, his aide Col. Lloyd Lehrbas, Maj. Gen. John C. Persons and party inspect the beach head at Morotai Island, Halmahera Group 9-15-44.
- A-3034 This photo shows typical defense positions along a river in New Guinea Co. "M" 124th Inf. 31st Div.

- A-3067 A 25 lb. mountain gun howitzer being towed by jeep to barge for shipment. Barge was captured by allied forces from the Japs and was used to haul supplies to forward troops. It was sunk by the Japs on the night of 11-15-42. New Guinea.
- A-3068 Maj Gen E F Harging, Com of A Div. in Australia, is shown the Div's accomplishments and traditions 9-17-42.
- A-3069 The largest single day's destruction of arms ammunition is claimed by troops of the 32nd Inf Div, where about 30,000 cases and 100 tons were burned 12-14-45.
- A-3070 GI's of the U.S. 32nd Div which occupied Sasebo and it's major Jap navel base. Look over the control tower on the Jap carrier "Junyo" at Sasebo Harbor Japan 10-19-45.
- A-3071 U.S. soldiers of the 32nd Div walk on the flight deck of the Jap carrier "Junyo" after anti-aircraft guns inside turrets have been removed at Sasebo Harbor Japan 10-19-45.
- A-3072 Hore, is the Jap with arms upraised as he is searched by a patrol of the 32nd Div on north Luzon. The nip was using the burning hut as a hideout 1945.
- A-3073 Inf of the 126th Inf 32nd Div on north Luzon, take over as they move up around a shack containing straggling Japs still fighting desperately. An undermined number of the enemy fire widely as the men inched forward 7-22-45.
- A-3074 Advancing 32nd Div troops find the going tough in the Vella Verde trail in Luzon PI 5-45.
- A-3075 Major Gen William H. Gill, places a wreath at the base of the flagpole in the U.S. cemetery at Carigara, Luzon, PI. Where memorial services were held for the soldiers of the 32nd Div. who gave their lives on the Leyte campaign 1-12-45.
- A-3076 Troops dug in on top of Hill 604 Villa Verde trail, fire on Jap position over the next ridge CO L 3rd Bn 128th Inf Regt 32nd Div Manila 4-1-45.
- A-3077 127th Inf 32nd Div firing 81 mm mortar on Jap position along the Villa Verde Trail. CO H 2nd Bn 3-3-45.
- A-3078 Members of the 128th Inf Regt 32nd Div move up to the front along the beach at Aitape, Dutch New Guinea 7-29-44.
- A-3079 Taking advantage of the rocks at the right, the section leader and the second scout have deployed behind them, and have started to open fire on the enemy 7-27-45.
- A-3080 Climbing up a hill on the search for Japs are members of a patrol from I CO 126th Inf 32nd Div Cagayan Valley, Luzon, PI.
- A-3081 Climbing up a hill on the search for Japs are members of a patrol from I CO 126th Inf 32nd Div 7-13-45. Cagayan Valley, Luzon PI. Different view as number A-3080. 7-13-45.
- A-3082 U.S. troops of the 632nd Tank destr. and Div choose the beach at night bivouac, near Aitape New Guinea 8-1-44.
- A-3083 3rd platoon Cannon CO. 126th Inf Regt 32nd Div, New Guinea 9-10-44.
- A3084 U.S. soldiers firing into enemy positions somewhere in New Guinea 1-1-43.
- A-3042 Brig Gen Frayne Baker, speaking to platoon of bayonet drill instructors. These men instruct officers and men in Gen Bakers new bayonet tactics suitable for jungle warfare against the Japs, Australia 11-14-42.
- A-3043 Part of the motor convoy that conveyed an Inf Regt to the docks prior to their departure somewhere in Australia 11-15-42.
- A-3044 Sgt Richard E Bowerstock of Stevens Point, Wisconsin and Sgt Chester Van Ruth of Nekoosa, Wisconsin both men belong to a platoon of picked men whose duty is to instruct officers and men in a new style bayonet tactics suitable for jungle warfare, Australia 11-10-42.
- A-3045 Natives carrying a wounded U.S. soldiers back from front lines in New Guinea 11-15-42.
- A-3046 Capt Emil Khalil from Two-Rivers wis. and men examining the equipment of 3 Japs soldiers killed by a forward platoon in a village in New Guinea 11-15-42.
- A-3047 Col Swedburg, and men of his soldiers standing before one of many pill boxes stormed and taken in New Guinea 12-15-42.
- A-3048 3 U.S. soldiers in a captured Jap bunker in New Guinea 12-15-42.
- A-3049 Jap breast work taken over by the soldiers upon the casting of the enemy from the region, New Guinea 12-21-42.
- A-3050 Alighting from a transport plane. Members adjust clothing and equipment 12-15-42.
- A-3051 A 1/2 ton emergency trucks of the mobile ordnance repair unit. With the Replacement Training Center, this truck is equipped to service any gun from a Howitzer to a pistol, Tambourine, Australia 8-23-42.
- A-3052 U.S. soldiers combing a captured Jap held position, Buna Mission, New Guinea 1-3-43.
- A3053 Soldiers firing rifles into Jap dugout in, New Guinea before entering it for inspection 1-3-43.
- A-3054 Soldiers manning a 50 caliber machine gun emplacement, 32nd Div drive on Buna Embogo River, N.G. Pioneer Platoon Hqs Co 1st Bn 32nd Div 11-15-42.
- A-3055 Members of Co F 107th Eng carrying bridge chess and balks for the 10-ton bridge, Camp Livingston, La 5-23-41.
- A-3056 Truck on completed 10 ton bridge made by Co F 107th Eng Camp Livingston, La on this first attempt the bridge was completed in one hour and 55 mins 5-23-41.
- A-3057 Inspecting defense platoon giving unarmed combat demonstration are L to R Lord Ford Cowrie Gov of Australia Lt Gen Walter Krueger and Maj Gen Gill, in Australia 5-12-43.
- A3058 Transporting troops crossing branch of creek over foot bridge, New Guinea 32nd Div cannon Co 128th Inf 11-11-42.
- A-3059 Foot bridge constructed by Co D 107th Eng. Camp Livingston, La 276 feet in 15 mins 5-23-41.
- A-3060 Sgt Tech Norman Brown of Grand Rapids, MI is shown loading a 50 cal machine gun in preparation for firing Australia 127th Inf 32nd Div 11-15-42.

32nd Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3061 127th Inf Regt 32nd Div
SS George Taylor 11-18-42.
- A-3062 Troops on march through New Guinea stop for "chow" in the field
32nd Div 128th Inf 11-12-42.
- A-3063 Armed guard gun crew loads 3" shells during practice aboard the SS George Taylor, while carrying the 127th Inf Regt to Port Moresby,
New Guinea 11-19-42.
- A-3064 The Navy Armed Guard for the Merchant Marine are shown getting ready for practice fire aboard ship 11-22-42.
- A-3065 Navy Armed Guard of the Merchant Marine are shown during practice fire aboard ship SS George Taylor 11-22-42.
- A-3066 A Convoy of ships following the flag ship, 127th Inf 32nd Div enroute to north combat zone to Port Moresby
New Guinea 11-18-42.

33RD INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3088 14 miles south of Baguio
CO "G" 2nd Bn 130th Inf Regt 33rd Div. Fill their canteens before continuing advance to Baguio 2-24-45.
- A-3089 Detroit gun crew from the 124th field artillery Bn
33rd Div fires the 105mm howitzer at Jap positions
6-28-45.
- A-3090 33rd Div west of Baguio
Mountain Province, members of the 163rd antiaircraft artillery gun Bn fire their 90 mm gun at a Jap concentration 5-11-45.
- A-3091 CO "D" 1st Bn 130th Inf
33rd Div crouch behind tall grass for concealment against Jap snipers across the Busang River who are firing at the bridge. Pangasinan 3-19-45.
- A-3092 Staff officers of the
123rd field artillery 33rd
Div stand in a group at Baguio Mountain Province,
Luzon, PI 5-24-45.
- A-3093 Men of Headquarters
Battery and Service Battery
123rd Field Artillery 33rd
Div. Who are old National Guard personnel inducted into active service in 1941 in a group in front of their headquarters at Baguio Mountain Prov. Luzon, PI
5-26-45.
- A3094 Old National Guard members of the 123rd field artillery 33rd Div in active service, since 1941 in a group around their 155mm artillery gun
Luzon, PI 5-26-45.
- A-3095 Inf of "G" CO 148th Inf
33rd Div move into Baguio,
Luzon, PI along highway # 9 up Monastery Hill 4-26-45.
- A-3096 Sniper fire, holds up troops of the 1st Bn 130rd
Div at the Busang River
Bridge 3-19-45.
- A-3097 U.S. troops of the 130th
Inf 33rd Div use a captured
Jap jeep to transport wounded men from the front lined to the collection station north of Baguio, Luzon, PI 6-23-45.
- A-3098 Members of CO "G" 139th Inf
Regt 33rd Div have been awarded the Combat Inf Badge. Finschafen,
New Guinea 11-11-44.
- A-3099 Landing craft bring troops of the 33rd Div to beach in simulated invasion tactics as the Div hits
Wakayama Honshu, Japan 9-26-45.

33rd Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3100 Troops of the 130th Inf 33rd
Div. March inland after making an amphibious landing at Wakayama, Honshu, Japan 9-25-45.
- A-3101 Capt. B. Balch of San Antonio,
TX. and LT. W.L. Dillinger of Spartanburg, S.C. members of CO F
130th Regt 33rd Div lead a patrol into Naguilian, LA, Union Province
Luzon, PI 3-23-45.
- A-3102 Men of the 122nd field artillery
Bn 33rd Div fire a 155mm gun against a Jap pocket in the hills near Butac Ilocos Sur, Luzon, PI
6-10-45.
- A-3103 Troops and armor of CO "F"
2nd Bn 130th Inf Regt 33rd Div move into town of Maguillian,
Luzon, PI 3-23-45.
- A-3104 107th Cavalry Regt is trained for it's conversion from horse mounts to ones of speedy steel at Fort Ord, Calif 5-1942.
- A-3105 107th Cavalry Regt is shown being mechanized, Regt executing the command to charge 5-1-42.
- A-3106 Sherman tanks await orders to move ahead pending opening of road 10 miles south of Baguio,
Luzon, PI 175th Tank Bn 123rd
Regt 33rd Div 3-8-45.

34TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3109 Pvt. Lawrence F. Cucich of Virginia, Mn. directs 5th army traffic along the narrow treacherous roads to the front lines in Italy 1-9-45.
- A-3110 Graves registration officer identifies dead yanks of the 34th Div among Germans killed in Ardennes Salient during 1st and 3rd army squeeze against Von Runstedt's lines Belgium
1-11-45.
- A-3111 A Bn composed of US troops of Jap descent, march through the town of Vada where Lt. Gen
Mark n. Clark CG of the 5th army presented the Presidential citation for outstanding action in combat to them Vada, Italy
7-27-44.
- A3112 Photo shows how the streets of Livorno, Italy. Looked after the allied aircraft strafing, the retreating Germans, bombed the city. 5th army 34th Div Via Marradi Livorno, Italy 7-19-44.
- A-3113 This new type MABattery used on the Anzio beachhead, Italy is called the "WASP" It has 4-50 cal air cooled machine guns on a swivel mount and the carrier is a trailer. 5th army
435th AAA Bn "B" Battery,
34th Div 4-24-44.
- A-3114 Jap American Inf. of the 100th
Inf. Bn. 34th Div moving up to the front on a dusty road in the Velletri area, Italy 5-28-44.
- A-3115 Hawaiian American. troops of Jap ancestry with the 100th
Bn 34th Div rest in Leghorn,
Italy after its fall, 5th army
7-19-44.
- A-3116 The landing of men and equipment on the beach north of Agropoli, Italy during the early stages of the present offensive against Axis forces remaining on the boat. Note how the beach has been prepared to receive the landing 9-21-43.
- A-3117 A pile of unused life belts left by the soldiers after landing safely on a beach north of Agropoli, Italy 34th Div 9-21-43.
- A-3118 The landing of men and equipment on the beach north of Agropoli, Italy during the early stages of the the preoffensive against Axis forces remaining on the boat. Note how the beach has been prepared to receive the landing 34th Div 9-21-43.
- A3119 Men and equipment landing on a beach north of Agropoli, Italy
34th Div 9-21-43.
- A-3120 3 quarter ton trucks of Co A 109th medical Bn 34th Div passing through Piazza Garibaldi the center of Parma on the highway
5th army 4-26-45.
- A-3121 Men of the 135th Regt service
Co 34th Div keep watch on the rapidly rising Idice River, for their tents are pitched on the bank. All day rain and melting snow caused the river to rise catching several outfits setup in the valley 2-9-45.
- A-3122 2 1/2 ton trucks loaded with men of 168th Inf Regt 34th Div roll through road block into the center of the town of Modena on highway #9 4-24-45!
- A3123 -168th Inf Regt 34th Div pass into Modena, Italy highway # 9
5th army 4-24-45.
- A-3124 First platoon of Co "B" 135th
Regt 34th Div put their equipment in order to move up to the front lines to relieve another
Co. Tazzola Area, Italy 2-19-45.
- A-3125 Members of Co. "M" 133rd Inf Regt 34th Div U.S. 5th army dig foxholes in the 34th Div.
Secondary defense area, east of Route 65 between Loianox and Monghidora, Italy 1-5-45.
- A-3126 Soldiers of Co I 133rd Inf
34th Div march through the snow in the Apennine Mountain,
Piancaldoli, Italy 1-2-45.
- A-3127 Members of Co F 133rd Inf Regt
34th Div enter the city of Modena, Italy on highway # 9 as civilians gather to welcome them
4-23-45.
- A 3128 Men of 3rd Bn 133rd Inf 34th
Div 5th army rest among parked tank destroyers in the Piazza
Di La Repubblica Bologna, Italy
4-21-45.
- A-3129 Men of Co "L" 3rd Bn pass a knocked out German tank on the outskirts of Modena, Italy 4-23-45.
- A-3130 An ammunition carrier brings up the rear of the 37 mm pack rifle squad for the 1st Bn 133rd Inf Regt
34th Div 5th army
Belvedere Area, Italy
3-6-45.
- A-3131 Civilians of Modena, Italy give flowers to members of Co L 133rd Inf Regt 34th Div as they march into town on highway #9 5th army 4-23-45.
- A-3132 Troops of 168th Inf 34th
Div approach, Alife, Italy
10-23-43.
- A3133 The 3rd Bn, 168th Inf 34th
Div arrives in Tragoe, Italy
They walk past the ruins caused by heavy artillery fire.
10-21-43.
- A3134 US soldiers of mortar squad Co. "M" 133rd Inf 34th
Div fire into Cassino from
N. edge of town. Italy
2-24-44.

34th Inf. Div. WW II Cont.

34th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3135 Men of the 133th Inf Regt 34th Div 5th army among the first troops to enter newly liberated Bologna, Italy rest in the Piazza De La Repubblica 4-21-45.
- A-3136 Vehicles of Co "I" 135th Inf Regt 34th Div move down the main street of Parma, Italy amid cheering crowds. 5th army 4-26-45.
- A-3137 This gun can be set up in 4 minutes ready to fire on any objective by men of the 1st Bn 133rd Inf Regt 34th Div 5th army Mt. Belvedere area Italy 3-6-43.
- A-3138 In Germany a 3 man crew prepare to fire a captured German 88 mm flak gun. Their target is Krupp works in Essen, Germany 34th Inf Div 4-15-45.
- A-1156 Explanation by an American Officer, enlightens their Majesties, King George, Queen Mary, on American Army equipt. in North Ireland, Brig Gen. C.W. Ryder, 34th Div. 6-25-42.

35TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3150 Pres. Harry S. Truman, while in Brussels, Belgium, pauses for a second to speak to a soldier of the honor guard, furnished for the Pres. by the 137th Regt of the 35th Inf Div 7-15-45.
- A-3151 Under support of tank, men of 137th Regt Inf 35th Div U.S. Army cross a field near Nancy, France 9-26-44.
- A-3152 From an LST men of the 35th Div drive their vehicles onto the beach at Collesville, France 7-11-44.
- A-3153 Along with it's crew this 12.8 cm German artillery piece was captured near Suer, Germany. When the 134th Inf Regt 35th Div U.S. 9th army advanced on the town 3-31-45.
- A-3154 Troops of the 39th Div U.S. 9th army, crouching along a road leading to Lindfort, Germany, prepare to attack the town 3-6-45.
- A-3155 A 35th Div 1/2 track, mounted with anti aircraft machine guns, stands ready to protect this canal near Saareinaming A'lsace Lorraine, France 12-18-44.
- A-3156 Members of the 35th Inf Div try to warm up around a fire during a lull in battle east of Bastogne, Belgium 320th Regt 1-3-45.
- A-3157 U.S. armor drives through newly captured Chateau Salins, north east of Nancy, as it heads towards front in support of U.S. Inf attack. 4th armored, 35th Inf Div France 11-11-44.
- A-3158 Marlene Dietrich is poised for a kiss from Sgt. Stanley Strurous as he stands at the stage door, somewhere in the E.T.O. 134th Inf Regt 53th Div 10-27-44.
- A-3159 Pfc Earl E. Dougall of Albany, N.Y. doing his wash as buddies play cards 134th Inf Regt 34th Div 10-12-44.
- A-3160 Weary yanks sleep in a captured German barn in a sector near Nancy, France following a morning attack. Hq, Co, 134th Regt 35th Div 10-12-44.

35th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3161 A Inf patrol pokes about the ruins of Pontfaroy, France. Passing a German mark 4 tank. The building in the background shows evidence of U.S. artillery barrage 35th Div.
- A-3162 These are the first vehicles to cross the newly constructed bridge over the Vire River built by engineer units which closely follow the forward combat units, France 8-3-44.
- A-3163 Maj. Gen. William M. Simpson, conferring with his aide, after press conference with newspapermen. Photo taken at Gen's office 35th Div Hq Camp Robinson Ark 10-18-41.
- A-3164 3rd army U.S. 2nd army maneuvers in Louisiana largest ever, in peace time. This pontoon bridge is 550 ft long and was supported by 63 pontoons. Photo shows Engineers of 110th constructing last trestle 9-41.
- A-3165 Discovering no enemy positions, Inf of the 35th Div close up and move more confidently toward a German town of Unterbruch, while on reconnaissance mission for the unit of the 35th Div in Heinsberg. 1st Bn 137th Regt 2-6-45.
- A-3166 Guarding against enemy infiltration east of Bastogne, machine gunners, man a 50 caliber machine gun in a wooded area near the Bastogne corridor 35th Inf Div 1-2-45.
- A-3167 Monster 240 mm gun throws heavy weight projectile, during the drive on Germany 12-12-44.
- A-3168 105mm howitzer fires on German positions in woods, as armored units of the 9th U.S. army advanced at right. Bty C 219th field artillery 35th Div 9th army 3-5-45.
- A-3169 Members of the 737th tank Bn 35th Div stand by with their mortar ready to fire and in readiness for any sudden Nazi move 11-5-44.
- A-3170 Tanks of the 784th tank Bn 35th Div 9th U.S. army, move out of Venio, to strike at objectives inside of Germany 3-2-45.
- A-3171 Infantrymen of the 320th Inf Regt 35th Div U.S. army, move through the town of Severen, Germany clearing out German snipers as they move forward 3-3-45.
- A-3172 After establishing a new forward position within sight of the Nazis a U.S. rifleman stays on the alert, 320th Regt 35th Div Inf Div Bastogne, Belgium 1-3-45.
- A-3173 Men of the 137th Inf Regt 35th Div cook their breakfast in the south of, Orleans, France 8-17-44.
- A-3174 U.S. weapons and vehicles move toward an engineer, constructed Bailey Bridge over the Sear River 35th Div artillery. Saareguiminas area, France 12-14-44.
- A-3175 39th army Inf cautiously scout out enemy near Recklinghausen, Germany 4-7-45.
- A-3176 Under enemy fire, Infantrymen of the 35th Div U.S. 9th army cross the Roer River on the run 134th Regt 35th Div Hilforth, Germany.
- A-3177 Infantrymen of the 137th Regt 35th Div rest by the shelled building in newly captured Tintange, Belgium, before shoving off for the next objective in the drive to cut the German wedge 12-27-44.

35th Inf. Div. Cont. WWII

- A-3178 Tanks of the 784th Tank Bn 35th Div 9th U.S. army roll into newly captured town of Gelsenkirchen, Germany 4-10-45.
- A-3179 U.S. troops of the 137th Regt 35th Div, Tintange Belgium advance toward the Luxembourg border in their drive to cut the German wedge 12-27-44.
- A-3080 Pvt. Nathan Melton grabs a powder charge for a 155 mm shell in the St. Lo 4th Gun Sector, Bty B, 127th Field Arty 35th Inf Div., 7-16-44.

36TH INF.DIV. WWII

- A-3184 Lt Gen Walter Hahn, Com of the German 13th corps, surrenders to Col John J Albright Com officer 143rd Inf Regt. Gen Hahn had under his command remnants of the 407th Inf Div and the 17th SS Panzer. U.S. army 143rd Regt 36th Div. Rottach, Germany.
- A-3185 These political prisoners of Nazi, Germany were told that the war had ended as U.S. troops advanced, and then were slaughtered as they left railroad cars. SS troops fired on them with automatic weapons, left their bodies piled in cars at the station platform U.S. 7th army 36th Inf Div 5-1-45.
- A-3186 Pfc Andrew E Dubill, 141st Inf Regt., speaks to two Jewish girls, who have been held prisoner by the Germans in Seeshaupt, Germany 5-1-45.
- A-3187 Maj Gen John E Dahlquist Com General 36th Div. 3-45.
- A-3188 Helmet and rifle mark spot in ditch by road where U.S. soldier gave his life during new drive by U.S. army VI Corp 3rd Bn 143rd Regt 36th Div Bitschoffen, France 3-15-45.
- A-3189 3 members of a raiding party of a patrol of Infantrymen of the 7th army make a sandbagged hole in a brick wall that opens into the Moder River. The men are members of a patrol which raided the enemy held bank of the Moder River, across from Haguen, France on 3-3-45 with the purpose of bringing back prisoners, 143rd Inf Regt 3-3-45.
- A-3190 Lt Gen Alexander M Patch Jr, Co General U.S. 7th army, congratulates 2nd Lt Stephen R Gregg, Bayonne, NJ. 36th Inf Div. After presenting him with the medal of honor, near, Bernolsheim, France 3-14-45.
- A-3191 A wire laying weasel is a new vehicle, in a plowed field. Norschwiller, France. 36th Sig. Corp 36th Inf Div 2-23-45.
- A-3192 Members of a machine gun squad cross a barbed wire enclosed street one at a time to make a more difficult target for enemy snipers lurking in the town of Haguen, France. 7th army 36th Div. 2-23-45.
- A-3193 At a colorful mass decoration ceremony in, Colmar, France, Gen de Lattre de Tassigny, Co Gen of the first French army decorated officers and men of the 6th army group for their assistance in the liberation of France. Here Maj Gen John E Dahlquist Co Gen of the 36th Div. Receives the legion of honor. 2-20-45.
- A-3194 7th army Inf march from the front lines during a snow storm in the Langefosse Area France. Co L 142nd Inf Regt 36th Div 11-10-44.
- A-3195 36th Div troops board LCIs in Italy, enroute to southern France 8-10-44.
- A-3196 2 Infantrymen of the 142nd Inf Regt 36th Inf Div 7th Army, wear white capes to camouflage them in snow surrounding their dugout in woods of Bischwiller Area 1-24-45.
- A-3197 Firing a mission with 81mm mortar Co D 141st Inf Regt 36th Div, VI corps 7th U.S Army 3-9-45.

36th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3198 Outside of Soultz, Men of Co F 2nd Bn 141st Inf Regt 36th Div VI corps 7th Army ride on tanks towards their objective 9-18-45.
- A-3199 Dug in for attack, or defense, are members of Co "G" 2nd Bn 141st Inf Regt 36th Div. While protecting rear of other companies attacking Mt Trocchio, final German stronghold before Cassino, Mt Porchia is in background 1-15-44.
- A-3200 Infantrymen of Co L 142nd Inf Regt 36th Div 7th Army are marching from the front lines during a snow storm. Langefosse, France 11-10-44.
- A-3201 3rd Bn rifleman hop on a tank to ride forward. Tank is 753rd Tank Bn attached to 36th Div 143rd Inf Regt VI Corps 7th Army. Griesbach Area, France 3-17-45.
- A-3202 Men from 141st Inf Regt fire on a German position across the Rhine River. 2-20-45.
- A-3203 141st Inf 36th Div moves up the positions on the out skirts of Luxeuil, France in the rain. This is the 2nd day of occupation of this town, 7th Army 9-17-44.
- A-3204 A relief Inf Co moves into the shell torn town of Rohrwiler to take their place in the line. 143rd Inf Regt 2-4-45.
- A-3205 141st Inf Regt 36th Div sand-bagged on Mt Porchia, supporting element of other Co's of the Bn attacking Mt Trocchio, San Vittors Area, Italy 1-15-44.
- A-3206 Engineers of 111th Eng Bn 36th Inf Div sit on ground around a small blow torch to heat and drink coffee, Weitbruch Area, France 1-27-45.
- A-3207 Members of Co F 2nd Bn 143rd Inf Regt 36th Div. VI Corps U.S. 7th Army, Leimersheim Area, Germany, from their outpost, watch German positions across the Rhine River 3-25-45.
- A-3208 Co H 2nd Bn 141st Inf Regt 36th Div. VI Corps U.S. 7th Army, Soultz France. Engineers construct a tready across the Soultzbach River, use railroad tracks as an emergency bridge 3-18-45.
- A-3209 U.S. troops of the 3rd Bn 143rd Inf Regt 36th Div. VI Corps U.S. 7th Army, Sorbourg, France pass a smoking house hit by U.S. artillery fire 3-18-45.
- A-3210 Co K Bn 143rd Inf Regt 36th Div XI Corps U.S. 7th Army, Haguenau France. Advance through the Haguenau Forest, towards their next objective 3-18-45.
- A-3211 Mortar crew march threw Mietesheim, France. The town has just been captured. A mortar man in the lead transports his shells in a baby carriage. Co H 2nd Bn 143rd Inf Regt 36th Div VX Corps 7th Army 3-16-45.
- A-3212 In the Grand Hotel at Butzhuehl, Austria Field Marshal Hermann Goering former Co of the Luftwaffe, captured by the OSS. Div Co of the 36th Inf Div. Brig Gen Robert I Stack on his right talks to Maj Gen John E Dahlquist CG 36th Inf Div 5-9-45.
- A-3213 Maj Gen J.E. Dahlquist CG 36th Inf Div Regt. The Distinguished Service Cross from Lt Gen W.H. Haislip at Avasburg, Germany 6-18-45.
- A-3214 4 of the Co's of the 36th Inf Div XXI Corps U.S. 7th Army move from parade formation to pass in review at the rehearsal of the celebration of the 2nd anniversary of the landing at Salerno, Italy on 9-9-45 Goppinggeri, Germany

36th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3215 The picture of Nazi Imperialism, Field Marshal Gerd Von Rundstedt, former Supreme Commander of the German Army on the western front, talks with Maj Gen John E. Dahlquist CG 36th Div Weillheim, Germany 5-2-45.

111TH ENG. REGT. 36TH DIV.

- A-3399 Engineers of the 111th Eng. Bn. 36th Div., group around a small blow torch to heat and drink coffee. They are building barbed wire entanglements from captured German wire, Weitbruch, Germany, 1-27-45.
- A-3400 A caterpillar bulldozer of the 111th Engineers rolls an abandoned French truck off the road, in Montferret Area, France, 8-20-44.
- A-3401 Helping to build a barbed wire entanglement, this Engineer uses a big maul to drive stakes into the snow covered frozen ground, 111th Eng. Bn. 36th Inf. Div., Weitbruch Area, France 1-27-45.
- A-3402 Men from 111th Eng. Bn., 36th Inf. Div., build a barbed wire entanglement on a secondary defense line in Weitbruch Area, France, 1-27-45.
- A-3403 Engineers in deep snow unreeing and tightening barbed wire in the secondary defense line 111th Eng. Bn. 36th Inf. Div., Weitbruch, Germany, 1-27-45.
- A-3404 An army ambulance moves over the planks that form the base of a road near Belmont, France, 111th Eng. Bn., 11-1-44.
- A-3405 Anti-tank mines are used to blow German pill boxes, Co "C", 111th Eng. Regt. 36th Div., Rulzheim Area, France, 3-28-45.
- A-3406 A blow torch being used to thaw out a frozen jackhammer, 111th Eng. Bn., 36th Inf. Div., Weitbruch Area, France, 2-8-45.
- A-3407 Engineers carry mines inside a bunker where the mines will be set off, Co "C", 111th Eng. Regt. 36th Div., Rulzheim Area, Germany, 1945.
- A-3408 Mine sweepers of the 111th Engineers work on the road entering San Pietro, Italy, 12-17-43.
- A-3409 Engineers getting ready to blow German pill boxes, Co "C", 111th Eng. Regt. 36th Div., 3-29-45.
- A-3410 Engineers look over their work after blowing up this German pill box, Co "C", 111th Eng. Regt. 36th Div., 3-29-45.
- A-3411 Engineers filling a stream bed allowing vehicles to cross into the outskirts of Luxeuil, France, 7th Army, 111th Eng. Regt. 36th Div., 9-16-44.

141ST REGT. 36TH DIV.

- A-3337 Troops advance on simulated enemy thru a grape orchard while white phosphorous shells exploding in background during landing practice exercise, 141st Regt. 36th Div., 8-7-44.
- A-3358 While engineers put a treadyway across the Soultzbach river, infantrymen use railroad tracks as an emergency bridge, Co. "H" 141st Inf. Regt. 36th Div., 3-31-45.
- A-3359 Infantrymen file down snowy trail as they move to the rear after being relieved in the line by another unit, Demengstat Area, France, 11-13-44.
- A-3360 Infantrymen move up a snowy trail to take their positions in the front line as one Bn. relieves another, Demengstat Area, France, 11-29-44.
- A-3361 Infantrymen moving up trail to take their position in line. These troops move up thru snow to effect relief, Demengstat, France, 11-29-44.
- A-3362 This machine gunner, carries a heavy machine gun over snowy trail in France, to take a position in the front line, as his Bn. relieves another Bn., Demengstat Area, France, 11-13-44.
- A-3363 On the U.S. Army front medics rush a soldier of the 2nd Bn., to an aid station in Haguenau, France, note the civilian peering from the doorway in background, 3-13-45.
- A-3364 Pfc William J. Burke of Pittsburg, Pa., (L) resting in the Oberdorf Area, France, before his Co., goes on the move again, 3-19-45.
- A-3365 Amo. servers of the mortar crew, unpacking and putting charges on amo., Rapido river Area, Italy, 1-24-44.
- A-3366 Many German shells cases are made of steel instead of the customary brass. Here, men meticulously clean some captured German shells to make them safe for more firing, Offendorf Area, France, 2-20-45.
- A-3367 Staff Sgt. James F. Carter, of Corpus Christi, Tx. writes "made in Germany" on captured German 88mm shell before it is sent crashing back into Germany across the Rhine river, Offendorf Area, France, 2-20-45.
- A-3368 In the Haguenau Area of France, the 81mm mortar crew prepare for a fire mission, men of Co. "D" stack amo. along the mortar pit, 3-9-45.
- A-3369 Dug in for attack or defense are members of Co., "G", on Mt. Porchia, while protecting rear of other companies attacking Mt. Trocchio, final German stronghold before Cassino, Mt Porchia is in background, 4-28-44.
- A-3370 After fall of Mt Trocchio, soldiers of Co. "G" occupy in the usual Inf. manner in foxholes, 1-15-44.
- A-3371 7th Army infantrymen march from the front lines during a snow storm in the Langefosse Area, France, 11-22-44.
- A-3372 L-R Capt Alban E Reid Jr of New Haven, Conn and Pfc Wm. G. Mech, of Merionett, Wl., questioning 2 German women who were under suspicion of communicating with Germans outside of town, 5-21-45.
- A-3373 Infantrymen marching from the front lines during a snow storm in the Langefosse Area, 11-22-44.
- A-3374 Men of medical detachment, making their way thru San Pietro, Italy, to find wounded Americans, 12-31-43.
- A-3375 1st Lt. Nathaniel Kaplan, Camden, N.J., receiving the DSC medal from Major Gen. John E. Dahlquist C.G., Dantzenheim Area, France, 4-17-45.
- A-3376 After command performance the army composer Irving Berlin is met and congratulated by the Royal family back stage at the Palladium Theater (L to R) Lt. Gen. Jacob L Devers Eto Commander, Irving Berlin, Princess Elizabeth, the Queen, Princess Margaret Rose, and King George, 11-17-43.
- A-3377 Oblivious to the dead German in of their temporary shelter, American infantrymen watch thru the window for any signs of activity, Oberhoffen, France, 2-3-45.
- A-3378 After more than 48 hours of steady fighting, these infantrymen are returning to the rear for a much needed rest, 2-20-45.
- A-3380 These political prisoners of Nazi Germany were told that the war had ended as American troops advanced, and then were slaughtered as they they left railroad cars. SS troops who fired on them with automatic weapons left their bodies piled in the cars at the station platform, 5-1-45.

141st Regt. 36th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3381 Dr-4 wire reels have been adapted to pack boards to facilitate the laying of wire by a two man team. Here, the men at the left carries a pack board with a fuel reel while the man at the (R) carries a half mile filler coil of w-110 wire Hagenau, Germany.
- A-3382 American soldiers examine a new model German tank not previously encountered in this area. The tank was knocked out by a new American 76mm gun mounted on a Sherman tank, 11-28-44.
- A-3383 The crew of the 81mm mortar 141st Inf. Regt. 36th Div., ducks a blast as a shell goes on its way into enemy lines in the Hagenau Area, France 3-9-45.
- A-3384 While one member of a mortar crew rest, the other remains alert at a position on Mt. Porchia, Italy to defend rear of other attacking companies assaulting Mt. Trocchio, the last bit of German resistance before Cassino, 1-15-44.
- A-3385 Outside of Soultz, men of Co. "F" 2nd Bn. 141st Inf. Regt. 36th Div., VI Corps 7th Army ride on tanks again toward their next objective, 4-18-45.
- A-3386 Troops of Co. "C" and their equipment are camouflaged to blend with the landscape like this column of 36th Div., Infantrymen and supporting tanks seen moving across snow covered field, Dossenheim Area, France, 2-19-45.

142ND REGT. 36TH DIV.

- A-3379 This Japanese American soldier stands his post in the woods near the front lines, armed with a bazooka here he is being relieved by a member of the 142nd Inf. Regt. Co "H" St. Die Area France, 11-17-44.
- A-3396 7th Army tank, loaded down with Infantrymen passes thru a road block in Bergzabern, Germany. 142nd Inf. Regt. 36th Div., 3-23-45.
- A-3397 Two Infantrymen of 142nd Inf. Regt. 36th Div., 7th Army wear white capes to camouflage them in snow surrounding their dugout in woods of the Bischwiller Area. Their machine gun also is covered with snow for camouflage purposes, 1-24-45.

143RD REGT. 36TH DIV.

- A-3270 As a forward observation post of an Inf. Regt., Captain Ray Scott (L) Signal Corps cameraman of St Louis, Mo., and Pvt. Daniels of Wayne, Mi., look down on the San Pietro Valley still occupied by the German, Venafro Sector, Italy, 12-14-43.
- A-3271 Tarquinia Area, Italy American troops marching out of town, 6-9-44.
- A-3272 Officer and soldier of the 143 Regt., 36th Inf. Div., search German soldier after he has been captured, 6-6-44.
- A-3287 PFC Lester R Bertollet, of Hillsboro, Ill., he is platoon Bozooka gunner for Co "E", looks at German 88, used as anti-tank gun on Rt # 7, 1 and 1/2 miles from Velletri, 5-27-44.
- A-3288 Pvt Leonard N Levin, Newark, NJ has reason to be happy, the bang over his right eye covers a gash cut by shrapnel from a shell landing close enough to rip up his kit which was laying nearby him, 11-27-43.
- A-3289 Soldiers looking at a captured 170mm gun, the 3rd individual in the front is John M Shaw from Nacogdoche, Tx., who has been on the move for two days, 6-20-44.
- A-3290 M 7, 105mm self-propelled Howitzer of A Battery, 91st F.A. Bn., Armored Artillery, firing., Mignano Area, Italy 12-30-43.
- A-3291 A relief Inf Co., moves into the shell-torn town of Rohrwiler to take their place on the front line, 2-4-45.
- A-3292 A house hit by U.S. Artillery is still burning as Infantrymen occupy the town of Miteaheim, France, 3-16-45.
- A-3293 Compressed air hammer helps to break ground for the Infantrymen. The hole they are scooping out of the frozen earth will become a machine gun emplacement, to cover barbed wire entanglements as part of a secondary defense line, Montbronn Area, France, 1-15-45.
- A-3294 3rd Bn. rifleman hop on a tank to ride forward on the 36th Inf Div., push. The tank is part of the 753rd Tank Bn attached to the 36th Div., 4-17-45.
- A-3308 Sgt. Everitt W Bastion of Co. "E" patrols for snipers, 5-27-44.
- A-3309 Infantrymen of a mopping up patrol, keep moving on after checking a house for snipers, 8-27-44.
- A-3310 Soldiers pass smoking house hit by U.S. artillery fire, 3-18-45.
- A-3311 Three GI's of Co. "F" 143rd Regt. 36th Div., look towards German position across the Rhine river, 4-7-45.
- A-3312 Lt. Elmer Ward of Ivanhoe, Tx. and S/Sgt John P. Moriarty, N.Y., N.Y. watching German position across Rhine river from their out post, these men are from Co "F" 143rd Inf Regt. 36th Inf. Div., 4-7-45.
- A-3313 Pvt. Clyde F. Martin, La Moille, Ill., Hq Co., makes an overhead tie line running into Regimental switchboard, Plenataro Sector, Italy, 1943.
- A-3355 The body of an officer of 143rd Regt 36th Div., U.S. 7th Army, shot by snipers, lies in street in Ritschoffen, Germany, 3-15-45.
- A-3356 U.S. troops of Co. "K" Bn., 143rd Inf. Regt 36th Div., XI Corps U.S. 7th Army Hagenau, France advance thru the Hagenau Forest toward their next objective, 3-18-45.
- A-3295 Bazooka man fires around the corner of a house at the German in a house about 150 ft., across the canal that divides the two forces.
- A-3296 Woman kisses the hand of American Colonel Martin of the 143rd Inf 36th Div. San Pietro Sector, Italy, 12-17-43.
- A-3297 Tank Bn. comes into the city carrying the 143rd Inf Regt as the people gather to cheer them on, France 9-16-44.
- A-3298 An American self-propelled gun fires German positions in the Rhine Valley, In the Ribeauville Area, France, 12-9-44.
- A-3299 These 8 German prisoners, claiming to be former Luftwaffe airmen, remained behind in Rohrwiler, France, to snipe at Americans when they retook the town, these German were located and surrendered the following day, 2-4-45.
- A-3300 Tank destroyers move thru the rubble-strewn streets of Rohrwiler, France, past a shell blasted church in the center of the town, 2-4-45.
- A-3301 A platoon of Engineers dug in on ridge, over looking Differten, Germany as Infantrymen form the 2nd line of defense, gun are removed at early dawn and replaced at night, 2-26-45.
- A-3302 Three men of a raiding party make a dash thru sand bagged hole in a brick wall that opens onto the Moder river, 3-20-45.
- A-3303 Using Heinrich Himmler's summer home for Command Post near Tegara Sea in southern Germany, 5-8-45.
- A-3304 PFC Charles B McKinney Jr., Houston, Tx, with Hqs Co., operating an Italian switchboard picked up in combat, 11-15-43.

- A-3305 A German Lt. being questioned by American officers about location of German tanks somewhere outside of town, La Walck, France, 3-18-45.
- A-3306 Spix- 13 remains of an ammunition truck that was hit by German artillery shells, 12-45.
- A-3307 Same description as A-3306, different view.

37TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3245 Staff officers of the 37th Div Artillery on Bougainville, 12-13-43.
- A-3246 Soldiers of the 148th Inf 37th Div climbing ladder of the transport taking them to Bougainville. Transport Pres. Jackson 11-5-43.
- A-3247 117th Eng Bn 37th Div bulldozer coming to the rescue of a Sherman tank, of Co B 75th Tank Bn. Baguio Luzon, P.I. 4-22-45.
- A-3248 Men embarking with personal equipment after food and ammunition had been loaded, are from 37th Div. Co "D" 145th Inf 37th Div. Guadalcanal 6-18-43.
- A-3249 GI's of the 3rd Bn. 148th Inf 37th Div move slowly along the Numa Numa Trail to post # 7 on Bougainville. Tanks of 754th Tank Bn. stand ready. Solomon Islands 4-1-44.
- A-3250 Co. "A" lie in prone position as a Jap machine gun grazes the area. Bougainville, 2nd Bn. 129th Inf 37th Div 3-24-44.
- A-3251 Infantrymen of Co. "F" 129th Inf 37th Div resting beside a roadside house on the way to Boguio, Luzon P.I. 4-23-45.
- A-3252 Infantrymen of 2nd Bn. 129th Inf Regt 37th Div search for Japs as they move to front on Bougainville 3-24-44.
- A-3253 Infantrymen of Co. "D" 129th Inf 37th Div advance along broken demolished street in center of Baguio, Luzon P.I. 4-27-43.
- A-3254 Reconnaissance car fires into Jap pill box. GI's of the 129th Regt 37th Div. Trinidad, Luzon P.I. 5-45.
- A-3255 As men of Co. "A" 129th Inf 37th Div advance slowly through Santa Fe Valley, tanks of the 775th Tank Bn. are in lead Luzon, P.I. 7-10-45.
- A-3256 Same as number A-3255 different view. 7-10-45.
- A-3257 Men of Co "A" 511th Parachute Regt 11th Airborne Div. fraternize with the men of 775th Tank Bn. 37th Cagayan Valley, Luzon P.I. 6-26-45.
- A-3258 GI's of the 3rd Bn. 148th Inf 37th Div advance behind tanks of the 734th Tank Bn. along Numa Numa Trail on Solomon Islands 4-1-44.
- A-3259 Infantrymen of Co. "A" move up to the perimeter of Co. "F" 129th Inf 37th Div. Bougainville, Solomon Islands 4-24-44.
- A-3260 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 148th Inf rest on the slope of hill 700 after major engagement with the Japs. Solomon Islands 3-13-44.
- A-3261 GI's of the 145th Inf Regt 37th Div stop for a while as artillery barrage is being laid down 500 yards ahead on Jap roadblock, Cagayan Valley, Luzon P.I. 6-12-45.
- A-3262 GI's of the 37th Div Inf Regt. with an M-7 tank and 75mm gun flush out Japs at a road junction. Cagayan Valley, Luzon P.I. 6-12-45.

- A-3263 A talker directs tank fire as Infantrymen of Co. I 3rd Bn. 129th Inf 37th Div. advance along the road toward Bone Nueva Viscapa Province Luzon, P.I. 6-3-45.
- A-3264 2nd Bn. 129th Inf. 37th Div. troops of Co. A are in prone positions as enemy machine gun grazes the area, 3-24-44.
- A-3265 GI's from Co. A 145th Inf 37th Div in position on hill 700. Where they had the Japs surrounded 3-10-44.
- A-3266 20mm gun crew 136th Field Arty. 37th Div. have five Japs plane to their credit from the New Georgia Campaign 11-20-43.
- A-3267 Tanks of the 637th Tank Bn. 37th Div blast the downtown of Baguio Luzon, P.I. from the fashionable Queen Hill 4-26-45.
- A-3268 Members of the 140th Field Arty Bn. 37th Div. from Cleveland, Ohio on Bougainville 1-8-44.
- A-3269 Troops from the 2nd Bn. 148th Inf. 37th Div. are waiting to move into Bivouac Area, after landing on Bougainville 11-8-43.

38TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3273 The arrival of the 38th Div aboard the troop ship at, Los Angeles Port of Embarkation, Ca. 10-30-45.
- A-3274 GI's of the 2nd Bn. 127th Inf. 38th Div., clean out a Jap cave with a T.N.T. charge, Villa Verde Trail, Luzon P.I. 5-12-45.
- A-3275 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 151st Inf. 38th Div. Advance on a small ridge on Gaballo Island 3-27-45.
- A-3276 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 151st Inf. 38th Div. Rest, before firing a 60mm mortar at the Japs. Caballo Island 3-27-45.
- A-3277 Officers stand in front of the 38th Div. sign. L-R Maj. Gen F.N. Irving C.G. 38th Div., Brig Gen W.M. C. Spence C.G. 38th Div. Artillery and Col. A.J. Hastings 8-4-45.
- A-3278 Men of the 151st Inf. 38th Div. who just landed on the Jap held, Caballo Island in Manila Bay 3-27-45.
- A-3279 These Infantrymen of Co. D 1st Bn. 151st Inf. Regt. 38th Div. Will set off satchel charges of T.N.T. which are homemade. Marikin Village, Rizal Province, Luzon P.I. 5-19-45.
- A-3280 Following a terrific air and naval bombardment, men of the 38th Div. land on tiny Caballo Island in Manila Bay P.I. They are faced with necessity of frontal assault on steep cliffed rocky shores 3-27-45.
- A-3281 Men of the 151st Regt 38th Inf. Div., react with gusto to the news that they will be home soon, Luzon P.I. 9-24-45.
- A-3282 Maj. Gen. W.M. C. Chase formerly C.G. 38th Div., who has been appointed C.G. 1st Cavalry Div., Lucena Tayabas, Luzon P.I. 8-1-45.
- A-3283 This Jap shelter was made from raincoats, rubber sheeting, and a U.S. poncho, 1945.
- A-3284 Jap pillbox in Marakina is blasted by the 38th Div., crew of the 57mm anti tank gun 152nd Regt 5-11-45.
- A-3285 3 Infantrymen of Co. "A" 149th Regt combat team 38th Div., cover the advance patrol on a narrow road overlooking Marikina River, in the Makina Dam Area Luzon, P.I. 5-28-45.
- A-3286 A 57mm anti tank gun of Hqs Co. 1st Bn. 152nd Inf. 38th Div., open fire on a Jap pillbox in the Marikina Waterhead Reservation Area, Luzon, P.I. 5-11-45.

40TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3314 Personnel of the Med Section 3rd Bn. 108th Regimental Com. Team, arrive at Malaybalay, Mindanao, P.I. 5-26-45.
- A-3315 U.S. soldiers of the 185th Inf. 40th Div., relax on a road as a tank passes them at Molo, Panay, P.I. 3-30-45.
- A-3316 Maj. Gen. Rappbrush C.G. 40th Div. left and Maj. Gen. M. Murry C.G. forward Area, South Pacific 4-10-44.
- A-3317 Members of the USO show visiting Cape Gloucester, enjoy lunch at 40th Div. Hqs L to R Martha Tilton. Col. C.G. Latimer Chief Of Staff 40th Div., Crole Landis, Gen. Brush, Jack Benny, and Larry Adler 7-28-44.
- A-3318 Waiting for the signal, troops of 40th Inf. Div., wait on Guadalcanal for transport to troop ship, Kukum Point, 160th Inf. Regt 2-28-44.

40TH INF. DIV. KOREA

- A-3319 LST 1141 waiting off Chigasaki Beach, Japan. In support of 223rd Regt. Com. Team 40th Div. training 7-7-51.
- A-3320 Chigasaki Beach, Japan, landing craft circles USS Calvert APA-32 getting ready to land, with the 223rd Regt. Com. Team, 7-21-45.
- A-3321 Men of Co. B 224th Regt 40th Div., make way along roadway as they move up 2-9-52 Korea
- A-3322 Sgt. J.C. Card Co 16th Regt 40th Div., gives directions to mortar men as he observes hits on enemy, Korea, 2-4-52.
- A-3323 Men of Bn. B 981st F.A. Bn. clean breach of Howitzer 40th Div. 2-1-52.
- A-3324 A transport ship carrying 40th Inf. Div., members arrives at Yokohama, Japan 4-10-51.
- A-3325 Col. B. Hamlett 24th Inf. Div. Artillery Co. and Brig Gen F. Harding 40th Inf Div. Artillery Co., during ceremony which 40th Div. took command of Artillery, Korea 1-25-52.
- A-3326 Men of the 40th Inf. Div. take a last look at Japan before sailing for Korea, aboard USNS Marrifee troop ship 1-7-52.
- A-3327 Pfc. A.T. Parnell Co. A 140th Tank Bn. 40th Inf. Div., walk on a marooned M-46 tank 1-6-52.
- A-3328 Gunners of Btry A 980th F.A. Bn. 40th Inf. Div., fires round at Chinese communist forces, Korea 4-28-52.
- A-3329 Infantrymen of Co. A 223rd Inf Regt 40th Div., attack bunker positions with flame throwers 2-20-53. Korea
- A-3330 Men of 160th Inf. Regt descend a mountain in Kapyong Valley 10-11-52
- A-3331 Men of Co. M 160th Inf. Regt prepare to fire a 75mm recoilless rifle from mountain side position 4-2-52. Korea
- A-3332 Men of Btry A 980th F.A. Bn. loading a breach of 105mm Howitzer Korea 2-17-52
- A-3333 Cpl. Elvin Kendall of Btry C, fires 105mm at Chinese positions Korea 3-2-52.
- A-3334 Tank of the 204th Inf. Regt withdraws from "Sandbag Castle" after signing of truce agreement, Korea 7-28-53.

- A-1105 Maj Gen. Roderick R. Allen CO of the 12th A.D. Maj. Gen. R.L. Spragins of the 44th Div. and Brig. Gen. Riley Ennis confer in village near, Rohsbach, France 12/11/44.
- A-1105A In a forest on the Saar front in the area of the 44th Div., 7th army soldiers with support Inf. platoon, who established outpost, are cleaning their weapons after returning from a mission, 3rd Bn 324th Regt., 44th Div., 2/25/44.
- A-1105B Two mortars, one a captured Nazi piece, are fired together toward German positions near, Guiderkirk, France by men of the 3rd Bn., 324th Inf. Regt. 44th Div. 7th Army, 2/25/45.
- A-1106 U.S. Army anti-tank crew set up 57 MM gun, near German cemetery, to meet possible enemy counter attack. 71st Anti-tank Co 44th Inf. Div., 12/17/44.
- A-1106A Brig. Gen. William F. Dean C.G. 44th Inf. Div., visit the Div., snow covered defense positions, 1/24/45.
- A-1106B A group of Germans of the 19th Army in Austria, lay down arms when the unit surrenders on this date, 44th Div., 7th Army VI Corp 5/6/45.
- A-1107 Yanl of the 44th Div., VI Corp 7th Army, warm their rifles and helmets with joy after hearing the news of the 19th German Armys surrender at Landeck, Austria, 5/6/45.
- A-1107A Two Infantrymen look out of their foxhole in the direction of Guiderkirk, as smoke from shelling and aerial bombing rise in the air, 71st Inf. Regt., 44th Div., IV Corp 7th Army, France 3/15/45.
- A-1107B Infantrymen of the 44th Inf. Div. are loading on trucks to leave for Austria in the Tyrolian Alps, going on pass to one of several pass centers in France, for a rest. VI Corp 44th Inf. Div., 6/1/45.
- A-1108 Infantrymen of the 44th Inf. Div., on a mountain road leading to the Reisa Pass, are looking over the demolished road where there are outposts. This road before Landeck, Austria, was blown up, to delay U.S. Troop's by a German grenadier Div., still fighting in Austria, 7th Army IV Corp 5/3/45.
- A-1108A Infantrymen of the 44th Inf. Div., in Alps of the Austria Tyrol, having just entered Austria, push further into Hitlers held Austria, U.S. 7th Army, 3rd Bn. 74th Inf. Regt. VI Corp Wasau Area, Austria, 4/29/45.
- A-1108B Infantrymen of the 44th Inf. Div. in Alps of the Austria Tyrol. A tank moves thru the road to the Alps. Infantrymen keep low as they meet enemy resistance in an Austrian mountain village at Wasau, 7th Army 772nd Bn. & 324th Inf. Regt. VI Corp 4/29/45.
- A-1109 Infantrymen move thru the town of Berg, Germany, after crossing the Danube river entering the town with no opposition. Co "K", 7th Inf. Regt., 44th Div. V Corp 7th Army, 4/23/45.
- A-1109A Infantrymen debark from assault boats after crossing the Danube with no opposition, 3rd Bn. 71st Inf. Regt., 44th Div. VI Corp 7th Army, Berg, Germany, 4/23/45.

44th Inf Div. WWII Cont.

- A-1109B Men of the 44th Inf. Div. will be relieved from combat after 144 days on the front lines. Here they wait outside a church wall in Gros-Rederoheng, France, for trucks to transport them to the rear area for rest, retraining and new equipment. Co "K" 171st Inf. Regt. 44th Inf. Div. 7th Army, 3/16/45.
- A-1110 Mortar squad return after twenty days on the front lines, tired and dirty to rest, 2nd Bn. 324th Inf Regt 44th Div. 7th Army, Hoelling Area, France, 2/20/45.
- A-1110A American infantrymen move thru the Simenshoff fortress after capturing it after 5 days of heavy air and artillery bombardment, 1st Bn. 71st Regt. 44th Div., France 12/16/44.
- A-1110B Infantrymen of Co "C" 1st Bn. 71st Regt. 44th Inf. Div., await orders to advance across field in an attack near Tal, France, 12/1/44.
- A-1111 Men of the 71st Inf. Regt. 44th Div. return from the front, tired from an attack in which they lost many men, Menil Area, France 11/17/44.
- A-1111A Members of Co "E", 324th Regt. 44th Inf. Div. who are temporarily supporting a French Armored Div., march thru Stralsbourg Area, France, 11/24/44.
- A-1111B The 44th Inf. Div., in action 144 days take a rest in order to return and re equip, machine guns ammo and boxes are being assembled by infantrymen, 3/16/45.
- A-1112 Americans troops marching into Ulm, Germany are greeted joyously by liberated Poles, 324th Inf. Regt. 44th Div., 7th Army XI Corp, 4/24/45.
- A-1112A These tanks, carrying men of the 71st Inf. Regt. 44th Div., 7th Army make their way across the Danube River, Berg, Germany, with no opposition, 4/23/45.
- A-1112B Men of the 71st Inf. Regt 44th U.S. Army, reach shore after crossing the Danube River, near Berg, Germany, 4/23/45.
- A-1113 Two infantrymen of the 44th Div. U.S. 7th Army, move cautiously forward in search of an enemy sniper in a wooded section somewhere in France, while a third soldier, at right covers their advances with a Tommy gun. The dead German soldier attests to the accuracy of some American Inf. shooting, Woelpling Area, France 2/15/44.
- A-1113A Heavy rains have kept men of a Div. somewhere in ETO, soaked for days. Some of their men are digging their 3rd fox-hole in their area, 3rd Bn. 324th Regt, 44th Div., 11/8/44.

45TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3478 U.S. Infantrymen of the 45th Div., ignore the dead German, and the knocked out Nazi tank to put on their new combat jackets designed for warmth 157th Inf. Regt 10-31-44.
- A-3479 Tank and Infantrymen of the 45th Div., find it difficult to make their way through the hilarious throng, while passing through Bourg, France 9-4-44.
- A-3480 Infantrymen troops of the 45th Div., leave their LCI and wade in chest deep water toward the beach near St. Maxime, Southern France, 7th Army, 8-15-44.

45th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3481 An army truck unloads from the first LST to reach the beach occupied by the 45th Div., during the invasion of Southern, France 7th Army 8-15-44.
- A-3482 Doors of a LST being opened for the loading of vehicles prior to another amphibious operation. These troops are with the 45th Inf. Div. Docks at Palermo, Sicily 9-14-43.

45TH INF. DIV. KOREA

- A-3483 Co. H 180th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div., the first Co. in the Div. to have 100% membership in the 45th Div. association, 12-10-52.
- A-3484 Members of Btry A 171st F.A. Bn. 45th Inf. Div. fire 105mm howitzer during attack on enemy on front lines, 7-2-52.
- A-3485 A mortar crew of Co. M 179th Inf Regt 45th Inf. Div., fires on enemy troops concentration from a front line position west of Chorwan 7-4-52.
- A-3486 Members of the heavy Mortar CO. 179th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div., blast enemy held positions, Korea 7-2-52.
- A-3487 Tank Co. 180th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div., mans a .50 caliber machine gun on Little Ken, north of Inje 11-20-52.
- A-3488 William Holden center visits the 270th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div., near Chunchon. To his left is Capt. Erick R. Reed to his right is Charles Little-John 1-9-52.
- A-3489 Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg, talk with the men from the 245th Tank Bn. 45th U.S. Inf. Div. During her tour of Korea, 11-10-52.
- A-3490 Infantrymen, man a .50 caliber machine gun covering the road to Co. A north of Inje. Heavy mortar Co. 179th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div., 11-20-52.
- A-3491 Infantrymen of Co. I 180th Inf. Regt 45th U.S. Inf. Div. Keep watch for communist forces 6-52.
- A-3492 180th Inf. Regt 45th Div., move through Homburg, 3-21-45.
- A-3493 Men of Co. E 180th Inf. Regt, march through Erweiler, Germany, After capture, 3-16-45.
- A-3494 2 Infantrymen of CO I 3rd Bn. 180th Regt cover a comrade who is entering a house in search of snipers in, Bobenthal, Germany 12-16-44.
- A-3495 Members of the 45th Inf. Div., leave New Orleans aboard the Marine Lynx, bound for Korea, 3-28-51.
- A-3496 45th Div., aboard the USN Gen. Gaffey enroute to Korea. 3/4 bow view in locks in Panama 4/51.
- A-3497 Maj. Gen J.C. Styron C.G. 45th Div., aboard the USN Gen. Gaffey 4/51.
- A-3498 Members of the 45th U.S. Inf. Div., attending the Div. school, north of Yang-Gu 5-25-53

65TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3540 Liberated Hungarian Jews march alongside men of the 65th Inf. Div., U.S. 3rd Army on the way to line, Austria, 5-7-45.

65th Inf. Div WWII

- A-3541 Infantryman of the 260th Regt. 65th Inf. Div., U.S. 3rd Army, move into the Danube River town of Regensburg, Germany, 4-27-45.
- A-3542 A patrol of the 259th Regt, 65th Inf. Div., U.S. 3rd Army, makes its way up a steep side of a mountain near Geraberg, Germany, 4-12-45.
- A-3543 A patrol attached to the 259th Regt. U.S. 3rd Army, moves in a single file along a mountain area in the locality of Geraberg, Germany, 4-12-45.
- A-3544 Men of the 744th "F" Arty Bn., supporting the 65th Inf. Div., U.S. 3rd Army, unload 8 inch howitzer shells from a weapons carrier, near Bedersdorf, Germany, 3-11-45.
- A-3545 T/5 Leon Mayer (R) Port Arthur, Tx., with the 65th Inf. Div., U.S. 3rd Army questions Rear Admiral Dr. Wilhelm Buchholz and Lt. Gen. Otto Neuman, judges of supreme German military court, captured at Fornbach, German, 5-2-45.
- A-3546 Infantrymen of the 65th Div., 3rd Army pass thru a smoldering German town, now cleared of Nazi resistance, 4-2-45.
- A-3547 Like many other German towns thru which the allied have passed, Frauautern is a mass of rubble and debris, 65th Div., U.S. 3rd Army, 3-20-45.
- A-3548 65th Inf. Div., display Nazi banner they captured in Russ, Germany, town in which U.S. 3rd and 7th Armies met for the first time in the German campaign, 260th Inf. Regt. 1st Bn., Tusa, 3-20-45.
- A-3549 Same description as # 3548 different view.
- A-3550 A mortar crew climbs over a church wall to a hill position in Bass, Germany, 3rd and 7th Armies met for the first time in this town, 65th Inf. Div., 3-20-45.
- A-3551 Artillerymen of the U.S. 3rd Army take time out to enjoy coffee and listen to the harmonica, 744th F.A. Bn. 65th Inf. Div., Bedersdorf, Germany, 3-1-45.

69TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3594 Rifleman flush snipers in streets of Leipzig, German, 69th Div., 4/18/45.
- A-3595 Infantrymen of Co. "G" 272nd Regt. 69th Inf. Div., move forward in newly captured, Leipzig, Germany, 4/18/45.
- A-3596 Infantrymen of the 69th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army, walk down the road to their assault boats to cross the Saale River in Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-3597 Infantrymen of the 69th Inf. Div., 1st Army get ready to load into assault boat to cross the Saale River in Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-3598 Infantrymen of the 69th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army run down a street to get into a assault boat to cross the Saale River in Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-3599 Infantrymen of the 69th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army, in Wessenfeld, Germany, 1945.
- A-3600 Infantrymen of the 69th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army, gather around a jeep in newly captured Leipzig, Germany 4/18/45.
- A-3601 Infantrymen of the 69th Div., U.S. 1st Army move into Bad Kosen, Germany 4/12/45.
- A-3602 Infantrymen of the 69th Div., U.S. 1st Army, advance through the street of Laubach, Germany, to prepare for the Werra River crossing, 4/7/45.
- A-3603 Rifleman of the 69th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army, patrol the Rhine River banks to prevent sabotage to pontoon bridges at Remagen, Germany, 3/2/45.

- B-23462 Landing craft going on beaches of Okinawa on D-Day, taken from the USS Charles Carroll APA-28.
- B-23463 Troops advancing inland after making unopposed landing on Okinawa.
- B-23464 7th wave making beach landing on shores of Okinawa.
- B-23465 Unloading trucks and equipment.
- B-23466 Marines advance with tanks.
- B-23467 Ernie Pyle visiting with marines aboard the USS Charles Carroll APA-28 while enroute to Okinawa.
- B-23468 Ernie Pyle Visiting with marines (different view).
- B-23469 7th Wave making beach landings. (different view)
- B-23470 7th wave making beach landings. (different view)
- B-23471 Marines moving artillery across a road are flattened by sniper fire from a grove ahead.
- B-23472 Marines crouch behind the west sea wall as wounded are loaded on board an amtrac on Okinawa.
- B-23473 Landing craft loaded with marines & soldiers waiting for signal to move toward beach on Okinawa.
- B-23475 Landing craft passing the USS West Va. BB-48 heading for beaches.
- B-23476 Lt. Gen. Bolivar; R.K. Turner and Brig. Gen. O.P. Smith study a model of Okinawa prior to the invasion, March 1945.
- B-23477 Amtracks head for shore under the covering fire of the main batteries, 4/1/45.
- B-23478 Jap plane exploding in air over the Hornet CV-12 5/14/45.
- B-23479 An LSM(R) launches a rocket barrage in support of landings April 45.
- B-23480 A kamakazi makes a wave top approach at the port side of the USS Missouri BB-63 4/11/45.
- B-23481 Same plane as above an instant before impact.
- B-23482 Tracers in the dusk- the fleet puts up a barrage against attacking aircraft, 4/6/45.
- B-23483 Marines prepare a charge to blow a hole in a sea wall May 1945.
- B-23484 A dead Jap lies beside the sea wall May 1945.
- B-23485 Crouching marines dash over a crest and head inland, April 1945.
- B-23486 Lying low are members of Hq. Co. 1st Bn., 306th Inf. Reg., 77th Div. U.S. Army 4/1/45.
- B-23487 Marines swarm over the beach of Aguni Shima.
- B-23488 Troops of the Army's 77th Div. advance through the hills of Kerama Retto, 3/27/45.
- B-23489 Same troops in above photo pinned down in a sandy ravine.
- B-23490 Marine patrol surrounds and covers an enemy cave as a charge is detonated at the cave entrance May 1945.
- B-23491 Marine patrol with a bazooka crawls across a hillside of tree stumps.
- B-23492 Panoramic view of U.S. troops moving through the hills of Okinawa. Kneeling soldiers attempt to flush Japs from the underbrush of Ie Shima.
- B-23494 Marine points out a Jap cave stronghold to his flame throwing buddy.
- B-23495 Marine flame-thrower opens up on Japs who refuse to surrender.
- B-23496 Men of the sixth marine division flush Japs from the coral rock of the Islands coastline, May 1945.
- B-23497 Tanks move along the island coastline 4/1/45.
- B-23498 Aerial panorama of the fleet off-shore and of tank forces moving inland.
- B-23499 Aerial panorama of tanks maneuvering on the fields and among the groves of the island
- B-23500 Flame-throwing tanks move on Japs in the island's foothills.
- B-23501 Tank crew pauses during the push inland.
- B-23502 Tanks and infantry move cautiously on the city of Naha, Okinawa.
- B-23503 Marines peer from a trench near a collapsed bridge in Naha.
- B-23504 Crouching army troops advance along a very narrow street of a city on Kerama Retto.
- B-23505 An Army column totting machine guns moves, single file, along a wooded path on Kerama Retto.
- B-23506 Correspondant Ernie Pyle pauses to talk with a G.I. 4/1/45.
- B-23507 An entrenched mortar crew prepares to fire on the island's landing strip.
- B-23508 Aerial view of bomb shattered Jap planes scattered over fields around the airstrip.
- B-23509 Aerial view of village of Anza nestled on the beach among the islands hills 4/3/45.
- B-23462A Aerial view of the bomb smashed tombs of the island's ancestors.
- B-23463A Aerial view of a bomb ruined village on Ie Shima.
- B-23464A Fear fills the faces of these island women as a marine approaches.
- B-23465A Marine shares his water with a small island girl.
- B-23466A A marine appears at a window of the island trolley car in Naha city.
- B-23467A A marine PFC happily opens a chocolate cake from home.
- B-23468A With his helmet for a pillow, this marine sleeps with his dog under a 105mm Howitzer.
- B-23469A A beached Jap suicide boat.
- B-23470A An American officer takes a spin in a Jap suicide boat.
- B-23471A Men of the 83rd Air Group sit before a native hut near Kadena airfield.
- B-23472A An undamaged Jap "Baka" flying bomb.
- B-23473A With Destroyers steaming around her the Jap battleship Yamato lies dead in the water during the attack which sent her to the bottom.
- B-23474A The Yamato explodes and burns. 4/7/45.
- B-23475A An island mother and her children in the Sobe Internment camp.
- B-23478B Dug outs used by the japs on west beach, Okinawa, 5/5/45.

78TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3742 A G.I. of the 311th Regt., 78th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, uses a burning German convoy for a shelter as he draws bead on the enemy in the woods, near Honnaf, Germany, 4/28/45.
- A-3743 G.I.'s of Hdq Battery, 903rd F.A. Bn. try to push a service truck out of deep snow in Hurtgen Forest, Germany, 1/18/45.
- A-3744 4 German prisoners of war carry litter bearing wounded G.I. near, Erfst Canal, on the edge of Euskirchen, which was a 9th Infantrymen of the 78th Div., 1st U.S. Army, 3/5/45.
- A-3745 Troops of the 78th Div., 1st U.S. Army move thru heavy rain, as they pass thru the town of Lanterhofen, Germany on their way to the Rhine 3/7/45.
- A-3746 Infantrymen of the 78th Div., 1st U.S. Army, climb thru window, while his comrades prepare to break thru the door of the building in Euskirchen, Germany, 3/5/45.
- A-3747 U.S. Troops of the 78th Div., Area 1, land in La Harve, France, from LCT 653, 11/18/44.
- A-3748 Brig. Gen. John K. Rice, 78th E.T.O. 4/45.
- A-3749 Maj. Edward G. Eggers, prepare to take Lt. Gen. Von Chaulin, German Commander of all Luftwaffe Troops in the Ruhr Area, Germany to the rear area after his surrender to the 78th Lighting Div., 1st U.S. Army. The German Gen. is seated in the jeep, 4/15/45.
- A-3750 Reinforcements for the 78th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, pass thru Honnaf, Germany while enemy shelling is going on, Honnaf, is on the east side of the Rhine, 3/12/45.
- A-3751 Infantrymen of the 311st Inf. Regt. 78th Div., XII Corps, 9th U.S. Army move up to clean the Germans from a sector near the Roer River, 1/30/45.
- A-3752 Men of the 310th Inf. Regt. 78th Div., 1st U.S. Army, flank the tank, as men and armor of the Div., leave Eunsborn, Germany, 4/10/45.
- A-3753 Men of the 86th Chemical Bn., attached to the 1st U.S. Army, pass the ammo as they keep firing against the enemy, Paustenbach, Germany, 12/13/44.
- A-3754 Infantrymen of the 78th Lighting Div., U.S. 1st Army, clean their rifles after 24 consecutive days of fighting in Remagen, Germany, 3/28/45.
- A-3755 Under conditions of snow and fog a 155mm howitzer if fired on German positions, near Roetgen, Germany, 309th F.A. Bn. 78th Inf. Div., 12/28/44.
- A-3756 Men of F.A. observation post leave for a better vantage point as the 78th Lighting Div., took Eicherscheid, Germany 1/30/45.

79TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3757 Maj. Gen. Ira T. Wycha, CG of the 79th Inf. Div., talks with two staff officers during an inspection of a blown up bridge by the Germans, 9-18-44.
- A-3758 Troops of the 79th Div., U.S. 9th Army embark in assault boats to cross the Rhine river at Orsay, Germany, 3-24-45.
- A-3759 Members of the 79th Inf. Div., examine a German 88mm left behind by retreating Nazis on the outskirts of Fourgered, France. 8-7-44.

79th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3760 The entrance to Germany is marked by sign-post erected by the 79th Inf. Div., 1945.
- A-3761 Troops of the 79th Div., U.S. 9th Army board assault boats preparatory to crossing the Rhine at Orsoy, Germany, 3-24-45.
- A-3762 A trio of French show girls dance for GI's of the rear echelon of an infantry unit in France, Carerret, France, 7-23-44.

313TH REGT. 79TH DIV. WWII

- A-3766 Troops string wire past 4 dead arty horses which were killed by an American arty burst, in the Neewiller Area, France of 5 German soldiers who were hitching up to the horses at the time 4 were killed one wounded, 313th Regt., 79th Div., 12-15-44.
- A-3767 Troops leaving town of Nischwiller, France, on the alert for sniper fire, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 12-8-44.
- A-3768 Patrol in town of Haguenau, France, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 1945.
- A-3769 T/Sgt. John Aronowiss, Reading, Pa. of Cannon Co., tries to keep warm and to dry his wet clothes after a heavy rain in Haguenau, France, 2-1-45.
- A-3770 3 GI's of Cannon Co., try to keep warm and dry their clothes, after a heavy rain in the town of Haguenau, France, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 2-1-45.
- A-3771 A 195mm howitzer in support of an American Inf. Regt., fires at German positions across the Moder river in Haguenau, France, 313th Regt., 79th Div., 2-2-45.
- A-3772 As mortar shells from German positions nearby explode, a chaplain holds services in a home near, Haguenau, France, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 2-5-45.
- A-3773 Mortar shells explode on enemy positions across the Moder river to rout snipers harassing our men, in the Haguenau, France, Co. "L" 313th Regt. 79th Div., 2-5-45.
- A-3774 GI giving German prisoners cigarettes, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 1-10-46.
- A-3775 S/Sgt James Macky, Chicago, Ill., puts increments on German 80mm mortar rounds preparing them for fire mission, at Haguenau, France, Co. "N" 313th 79th Div., 2-2-45.
- A-3776 American infantrymen move on a new objective after the capture of Overbrunch, Germany, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 3-24-45.
- A-3777 Men of the 313th Regt. are members of the gun crew standing by the anti-tank gun, set up behind a snow covered barricade, Haguenau, France, 1-22-45.
- A-3778 Out of the 118 men in Co. "C" only 8 returned, Lauterburg, France, 313th Regt. 79th Div., Co. "C", 12-20-44.
- A-3779 Tanks move into the newly captured town of Overbrunch, Germany, 313th Regt. 79th Div.
- A-3780 American gun crew prepare 57mm anti-tank for firing at enemy positions in houses across Moder river. Gun is set up in position in Haguenau, France, 1-29-45.
- A-3781 Gun crew prepare for action in snow-covered Haguenau, France, after receiving word that enemy tanks are approaching the town, 313th Regt. 79th Div., 1-22-45.

314TH REGT. 79TH DIV. WWII

- A-3783 A Frenchman and his wife ferry American Infantrymen of 314th Inf. Regt. 79th Div., across the Mayenne river as they move forward to the front lines, 8-6-44.

314th Regt. 79th Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3784 Two soldiers seek shelter under a tank, during enemy counter battery fire, 2nd Bn., 314th Inf. Regt. 79th Div., 1-6-45.
- A-3785 Men of the 314th Inf. Div., advance to the attack on the village of Buchelberg, Scheibenhart Area, Germany, 12-17-44.
- A-3786 U.S. infantrymen take cover behind a tank as streets sweep by enemy fire Co. "F", 314 Inf. Regt. 79th Inf. Div., Drusenhelm, Germany, 1-6-45.
- A-3787 Infantrymen of the Co. "K" and "M" 3rd Bn. 314th Inf. Regt. 79th Div., U.S. 9th Army dig into ground to protect their units right flank near Overbruche, Germany, 3-25-45.
- A-3788 Infantrymen of 314th Regt. 79th Div., U.S. 9th Army, drive into German territory east of the Rhine after having taken the German town of Walsum, 3-24-45.
- A-3789 Troops of the 314th Inf. Regt. of 79th Inf. Div., U.S. 7th Army, March thru a muddy road in Parroy Forest, near Luneville, France, 10-12-44.
- A-3790 Infantrymen of Co. "M", 314th Regt. 79th Inf. Div., hike thru Scheibenhart, Germany, on their way to the front in Bein Woods, 12-17-44.

315TH REGT. 79TH DIV. WWII

- A-3791 At a ceremony held at the 315th Regt. cp, Lt. Col. John M. Donaldson, 315th Regt. Exec. Officer is decorated with the distinguished Service Cross, by Maj. Gen. Ira T. Wyche, the 79th Div., Commander, 2-5-45.
- A-3792 Pvt. Stanley Jones from Pee Wee, S.C., plays a guitar as the 79th Div., 315th Inf. Regt. 9th Army move up thru Marxlich, 3-28-45.
- A-3793 Members of the 315th Inf. Regt. 79th Inf. Div., move thru the streets on their way to the front lines, Fougères, France, 8-5-44.
- A-3794 Infantrymen of 315th Regt. 79th Div., U.S. 9th Army, hurry across dike of Rhine-Herne canal near Essen drive to Rubr Pocket, Germany, 4-7-45.
- A-3795 Infantrymen of the 315th Regt., 79th Inf. Div., pass thru Niederbetsdorf, France, to position near Rittershoffen, 1-19-45.
- A-3796 The yanks, 315th Inf. 79th Div., are welcome by the french in the village of La Fougères, France, 8-3-44.
- A-3797 As part of a course in hedgerow fighting given replacements in an infantry unit, the men are taken to a range where they fire at hidden targets, near Hatalmville, France, 7-14-44.

81ST INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3815 A American GI of the U.S. Army's 81st Inf. Div., pokes a rifle into a Japanese pill box on Angaur Island, Palau, 9-17-44.
- A-3816 GI's carry a casualty to the 1138th Eng. Group aid station of the U.S. Army 81st Div., during the Palau Operation, 9-44.
- A-3817 The 322nd Inf. 81st Div., infantrymen supported by tanks, push along railroad tracks leading into Angaur Bowl, 9-21-41.
- A-3818 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. fire a small 60mm mortar on Japanese troops, Angaur Bowl, Palau Group, 12-8-44.
- A-3819 Lt. Col. Thomas McRhal Co., "L", 2nd Bn. directs troops in the attack on Angaur Bowl, 322nd Inf. 81st Div., 9-21-44.

81st Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3820 Infantrymen of 322nd Inf., 81st Div., at Angaur Island, crouch under sniper fire as they approach Angaur Bowl, 9-21-44.
- A-3821 Tanks advance up railroad tracks toward the cut leading into Angaur Bowl, 322nd Inf. 81st Div., 9-21-44.
- A-3822 Tanks and troops pass a Japanese sentry killed earlier in the day's fighting, 322nd Inf. 81st Div., Angaur Island, 9-21-44.
- A-3823 Troops of the 322nd Inf., 81st Div., crouch behind burned out light tank destroyed by the Japanese, 9-21-44.
- A-3824 Same description as # 3823, different view.
- A-3825 The 81st Div., monument is dedicated in the memory of the seven (wildcats) soldiers who died during desert training, 1943.
- A-3826 Battle-weary GIs of the 81st Div., prepare chow in Angaur, Palau Islands, 1944.
- A-3827 After fierce fighting, these GIs clean their rifles, smoke and rest while awaiting orders, Angaur, Palau Islands, 1944.
- A-3828 Men of the 81st Inf. Div., and 1st Marine Div., carry a wounded comrade on a litter thru the valley of Five Sisters on Pelelin Islands, 1944.
- A-3829 81st "Wildcats" Div., passes in review before Maj. Gen. Paul J. Mueller, Camp Rucker, Ala, 3-13-43.
- A-3830 Assault troops of the 81st Div., head for the beach at Ulithi on D-Day, 9-23-44.
- A-3831 This pillbox was smashed earlier by pre-invasion fire men from 81st stormed beachhead, 9-44.
- A-3832 Troops of the U.S. Army's 81st Inf. Div., push ashore, on the run, on D-Day, 9-17-44.
- A-3833 Aerial view of review for Maj. Gen. Paul J. Mueller, 81st Div., (Wildcats) 3-13-43.
- A-3834 The enemy troops "destroyed", the wildcats of the 81st Div., take a time out, 1943.
- A-3835 Wildcats of the 81st Div., are shown running to an explosion, 2-3-43.

84TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3867 Two civil affairs men of the 84th Inf. "Hatchet Man" Div., 9th Army, drive thru the streets of newly captured Duiken the loudspeaker on the vehicle is telling all civilians to report to a designated point for instructions, 335th Inf. Regt. 84th Inf. Div., 3-2-45.
- A-3868 Mortarmen of Co. "D", 87th chemical Bn. 84th Div., receive fire orders as they eat chow. They began firing shells toward the Belgium town of Cielles, 4,000 yds away, 1-9-45.
- A-3869 6th section of the 334th Inf. Regt., 84th Div., cannoners prepare to fire on enemy mortar positions in Laroche. The 105mm howitzer was hit by German artillery shell. In repairing the piece a 51mm gun trail was substituted, 1-9-45.
- A-3870 German troops surrounded the 84th Inf. Div., 9th U.S. Army, gather equipment at the assembly point no. of Werben, Germany, on the west bank of the Elbe River, there is about 1,000 Germans who surrendered to the U.S. on the 5-2-45 after being pushed back by the 9th U.S. Army lines by the advancing Russian troops, 334th Inf. Regt, 1st Bn. 84th Div. X111 Corps, 9th U.S. Army No. of Werben, Germany, 5-2-45.
- A-3871 Infantrymen inspect camouflaged German light artillery piece found in the woods it is one of eight enemy guns levelled off to serve as tanks destroyed. The Germans retreated so quick that the artillery was left behind, Co "B", 334th Inf. Regt. 84th Inf. Div. 9th Army, Ein, Germany 3-2-45.

84th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3872 Men of the 84th Inf. Div. 9th Army, looking at three dead Nazis in Doveren, Germany, 2-26-92.
- A-3873 1st group of men to cross this foot-bridge cross the Roer River were members of the 84th Div., 9th U.S. Army, Germany 2-23-45.
- A-3874 Infantrymen of the 84th Div. 9th Army, move along the street of the recently captured town of Rothe, Germany searching houses for Germans, 4-7-45.
- A-3875 Men of Co. "M", 334th Inf. Regt. advance on toward Rothe, Germany 84th Div., 9th U.S. Army, 4-7-45.
- A-3876 Infantrymen of the 84th Div., 9th Army, are concealed in woods near Rothe, Germany. Tanks of the 334th regt. are bogged down ahead of them, 4-7-45.
- A-3877 Men of the 84th Div. 9th U.S. Army eat their 1st hot meal in 2 days in newly captured town of Salzuflen, Germany, 4-5-45.
- A-3878 GIs of the 84th Div. 9th Army check houses in Verdingen, Germany civilians evacuated to avoid shelling by Nazis on opposite side of the Rhine River, 3-19-45.
- A-3860 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 334th Inf. Regt. crouch in the shelter of vehicles to avoid shrapnel and sniper fire in a model German village on the front lines, Germany, 2-28-45.
- A-3861 Members of the 334th Inf. Regt. 84th Bn. pass a road sign posted by the German 183rd Inf. Div., Infantrymen are marching out of Baal, Germany on the way to Erkelenz. The German 183rd Inf. Div., formerly held this territory, U.S. 9th Army, 2-26-45.
- A-3862 After crossing the Roer River, Infantrymen and tanks of the 84th Div. U.S. 9th Army, move along a tree lined road for the attack on Baal, Germany, 2-24-45.
- A-3863 Infantrymen of the 84th Div. and machine guns from a British tank combine their fire to drive a German sniper out of a building in Gellenkirchen, Germany, 11-19-44.
- A-3866 Infantrymen of the 335th Regt. 84th Div., take positions on the front, just past Anonines, Belgium, 1-4-45.

85TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3879 Members of Battery "B", 328th F.A. Bn. 85th Div., firing their 105mm howitzer, 5th Army, Ranagnala, Italy, 2/15/45.
- A-3880 Officers and enlisted men of Co. "B", 337th Inf. Regt. 85th Div., gather around the radio as Prime Minister Winston Churchill, announces the end of the war in Europe, 5th Army, 5/5/45.
- A-3881 Lt. Gen. Von Graffon, 76th Panzer Corps, German Army, at the 85th Div., "C" Post, where he came to discuss with Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter C.G. of the 85th Div., the method which the German troops are to be surrendered to allied control, Susia Area, Italy, 5th Army 5/3/45.
- A-3882 Machine gun crew of Co. "M", 337th Inf. Regt., 85th Div., setting up a light machine gun on a small knoll, for indirect night fire on German positions, 5th Army 2/8/45.
- A-3883 1st Bn., 338th Inf. 85th Div., marching thru Rome, on their way to the front, Rome Italy, 6/5/44.
- A-3884 Prior to awards of the Silver Stars to men of the 339th Inf. Regt., Maj. Gen. J. B. Coulter, Co. of the 85th Div., address the enlisted men and officers of the 339th Inf. Regt., 8/26/44.

85th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3885 Machine gun crew of the 338th Inf. 85th Div., fires at Germans carrying demolitions, U.S. 5th Army, near, Firenzuola, Italy, 9/19/44.
- A-3886 Men prepare a litter for a casualty, 1st Bn. medical section, 337th Inf. Regt., 85th Div., U.S. 5th Army, Grande Area, Italy, 2/21/45.
- A-3887 Men of Co. "I", 337th Inf. Regt., 85th Div., in Calalzo Area, Italy who were recently sleeping in the open when night overtook them, move into a hotel in Calalzo, 5/26/45.
- A-3888 G.I.'s of Hdq. Co. 2nd Bn. 338th Inf. Regt. 85th Div., U.S. 5th Army, in Verona, Italy hugs side of a building as he peers up a road toward wrecked railroad bridge on the Adige River, 4/25/45.
- A-3889 Men of 1st Bn. 339th Inf. 85th Div., U.S. 5th Army, in Verona Area, Italy, crossing the Adige River, in Verona over the destroyed Ponte Della Vittoria, 4/25/45.
- A-3890 Co. "C" 1st Bn., march past the building near the Verona railroads 339th Inf. Regt. 85th Div. U.S. 5th Army, 4/26/45.
- A-3891 Infantrymen of 2nd Platoon Co. "H" 337th Inf. Regt., march on Po River Valley, on their way to Hwy 64, 85th Div. U.S. 5th Army, Riale Area, Italy, 4/20/45.
- A-3892 Men of the anti-Tank Co. 337th Inf. Regt. 85th Div., search for a sniper who fired a shot at them, 4/20/45.
- A-3893 Infantrymen of the 337th Inf. Regt. 85th Div., leave Piancaldoli on their way to the front, U.S. 5th Army, 10/6/44.
- A-3894 Infantrymen of Co. "B", 339th Inf. 85th Div., march up to take positions in the line and relieve another Co., they pass a smoke pot that helps hide troops. St. Clements Area, Italy, 2/17/45.
- A-3895 Lt. Gen. M. W. Clark CG 5th Army and Maj. Gen. J. Coulter, CG 85th Div. seated in back, and Gen. Sir Harold RIG Alexander C in C AAI, prepare to leave for a trip to Mt. Attuzza 5th Army, Bonzalle Area, Italy, 9/20/44.

86TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-3906 Doughboys, tanks and other vehicles of the 86th Div., U.S. 3rd Army, pass thru ruined town of Ingolstadt, Germany, 4/27/45.
- A-3907 Black Hawks of the 86th Div., troops transport carrying the 86th Div. ar dock, 6/19/45.
- A-3908 The Black Hawks of the 86th Inf. Div., the first complete Army unit to return to the U.S., after D-Day. For redeployment to the Pacific, 6/19/45.
- A-3909 Infantrymen of the 86th Div., U.S. 3rd Army, cross Danube River on foot bridge, Co. "G" 343th Inf. Regt. 86th Div., U.S. 3rd Army, Ingolstadt, Germany, 4/27/45.
- A-3910 1st U.S. Army troops of the 342nd Regt. 86th Inf. Div., camped in the Ruhr Valley, awaiting orders to engage German troops, Erndtebrach, Germany, 4/9/45.
- A-3911 Medic approaches a wounded Nazi as riflemen in the back ground cover him, 86th Div., U.S. 1st Army, near Rothenstein, Germany 4/24/45.
- A-3912 Members of Hdq. Co., 1st Bn. 343rd Inf. Regt. 86th Div., wait orders to move out after leaving train at camp Kilmer. N.J. 6/19/45.

86th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-3913 U.S. 3rd Army anti-aircraft gun mounted on a truck passes beneath a blown up railway bridge, moving up with the 86th Div., toward Ellingen, Germany 4/24/45.
- A-3914 Maj. Gen. John E. Sloan Co. 86th Div., 4/12/44.
- A-3915 Troops of the 86th Div., detrainning Area arrive at Camp Beale, Ca., from the European Theater, 7/3/45.
- A-3916 Members of the 86th Div., arrive at Camp Beale, Ca. 6/23/45.

89TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-717 Infantrymen of the 89th Div. US 3rd Army, are briefed before boarding DUKW for a Rhine river crossing at Oberwesel, Germany, March 26, 1945.
- A-718 Crouching low in a DUKW for concealment, men of the 89th Div. cross the Rhine River at Oberwesel, Germany, 3/26/45.
- A-719 Entire company of Hungarian troops surrenders to the 89th Div. in Bad Berka, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-720 Snipers are routed from their hiding places in Blankenheim, Germany by Infantrymen of the 89th Div., 4/12/45.
- A-721 Embarkation of the 3rd Bn. 89th Inf. Div. for the US on the Transport George Washington at St. Georges, Bermuda, 9/18/43.
- A-722 Same caption as A-721 different view.
- A-723 Same caption as photo A-721 different view.
- A-724 Same caption as photo A-721 different view.
- A-725 Gun crew of the 354th Inf. Regt., 89th Div. fire into enemy lines east of Willersleben, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-726 An airfield atop a hill outside Kahla, Germany to be used by the Nazis to fly Jet planes from the factory. The factory was seized by the 89th Inf. Div. 4/13/45.
- A-727 Infantrymen of the 89th Div. clear the town of snipers. A dead trooper lies at the right in photo. Blankenheim, Germany, April 12, 1945.
- A-728 As tanks move through the streets of Blankenheim, Germany, troops of the 89th Div. mop up, 4/12/45.
- A-729 Troops, vehicles, assault boats and other equipment fill the streets of St. Goar, Germany as the 89th Div prepares to cross the Rhine River at this point, Mar. 26, 1945.
- A-730 Smoke from burning buildings covers the area as tank riding Infantrymen of the 354th Regt. 89th Div. stand near their tanks at Marlshausen, Germany, April 12, 1945.
- A-731 Tanks of the 89th Div. move toward Kaub, Germany after 89th Div. Inf. troops cleared the town.
- A-732 A tank destroyer of the 602nd Tank Destroyer Co. "E" 355th Inf. Regt. 89th Div. passing through the town of Lautzenhausen, Germany, 3/19/45.
- A-733 Medical Corps men take cover in ditches along the side of the road as Infantrymen of the 89th Div. move into Arnstadt, Germany, 4/10/45.

92ND INF. DIV. WWII

- A-4072 After the Inf. moved across the Arno River, the gun crew of Battery "B" 598th F.A. 92nd Div., moves to take their new positions near banks of the river, getting ready for firing mission with 105 howitzer 1/9/44.
- A-4073 Maj. Gen. Edward Almond CG of the 92nd Inf. Div., 5th Army, cutting his birthday cake, Viareggio, Italy 12/12/44.
- A-4074 Italian prisoners of war who deserted their Div., lined up near the town sign and guarded by a member of the 305th Regt., 92nd Div., in Calavorno, Italy, 5th Army, 2/4/45.
- A-4075 Black troops of Co "I", 3rd Bn. 370th Regt., 92nd Div., wade across the Arno River, in the advance against the German position, 5th Army 1/9/44.
- A-4076 Troops of Co "F", 370th combat team, 92nd negro Div., are crossing the Arno River in the push toward the Gothic line, 5th Army 1/9/44.
- A-4077 Troops of Co "I", 3rd Bn., 370th Regt. wade across the Arno River in the 5th Army advance against the German positions, 1/9/44.
- A-4078 Two columns of Co "I", 3rd Bn., 370th Regt. ford the Arno River, unopposed as the 5th Army advances against the Germans 1/9/44.
- A-4079 Black troops of Co "I", 3rd Bn. 370th Regt. wade the Arno River in the 5th Army advance against the positions, 1/9/44.
- A-4080 GI's of Hdq and anti-tank personnel of the 2nd Bn., 370th combat team, 92nd Div., build a by-pass on the road blown out by the Germans, in Cutigliano, Italy 10/2/44.
- A-4081 Medics in (background) of the 92nd Div., rescue surviving members of the 100th Inf. Regt. Americans of Japanese descent, after 2 mortar shells killed 6 men at this spot, Ohio Ridge, in Seravezza, Italy, 4/4/45.
- A-4082 Men of Co "C", 365th Inf. Regt., 92nd Div., troops, are pinned down by a sniper who infiltrated thru our lines of communication, against the Monte Della Tessa, 1/10/45.
- A-4060 Troops of Co "C" 365th Inf. Regt. 92nd Div., advance in 2nd wave on Monte Della Tessa, in the Serchio, 5th Army, 1/10/45.
- A-4061 The 3rd platoon of the 92nd Cav. Recon troop, 92nd Div., moves thru La Specia, on the Day of the liberation U.S. 5th Army, 4/24/45.
- A-4062 Resting from front lines duty, the 3rd Bn. 366th Regt. 92nd Div., U.S. 5th Army, Viareggio, Italy, 2/12/45.
- A-4063 An M-10 tank destroyer of the 701st Tank Bn., passed a destroyed church in Querceta, Italy, to support the 92nd Inf. Div., U.S. 5th Army. 2/8/45.
- A-4064 Barracks bags are transported over, the by-pass to Infantrymen by the trucks and trailers of the 3rd Bn. 370th Combat Team, 92nd Div., U.S. 5th Army, Cutigliano, Italy, 10/2/44.
- A-4065 A distinguished gun section of the 450th anti-aircraft Artillery Bn. credited with 2 enemy planes, part of the 1st negro Ack Ack outfit in action over seas, 1/14/44.
- A-4066 On the outskirts of Ponsacco towards the Arno River, troops of the 92nd Div., file by destroyed mark VI tank, 9/1/44.
- A-4067 Tanks move back thru a by-pass south of Ghivizzano, after Germans advanced several kilometers against the elements of two regiments of the 92nd Div., 5th Army 12/27/44.

92nd Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-4068 In this newly liberated city, the 92nd Div., troops enter the Galleria. Giuseppe Garibaldi, 4/27/45.
- A-4069 92nd Div., troops, in the newly liberated city, pass PW's going to the rear, U.S. 5th Army, 4/27/45.
- A-4070 Maj. Gen. Willis D. Crittendenberger (left) CG IV Corps and Maj. Gen. E. Almond CG, 92nd Div., wait for the arrival of the Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, CG, 5th Army, to present award to members of the 92nd Div., 5th Army, Viareggio, Italy, 10/21/44.
- A-4071 Gun crew of Battery "B", 598th F.A. 92nd Div., take up new positions near banks of the Arno River, Italy 5th Army 1/9/44.

95TH INF. DIV. WWII
METZ, FRANCE (95th Infantry Div.)

- A-747 American combat Engineers on lookout for German snipers hidden in buildings in Metz. Co A 156 Combat Eng. Corps 3rd Army, Nov 22, 1944.
- A-748 An American M-10 tank of the Third U.S. Army fires at fleeing Germans near Koeligs macher Fort, near Thionville in the Metz sector in France, 11/21/44.
- A-749 American Infantrymen patrol the streets of battered Malzelers les Metz, France, looking for German snipers.
- A-750 Men of the 377th Inf. Regt., 95th Inf. Div. cautiously move a .30 cal. machine gun through the streets of Metz in search of German snipers, 11/22/44.
- A-751 American Infantrymen lug a boat down to the banks of the Moselle River at Dornot, France as they prepare to cross over to Metz.
- A-752 US soldiers and machines of the Third Army advance under fire into the outskirts of Metz where American soldiers began battling in the streets, Nov 18, 1944.
- A-753 Infantrymen of the US Third Army advance through the outskirts of Metz.
- A-754 A machine gunner of the Third Army keeps constant watch for movement of enemy soldiers in a Nazi-held fortress near Metz. the gunner is Pvt. Pat H Lambert of Wichita Falls, Tx. Nov 1944.
- A-755 Troops of the Third US Army smash in a door of a house in Metz to clean out Nazis in hiding, 11/22/44.
- A-756 American Infantrymen take shelter from German mortar fire on a slope on the Moselle River front, Nov 1944.
- A-757 Last Metz fort falls to US Third Army. German officers walk beneath the white flag of surrender toward Fort Joanne d Arc. A group of Gen Patton's men follow the German officers to take over the Fort, Nov 1944.
- A-758 Pfc. Lawrence Hoyle, left, of Bangham, Ill., Browning automatic rifleman and Pvt. Andrew Fechok, right, of McKeesport, Pa. take shelter behind a blasted wall and keep a sharp eye for enemy snipers, near Malzelers les Metz, 11/1/44.
- A-759 GIs fire a captured German 88 at retreating German army of Metz.
- A-760 Yank Infantrymen rush across railway toward the Moselle River near Metz, 9/8/44.
- A-761 A patrol of US Infantrymen cautiously through the streets of Metz, France clearing out remaining German snipers, 11/20/44.
- A-762 A tank destroyer with a 90mm gun takes up a position overlooking Herman Goring Street in Metz, 11/21/44.
- A-763 American Infantrymen patrol a section of Metz in search of snipers, 11/20/44.
- A-764 GIs move up into Metz as artillery shells fall in buildings and on fields all around them, 11/17/44.

95th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-765 US Artillery and Infantrymen, 2nd Bn. 377th Regt., 95th Inf. Div., move in as American forces enter Metz, 11/17/44.
- A-766 Men of the 377th Inf. Regt. cautiously move a .30 cal. machine gun through the streets of Metz in search of German snipers still lurking in the city, 11/22/44.
- A-767 US Combat Engineers on lookout for German snipers hidden in buildings of Metz. Co. A., 166 Combat Eng. 3rd Army, 11/22/44.
- A-768 An M-36 Tank Destroyer with a 90mm gun takes up a position in Metz. Co. C., 607th T.D. Bn., 11/20/44.
- A-769 Wreckage of a German airfield near Metz was caused by US Artillery bombardment, 12/20/44.
- A-770 GIs of the 1st Bn., 95th Div. move towards center of town during fighting for Metz, 11/17/44.
- A-771 Some caption as photo A-770 different view.
- A-772 Nazi prisoners of war are lined up in the streets of Metz waiting to be marched to the rear, 11/19/44.

96TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-4148 Men of the 363rd F.A. Bn. 96th Div., Arty., operate a 155mm howitzer during maneuvers at IV Corps, 1945.
- A-4149 The 96th Div., supply dumps in the San Jose area, Leyte, PI, 10-22-44.
- A-4150 Men of the 96th Div., on Okinawa look over an embankment toward a Jap position, 1945.
- A-4151 Troops of the 96th Div., in Okinawa patiently wait their turn to board LST's which will take them to a rehabilitation area in Philippines, 8-26-45.
- A-4152 Debarking from landing craft, reserve troopers of 96th Div., seek shelter from Jap fire, 10-20-44.
- A-4153 A 96th Infantryman awaits any Jap that escapes flame throwers, he is ready to shoot anyone who escapes the flames, 6-21-45.
- A-4154 Pfc Austin M Hartsock, from Columbus, Ohio, drives with one hand while holding a pistol pointed at Jap prisoner, on Okinawa, 6-18-45.
- A-4155 Sherman tanks of the 769th Tank Bn. lay down machine gun fire against Jap escarpment near, Yazu, Okinawa, 6-16-45.
- A-4156 Radiomen with handle talkie describes advance of the 96th Div., men battling for possession of "Big Apple Hill", Yuza, Okinawa, 6-9-45.
- A-5557 Cpl Robert Gard communicates with his command post by handle talkie, while 96th Div., rifleman fires at Japs over ridge Co "H" 382nd Regt, Okinawa, 6-15-45.
- A-4158 A flame throwing tank of 96th Div., burns out Japs hiding in holes on "Big Apple Ridge", Okinawa, 6-16-43.
- A-4159 Assault troops of 96th Div., first American soldiers to land on Okinawa, climb a sea wall on the western shore of the island, 4-1-45.
- A-4161 Brig. Gen. Claudius M Easley with arm raised, assistant Commander of the 96th Div., talks with first Lt. Ray Barnes an intelligence officers of the 382nd Regt, 6-15-45.
- A-4162 Brig. Gen. Claudius M Easley, assistant 96th Div., Commander, climbs over dead Japs to examine a cave, 6-15-45.
- A-4163 96th Div., doughboys mop-up along an escarpment just south of Yazu on Okinawa, 6-16-45.
- A-4164 Large piles of empty mortar shell containers show the amount of ammo. fired in 6 days by men of the 81mm mortar Co. "D" 382nd Regt. 96th Div., 5-17-45.

96th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-4165 Men of the 96th Div., patrol, well in the front of the lines have come upon a cave, which may contain Jap snipers, 4-2-45.
- A-4166 A column of ammo. bears, 3rd Bn. 382nd Regt., precedes down the hill to Kakazu Ridge, 4-20-45.
- A-4167 Men of Co. "L" 383rd Regt. 96th Div., first 10th army unit to receive a Presidential citation won for its part in the Kakazu Ridge assault, all are from Washington L to R Pfc Karl W Swann, Wenstchee Pfc Wallace C. Hill, Chehalis, 7-3-45.
- A-4168 Troops of the 363rd F.A. Bn. of the 96th Div., set up their 155mm howitzers after landing on Okinawa, 4-2-45.
- A-4169 One rifleman reloads and another fires in the 96th Div., advance to capture "Big Apple Hill", 6-9-45.
- A-4170 10th Army troops of the 96th Div., approach the top of "Big Apple Hill", 6-15-45.
- A-4171 General view of the 96th Div., Command Post, Okinawa, 4-27-45.
- A-4172 3 Infantrymen of the 10th Armies 96th Div., climb up a sheer cliff to take the top of the "Big Apple Hill", Okinawa, 6-13-45.
- A-4173 Men of the 2nd Bn. 381st Regt of the 10th Army's 96th Div., peer cautiously ahead as they advance across the summit of Yaeju-Dake escarpment, 6-14-43.
- A-4174 A patrol of the 381st Inf. 96th Div., advance against "Big Apple Hill", 6-10-45.
- A-4175 Men of the anti-tank Co. of the 96th Div., 383rd Regt are blasting enemy strong points on Okinawa, 4-6-45.
- A-4176 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 382nd Inf. Regt, 96th Div., cautiously, advance on hidden Japanese emplacements on Okinawa, 4-4-45.
- A-4177 Infantrymen of the 382nd 96th Div., move forward over the roads under cover of our tanks, 4-4-45.
- A-4178 2nd Bn. 96th Div., advances across the bridge into Iohau, Leyte Island, PI, 10-23-44.
- A-4179 Members of the 96th Inf. Div's 763rd tank Bn., reviews some of their tactics used to defeat the Japanese, 7-25-45.
- A-4180 Five of these men are considered "Aces" anyone who killed five or more Japs, all are from Texas and Co. "I" 383rd Inf. Regt., 6-30-45.
- A-4181 Major Gen. James L Bradley (L) and Brig. Gen. Paul V Kane, at Hq 96th Div., Arty. IV Corps, 1943.
- A-4182 Staff members of Hq battery 96th Div., Arty. are represented in this group, Camp Adair, Oregon, 1942.
- A-4183 Number one man of the 363rd F.A. Bn., 96th Div., in the 155mm howitzer crew, moves back to his position after the gun has been fired, 6-26-43.
- A-4184 Troops of the 96th Div., on Okinawa wait their turn to board LST-944 en-route to the Philippines, 6-26-45.

97TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-4185 Machine gunners cover an important intersection in Siegburg Germany, 303rd Inf. Regt. 97th Div., 4/10/45.
- A-4186 Maj. Gen. Herman F. Kramer CG, 97th Div., Japan, 10/6/45.
- A-4187 Infantrymen of the 303rd Regt., 97th Div., U.S. 1st Army, Siegburg, Germany, take cover behind fence in newly captured town when sniper fire is heard, 4/10/45.

97th Inf. Div. WW II Cont.

- A-4189 Infantrymen of the 97th Div., look over 5 slave labors killed during march, from Flossenbergr concentration camp, near Wieden, Germany, by SS Guards, U.S. 3rd Army, 5/6/45.
- A-4190 Infantrymen of the 97th Div., U.S. 3rd Army, crouch in shelter of the half track, as they seek German snipers who open fire on them, Pilsen, Czechoslovakia, 5/6/45.
- A-4191 Men of the 386th Inf. Regt. 97th Inf. Div., in formation at a memorial Service, for all men of the Regt., killed in action in Germany and Czechoslovakia, Bamberg, Germany, 5/20/45.
- A-4192 Col. Samuel Lansing CO, of the 386th Inf. Regt., 97th Inf. Div., makes a memorial address to his men honoring all men killed in action in Germany and Czechoslovakia 3rd U.S. Army, 5/20/45.
- A-4193 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. 303rd Inf. Regt. 97th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army cross the Auto Bahn to enter Benrath, Dusseldorf, 4/17/45.
- A-4194 Walking single file thru German "Victory Gardens" Infantrymen of the 97th Inf. Div., U.S. 1st Army prepare to move forward along the Rhine, 4/14/45.
- A-4195 1st U.S. Army Infantrymen of the 97th Div. advance thru Siegburg on alert for the enemy and machine gun positions, 4/10/45.
- A-4196 Infantrymen of the 97th Div., U.S. 1st Army, move toward new line during the capture of Siegburg, Germany, 4/10/45.
- A-4197 Communications point is set up and rifleman of the 97th Div., U.S. 1st Army, protect point in newly captured Siegburg, Germany, 4/10/45.
- A-4198 1st U.S. Army, 97th Div. takes cover behind a fence after having been fired on by an enemy machine gun as they advance into Siegburg, Germany, 4/10/45.
- A-4199 Infantrymen fire an automatic rifle into a building in Siegburg, Germany, during mop-up of town by the 97th Div., 1st U.S. Army, 4/10/45.
- A-4200 Rifleman of Co "E", 2nd Bn. 303rd Inf. Regt. 97th Div., U.S. 1st Army, trying to reach cover, as the enemy fires on them using 20mm anti-aircraft gun as artillery, Siegburg, Germany, 4/11/45.
- A-4201 Infantrymen of the 303rd Regt, 97th Div., 1st U.S. Army, race across open ground covered by enemy fire outside Mulheim, Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-4202 Prisoners of war are marched into a stockade by Infantrymen of the 387th Inf. Regt. 97th Inf. Div., 3rd U.S. Army, 4/26/45.
- A-4203 Tanks attached to the 782nd Tank Bn., 97th Inf. Div., 3rd Army, are forced to use a under pass in Cheb, Czechoslovakia, 4/26/45.

106TH INF. DIV. WWII

- A-4360 Men of the 589th and 590th F.A. Bn. 106th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, stand at attention, during a ceremony, These are all that is left of the "Battle Of The Bulge" at St. Vith, 4/14/45.
- A-4361 GI's kneel in the snow as chaplain F.T. Boyle say a prayer for the Infantrymen of Co "E", 2nd Bn. 424th Regt. 106th Div., before they go to battle, 3/5/45.

106th Inf. Div. WWII Cont.

- A-4362 Men of Co "G" 106th Inf. are carrying planks to repair a bridge over a river, they are under Jap fire, 1945.
- A-4363 Combat Infantrymen of Co "A" 1st Bn. 424th Regt. 106th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, clean weapons in snow covered, Wanne, Belgium, 1/14/45.
- A-4364 Battery "B" 591st F.A. Bn., 106th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, prepares to fire 50,000 rounds from a 105mm howitzer near Berk, Germany 3/12/45.
- A-4365 Cpl. Tony D. Addio, sights a 75mm pack howitzer, Battery "D" 460th F.A. Bn., 106th Inf. Div., 1st U.S. Army, 1/18/45.
- A-4366 Infantrymen of the 424th Regt., 106th Inf. Div., on alert at the edge of a clearing, soldier is wearing the new snow camouflage suit, 1/25/45.
- A-4367 Infantrymen of the 2nd Bn. Co. "E", 424th Regt, 106th Inf. Div., cross a small footbridge in the snow covered woods near Wold, Herk, Germany 3/5/45.
- A-4368 Members of Battery A, 591st F.A. Bn., 106th Div., unpack 105-mm shells and prepare them for firing, Belgium 1/5/45.
- A-4369 U.S. Infantrymen of Co. "G" 517th Parachute Regt., 106th Div., near Coulle, Belgium, pinned down by German sniper fire, disperse before making forward push, 1/16/45.
- A-4370 Great mass of troops on pier before embarking on the troop ship "West Point" note the duffle bags the GI's are carrying, 1945.
- A-4371 Protestant services held on the deck of the "West Point" on Sunday morning attendance was good, 1945.
- A-4372 A general view of the stern of the "West Point" during abandon ship drill, each man has his own location to man, 1945.
- A-4373 Men guard 6 of the 30 Nazi's Generals interned at Kaiserhof Hotel Bad, Ems German, Maj. Gen. Herman Leythaeuser (Ret) Lt Gen. Ernst Von Horstig, Lt. Gen. Joseph Russwurm, MG. Gustave Geiger, MG. Otto Amann, and Lt. Gen. Rudolf Kabenicht, MP Bn., 106th Div., U.S. 15th Army, 5/14/45.
- A-4374 Brig Gen. H.T. Perrin, Asst CG., 106th Inf. Div., Berk, Germany, 3/7/45.

1ST ARMORED DIV. WWII

- A-1150 -A Fock-Wolfe fighter on a Nazi airfield captured by the 1st A Troops on the outskirts of Kothen, Germany. 4/20/45.
- A-1150A -U.S. Tank crew in Tunisia, N. Africa 1/23/42. M3T #309478, 2nd Bn. 13th Arm. Reg. 1st Div. at Souk Khemis.
- A-1150B -Member of tank crew in camp, Tunisia, N. Africa, 11/25/42. M-3 #309858 Souk El Khemis.
- A-1151 -M-2 Armored half-track car equipped with SCR 193 & SCR 510 Radio sets. Northern Ireland. 7/6/42.
- A-1151A -Interior of half-track which received direct hit from bomb, N. Africa, 2/8/45. 30th Ord. Co. (H.M.)

1st Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-1151B-American tank left behind after being hit by German 88 shell in Sened, Tunisia, 2/3/43.
- A-1152 -American crew and anti-tank gun set up to cover enemy tank approach. Sidi Boru Zid, N. Africa, 2/14/43.
- A-1152A-2nd Bn. 16th Inf. march through Kasserine Pass, on to Kasserine & Farriana, Tunisia. They are behind a recon. unit which has cleared the roads and fields of mines.
- A-1152B-Infantry marching through Tunisia, behind recon. unit, 2/26/43. 2nd Bn., 16th Inf. marching through Kasserine Pass. View looking east toward Kasserine.
- A-1153 -Soldier marching in Tunisia 2/26/43. 2nd Bn., 16th Inf.
- A-1153A-An Italian tank that was destroyed by Allied guns, Tunisia, 2/20/43.
- A-1153B-A German Mark IV tank knocked out by American artillery fire. One shot entered the tank and blew up the ammo carried by the tank. Tunisia, 2/26/43, Kasserine Pass.
- A-1154 -Pfc Philip L. Mahoney, driver and 1/5 M.R. Pollard, rear seat, were trapped for three days by the Germans. They are just arriving in re occupied zones. Kasserine Pass, Tunisia 2/26/43.
- A-1154A-Capt. Jack Robinson, Vabash, Indiana. & Capt. Bob Christi, Powagiac, Michigan, inspects cases of Italian ammo. dumped by the side of the road by a hasty retreat of the Axis forces in the face of Allied advance. 68th Armd. Fld. Artillery, Tunisia, 2/26/43.
- A-1154B-Man of a Tank Destroyer Bn., on the alert for enemy aircraft, Kasserine Pass, Tunisia, 2/24/43. 89th Tank Destroyer Bn. Co. 'B'.
- A-1155 -A crew of the Maintenance Bn., pick up Italian ammo. deserted beside the road in a hasty retreat in face of the Allied advances. Tunisia, 2/26/43. Co. 'C', 1st Armd. Div.
- A-1155A-A crew of Mts. Bn., pick up ammo deserted beside the road in a hasty retreat in face of Allied advance. Tunisia 2/26/43. Co. 'C', 1st Armd. Div.
- A-1155B-JV-37 Stuka dive bomber shot down on 2/21/43 by 2nd Lt. T.A. Frincke. This same outfit also accounted for JU-88 in N. Africa Tunisia, 2/25/43.
- A-1156 -Explanations by an American Officer enlighten their Majesties, on American Army equipment, N. Ireland, 6/25/42. Brig. Gen. C.V. Ryder, 34th Div.
- A-1156A A U.S. M-3 tank crew in N. Africa, 11/23/42.

1st Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-1156B-A tank crew in N. Africa just before departure for battle front, 11/26/42. Tank #309392 Souk El Arba, N. Africa, Tunisia, 2nd Bn. Co. 'D', 13th Arm. Reg. 1st Div.
- A-1157 -U.S. Tank crew in the field, 11/26/42. Tank #309398, Souk El Arba, N. Africa, Tunisia.
- A-1157A-General view of convoy enroute to N. Africa, 1942. Troopship "Monarch of Bermuda"
- A-1157B-Pfc. Vincent Biondi, Pfc. Andy Farillo & Capt. Robert Posner locating land mines at a railroad station in N. Africa, 2/26/43.
- A-1158 -American tanks advance to strengthen Allied positions, N. Africa, 2/20/45. M-3 Tanks, 1st Armd. Div.
- A-1158A-A U.S. Tank Unit in the field in N. Africa, 11/24/42. M-3 Tank #309502. Souk El Khemis.
- A-1158B-Members of a tank crew in N. Africa 11/23/42. M-3 Tank #309502 (Tunisia).
- A-1159 -A U.S. tank & crew in Souk El Arba, N. Africa, 11/24/42. Tank #309576, (Tunisia).
- A-1159A-A U.S. tank crew in front of their tank, N. Africa, 11/24/42. (Tunisia).
- A-2259B-A tank crew in N. Africa, 11/23/42. M-3 Tank #209792, 2nd Bn., 13th Armd. Reg. Souk El Khemis (Tunisia).
- A-1160 -A tank crew in N. Africa, 11/26/42. Tank #309866 in Souk El Arba (Tunisia).
- A-1160A-U.S. tank, in Souk El Khemis N. Africa, 11/26/42. The 13th Armd. Reg., 2nd Bn. (Tunisia).
- A-1160B-Result of strafing along the highway in Tunisia 1943. Between Farriana & Sbetala, (Tunisia).
- A-1161 -Graves of six American Soldiers killed in action in N. Africa, 12/9/42. Medjez Eb Bab.
- A-1161A-Gen Mark W. Clark CG of the 15th Army Group addresses a group of men who are to go to the U.S. with Gen. Clark to be discharged. 5/24/45.
- A-1161B-Maj. Gen. Willis D. Crittenger, CG of the IV Corps, left, looking at a 170 mm gun that was captured near Moglia. Fifth Army, 4/23/45.
- A-1162 -Maj. Gen. Willis D. Crittenger (left) after visit to the 32nd Field Hosp. 12/11/44.
- A-1162A-Maj. Gen. Willis D. Crittenger CG of the IV Corps talks with men of the 13th Tank Bn., 11/21/44.
- A-1162B-At a point on the outskirts of Rome Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, CG of the Fifth Army, studies a map as Allied troops move on the city, 6/4/44.
- A-1163 -Members of a Tank Destroyer Unit at their job 6/29/44. Fifth Army Italy.

1st Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-1163A-The tank commander of an M-5 tank of the Combat Command 'A' 27th Field Artillery Bn., which broke off a road shoulder, is removed from the turret. He sustained a very badly fractured skull. 5th Army, Mensano, Italy. 7/2/44.
- A-1163B-At a Naples dock, supply packed vehicles are loaded into LST's for the amphibious landing at Anzio, Italy, 1/18/44.
- A-1164 -Tanks that were sent out to clear up mine fields are at a standstill with blasted tank treads at Cori, Italy, 5/25/44.
- A-1164A-Field Marshall Sir Harold Alexander (right) Supreme Allied Commander, Mediterranean Theater of Operations, receive guard of honor composed of men of the 1st Armd. Div. at Milan, Italy, 6/21/45.
- A-1164B-U.S. Fifth Army tanks rumble through the streets of Milan, Italy, 4/25/45.
- A-1165 -American armor waits in field for the completion of the first pontoon bridge across the Po River, 4/25/45. Bonizzo, Italy.
- A-1165A-Light tanks of the U.S. 5th Army, Grege area, Italy, cross pontoon bridge on the Po River, 4/23/45.
- A-1165B-U.S. 5th Army soldiers proceed through Milan, past the cathedral at Piazza Duomo, one of the most famous examples of Gothic architecture in Italy, 4/30/45.
- A-1166 -The "Stars & Stripes" fly at half mast over the American cemetery near Cassino, Italy, for the late President P.D.R. 4/16/45.
- A-1166A-Maj. Gen. Willie D. Crittenger, CG, IV Corps, with other high ranking officers watch Engineers complete the first American pontoon bridge across the Po River at San Benedetto, Italy, 4/25/45.
- A-1166B-5th Army vehicles winding over a dusty mountain road near Montespastore, Italy, advance toward the Po valley. 4/45.
- A-1167 -American tanks, under cover of a smoke screen, move forward toward the German Gothic line in Italy, 9/13/44.
- A-1167A-The 105mm gun, mounted on a tank, is fired at an enemy objective in the mountains north of Lucca, beginning of the Gothic line, 9/16/44.
- A-1167B-A light tank of the 1st Armd. Div. passes a shell damaged building in Montaione, Italy, after taking part in the capture of the town, 7/20/44. Co. D, 81st Recon.
- A-1168 -A U.S. Army jeep going through Pontedera, Italy, passes a German Mark IV tank which has been demolished by a direct artillery shell burst, 7/18/44.

1st Arm'd WWII Cont.

1st Arm'd Div. WWII Cont

92nd Arm'd F A Korea Cont.
1st Arm'd Div.

- A-1168A-Photo shows Ernie Pyle, famous correspondent, and a tank crew of the 191st Tank Bn. 5th Army, Anzio Beachhead, Italy.
- A-1168B-These soldiers are looking at a tank knocked out by 75mm A.F., during counter attack on town. 5th Army, Cecina area, Italy, 7/3/44.
- A-1169 -Pvt. Lord E. Ashercraft, Firmbank, Ala. looks at hole in Tiger Tank made by 75mm A.F. 5th Army, Cecina, Italy, 7/3/44.
- A-1169A-The crew of "Beartracks" an M-7 self propelled 105mm gun, sights in. Mensano, Italy, 7/2/44.
- A-1169B-An American M-7 rolls through the streets of Roccastrada, Italy, 6/24/44. Combat "A", 5th Army.
- A-1170 -A tank retriever, towing a knocked out M-10 tank, passes two burned German Mark IV tanks, Cistorna area, Italy, 5/25/44. I-2 tank retriever of Co. B, 1st Ord. Bn.
- A-1170A-A Fifth Army medium tank takes shelter from nearby enemy observation between buildings at Monticelli, in the Emporia area, Italy, 5/18/44. 755th Tank Bn.
- A-1170B-American & French tanks, parked in the town of St. Giorgio, await the order to attack their next objective, Esperia, Italy, 5/16/44.
- A-1171 -In Italy, tanks cross a stream under a blown out bridge in the Veiana area, Italy, 6/8/44.
- A-1171A-With German artillery dotting the landscape ahead with smoke and shells, the 45th Infantry Div. and the 1st Arm'd Div. forge ahead, their object being the high ground in the distance, Lanuxio, Italy, 5/30/44.
- A-1171B-As they enter Rome, Italy American soldiers are greeted by cheering Italians, 6/4/44.
- A-1172 -A 1st Arm'd Div. light tank crosses a road block, blasted in ten minutes before by the Germans in an effort to delay troops from reaching Rome, Italy, 6/4/44.
- A-1172A-In their puch on route 47 to Rome, Italy, recon. cars of the 1st Arm'd Div. move past an American tank, 6/4/44.
- A-1172B-Members of the 1st Arm'd Div. Co. "G", crew of an M-4 Sherman tank, complete the repairs on their tanks & move out for the front in Italy, Le Ferriere area, 5/25/44.
- A-1173 -Passing a big "Roma" sign at the edge of the city, these Americans 5th Army tanks enter Rome, 6/4/44.
- A-1173A-On their way to the front, American Infantry men pass a knocked out American medium M-4 tank, Anzio area, Italy, 5/24/44.

- A-1173B-Tanks debarking from an LST in Anzio harbor, 4/27/44. 1st Arm'd Div, 13th Arm. Reg. "CCB"
- A-1174 -Tanks & equipment of an armored regiment move along a road in the Anzio area, 4/27/44. 1st Arm'd Div., 13th Arm. Reg.
- A-1174A-An Infantry Bn. advances up a hill about ten miles from Bizerte, N. Africa, Tunisia. This was about 2:30 pm, 5/7/43. 60th Inf. Bn.
- A-1174B-Tanks of the 13th Tank Bn., 1st Arm'd Div. 4th Corps, on a practice mission in Pica area, near Larenjena, Italy, 8/16/44.
- A-1175 -Tank of the 13th Arm'd Bn., 1st Arm'd Div. attached to the 10th Mountain Div. passes down street in Verona, Italy, 4/26/45.
- A-1175A-Infantry of the 1st Arm'd Div. move toward Bambiano. Four light tanks are in position to repel counter attacks, 10/12/44.
- A-1175B-Rep. Clare Booth Luce of Conn., is met at a road intersection during her tour of the U.S. 5th Army front by Brig. Gen. Maurice W. Daniel, 3/22/45.
- A-1176 -Officers of the 91st Field Artillery, are talking over a new move. 5th Army, Italy, 9/12/44.
- A-1176A-U.S. troops of 1st Arm'd Div. march into Maknassy, N. Africa, 4/43.
- A-1176B-Bodies of Benito Mussolini & Claretta Petacci are laid side by side on a public square in Milan, Italy. The former dictator and his mistress were shot to death by Italian partisans, 4/28/45.
- A-1177 -Col. Gen. Jurgen Von Arnim on day following surrender of Tunis and Bizerte, 5/15/43.

92ND ARMoured F.A.

1ST ARMORED DIV. KOREA

- A-533 Men of the 92nd A.F.A.Bn.U.S. Corps, prepare to load 155mm howitzer in Korea, 5/17/51.
- A-534 Men of Btry "A", 92nd A.F.A., fire 50,000 rounds of ammo, at the enemy, Korea, 5/27/51.
- A-535 Lt.G. William M. Hoge CG U.S. IX Corps, fires 75,000 rounds of ammo at the Chinese Forces, celebrating the completion of the 1st year of the conflict, he fired a 155mm howitzer one of the 92nd A.F.A.Bn., big guns, 6/24/51.
- A-536 On the front lines in Korea, the colors of the 92nd A.F.A.Bn.U.S. 8th Army, are presented at the opening of the award ceremonies, 9/4/36.
- A-537 On the front in Korea Brig.Gen. William N. Gilmore (R) chief, IX Corps Arty pins the Bronze Star Medal on Capt. Ralph H. Levine, of the 92nd A.F.A. Bn., U.S. 8th Army. 9/4/51.

- A-538 On the front in Korea, Brig.Gen. W.N. Gilmore (R) Chief, IX Corps Arty. pins the "The Legion Of Merit" with V device on Lt.Col. Leon F. Lavoie, Co 92nd A.F.A.Bn. U.S. 8th Army, 9/4/51.
- A-539 Cpl Seynour L. Spasser, Btry clerk of the 92nd A.F.A., takes advantage of the reading material offered by T.L. & E during his off duty time, Korea, 7/28/51.
- A-540 Personnel of gun crew # 1 Battery "A" 92nd A.F.A. Bn. 8th Army, Korea 1/21/52.
- A-541 Sgt. Ray Boucher, 1st Sgt Battery "A", 92nd A.F.A. Bn. 8th U.S. Army, proudly displays his unit scarf, The Red Devils, as he stands in front of a 155mm howitzer, Korea 1/21/52.
- A-542 Lt. Col. Dale E. Duchanan (L) departing Co., 92nd A.F.A. Bn. 8th U.S. Army, salutes the colors at the close of a ceremony in his honor, Korea, 1/21/52.
- A-543 A 155mm howitzer mounted on an m-41 chassis, 92nd A.F.A. Bn. 8th U.S. Army, moves into a new position near, Korea 2/24/52.
- A-544 Lt. Col. Dale E. Buchanan, departing Co., 92nd A.F.A. Bn. U.S. 8th Army at gun, fires 150,000 rounds of ammo from this 155mm howitzer, into the Chinese Territory, from gun # 1, Battery "A" 1/21/52.
- A-545 90mm gun in bunker of Battery "C" 92nd A.F.A. Bn. Inf. Div., near Korea, 4/9/52.
- A-546 Near, Korea, in their bunker, men of Battery "C", 92nd A.F.A. Div., load their guns, 4/9/52.
- A-547 1st Lt. Joseph Diran, 92nd A.F.A., sights enemy target with a B.C. scope, near, Korea, 11/9/52.
- A-1148 Arm'd personnel carrier under cover of darkness. The 634th Arm'd Inf. Bn., moves into position 1st Arm'd Div., to begin attack during exercise, 5/5/54.
- A-1149 Jeep with members of Co. "B" 634th Arm'd Inf. Bn. 1st Arm'd Div., during maneuvers at Fort Hood, 7/9/54.

2ND ARMORED DIV. WWII

- A-625 Tank of the 76th Armored Regt. advance up a hill toward German positions, Aug. 6, 1944.
- A-626 Units of the 67th Armored Regt. 3rd Bn. moves through the shattered railway station at Palenberg, Germany, Oct. 4, 1944.
- A-267 Front view of a Sherman tank of the 66th Armored Regt., Tueyen, Holland, Feb 22, 1945.
- A-628 German civilians stand on the street in Krefeld, Germany and watch the 2nd Armored Div. Ninth US Army pass by, Mar 3, 1945.
- A-629 German civilians line the street of Ahlen, Germany as 2nd Armored Div. tanks roll through the town, April 2, 1945.
- A-630 Vehicles of the 38th Cavalry recon. Cp. (mech.), 2nd Armored Div., First US Army are parked in Altenahr, Germany, 3/9/45.
- A-631 German prisoners of war under M.P. guard clear rubble out of the streets so the 2nd Armored Div vehicles can move more swiftly in pursuit of the enemy, Barenton, France, Aug. 8, 1944.

2nd Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-632 Armored vehicles wind their way through the streets of St Sever Calvados while the town is still under German artillery fire. 82nd Rec. Bn. 2nd Arm'd. Div., France, Aug. 3, 1944.
- A-633 The crew of a self-propelled 105 mm keep warm around a fire between the fire missions near Les Tailles, Belgium. They are the 92nd Field Artillery of the 2nd Arm'd. Div., Jan. 14, 1945.
- A-634 During an inspection of American troops Gen. Eisenhower, Winston Churchill and Lt. Gen. Omar Bradley fire at a target with the new carbine in England, 1944.
- A-635 Curious German civilians of Berlin gather around a US tank of the 2nd Arm'd. Div. The famous Div. that fought its way from North Africa and across Europe was the first American combat Division to reach Berlin in July 1945.
- A-636 The 2nd armored div, which had once been ousted from the town of Magdeburg, Germany re-formed with the 30th Div. and again stormed the city, April 17, 1945.
- A-637 Soldiers of the 2nd armored division on the Siegfried Line load 105mm shells on an M7, Oct 25, 1944.
- A-638 Three members of the 67th Armored Regt., 2nd Armored Division, examine the shell hole made when a German 105mm shell landed about five feet from where their tank was standing, Aug. 11, 1944.
- A-639 Tankers from 87th Regt., 2nd Armored Div. reload their 30 cal. machine gun belts, 8/1/44.
- A-640 Gen. George C Marshall and party inspect units of the 2nd Armored Div. at the Avus former auto and motorcycle race track in Berlin, 7/18/45.
- A-641 Tanks of the 2nd Armored Div., jeeps even a bicycle, move through the cleared streets of battered Krefeld, Germany, 3/3/45.
- A-642 A machine gun crew follows an American tank up a hill during an assault against the Germans near Ubach, Germany, 10/6/44.
- A-643 A column of Yank vehicles of Co. D, 41st Reg., 2nd Armored division passes a marker indicating the Franco-Belgian border, Sept 2, 1944.
- A-644 A group of camouflaged engineers clean out an alley in Canisy, France, bombed the night before, so the 2nd Armored Div. vehicles can pass in and out, 17th Engr. Bn. 2nd Armored Div., 7/27/44.
- A-645 Under heavy German artillery fire, an American tank enters the village of St Sever Calvados, France, 67th Armored Regt. 8/3/44.
- A-646 American troops and armor occupy the French town of Tassy Sur Vire, but remain on the alert for the enemy, 8/3/44.
- A-647 Men of the 2nd Armored Div. operate their mortar from the rear of a half-track, Jan. 1945.
- A-648 A Russian horse drawn vehicle passes a 2nd Armored Div tank on the outskirts of Berlin, July 1945.
- A-649 A loyal Frenchman shows an American infantry patrol the direction in which retreating Germans fled, Dansville, France, Aug. 21, 1944, 41st RMD Inf. Regt. 2nd Arm'd. Div.
- A-650 The 2nd Armored Div. joins the 30th Inf. Div. of the Ninth US Army at Magdeburg, Germany, storming and recapturing the town, 4/17/45.
- A-651 German children watch as a member of the US 2nd Armored Div. drives his tank through a rubble strewn street in Berlin, July 1945.
- A-652 Tanks and jeeps of the US second Arm'd. Div. are held up outside of Berlin while a bridge is repaired, July 1945.

3RD ARMORED DIV. WWII

- A-655 -View of hangars at the Nazi airfield captured by the 3rd Arm'd. Div. 1st Army, on the outskirts of Kothlen, Germany, 4/20/45.
- A-655A-Soldiers examine a knocked out Tiger Royal tank. It had been hit from behind moments earlier, after hitting a Sherman tank. One of our tank destroyers chalked up the kill. 3rd Arm'd. Div., 1/20/45.
- A-655B-Men of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., sit around a fire cleaning their rifles during a lull in the fighting near Bastogne, Bel., 1/2/45.
- A-665 -Infantrymen attached to the 3rd Arm'd. Div. fire weapons in abandoned quarry, before they go up to the front. Near Zweifall, Germany, 11/30/44.
- A-656A-With their 75mm guns alert for a flank attack, these 3rd Arm'd. Div., medium tanks wait on a snow covered road in Belgium for a knocked out tank to be cleared from the roadway. These tanks are advancing on the northern flank of the German "Bulge" in Belgium. Manhay Gauffalize near Frartore, Bel. 1/7/45.
- A-656B-Troops of the 1st Army are halted by the road block created by the Nazi in the last minute defense measure in Cologne, Germany. 3/5/45.
- A-657 -Sand bags on the front of an M-3 tank of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., entering Javron, France. French are welcoming the Yank units, including an American flag flying from the town statue near the road, 8/13/44.
- A-657A-A tank of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, passes a knocked out German tank near Marienburg, Germany, 3/28/45.
- A-657B-Vehicles of the 3rd Arm'd. Div. spearhead U.S. 1st Army, cross the Weser River at Eisdwender, German, on a pontoon bridge adjacent to the knocked out span, 4/10/45.
- A-658 -Vehicles of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., in Soy, Belgium, are ready to move out against the Nazi counter attack whenever and wherever needed, 12/27/44.
- A-658A-American tank pauses in front of the gutted building, a young Belgian girl tosses flowers to the crew, her appreciation of the liberation of her city, Liege, Belgium. 3rd Arm'd. Div., 9/8/44.
- A-658B-Infantry enters Montry, France some are resting and smoking in the ditch as others more boldly walk into town. 3rd Arm'd. Div., 8/28/44.
- A-659 -Edward G. Robinson, strikes a well known pose as he talks to a group of GI's, members of the 33rd Arm. Reg, 3rd Arm'd. Div. near the front lines in Reffuveille, France, 8/7/44.

3rd Arm'd Div WWII Cont.

- A-659A-Corporal Edward Douglas, New York, attached to the 3rd Arm'd. Div., Ottrre, Belgium, puts fuses into the noses of 155mm shells for M12 self propelled gun, to make them ready for firing, 1/14/45.
- A-659B-Men of Hq. Co. 3rd. Bn., 36th Arm. Inf. Reg., 3rd Arm'd. Div., clean up empty shell casings & other amo debris after firing steadily into enemy lines for an hour. Outside Stolberg, Germany, 11/16/44.
- A-660 -Vehicles of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, roll across pontoon bridge over the Saale River near Torneau, Germany, 4/14/45.
- A-660A-Vehicles of the 3rd Arm'd. Div. 1st Army, cross a pontoon bridge over the Weser River, moving from Beverungen to Lauenforde, Germany, as they drive deeper into Germany, 4/9/45.
- A-660B-Two bazookamen in a foxhole at the edge of a snow covered clearing near Ardennes Forest of Belgium, await Nazi Armor, 1/14/45.
- A-661 -An American tank of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., crosses the Seine River at Port Seine, on a pontoon bridge created by engineers, 8/26/44.
- A-661A-The engineer built pontoon bridge provides a crossing for the half-tracks of the armored infantry, which are crossing the Seine River directly behind the tanks of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., France, 8/26/44.
- A-661B-Five U.S. soldiers of the 23rd Arm. Eng. Bn., 3rd Arm'd. Div., place an experimental charge prior to blowing up 'Dragon teeth' tank barriers of the Siegfried line in Germany, 10/7/44.
- A-662 -Pontoon bridge built by the 23rd Engineers Bn., 3rd Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, across the Saale River in Germany, 4/17/45.
- A-662A-1st Army tanks & Infantry, 3rd Arm'd. Div., advancing on the road from Eichelhardt, Germany, pass civilians who are being questioned by military Government authorities, 3/27/45.
- A-662B-U.S. 1st Army troops pass through a demolished town in Germany. Two German boys (left) preoccupied, are oblivious of the burning building near them. 3rd Arm'd. Div., 3/29/45.
- A-663 -A 3rd Arm'd. Div. tank machine guns snipers in a woodland site off the Autobahn Highway near Deseau, Germany, 4/17/45.
- A-663A-Men of the US 1st Army, 3rd Arm'd. Div., entering Altenkirchen, Germany, find the town in ruins, 3/27/45.
- A-663B-Troops of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, advance through the ruins of Cologne, Germany. The twin spires of the famous cathedral, only five blocks away, are undamaged, 3/8/45.

3rd Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

A-664 - Surrounded by enemy troops & cut off from all communication, the "lost" battalion, under cover of darkness finally made its way back to Allied lines in Belgium. The men infiltrated through the German lines at night after having blackened their faces & destroying all their equipment. Here, with faces still blackened, they eagerly reach for the chow awaiting them on their return. 12/26/44.

A-664A-German prisoners taken in the Ardennes sector by 3rd Arm'd. Div. are checked before being removed to cages. The Nazi without hat in first row wears U.S. overshoes, Ottre, Belgium, 1/14/45.

A-664B-A 3rd Arm'd. Div. half track & weapons carrier burn after receiving a direct enemy hit in the town of Langlir, Belgium, 1/45.

A-665 - American tanks of the 331st Reg., 3rd Arm'd. Div. & 83rd Div. on their way to the front, pass through the streets of Lierheux, Belgium, 1/9/45.

A-665A-Tanks of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., fire at German positions on the other side of the hill, somewhere in Belgium, to pave the way for an attack in that area. 2nd Bn., 32nd Reg. Fusa, Belgium, 1/3/45.

A-665B-Two American officers examine a shot up German Panther tank, looking for effects of shell tests by the 703rd Tank Destroyer Bn., 3rd Arm'd. Div., 12/9/44.

A-666 - Tanks of the 32nd Arm. Reg., 3rd. Arm'd. Div., on road in Huchin enroute to Weisweiler, Germany, 11/25/44.

A-666A-This long line of armored infantry of the 3rd Arm'd. Div., streams through Namur, Bel. on their way eastward towards Festung Deutschland, greeted with flowers and handshakes from townspeople, 9/8/44.

4TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

A-501 Vehicles of the 4th Arm'd. Div. moves past bodies of dead American soldiers on a road near Chaumont, Luxembourg. They fell in the effort to relieve the German pressure on Bastogne 25th Cav. Regt. Dec. 27, 1944.

A-502 Dead American soldiers lie in a field near Chaumont, Luxembourg 25th Cav. 4th Arm'd. Div. Dec 27, 1944.

A-503 U.S. Infantrymen of 4th Armored Div., 10 Inf. Bn., advance under cover of tanks near Thal, France Dec 2, 1944.

A-504 Members of the 24th Engineers, 4th Arm'd. Div., clear the highway of mines, near Eyweiler, France. The dead soldier in the foreground is an American Dec 1, 1944.

A-505 American soldiers move up to the front, past the form of a fallen yank on a litter, near Boerendorf, Germany. 53rd Battalion Armored Infantry, 4th Arm'd. Div. 11/26/44.

4th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

A-506 A 4th Arm'd. Div. convoy moves through flooded streets in Duss, France on the way to the front Nov 25, 1944.

A-507 GI fires bazooka at gun emplacement during fighting on French front, 4th Arm'd. Div. Nov 12, 1944.

A-508 Infantrymen of the 4th Arm'd. Div. seek cover behind a tank as it fires across the Marne at Rachecourt to prevent Germans from blowing up the bridge. French civilian clutching an old WW I rifle also stands behind the tank, Aug. 31, 1944.

A-509 A U.S. tank of the 4th Arm'd Div., 8th tank Bn. churns deep into the mud as it makes a crossing of the National Canal near Bayon, Sept 20, 1944.

A-510 Vehicles of the 4th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Corps are moved up toward besieged Bastogne, Belgium, as some men of the division, lie in ditches to protect the flanks Dec. 27, 1944.

A-511 Fourth Armored Div. vehicles move past the body of a dead American soldier on a road near Chaumont. Dec. 27., 1944.

A-512 Infantrymen of the 4th Armored Div., US 3rd Army, pass a burning German half-track as they advance along a forest road near the Rhine River Mar 7, 1945.

A-513 Somewhere on the western front, maintenance engineers of the 4th Arm'd. Div. 3rd Army, rebuild a partly wrecked M-36 tank destroyer which lost its turret. 981st Main. Eng., 24th Eng., Tusa Mar 6, 1945.

A-514 Tanks of the 4th Arm'd. Div. pass a burning enemy vehicle, as the Third Army continues its drive into Germany Mar 20, 1945.

A-515 A 4th Arm'd. Jeep passes a burning Nazi vehicle as the Third Army advances to the Rhine Citadel of Worms, Germany Mar. 20, 1945.

A-516 Civilians old American Infantrymen in their search for snipers in Worms, Germany. 5th Infantry Div., 4th Arm'd. Div. TUSA Mar 21, 1945.

A-517 A new M-4-A-3 tank with 76 mm gun equipped with muzzle brake covers highway way H-4 near Bastogne, Belgium. 4th Arm'd. Div. Jan 8, 1945.

A-518 Infantrymen of the 4th Arm'd. Div., U.S. Third Army sector, search buildings in Eppelsheim, Germany Mar 20, 1945.

A-519 Machine gunners of the 104th Inf. 4th Arm'd. Div., cover tank crossing snow-covered field in the Bastogne Corridor Jan 3, 1945.

A-520 Infantrymen of the 51st Inf. Regiment, 4th Arm'd Div., patrol the woods near Bastogne, Belgium, wearing new snow capes Jan 8, 1945.

A-521 3rd U.S. Army troops watch the German village of Wonsheim, burn under fire of the 4th Arm'd. Div., Mar 19, 1945.

A-522 Men of the 4th Arm'd. Div., Third U.S. Army fight along the Reich Autobahn near Cera, Germany April 13, 1945.

4th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

A-523 Men of the 704th Tank Destroyer Bn., 4th Arm'd. Div., U.S. Third Army, observe the fire of a 4th Div. tank, just outside of Wonsheim, Germany 3/19/45.

A-524 German civilians gather outside Outscheid, Germany to avoid being caught in crossfire as the 4th Arm'd. Div. moves up Feb 27, 1945.

A-525 German SS troops murdered Polish prisoners just a few hours before the 4th Arm'd. and 89th Inf. Div. arrived on the scene. Poles lie on the ground near the barracks where they were shot in the head April 8, 1945.

A-526 Lt. Col Neil M. Wallace, CO, 66th Arm'd Field Artillery Battalion, 4th Arm'd. Div. 3rd U.S. Army, and Cpl. B. Simes, driver, pass a burning German truck, on their way to Worms, Germany. Mar 20, 1945.

A-527 Infantrymen look over the scene near barracks where Poles were shot in the head by SS troops just a few hours before 4th Arm'd Div. and 89th Inf. Div. arrived on the scene, Concentration camp, Ohrdruf, Germany April 8, 1945.

A-528 Soldiers of the 4th Arm'd. Div. bring in German prisoners that were captured in the drive on Worms, Germany 3/20/45.

A-529 A light tank brings battle casualty to an Arm'd. units medics during the fighting near the Saar River, Germany. Tanks were used to transport wounded men because of the heavy artillery fire and muddy terrain. 4th Arm'd. Div. 8th Arm'd. 12/1/44.

A-530 American Red Cross ambulance of the 4th Arm'd. Div. hit by a mine on a road near Outscheid Feb. 27, 1945.

5TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

A-881 -The Sherman tank & half track are drawn up at Tangermunde to knock out bazookamen & sniper ahead. The vehicles are with the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army., 4/12/45.

A-881A-An armored column of Combat Command A, 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, stops for a short break in the field during advance toward Bismark, Germany, on the route to Berlin. 4/11/45.

A-881B-American light tank of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, informs civilians of Peine, Germany, that their Burgomaster has surrendered to town. Civilians are ordered to turn in all knives and firearms and to stay off the streets. 4/10/45.

A-882 -Pfc. Lowell Holt, West Des Moines, Iowa, a member of the 5th Arm'd. Div., takes cover behind a truck as he gets set to draw bead on a German sniper across the street, 9/6/44.

5th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-882A-Men of the 46th Arm. Inf. Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, advances into Tangermunde, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-882B-American soldier & vehicles in Grossshau, Germany, after it was taken from the Germans, 34th tank Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., 12/15/44.
- A-883 -Lines of vehicles move into Grossshau, Germany, after it was taken from the Germans. In the foreground a wounded soldier is carried on a jeep. 34th Tank Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., 12/15/44.
- A-883A-(Same as A-883.)
- A-883B-Infantrymen of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, advance through the wrecked town of Vickrath, Germany. They are members of the 15th Arm. Inf. Bn. 2/28/45.
- A-884 -A street scene includes the elements of a tank Bn. & civilians eager to get to the stores before the curfew. 10th Tank Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, 4/18/45.
- A-884A-U.S. tanks of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, await among the rubble in the streets of Krefeld, Germany, to move out in support of the infantry, 3/3/45.
- A-884B-Civilian survivors of bombing & shelling on the German town of Gey, watch Yanks occupy their town, 12/15/44.
- A-885 -The 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, passes through Anrath, Germany, as American forces drive toward the Rhine River. Dead soldiers & wrecked vehicles litter the streets, 3/2/45.
- A-885A-Soldiers of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, inspect a pile of German knives & firearms turned in by civilians when the town of Peine, Germany fell, 4/10/45.
- A-885B-Rifle squad from the 10th Tank Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, enter the farm yard near Seehausen, to check for hiding German soldiers, 4/16/45.
- A-886 -The Infantrymen of the 9th Army, & tanks & tank destroyers of the 5th Arm'd. Div., deploy in the field to launch an attack on a street factory, Krefeld, Germany, 3/2/45.
- A-886A-Infantryman of the 5th Arm'd. Div. 9th Army, move down the streets to clean out enemy snipers. 15th Arm. Inf., Wickrath, Germany, 2/28/45.
- A-886B-Vehicles of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, roll through the streets of Hardt, Germany, 3/2/45.
- A-887 -Vehicles of the 5th Arm'd. Div., 9th Army, roll through the narrow streets of Huls, Germany, 3/3/45.
- A-887A-Temporarily dug in, 5th Arm'd. Div., units of the 9th Army, regroup in a field north of newly captured Rheindahlen, Germany, 3/1/45.
- A-887B-Men of the 735th Tank Bn., 5th Arm'd. Div., put new tread on an American tank near Wiltz, Luxembourg, where it was knocked out of duty, 1/26/45.

5th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-888 -This view of destruction, taken in the town of Gey, Germany, is representative of the havoc caused by the advancing 5th Arm'd. Div. Germany, 12/15/44.

7TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

- A-935 -Tanks of the 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, pass knocked out German vehicle as the tanks move into open country after taking town of Haina, Germany, 3/30/45.
- A-935A-A tank of the 7th Arm'd. Div., passes the burning building on the edge of the front line town of Wetzlar, Germany, 3/26/45.
- A-935B-An American tank of the HQ 38th Arm. Inf. Bn., 7th Arm'd Div., 1st Army, fires a shell across the Rhine River into Germany, 3/13/45.
- A-936 -Lt. Gen. Omar H. Bradley, CG 12th Army, right, shakes hands with Maj. Gen. Robert W. Hasbrouck, CG, 7th Arm'd. Div., during Bradleys tour of U.S. 1st Army Divisions, 2/19/45.
- A-936A-Troops of the 509th Parach. Inf. Bn., 7th Arm'd. Div., move toward enemy positions beyond St. Vith, Belgium, 2/24/45.
- A-936B-Soldiers of Troop C, 87th Recon. patrol, 7th Arm'd. Div., advance into the battle scarred St. Vith, Belgium, 1/24/45.
- A-937 -Troops of the 7th Arm'd. Div. look over an undamaged German tank captured on the road to St. Vith, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-937A-A tank of the 7th Arm'd. Div. guards a road in Born, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-937B-Troops of the 23rd Inf., 7th Arm'd. Div., pass through the town of Hunnange, Belgium as they advance to attack St. Vith, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-938 -Soldiers of the 23rd Inf., 7th Arm'd. Div., take cover behind a tank as they capture the town of Hunnange, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-938A-Men of the 7th Arm'd. Div. move into the village of Neider Emmels, Belgium to set up a command post, 1/23/45.
- A-938B-A tank of the 7th Arm'd. Div., passes refugees leaving the little village of Dedenberg, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-939 -Troops of the 7th Arm'd. Div., guard captured German officers, who were among the first prisoners taken by the division in the drive on St. Vith, 1/23/45.
- A-939A-Troops of Co. C., 48th Arm. Inf. Bn., 7th Arm'd. Div., advance through snow covered shell holes into the outskirts of St. Vith, 1/23/45.

7th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-939B-Camouflaged tanks of the 7th Arm'd. Div., moves up a snow swept road Edenbach, Belgium, to aid the assault on St. Vith, 1/20/45.
- A-940 -Ready to back up the infantry in defense positions along the highway near Manhay, Belgium, members of a tank crew of the 7th Arm'd. Div., stand ready to repel enemy attacks, 12/27/44.
- A-940A-Maj. Gen. Lindsay McDonald Silvester (left) 7th Arm'd. Div., outline the tactical situation north of Overloon, Holland, to British Officers preparing to take over that area, 10/7/44.
- A-940B-Infantrymen of the 7th Arm'd. Div. 1st Army, move through open country toward the German town of Eisborn, 4/13/45.
- A-941 -Two GI's pass a wrecked German ambulance standing on the street in St. Vith, Belgium, 7th Arm'd. Div., 1/24/45.
- A-941A-Artillery of the 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, has the town of Schmollenberg, Germany, under fire before the 18th Arm. Inf. Reg. enters, 4/8/45.
- A-941B-A 7th Arm'd. Div. tank machine guns surrounding area to dislodge remaining German snipers. 31st Tank Bn., 1st Army, Deckenbach, Germany, 3/29/45.
- A-942 -Soldiers & tanks of the 1st Army, take up positions amidst debris of the captured town of Neidersorpe, Germany. 7th Arm'd. Div., 40th Tank Bn., 3/7/45.
- A-942A-Infantrymen of the 38th Arm. Bn., 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, ride a tank destroyer through newly captured town of Fredelburg, Germany, 4/9/45.
- A-942B-40th Tank Bn., 7th Arm'd. Div., Sherman tanks in temporary position near St. Vith, Belgium, fire on enemy positions beyond the city, 1/24/45.
- A-943 -2nd Lt. Will Rogers Jr., son of the late comedian, cooks his field rations over a stove, somewhere in France, 9/4/44.
- A-943A-Residents of Verdun move past the bombed buildings in the town hit by Luftwaffe on 1 Sept. in an endeavor to destroy a bridge over the Meuse River, 9/2/44.
- A-943B-When Jerry attempted to outflank this column of armored vehicles, they turned and let him have it. Near Eprenay, France, 8/27/44.
- A-944 -American doughboys enter the famous city of Chartres, France. In the background is the famous Chartres Cathedral which dates back to the 12th century, 8/18/44.
- A-944A-Troops observing for enemy aircraft, are dug in next to their 50 cal machine gun. 7th Arm'd. Div., near Vielsalm, Belgium, 12/25/44.
- A-944B-Tank of the Griffith Tank Force, 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, which is equipped with a loud speaker, stands toward the Ruhr pocket where it will broadcast surrender orders to Germans. Ralthof, Germany, 4/18/45.

7th Arm'd Div WWII Co

9th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

10th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

A-945 - American & British combat engineers fighting, working & playing together on a sector of the Holland front. Someren, Holland, 11/2/44. 7th Arm'd. Div. British 15th Scottish Div.

A-945A - Tanks of the 7th Arm'd. Div., move along the road, leading out of Kunneburg Woods, to support the infantry attacking the high ground, where Germans are shelling the town of St. Vith, Belgium, 1/25/45.

A-945B - German tank still smoking at corner of barn near Vallerode, Belgium, as the 7th Arm'd. Div. infantrymen move in, 1/25/45.

A-946 - Elements of 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, roll past German civilians on the left, who are operating a pressure hose to try to save a burning building in Vesterfeld, Germany, 4/12/45.

A-946A - Tanks of the 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army fire guns at enemy soldiers who have zeroed in on this road intersection near Grevenstein, Germany, 3/11/45.

A-946B - Infantry of 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, move away from the newly captured Weidensorpe, Germany, as they prepare to take Fredelberg. They are members of Co. B., 38th Arm. Inf. Bn., 4/10/45.

A-947 - A tank of the 31st Tank Bn., 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, rolls into Deekenbach, Germany, firing its machine guns at buildings housing German snipers, 3/29/45.

A-947A - Two soldiers of the 48th Arm. Inf. Bn. look at a test board in a converted barn used to teach airplane construction. 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, near Ofleiden, Germany, 3/29/45.

A-947B - A soldier of the 7th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, looks at one of the planes found in a barn captured by the 7th Div. The barn had been converted into a place where airplane construction was taught. Near Ofleiden, Germany, 3/29/45.

9TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

A-700 - Crew of the M-26A3 tanks of the 14th Bn., 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, wait for attack orders in a field on the outskirts of Vettweiss, Germany, 3/1/45.

A-700A - The 9th Arm'd. Div., captured the synthetic fuel plant intact. The plant was only slightly damaged when U.S. dive bombers attacked the railroad yards. Beuben, Germany, 4/13/45.

A-700B - Crew of self-propelled 105mm recoil during concentrated barrage on every position near Fels. They kept up continuous bombardment for 5 days & nights. 3rd Arm. Fld. Art., 9th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, 12/21/44.

A-701 - Halftrack of the 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, drives through Wiehe, Germany, on the way to the Rbe River, 4/12/45.

A-701A - Men & equipment of the 9th Arm'd. Div., roll through Wusheim, Germany, in their advance to the Rhine River, 3/5/45.

A-701B - Combat Command A, 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, takes over a section of Newied, Germany for a command post, 3/24/45.

A-702 - Tanks of the 9th Arm'd. Div. & Inf. of the 69th Div., 1st Army, roll into newly taken Kollindia, Germany, 4/12/45.

A-702A - Elements of the 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, roll into the streets of Limburg, Germany, 3/27/45.

A-702B - Tanks of the 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, move through Leutesdorf, Germany on the east bank of the Rhine. The town fell with very little opposition, 3/22/45.

A-703 - The civilians & soldiers line the street approaching the road block of tanks set up by the 9th Arm'd. Div., to prevent soldiers trying to get to American lines on other than designated routes to avoid Russian capture. 3rd Army, Karlsbad, Cz. 5/10/45.

A-703A - The new command post for combat command reserve HQ's 9th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, Lince, Belgium, 2/25/45.

A-703B - While taking cover from enemy sniper & artillery fire, infantrymen look over a German plane in the hanger at the captured airfield at Pritzler, Germany. 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, 3/21/45.

A-704 - Tank of the 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, enter the town of Colditz, Germany over a damaged bridge, 4/16/45.

A-704A - Nazi commander read terms of unconditional surrender for the German 12th Corp. Group in Loket, Cz. 3rd Army officers, 5/8/45.

A-704B - German prisoner of war are marched along the road between Remagen & Sinzig, Germany. They were captured by the 9th Arm'd. Div., 1st Army, on the east side of the Rhine, 3/9/45.

10TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

A-985 - A half track of the 10th Arm'd. Div., crosses a pontoon bridge over the Saar River at Taben, in the 3rd U.S. Army Sector, 2/25/45.

A-985A - Tanks of the 11th Tank Bn. & Infantrymen of the 20th Arm. Inf. Bn., 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp entering Untereichen, 4/25/45.

A-985B - Infantrymen of the 61st Arm. Inf. Bn. & 21st Tank Bn., combat Command A, 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp., 7th Army, mounted on tanks, move forward toward Bubenorbic, 4/17/45.

A-986 - Rifleman of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, guard the road in the fog on the edge of Saarburg, Co. B, 54th Inf. Bn. & "D" Troop, 90th Cav. Recon. Squad, 2/22/45.

A-986A - Under the protecting guns of an American tank, armored infantrymen dash across an intersection to wipe out enemy sniper action holding up advance through town. 218th Tank Bn., 10th Arm'd. Div., Rosswalden, Germany, 4/20/45.

A-986B - Homes go up in flames when medium tanks blast out snipers who are picking off infantrymen. As the southern advance continues these nests are ablaze and snipers are killed or routed. 61st Arm. Inf. Bn., & 21st Tank Bn., 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp., 4/17/45.

A-987 - Under cover of tank guns pointed for instant action, dismounted armored infantry advance toward a forest to clear out enemy pockets of resistance. 61st Arm. Inf. Bn., 21st Tank Bn., 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp., 4/17/45.

A-987A - As enemy shells land behind them, American Armored Inf. men take cover in a road side ditch. The half track, buttoned up, follow the Inf. for protective cover. 61st Arm. Inf. Bn. & 21st Tank Bn. Combat Command A, 10th Arm'd. Div., Bubenorsis area, Germany, 4/17/45.

A-987B - Inf. & Cavalry troops of the 10th Arm'd. Div. occupy the edge of Seaburg. In foreground is knocked out German tank. Co. B, 54th Armored Inf. Bn., Troop D. 90th Cav. Recon. Sq. 10th Arm'd. Div. 2/22/45.

A-988 - The Infantrymen of the 301st Inf. Reg., 10th Arm'd. Div., advance upon Weiten. 94th Div., 3rd Army, 2/20/45.

A-988A - Half tracks & tanks of Co. A, 54th Armored Inf. Bn. 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp. on the streets of Ulm, 4/25/45.

A-988B - An armored car of the 10th Arm'd. Div. 3rd Army, drives through the hole blasted in the Dragons Teeth antitank defenses on the drive to Saarburg, Germany, 2/21/45.

A-989 - Troops of the 10th Arm'd. Div. dig in to support the crossing of the Saar River, near Saarburg, Germany. 376th Inf. Reg. 10th Arm'd. Div., Tusa, 2/24/45.

A-989A - An armored car of the 10th Arm'd. Div., passes through a road block in Quint, Germany, 3/9/45.

A-989B - A halftrack of the 10th Arm'd. Div., parks near smoldering building in newly captured Kell, Germany, 3/18/45.

A-990 - German prisoners captured by the 61st Arm. Inf. Bn., 10th Arm'd. Div. in Irach, Germany, are marched toward the tank block at the end of the street, 2/26/45.

10th Arm'd Div WWII Cont.

10th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

11th Arm'd Div. WWII Cont.

- A-990A-Combat Command "B" of the 10th Arm'd. Div., move through the newly captured Irach, Germany, 2/26/45.
- A-990B-Men of the 93rd Arm. Fld. Art. take cover under an Autobahn overpass during enemy shelling. Ahead is the highway to Heidelberg and a medics jeep is barreling back. 10th Arm'd. Div., XXI Corp., 7th Army, Heidelberg area, 3/30/45.
- A-991 -Tanks of Combat Command "A" 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, roll through Brucken, Germany in their advance, 3/20/45.
- A-991A-Infantrymen of Combat Command "A", 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, wait in their foxholes for orders to push forward near Waldholzbach, Germany, 3/18/45.
- A-991B-Artillerymen of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, dig in gun positions near Trier, Germany, 2/27/45.
- A-992 -Troops of the 10th Arm'd. Div., prepare for an attack on the German spearhead headed toward Bastogne, Belgium. There they are waiting for the order to move out. Refugees are in the foreground, 12/19/44.
- A-992A-Artilleryman of the 689th Fld. Art., 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, inspect a captured German 88mm gun, taken intact in the garrison at Trier, Germany. Dead German in foreground, 3/7/45.
- A-992B-Maj. Gen. Fay B. Frickette, CG, 10th Arm'd. Div. presents the combat streamer to the 20th, 54th & 61st Inf. Bn. of the 10th Arm'd. Div. Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, 6/15/45.
- A-993 -The 3rd Army tanks & half tracks cross the Kyll River on a trestle-way bridge near Auw, Germany. 10th Arm'd. Div. 3/8/45.
- A-993A-Men & tanks of the 10th Arm'd. Div., cautiously advance across a bridge spanning the Moselle River at Trier, Germany, which they captured intact in the 3rd Army's push toward the Rhine, 3/5/45.
- A-993B-Infantrymen with rifles ready, advance across the fields to attack enemy positions around a forest near Bubenorbis. The tanks are deployed to lend instant support. 61st Arm. Indf. Bn. & 21st Tank Bn., Combat Co. A, 10th Arm'd. Div., VI Corp, 7th Army, 4/17/45.
- A-944 -Having lost contact with the enemy for the first time since the Rhine crossing, these troops are on the march again over a foot bridge. Their mission is to push on & clear towns as they go. Co. "C", 90th Cav. Recon. Sq., 10th Arm'd. Div., 7th Army, VI Corp., 4/12/45.
- A-944A-Basis of 105mm shells are loaded with charges by tankers of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, near Trier, Germany. 2/28/45.

- A-994B-Wrecked German equipment burns along the road near Frankenstein, Germany, as Infantrymen & armor of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, advance toward to front, 3/21/45.
- A-995 -Prisoners taken by 10th Arm'd. Div. column, 3rd Army, are pressed into service to clear wreckage of horse drawn vehicles from roadway near Beeddurdkheim, Germany, 3/21/45.
- A-995A-German children, hiding in the mountains with German troops, come down with hands over their heads when troops are captured by 7th Army, XV Corp., 10th Arm'd. Div., Ober Aumergav area, Germany, 4/29/45.
- A-995B-German civilian waves white flag of surrender at American halftrack as it comes into Geisselhardt, Germany. The town burns from pre-attack shelling. 10th Arm'd. Div., 7th Army, 4/17/45.
- A-996 -Tanks & Inf. move into burning town of Geisselhardt, Germany, 10th Arm'd. Div., 7th Army, 4/17/45.
- A-996A-American tank enters the town of Rosewalden, Germany. Civilian at left prepares to spray water on his burning house, set afire by tanks blasting at German positions. 10th Arm'd. Div., 7th Army, 4/20/45.
- A-996B-Troops of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, pack their vehicles in the square of St. Wendel, Germany where white surrender flags hang from the windows, 3/20/45.
- A-997 -Infantrymen of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army lie in a prone position to escape observation & fire of the enemy, hidden in the woods nearby in Germany, Co. "C", 61st Arm. Inf., 3/18/45.
- A-997A-Vehicles of the 10th Arm'd. Div. 3rd Army, pause in a wooded area just outside the town of Wittlich. Note the bomb craters and the tops of the trees torn out by shell fire, 3/10/45.
- A-997B-Men of the 10th Arm'd. Div., 3rd Army, look for German soldiers still hiding out in the town of Pöhren, Germany, 3/9/45.

11TH ARMORED DIV. WWII

- A-586 The town of Niedermenditz, Germany serves as parking space for vehicles of the 11th AD, 3/10/45.
- A-587 Two patrols, one from the 84th Inf Div, 1st US Army, the other from the 11th Arm'd, 3rd Army meet at a prearranged rendezvous on the L'ourthe River closing the Bulge in Belgium, 11/16/45.
- A-588 Men of the 42nd tank Bn. keep their fingers crossed as this is their third tank since the 29th of Dec. The other two were shot out from under them, but they sustained no injuries, Dec 12, 1945.
- A-589 Men of Combat Command A, 11th Arm'd, 3rd Army, and captured German civilians and soldiers near the "Adolph Hitler Haus" in the square of newly taken Colsurg, Germany, 4/11/45.
- A-590 Tanks of the 11th Arm'd, move past troops of the 26th "Yankee" Div., near Langenseld, Germany, 3/30/45.
- A-591 Troops of the 11th Arm'd, 55th Airborne Bn. move over hill and along road toward the town of Kronach, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-592 Two doughboys of the 55th Arm'd, Inf. Bn., take advantage of existing protection while fighting to take the railroad station at Neufelden, Austria, 5/2/45.
- A-593 Infantrymen of the 11th Arm'd, move forward in preparation for the attack on Blitburg, Germany, 11th Regt. 11th Arm'd., 2/20/45.
- A-594 German civilians watch tanks of the 11th Arm'd, pass under the archway of their town, 4/22/45.
- A-595 Pvt. G.W. Cramer (left) & Cpl. J.T. Roney issue ammo to T/4 J.C. Ramsey (on ground) driver of a sherman tank, near Jodenville Belgium, Co. C, 42nd Tank Bn., 1/5/45.
- A-596 Men ride a tank past a burning house in Rodach, Germany, 4th Tank Bn., 4/10/45.
- A-597 Tanks and men of the 11th Arm'd, line the road on the outskirts of a smoldering German town as the drive into Germany continues. Obermuhl, Germany.
- A-598 Vehicles of the 11th Arm'd, move through the burning town of Kronach, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-599 The first tank crew to reach the Rhine in the breakthrough, 11th Arm'd., 41st Tank Bn., 3/21/45.
- A-601 Two patrols, one from the 84th Inf. Div. US First Army, and the other from the 11th Arm'd, US 3rd Army, meet at a prearranged rendezvous on L'ourthe River, closing the Bulge in Belgium. Here Sgt. Rodney Hines, Rochester, N.Y., and Pfc. Alfred Gernhardt N.Y. city both from the 84th shake hands with T/5 Ancel Casey, Parksville, Ky. of the 11th as the patrols meet, Jan 16, 1945.
- A-602 Artillery observation men, 22nd Tank Bn. direct guns crews working in nearby Peter-skirche, Belgium, 2/20/45.
- A-603 Sgt. Wm.B. Phelps, San Antonio, Tx of the 42nd Tank Bn. Co.D 11th Arm'd., sews his combat clothes on an old sewing machine in front of his tank in the village of Steinbach, Belgium, 1/23/45.
- A-604 Infantrymen and vehicles of the 11th Arm'd. advance through the city of Andernach, Germany, Mar 9, 1945.
- A-605 At a temporary rest in Miesenheim, Germany men & vehicles of the 11th Arm'd await the signal to shove off for Andernach on the Rhine, 3/9/45.
- A-606 As the 3rd Army, 11th Arm'd, reaches the Rhine at Andernach, Germany, Nazis come forward to surrender, 3/9/45.
- A-580 Tanks of the 11th A.D. 3rd Army fan out while crossing open terrain in support of the 1st Bn. 22nd Inf. Regt. 4th Inf. Div. 3rd Army, in the drive toward Prum valley, Germany, Mar. 3, 1945.
- A-581 Tanks of the 11th A.D. wait orders to move on town of Compagne, Belgium, 1/15/45.
- A-582 Troops of the 55th Arm'd. Inf. Bn. 11th A.D. watch for snipers in the town of Kronach, Germany, 4/12/45.
- A-583 Infantrymen of Co. "D" 63rd Arm'd. Inf. Bn. 11th Arm'd, fire at the retreating Germans from a knocked out bridge. The house in the hedgerow burns from artillery fire on the town before the troops entered the town, 4/10/45.
- A-585 Elements of the 11th Arm'd, enter the town of Markazeuln, Germany, 4/12/45.

11th Arm'd Div WWII Cont.

- A-607 Infantrymen of the 11th Arm'd. follow tanks into Andernach, Germany. The soldier behind the tank at right gazes toward buildings where a sniper has been located, 3/9/45.
- A-608 Germans are on the receiving end of these 155mm self propelled guns as they open up on the 3rd Army front near Budesheim, Germany, Mar 10, 1945.
- A-610 Vehicles of the 11th Arm'd. Div. advancing on the US Third Army front pass wrecked and burning German armor, 3/19/45.
- A-611 Liberated prisoners in the Mauthausen concentration camp near Linz, Austria, give rousing welcome to Cavalrymen of 11th Arm'd. Div., May 6, 1945.
- A-612 Tanks and trucks of 11th Arm'd. Div. ford the Muhl river near Neufelden, Austria, May 4, 1945.
- A-613 Tanks of 11th Arm'd. Div. enters town Kronach, Germany, as buildings burn around them, 4/12/45.
- A-614 Men and tanks of 11th Arm'd. Div. fire on town of Kappl, Austria, May 4, 1945.
- A-615 Soldiers of the 11th Arm'd. Div. fire on enemy across border in blazing town of Kappl, Austria, shortly before end of war in Europe, April 30, 1945.
- A-609 Sgt. Robert L. Dispennett, Waynesport, Ind., 11th Arm'd Div. tries out one of his stories on some Polish women, formerly slave laborers in Andernach, Germany, 3/12/45.

11TH AIRBORNE DIV. WWII

& KOREA

- A-2042 Infantrymen of Co. "G" 187th Regt. 11th A.B. Div., moving up on the way to Sulac, Batangas, Luzon, P.I. 4/9/45.
- A-2043 Troupes of Jack Benny's United Services Organization go aboard to watch jumps from the men of the 11th A.B. Div., New Guinea, 8/1/44.
- A-2044 Paratroopers of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt. A.B. Div., climb aboard a C-46, 1948.
- A-2045 Paratroopers of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt., 11th A.B. Div., jump out of a C-46, transport plane, 3/9/48.
- A-2046 Same as number A-2045, different view, 3/9/48.
- A-2047 Reconnaissance vehicles of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt., 11th A.B. Div., pass in review, Japan, 3/9/48.
- A-2048 Demolition crew of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt., 11th A.B. Div., detonates a charge of explosives, 3/9/48.
- A-2049 Paratroopers of the 11th A.B. Div., line the decks of U.S. Army transport, "Gen R.L. Howze" as the ship docks, 3/6/49.
- A-2025 Men of the 187th Combat Team, 511th Regt., 11th Airborne Div., U.S. Army dash from their LCVPs in a practice wet landing, during amphibious training at a former Japanese naval base, in Yokosuka, Japan, 10/7/45.
- A-2026 Sgt. Harry La King of Hewitt, W. Va. leads a squad of enlisted men from headquarters and Headquarters Co. 511th Regt. 11th Airborne Div., as they disembark from LCM, during amphibious training maneuvers in, Yokosuka, Japan, 10/2/46.

11th AB Div. WWII Cont.

- A-2027 Men of the 187th Regimental Combat Team 11th Airborne Div., paddle their rubber landing craft shoreward, during amphibious training for 8th Army Tactical Units, conducted from a former Japanese naval base, in Yokosuka, Japan, in background are amphibious DUKW's, 9/27/46.
- A-2028 The Army amphibious DUKW goes to sea in peace as well as in war. Members of the 152nd Bn., 11th Airborne Div. participate in amphibious training as they take DUKW out to sea, at a former Japanese naval base, in Yokosuka, Japan. The final phase of the training will be a landing under simulated combat conditions on the shores of Sagami Bay, projected landing point for "Operation Coronet" originally scheduled for 11/ 1945.
- A-2029 Lt. Gen. Robert L. Elchelberger C.G., 8th Army (wearing light pants) meets officers of the 187th Gliders Inf. Regt., during an inspection tour of the 11th Airborne Div., at Sapporo, Hokaido, Japan, 6/13/46.
- A-2030 Members of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt. 11th Airborne Div., advance around objective (the bridge in foreground) after landing by parachute during a tactical training jump at Camp Crawford, Hokaido, Japan, 9/2/48.
- A-2031 Members of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt. 11th Airborne Div., go thru rigorous training during tactical jump and field problem at Camp Crawford, Hokaido, Japan, 3/9/48.
- A-2033 Paratroopers of the 187th Glider Inf. Regt. 11th Airborne Div., jump out of a C-46 transport plane over the drop zone, from an altitude of 1,200 ft., during tactical jump training at Camp Crawford, Hokaido, Japan, 4/30/48.
- A-2034 Paratroopers of the 18th Glider Inf. Regt. 11th Airborne Div., jump out of a C-46 transport plane over the drop zone. Camp Crawford, Hokaido, Japan, is from 1200 ft., 4/9/48.
- A-2035 Lt Lea Fish (R) of Austin, TX, platoon leader Headquarters Co. 1st Bn. 187th Glider Inf. Regt 11th A.B. Div., prepare to jump as Sgt Robert D Carpenter assistant Platoon leader from Travis, City, MI. lends a hand , Camp Crawford, Hokaido, Japan 11/9/48.
- A-2036 Paratroopers of the 11th A.B. Div., eat their noon meal at Co. K. mess hall, Camp Crawford near Sapporo, Japan, 5/16/47.
- A-2037 June Brunner (L) and Carole Landis, of the Jack Benny troupe with men of the 11th A.B. Div., At Dobodura, New Guinea, 8/1/44.
- A-2038 Members of the 188th Parachute Inf., 11th A.B. Div., board an AC-54 at Kadena airport, Okinawa, just before taking off for Tokyo, Japan, 8/29/45.
- A-2039 Members of the 188th Parachute Inf. 11th A.B. Div., board an AC-54 at Kadena, Okinawa just before taking off for Okinawa, 8/29/45.
- A-2040 Men of Co. C, 1st Bn. 511th Parachute Inf. Regt. 11th A.B. Div., shown just after breaking formation during rifle inspection in their company area on Okinawa, 8/24/45.
- A-2041 Troops of 188th Regt., 11th A.B. Div., arrive on Atsugi as Japs help in transportation, Japan, 8/30/45.
- A-2051 Parachutist on Luzon, the battle award review the 11th A.B. Div., on Luzon was massive,
- A-2052 Men of the 1st Bn., 187th A.B. RCT, move off the drop zone to an assembly area, after completing a practice parachute jump near, Taegu, 3/7/51.
- A-2053 Members of HQ Co., 187th A.B. RCT, sit patiently in a C-119 at an airstrip in Korea, waiting for the take off. They are waiting to make practice jump, 3/7/51.
- A-3257 Men of Co "A" 511th Parachute Regt 11th Airborne Div. Fraternize with the men of 775th Tank Bn. 37th Cagayan Valley, Luzon P.I. 6-26-45.

11th AB Div WWII Cont.

- A-2054 Men of Co. "E", 187th A.B. RCT, load aboard C-1195 of the 62nd troop carrier squadron of K-2 airstrip prior to making a practice jump in Taegu, 3/7/51.

13TH AIRBORNE DIV. WWII

- A-2056 Members of the General staff, 13th A.B. Div., arrive in their own private conveyance at Fort Benning, Ga., for a track meet, 10/13/44.
- A-2057 Lt. Gen. Ben Lear (L) CG. of the Army Ground Forces, look over the 555th Parachute Inf. Co., Capt James Porter CG. of the 555th, in helmet, 13th A.B. Div., 12/5/44.

82ND AIRBORNE DIV. WWII

- AB-2001 Men of troop A, 17th Cav. Recon. Co. unload from H-34A cargo helicopter during a field problem, 9/6/58.
- AB-2002 Maj Gen James M Gavin uses a field phone to direct front line troops near Herresbach, Belgium, 1/28/45.
- AB-2003 Men of 508th Parachute Regt. assigned to the 82nd AB Div wait in assembly area for battle assignment, 1/6/45.
- AB-2004 Maj Jim Gavin C.G. of the 82nd AB Div in front of the 3rd Bn A command post on a tour of the front 508th Inf. Regt, Dec 29, 1944.
- AB-2005 Inf men of the 1st Bn, 505 Regt. 82nd AB Div. First US Army track down German soldiers in the woods near Goronne, Belgium, 1/8/45.
- AB-2006 Pres Harry S Truman & Sec. of the Army Frank Pace Jr in the rose garden behind the White House with outstanding soldiers of the famed 82nd AB Div who toured the capital, Feb 1951.
- AB-2007 A 155mm howitzer of the 965th field Art. Bn. is fired against a German AA Battery on the Roer River front 82nd AB Div sector. Feb 15, 1945, Hurtgen, Germany.
- AB-2008 Outstanding paratroopers visit Gen Bradley in Washington, D.C., 2/27/51.
- AB-2009 As troops of the 82nd AB Div march through Schnldt, Germany on the way to the front, German shells burst in the background, Co G 2nd Bn. 325th Regt., 2/17/45.
- AB-2010 Maj. Gen James M Gavin C.G. of the 82nd Airborne Div. in Belgium.
- AB-2011 Officers and men of the 82nd ABD at Cotestmore, England aboard a C-47 await the take off for airborne landings in Holland, 9/17/44.
- AB-2012 Crews check the new T-24 tank used by the 82nd ABD, 1/19/45.
- AB-2013 Maj Gen M D Ridgeway C. G. of the 18th Airborne Corps and Maj Gen Jones H Canin C.G. of the 82nd ABD talk before ceremony somewhere in Belgium. Note grenades on Gen Ridgeway.
- AB-2014 German prisoners captured by the 82nd ABD glider troops are lined up at the edge of a snow covered forest in Hierlot, Belgium. 2nd Bn 325 Glider Regt. 1/4/45.
- AB-2015 Tank destroyers move forward during a heavy fog to stem German spearhead in Belgium. 103rd T.D., 12/20/44.
- AB-2016 Co B 325th glider Regt. move toward Herresbach, Belgium in snow, 1/28/45.
- AB-2017 American and British troops rest on east bank of the Elbe River after crossing in assault boats. Co L 505th Para. Inf. Regt., 4/30/45.
- AB-2018 Co E 2nd Bn 325th Glider Regt. prepare to attack Herresbach, Belgium, 1/28/45.

82nd AB Div. WWII Cont.

- AB-2019 Troops of 2nd Batt. 504th Regt. 82nd ABD of Cheneux, Belgium, 12/22/44.
- AB-2020 Glider troops of 82nd ABD pass thru Memel, Belgium on way to rest camp from front lines.
- AB-2021 A cloud of parachutes descends on an airfield, 82nd ABD, 3/14/45.
- AB-2022 Members of the 508th Regt. make a last minute check of their equipt. before taking off from an airfield in Saltby, England, June 6, 1944.
- AB-2023 Four members of the 82nd ABD enter village of Eglise Sur-Mer, France under heavy German artillery fire, 6/6/44.
- AB-2024 Maj. Gen James M Gavin Commanding General of the 82nd Airborne Div. in Belgium, Feb. 1945.

101ST AIRBORNE DIV. WWII

- A-371 -Pfc. V.J. Ottersbach, Louisville, Ky., a member of the 327th Glider Inf., 3rd Bn., 101st A.B., cleans his rifle during a break near Poy, before pushing to the front, 1/11/45.
- A-371A-Pfc. A. Whitehead & Pvt. M. Chisolm at their 50 cal. machine gun, commanding the approach to Haguenau. 1st Bn., 327th Inf. Reg., 1/31/45.
- A-371B-Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor presents citations to a platoon from each Reg. of the 101st A.B. Units are 506th Parach. Inf. Reg., 327th Glider Inf. Reg., 502nd Parach. Inf. Reg., 377th Parach. Fld. Art. Berchtesgaden, Germany, 5/17/45.
- A-372 -Men of the 101st A.B. cared for in an improvised emergency ward. They are the men who held Bastogne for 10 days until they were relieved by Gen. Patton's men. Belgium, 12/27/44.
- A-372A-A.B. troops of the 7th Army, Co. "C", 1st Bn., 506th Parach. Inf., 101st A.B. VI Corp. occupy several small towns surrounding their area. The troops inspect each house and barn for enemy troops. Landsberg, Germany, 4/30/45.
- A-373B-Troopers passing a road sign pointing to Berchtesgaden, Germany. 3rd Bn. 506th Inf. Reg., 101st A.B. XXI Corp, 5/5/45.
- A-373 -Members of the 777 AAA & 101st A.B. warm up around a fire on the outskirts of Bastogne, Belgium. They are L to R: Pfc. Calvin Bates, Springfield OH, Pvt. Charles Dooly, Detroit MI, Pvt. Donald Loelsch, Sandusky OH, Pfc. Leonard Madrid, Albuquerque NM, & Pvt. C.F. Cove, Miami FL. Last 3 are from the 101st A.B., 12/31/44.
- A-373A-Men of the 101st A.B. move up the road between Bastogne & Hauffalige, Belgium, to stem the German drive, 12/19/44.

101st AB Div. WWII Cont.

- A-373B-Paratroopers of a 75mm howitzer section, Battery C, 377th Fld. Art., 101st A.B., put parachutes on para-cases containing their 75mm howitzer. They are loaded into the bomb racks of the C-47 cargo plane. Newburg, Berks, England, 3/10/44.
- A-374 -Paratroopers of a 75mm howitzer section, Battery C, 377th Fld. Art., 101st A.B., put on their parachutes before loading into C-47 cargo plane, Newburg, Berks, England, 3/10/44.
- A-374A-The sargent in charge inspects combat weapons & equipment of paratroopers of the 75mm howitzer section, Battery C, 377th Fld. Art., 101st A.B., Newburg, Berks, England, 3/7/44.
- A-374B-The 101st A.B. is on the road between Bastogne & Hauffalige, Belgium, as they move up to stem the German drive, 12/19/44.
- A-375 -The 101st A.B. moves through Bastogne towards Hauffelige, Belgium, 12/19/44.
- A-375A-Major Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway presents unit citation to regiments & Co.'s of the 101st A.B. in recognition of their participation in the initial Normandy invasion, when they were dropped behind enemy lines before the dawn of D-day, France, 3/10/45.
- A-375B-Members of the 326th A.B. Medical Co., 101st A.B., examine ambulances, which were damaged when German planes bombed a U.S. Army Hospital in Nijmegen, Holland, 10/3/44.
- A-376 -This is a part of the 326th A.B. Med. Co., 101st A.B., which was damaged by a German plane, in Nijmegen, Holland, 10/3/44.
- A-376A-Part of the crew of a glider, 101st A.B., who took part in the landing behind German lines in Holland, pose beside their craft before the take off at an airdrome in England, 9/18/44.
- A-376B-Immediately following their landing behind the German lines in Holland, A.B. troops disperse to begin the taking of various objectives. Jeep at right also brought in by glider, 101st A.B., Zon, Holland, 9/18/44.
- A-377 -In their attempt to stem the German breakthrough, the 101st A.B. marches out of Bastogne in the direction of Haufflidge, Belgium, 12/19/44.
- A-377A-These are some of the bodies of prisoners starved and burned to death at Camp #4, Landsburg, Germany, one of the largest Concentration Camps in Germany. The inmates, all Jewish political prisoners, were employed in building and working in a tremendous system of underground airplane and munitions factories, 101st A.B., VI Corp, 4/30/45.

101st AB Div. WWII Cont.

- A-377B-Soldiers lounge on patio of a small stone house built high above Berchtesgaden, in the Bavarian Alps and known as "Eagles Nest", Hitlers famous hideout. Seventh Army, 101st A.B., XV Corp, 5/19/45.
- A-378 -While enemy shells scream overhead, outside, Christmas carols are sung by members of the 101st A.B. under siege in Bastogne, Belgium, during 1944 midnight Christmas service. Shortly after this photo was taken enemy bombers broke up the service, 12/24/44.
- A-378A-Brig. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, artillery commander, 101st A.B., gives his various glider pilots last minute instructions before the take off on D plus 1, 9/18/44.
- A-378B-L to R: Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Commanding Gen. 101st A.B., shakes hands with Brig. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, Dep. Com. in Bastogne, Belgium, 1/15/45.

1ST CAV. DIV. AIR MOBILE DIV.

VIETNAM

- A-2267 Members of the 1st Cav. Div., loaded in M-151 jeeps and M-37 cargo trucks, move out of the forward support area during operation "Masher", 1-24-60.
- A-2268 Men of the 1st Cav. Div., prepare to board assault helicopters, 10-25-65.
- A-2269 A platoon leader of the 1st Cav. Div., braves enemy fire to take a closer look at the front line situation, as the unit is poured down by sniper fire in the Binh Khe Area, 10-28-65.
- A-2270 Troops of the 1st Cav. Div., form a skirmish line on a rice paddy dike prior to sweeping a hamlet near Binh Khe, 10-28-65.
- A-2271 Men from 1st Cav. Div., await their turns to load onto a C-130, 8-25-65.
- A-2272 Pfc John Laker, Co. "C" 1st Bn., 5th Cav. 1st Air Cav. Div., with M-60 machine gun and M-16 rifle, keep a watch for possible VC as other members of his company "dig in", 8-25-65.
- A-2273 C-130's lined up on the runway awaiting troops of the 1st Air Cav. Div., for air movement to An Khe, 8-25-65.
- A-2274 Maj. Gen. Harry W. Kinnard, (R) C.O 1st Cav. Div., review his troops as they honor his departure to Vietnam, 8-18-65.
- A-2275 Members of 194th AB Bn., 1st Cav. Div., on bus enroute to Vietnam, 8-12-65.
- A-2247 Members of the Vietnamese National Police and the Skytroopers of the 1st Bde 1st Cav. Div., check a village during a joint search, Bong Son, Vietnam 1967.
- A-2248 An Khe, Vietnam, men of the 1st Cav. Div., pause on top of a huge boulder on patrol in the Lao Valley during operation "Pershing", 4, 1967.
- A-2249 An Khe, Vietnam, 1st Cavalmen take a break while patrolling Lao Valley, during operation "Pershing", 1967.
- A-2250 Members of the 2nd Pl, Co. "C", 1st Bn. 7th Cav, 1st Cav. Div., move out on patrol thru the heavy jungle which surrounds the Co's mountain top camp during operation "Thayer II" 50 Km NW of Qui Nhon, 10-29-66.
- A-2251 Radio operator Bruce Finney, San Diego, Ca. "C" Co, 1st Bn. 7th Cav. 1st Cav. Div., rest after returning from a patrol of the Co's perimeter, 50 KM NW of Qui Nhon during operation "Thayer II" 10-29-66.

- A-2252 Supplies of hot food and fresh water are unloaded at Co. "C" 7th Cav. 1st Cav. Div., during operation "Thayer II" The mountain camp is located 50 km NW of Qui Mon, Vietnam, 10-29-66.
- A-2253 Men unload supplies at Co "C" 7th Cav. 1st Cav. Div., during operation "Thayer II" near Qui Mon, Vietnam 10-29-66.
- A-2254 Members of Co. "C", 1st Bn. 7th Cav, 1st Cav. Div sharpen up their shooting eye by firing into the uninhabited mountains which surround the mountain top post, near Qui Mon, during operation "Thayer II", 10-29-66.
- A-2255 Men of Co. "C" 1st Bn., 7th Cav. 1st Cav. Div., move on patrol thru heavily wooded area surrounding their mountain top camp during Operation "Thayer II", 50 km NW of Qui Mon, 10-29-66.
- A-2256 Men of II Btry 3rd Sqn 11th Armor Cav. Regt. 1st Cav. Div., maintain an artillery position with a 105mm, m-108 self-propelled howitzer and an ammo bunker in their staging area in Long Binh, 10-4-66.
- A-2257 Men of the 3rd Sqn, 11th Armored Cav. Regt., in M-113 armored personnel carriers, move into position as VC sniper fire rakes the area during operation "Hickory" East of Bien Hoa, 10-9-66.
- A-2258 M-48 A3 tanks of the 3rd Sqn, 11th Armd Cav. Regt., move into position after reaching their objective during operation "Hickory" east of Bien Hoa, 10-7-66.
- A-2259 Sp4 John H. Quinn, Dickinson, Tx., (R) pin pointing the target for Pfc Lenk H Jenkins, Cusdy, Tx., (center) and Pfc Atanacio A Loya, La Mirada, Ca., "B" troop 1st Sqn 11th Armored Cav., during a practice alert at the unit's staging area in Long Binh, 9-27-66.
- A-2260 A radio man comforts his friend who broke down after surviving a battle in which nearly all of his platoon was wiped out during operation "Byrd" all men are assigned to Co "A", 2nd Bn. 7th Regt, 1st Cav. Div., due to the tense feelings of these men, names could not be obtained, 8-26-66.
- A-2261 Men of gun crew # 6, begin to make their 105mm howitzer (M-102) "Cone Fighter" ready to fire the 1st fire mission after being moved from Dong Tie (35M NW of Tuy Hoa, by CH-47 helicopter of Co "B" 228th Avn Bn. 1st Cav. Div., the gun crew is supporting the 2nd Bn. 502nd Regt. 1st Bde Tuy Hoa, 101st AB. Div., on an assault sweep during operation "John Paul Jones", 1968.
- A-2262 Men with 105mm howitzer fire on the Cong, they are members of Co. "C" 1st Bn. 7th Cav. 1st Cav. Div., 1968.
- A-2263 Men of the Cav. Div., gather in a trench to plan strategy before moving out on patrol again during operation "Masher" in the Binh Dinh Valley, 1-25-66.
- A-2264 Command post of a Cav. Div. directs operations from high on the side of a hill overlooking palmgroves and rice paddies below during operation "Masher" in the Binh Dinh Valley, 1-25-66.
- A-2265 The (command post (foreground) and the men of Cav. Div., sit in a trench keeping low from Viet Cong sniper fire during operation "Masher" in the Binh Dinh Valley, 1-26-66.
- A-2266 Men of the 1st Cav. Div., move thru a rice paddy, north of Phu Cat, during operation "Masher", a search and destroy operation, 1-22-66.

1ST CAVALRY DIVISION WWII

- A-2289 Machine gun troops, 1st Cavalry firing 30 calibre machine gun on the Castner Range, Fort Bliss, Tx., 6/41.
- A-2290 2nd Platoon, special weapons troop, 1st cav., firing 50 cal. machine guns at Caster Range, Fort Bliss, Tx. 5/51
- A-2291 Cavalrymen unloading from assault boats, these boats, are rowed to shallow water, the men unload and make for the shore on the double, 5/41.
- A-2292 (Cavalry Charge) 1st Cavalry charging at Fort Selden, New Mexico 5/41.
- A-2293 1st Cavalry crossing Rio Grande at Radium Spring, N.M., 6/41.
- A-2294 Troops "B" 8th Engineers, constructing pontoon bridge across Rio Grande, at Radium Springs, N.M.
- A-2295 Troops "B" 8th Engineers building pontoon bridge across Rio Grande, at Radium Spring, N.M. 5/1941.
- A-2296 "B" Battery 62nd F.A. Bn. 105mm howitzers on the Dona Ana Range, Fort Bliss, Tx. 5/41.
- A-2297 "B" Battery, 62nd F.A. Bn. firing 105mm howitzers on the Dona Ana Range, Fort Bliss, Tx. 5/41.
- A-2298 Bazooka Team of the 1st cav. fires thru a shell hole in the wall, around the baseball park, at Manila Luzon, P.I. 2/16/45.
- A-2299 Maj. Gen. Verne D. Madge, Co. 1st Cav., confers with Maj. Gen. W.C. Chase CG 1st Brigade, from tank in the town of Tacloban, Leyte Is., P.I., 10/22/44.
- A-2300 Brig. Gen. W. Chase (L) CG 1st Cav. Brig. Maj. Gen. V.D. Madge (M) CG 1st Cav., Maj. Gen. F.C. Seibert, CG X Corps, hold a conference at the command post, Leyte Is., P.I. 10/22/44.
- A2301 Maj. Gen. W.C. Chase, U.S. Army Co. of the 1st Cav., fastens a battle streamer on the guidon of Co. "G" during a ceremony on the island of Luzon, P.I., 9/14/45.
- A-2302 U.S. troops of the 7th Cav. Regt. advance towards San Jose, on Leyte Is., P.I., 10/20/44.
- A-2303 27th ORD DET, Lorengau Beach, 1200 yards from enemy fire, and their land mines, 3/26/44.
- A-2304 Men of troop "F" 8th Cav. Regt. atop their tanks, enter Manila, after fighting in the streets of Novariches, Luzon, P.I. 2/5/45.
- A-2305 Troop "B", 2nd Brigade, 7th Cav. Regt. 1st Cav., land on Babatnon Beach, Leyte Is., P.I. from LCI 979 10/24/44.
- A-2306 An M-4 tank takes place of one which was burned out at a bend in the road, its firing direct in to Jap position, Luzon, P.I. 3/10/45.
- A-2307 "C" troop of the 7th Cav. slowly advancing towards Jap position on Infanta Rd., Luzon, P.I. 5/23/45.
- A-2308 After Jap's cave has been neutralized by TNT charge, elements of "A" troop 1st Cav. Regt. 1st Cav. continue their advance toward retreating Japs, on Luzon, P.I. 5/5/45.
- A-2309 Troops of the 1st Cav. crouch behind a jeep as Jap mortar shells land in the area, Luzon, P.I. 3/8/45.
- A-2310 Men and tanks move up on Japanese The troops are the 44th Tank Bn. and troop "A" 1st squadron, 7th Regt. 2nd Bn. 1st Cav., Leyte Is., P.I. 10/20/44.

- A-2311 Men of troop "F", 8th Cav. Regt. atop their tanks, enter Manila, the tank at left and its men seem to be in difficulty, Luzon, P.I. 2/5/45.
- A-2312 Burial Services on the grounds of the university for 3 men of the 1st Cav., killed in the fight for Santo Thomas, Luzon, P.I. 2/5/45.
- A-2313 A patrol of cavalrymen of the 8th Cav. Regt., moves into the battered town of Santo Thomas, Luzon, P.I. 3/24/45.
- A-2314 Troops and vehicles of the 7th & 8th Cavalry Regt., 1st Cav. Div. move along Hwy # 1, near Santo Thomas, Luzon, P.I. 3/24/45.
- A-2315 The 1st Cav. sets up a new command post on the mountain side of western Leyte Valley, Luzon, P.I., 11/21/44.
- A-2316 Members of troop "C", 8th Engineers, 1st Cav., Los Negros Is., of the admiralty Group line up for final inspection before leaving for invasion, 10/7/44.
- A-2317 A truck convoy loaded with men of troop "C", Los Negros Is., of the Admiralty Group leaves camp site headed for the invasion 10/7/44.
- A-2318 Pfc Sam Jacoby, 1st Cav., a MP keeps the traffic moving at intersection on Rt #1 and # 10 just outside Tacloban, Leyte Is. Luzon, P.I., 10/26/44.
- A-2319 Traffic jam at the intersection of U.S. RT #1 and # 10 outside of Tacloban, Leyte Is., P.I., 10/26/44.
- A-2320 Without being asked, civilians unload boats of supplies for members of troop "D" 7th Regt. 2nd brigade, 1st Cav., at Babatnon Village, Leyte Is. P.I., 10/24/44.
- A-2321 Members of the 12th Regt Reconnaissance Platoon, 1st Cav., near Carigara, Leyte Is., P.I., they are tired and hungry after returning from 2 weeks patrol, 11/19/44.
- A-2322 Cpl. K.J. Leftwich, of Inglewood, Ca. a mechanic for 1 of the L-4 planes used by the 1st Cav. Div., for observation and liaison checks the oil before a routine flight, 10-8-45.
- A-2323 LST loading area Cape Sudest, New Guinea prior to the invasion of the Admiralty Islands, 3-12-44.
- A-2324 Members of "F" troop, 2nd Sqn. 7th Cav. Regt. 1st Cav. Div., counting money at the front lines. They are left to right Pfc James Goggin of East Hartford, Ct., Pfc Walter Pinisk of Hammond, In. and Pfc Mario Olivette, of Chicago, Il., Taytay, Luzon, P.I. 2-27-45.
- A-2326 A truck convoy loaded with men of troop "C", 8th Engineers, 1st Cav. Div., Los Negros Island of the Admiralty Group, 10-7-44.

AMERICAL DIVISION WWII

- A-2814 Soldiers of the 3rd Bn., 164th Inf., just outside of New Caledonia, 7/31/42.
- A-2815 First troops of the 3rd Bn., 132nd Inf., Americal Div. crawl ashore under Japanese fire, on Cebu Island, PI 3/26/45.
- A-2816 American landing craft move in toward shore. Just prior to the invasion of Cebu Island, PI, by the troops of the 3rd Bn., 132nd Inf., Americal Div., 3/26/45.
- A-2817 First troops of the 3rd Bn., 132nd Inf. Americal Div., wade ashore across heavily mined beach, just south of Cebu city, 3/26/45.
- A-2818 Camouflaged 155mm howitzers of 245th field artillery, Americal Div., blast Japs positions on Negros Island, Dumaguete, PI.
- A-2819 Brig. Gen. Eugene W. Ridings of the famed Americal Div., arrives at Nichole Field, Manila, PI, from Guam, 9/12/45.

Americal Div. WW II Cont.

- A-2820 American infantrymen of the Americal Div., on Bougainville prepare to storm off banyan tree in back ground on hill "260", 3/44.
- A-2821 Members of Co "E", 2nd Bn. 132nd Inf. Americal Div., on patrol outside the American Perimeter at Bougainville, move in on Japs positions which have been blasted with flame throwers and torpedoes 1944.
- A-2822 U.S. soldiers of Co "G", 132nd Inf. Regt of the Americal Div., watch as a naval plane drops a incendiary bombs on the Japanese pill boxes, 8/14/44.
- A-2823 Members of the 182nd Inf., Americal Div., check through mines found in a Japanese cave on Babag Ridge, Cebu, PI 4/19/45.
- A-2824 Troops of Co "E" 2nd Bn., 164th Inf. Regt. Americal Div., move up into the hills near Dumaguete, Negros Island, PI, 4/29/45.
- A-2825 Troops of the 164th Inf. Regt. Americal Div. pass a truck made into a armored truck by the Japs, Dumaguete, Negros Island, PI, 4/29/45.
- A-2826 Troops of Co "L", 3rd Bn., 132nd Inf. Regt. Americal Div., advance north of Sonog, Cebu Island, PI and push to clean out the Japanese Forces on the Island, 5/8/45.
- A-2827 Troops of Co "I", 3rd Bn. 132nd Inf. Regt. Americal Div., return to the rear after securing the city of Tobogan in northern Cebu, PI, from enemy resistance, 5/14/45.
- A-2828 Staff officers of the 26th Signal Co Americal Div. on Bougainville, Soloman Island, 8/10/44.
- A-2829 Capt. Albert Hannon, 132nd Inf. is being congratulated by Brig. Gen. Edmund B. Sebree, CG Americal Div. in the Sava, Fiji, Island, 5/3/43.
- A-2830 The Americal Div. front line positions on Bougainville, Mt. Bagana in distance is an active volcano, 3/44.
- A-2831 Men in the front lines of "C" Co., 132nd Inf. Regt. Americal Div. watch planes drop incendiary bombs on Jap pill boxes, Bougainville, 3/17/44.
- A-2832 Tanks of "C" Co., 716th Tank Bn. Americal Div. supporting troops of the 2nd Bn. 182nd Inf., drive toward Jap positions in the hills pass Lahug Strip near Cebu City, PI, 3/28/45.
- A-2833 Tank of Co "B", 716th Tank Bn. Americal Div., stuck in deep mud of the Jimaguit river bottom, is being pulled out by a sister tank, north of Sagedi, PI 5/8/45.
- A-2834 164th Inf. of the Americal Div. marching toward the front lines to relieve the 101st Marines, this is in the Torokina Area, 12/26/43.
- A-2835 Soldiers of the 164th Inf. 2nd Bn. Americal Div., digging in, 5/45.
- A-2836 Troops of the 164th Inf. Regt. Americal Div., disembark from LCI's 977, 976, 960, at Negros Island, PI 4/25/45.

OMAHA BEACH JUNE 6, 1944 - 8X10 GLOSSY PHOTOS

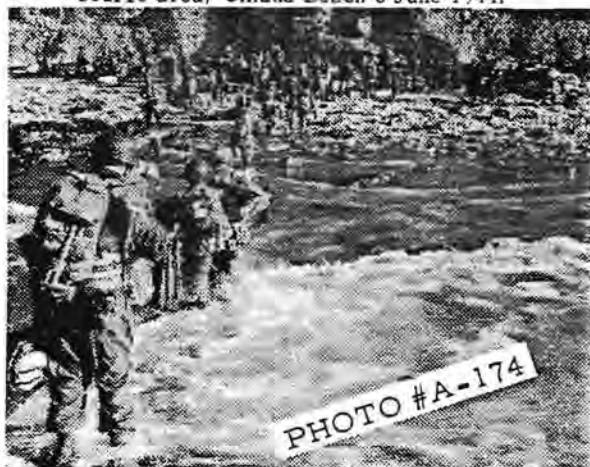

U.S. ARMY SIGNAL CORP PHOTOS TAKEN ON THE BEACH ON D-DAY
JUNE 6, 1944 AND THE DAYS AFTER.

Relive this historic landing through these front line battle action photographs.

PHOTO NO. AND
DESCRIPTION

WORLD WAR II

- #A-150 GI's pour ashore on the coast of France on D-Day 6 June 1944.
- #A-151 More assault troops land on Omaha Beach. Half-tracks and a beached "Dukw" indicate successful landing by the initial waves of men. Smoke in background is from Naval gunfire supporting the attack. A long line of troops move out from the beachhead.
- #A-152 American assault troops of the 3rd Battalion, 16th Inf. Regt., 1st U.S. Inf. Div., rest by the chalk cliff after storming Omaha Beach near Colville-Sur-Mer, Normandy, France 6 June 1944.
- #A-153 Troops of the 3rd Battalion 16th Inf. Regt., 1st Inf. Div., carrying full equipt, including a machine gun, move along a cliff on Omaha Beach.
- #A-154 American assault troops of the 3rd Battalion, 16th Inf. Regt., 1st Inf. Div., assemble on a narrow strip of Omaha Beach before moving inland, 6 June 1944.
- #A-155 Survivors of a sunk LCVP off the coast of France come safely ashore in a rubber life raft, Cherbourg area, Omaha Beach 6 June 1944.

- #A-156 Two American soldiers string a life line from the beach to a wrecked landing craft to guide the the soldiers in the craft through the heavy surf on Omaha Beach near Cherbourg, France.
- #A-157 INVASION.. Carrying full equipment, American assault troops move onto Omaha Beach. Landing craft, in the background, jam the harbor.
- #A-158 A line of American assault troops move along Omaha Beach among the litter of invasion intent on making their visit a lasting one, 6 June

- #A-159 American troops wade ashore on Omaha Beach.
- #A-160 Lt Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Commanding the allied ground forces, climbs a ladder from a launch to a warship, to confer with General Montgomery, 6 June 1944
- #A-161 A medic of the 3rd Bn., 16th Inf. Regt., 1st Inf. Div., moves along a narrow strip on Omaha Beach administering first aid to men wounded in the landing, 6 June 1944.
- #A-162 An American soldier of the 3rd Bat., 16th Inf. Regt., 1st Inf. Div., takes a breather before moving onto the continent, Omaha Beach 6 June 1944.
- #A-163 German troops and laborers are rounded up by two American soldiers, one of whom is wounded, 6 June 1944 Omaha Beach.
- #A-164 An American medical officer treats a wounded German prisoner on Omaha Beach 6 June 1944.
- #A-165 Another view of American troops moving onto Omaha Beach with half-tracks and "Dukws"
- #A-166 Landing craft of all sizes & shapes off Omaha Beach Normandy France, 6 June 1944.
- #A-167 The storm of shells and bullets subsides, this dead American soldier awaits the litter bearers.
- #A-168 Another dead soldier awaits the litter bearers.
- #A-169 Shot of dead soldier and a loaded burning truck, both were caught in the terrific fire that the Germans poured into the D-Day invaders.
- #A-170 French civilians go about their everyday tasks despite the fierce battles raging around them, 7 June 1944.
- #A-171 Troops leave "Dukws" and other landing craft onto the continent, Omaha beach 7 June 1944.
- #A-172 Landing craft approaching the Omaha Beach on 7 June 1944 smoke is from Naval gunfire.
- #A-173 Smoke pours out of German defenses as more troops prepare to land 8 June 1944.
- #A-174 Troops of the 5th Engineer Special Brigade wade through the surf, at Fox Green, Omaha Beach 8 June 1944
- #A-175 Maj. Gen. Ralph Royce, Deputy Comdr, 9th Air force; Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Commanding allied ground forces, and the "boss" Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Allied Comdr, 8 June 1944
- #A-176 Preparing to land trucks and jeeps off of a landing craft, men are in the vehicles ready for instant debarkation 8 June 1944
- #A-177 Medics administer blood plasma to a wounded soldier on Omaha Beach 8 June 1944
- #A-178 Two soldiers help a wounded buddy 8 June 1944.
- #A-179 An American tank moves from an assault craft onto the beachhead, 8 June 1944
- #A-180 American command post set up by a knocked out enemy pill box 9 June 1944.

- #A-181 An American soldier makes out an identity tag for a young German captive as another wounded Nazi supplies some necessary information, Omaha Beach 9 June 1944.
- #A-182 Captured German soldiers on the beach of France eating U.S. Army "K" rations. The war over for them they await transfer to England, 9 June 1944
- #A-183 American gun battery of an AA unit goes into action on Omaha near Vierville Sur-mer, France 10 June
- #A-184 A platoon of Negro troops surround a farm house as they prepare to eliminate a German sniper near Vierville Sur-Mer France 10 June 1944.
- #A-185 American Army and Navy chiefs step ashore in France to check progress of the invasion. In the group are Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme allied Comdr, Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff U.S. Army; Adm. Ernest King U.S. Navy, and Gen. Henry H. Arnold, Commanding Gen. U.S. Air Forces France 12 June 1944.
- #A-186 Jeeps of the 5th Engineer Special Brigade debark from an LST, at Fox Green, Omaha Beach 12 June.
- #A-187 Winston Churchill of Great Britain, Sir Alan Brooke, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, General Jan Smuts, Premier of the Union of South Africa, and Rear Adm. Barry on their way to the French Coast aboard a warship, 12 June 1944.
- #A-188 Gen. Sir Benard Montgomery, steps ashore from the launch bringing the above dignitaries to his headquarters, in France 12 June
- #A-189 Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery, steps ashore from the launch bringing Prime Minister Winston Churchill, Gen Sir Alan Brooke, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, General Jan Smuts, Premier of the Union of South Africa, and Rear Adm. Barry to his headquarters in France 12 June 1944.

PHOTO #A-176

UTAH BEACH JUNE 6, 1944 - 8X10 GLOSSY PHOTOS

IDEAL FOR FRAMING
FOR DEN, OFFICE OR HOME

U.S. ARMY SIGNAL CORP PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN ON THE BEACH
ON D-DAY JUNE 6, 1944 AND THE DAYS AFTER.

35 photos in this group, see order form for prices.

Relive this famous battle through these front line battle action photographs.

WORLD WAR II

PHOTO NO. AND
DESCRIPTION

NORMANDY-UTAH BEACH

- #A-101 American troops debarking from LST's under fire from German artillery during early stage of the invasion on Utah Beach, at Les Dunes De Madeleine France 6 June 1944.
- #A-102 Tank named "Hurricane", it's commander peering from the turret, rolls onto Utah Beach. 8th Inf. Regt. 4th Inf Div. 6 June 1944
- #A-103 A German 88-mm shell explodes besides an LST during the early stages of the invasion off Utah beachhead, Cherbourg Peninsula, France, 6/6/44
- #A-104 Amphibious trucks bring in supplies, on Utah Beach, Les Dunes De Madeleine, France. In return, they take back casualties to the ships for evacuation to England. 6 June 1944
- #A-105 American airborne infantrymen pass through St. Marie Dumont on their way to contact the enemy.
- #A-106 A command post on Utah Beach (Red Beach Hq.) showing men and equipment. 7 June 1944
- #A-107 Two paratroopers utilize horses, finding them plentiful in St. Mere Eglise France, for patrolling the streets, after clearing the town of German defenders. 7 June 1944
- #A-108 A group of American paratroopers in a French village, at St. Marcouf, Utah Beach France preparing to move on to the continent. 8 June 1944
- #A-109 American paratroopers, taking cover and concealment from trees and buildings, move cautiously into a small village at St. Marcouf, France 8 June 1944
- #A-110 "Yanks everywhere" as can be seen from one of the captured hilltops on the coast of France. Troops are digging in for a long stay. Red Beach, 8 June 1944

- #A-111 American troops of the 9th Division enter St. Marie Du Mont, Utah Beach France. 8 June 1944.
- #A-112 American paratroopers, among the first to make landings on the continent, holds a Nazi flag captured in a village assault. St Marcouf, France 8 June 1944.
- #A-113 Nazi sympathizers, Georgians from the Ukrain, now prisoners of war some where along the coast of France happily await to be sent to a prison camp in England.
- #A-114 Paratroopers move cautiously through a French church yard at St Marcouf, Their rifles at the ready, they move into the interior as the men on the right take cover behind a bush. 8 June 1944
- #A-115 Same patrol as in photo A-114 taking cover from the stone wall of the church yard. 8 June 1944.
- #A-116 American paratroopers with assault equipt. move along a road in St. Marcouf. Machine gun ammo. strung around the GI's neck will soon be pouring through the weapon carried by the man on the left.
- #A-117 A French civilian gives information to two paratroopers at St. Marcouf, France 8 June 1944.
- #A-118 An American staff sergeant, one of the first airborne troopers to settle on German held French soil, passes a harried French woman as he moves inland to engage the Hun. St. Marcouf. 8 June 1944
- #A-119 French civilians give directions to Americans at St. Marcouf. 8 June 1944.
- #A-120 An American soldier picks a small bit of metal from another soldiers face, on Orchard Beach. Scenes like this were common on the beachheads of northern France. 8 June 1944.
- #A-121 Two and one-half ton amphibious trucks of the 470th Amp. Truck Co, 1st Esg. SPEG Brigade, bring supplies to the beachhead Les Dune De Madelein. on the right is a German 77mm gun. 8 June 1944.
- #A-122 Taking a breather behind a concrete wall American troops of the 8th Inf. Reg. 4th Inf. Division. Other troops move over the crest of a hill as they move to the interior. 9 June 1944.
- #A-123 As flames raze a german pillbox on the beaches of northern France, an American medic works on a wounded american soldier. 9 June 1944
- #A-124 View of the Utah Beach area, Colleville, France, showing the masses of men and equipt. being landed from the various landing craft lying offshore.
- #A-125 British troops aboard a landing craft enroute to the beachheads won by allied soldiers in the initial waves in the invasion of northern France, lie ready to roll on to the beach 9 June 1944
- #A-126 American soldiers of the 8th Inf. Regt., 4th Inf. Div. Wade through land flooded by German forces, in an unsuccessful attempt to make glider landings impractical on Utah Beach 9 June 1944.

- #A-127 An American soldier scrambles away from a house until moments before served as an ammo. dump for the Germans. 9 June 1944
- #A-128 American assault forces enroute to Cherbourg, France, from England aboard a landing craft, catch forty winks atop their vehicles. 9 June 44.
- #A-129 In a farmyard they have just cleared of German snipers, American troops plan their attack of the next objective at Les Dunes De Varredille, 10 June 1944.

PHOTO #A-122

- #A-130 Nazi 88mm guns pound the beach as American troops push into Normandy France. 11 June 1944.
- #A-131 Vehicles of the 1st Army Corp being unloaded onto Utah Beach from barge, at Lea Dunes De Madeleine France. Foreground shows a captured german 47mm antitank gun complete with ammo. 12 June 1944.
- #A-132 Newly landed U.S. Forces move along Utah Beach, at Les Dunes de Madeleine, on their way to the front. 12 June 1944.
- #A-133 Casualties of the 82nd Airborne Div. being evacuated by jeep to a medical station, Ste Mere-Eglise, France. In the background are German prisoners of war 12 June 1944.
- #A-134 An American command post bustles with activity as prisoners are hurried down the cliff side to ships in the harbor near St. Honore France. The American flag is protection against these troops being shelled by their own men, 12 June 1944.
- #A-135 In a German mine field where an American soldier was killed 1st Lt. Mmerle Kirstein goes through with a detector. 13 June 1944.

PHOTO #A-106

BATTLE OF ST LO, FRANCE JULY 1944

IDEAL FOR FRAMING
FOR DEN, OFFICE OR HOME

U.S. ARMY SIGNAL CORP PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN DURING THE BATTLE OF ST LO, FRANCE.

58 photos in the group, see order form for prices.

Relive this famous battle through these front line battle action photographs.

- A-301 Vehicles of the 35th Inf. Div., move through the ruins of St Lo, 29 July 1944
- A-302 Members of a field artillery unit keep pouring a withering hail of fire in the German lines 7/18/44
- A-303 View of the gutted buildings of St Lo 29 July 1944.
- A-304 Men of the 4th Inf. Div move toward the front past St Lo. 26 July 1944.
- A-305 An American armored vehicle blasts Nazis fleeing St Lo this photo reflects intensity of the battle 20 July 1944.
- A-306 Signal Corps pass through the nearly occupied streets of St Lo. 20 July 1944
- A-307 Officers of the 175th Inf. Regt. studying maps of their objective. Between St. Andri and St Lo, France 15 July 1944
- A-308 A Yank infantryman weilds a light machine gun behind a hedgerow against infiltrating Germans. 15 July 1944
- A-309 Pvt. W.E. Hatfield, stands in public square of St Lo with poised pistol and field glasses. This square called "88 Alley" because of the accuracy of German 88mm fire. 20 July 1944
- A-310 GIs out side a German command post in St Lo 29 July 1944
- A-311 Tank crew waits for orders to support advancing infantrymen 8th Inf. Regt. 4th Inf. Div. 23 July 1944
- A-312 Advance guard of the 29th Inf. Div. entering St Lo 20 July 1944.
- A-313 Two members of an American patrol pass by the body of a German sniper who was holding up the advance on St Lo. 18 July 1944
- A-314 Military traffic to and from the front lines. St Lo 2 Aug 1944
- A-315 A jeep passes a dead German on the streets of St Lo on it's way to the front. 29 July 1944
- A-316 An American truck, struck by artillery fire, blazes on the road to St Lo, as first line troops move on to the city. 20 July 1944

- A-317 Wrecked armor found by advancing U.S. infantrymen as they entered St Lo 21 July 1944.
- A-318 A column of U.S. infantrymen march toward the front. The 35th Div. 11 July 1944
- A-319 Pfc R. Reese of Westminster, Md. drives up a French road in his M-29 vehicle carrying assault equipt. 18 July 1944
- A-320 American soldiers unload shells from a truck near St Lo 26 July 1944
- A-321 An elderly French women watches troops move along a road in the St Lo sector. 23 July 1944
- A-322 Firing a 155mm gun called "CORREGIDOR" into the German lines near St Lo. 16 July 1944
- A-323 A mine explodes as U.S. Army tanks move on 19 July 1944
- A-324 An aerial view of St Lo taken at 400 ft. 28 July 44
- A-325 Two infantrymen hit the dirt in "88 Alley" 7/20/44
- A-326 Major General C.H. Gerhardt, CG 29th Div, discusses assault tactics with Maj. W.W. Bratton. 18 July 1944
- A-327 G.I. infantrymen move warily along a road, past a dead comrade. 21 July 1944.
- A-328 A mass of American armored vehicles jam "88 Alley" as they move through St Lo 20 July 1944
- A-329 A Yank patrol picks it's way thru blasted ruins toward the Notre Dame Cathedral 25 July 1944.
- A-330 This infantry patrol hugs hedgerow by lane in St Lo, as German artillery shells burst overhead 23 July 1944
- A-331 Crew of a 155mm howitzer known as "Whispering Death" holds their ears as the gun sends another shell toward the German lines. 7/24/44
- A-332 G.I. infantryman advances past a dead German toward a wrecked church 23 July 1944.
- A-333 Troops of Co A 137th Inf. protect themselves from enemy fire along a road 14 July 1944.
- A-334 Soldiers take a breather along "88 Alley" as a tank destroyer sweeps the hedgerows with machine gun fire. 20 July 1944
- A-335 Nazi soldier surrenders to American soldiers on the outskirts of St Lo 20 July 1944
- A-336 A field artillery unit prepares to fire on the German lines 26 July 1944.
- A-337 Another view of devastated St Lo 28 July 1944.
- A-338 Cpl A. Franczaki passes out mail to GIs in an old barn west of St Lo 27 July 1944.
- A-339 First Cafe in St Lo is opened by Cpl E.L. Martin with onlookers: 2nd Lt. S. Preff, Cpl E.L. Martin, Pfc B.C. Rogers Pvt J. Shkoluk and Pvt W.G. Wagenhauser 19 July 1944.
- A-340 Engineers probe for mines, such as the one that blasted the jeep and trailer on the left 20 July 1944
- A-341 Blasted rail station in St Lo 7/29/44.
- A-342 Photo shows wrecked German equipment along the road to St Lo 20 July 1944.
- A-343 American infantrymen find wrecked american armor and dead GIs along the road to St Lo 7/21/44.

- A-344 U.S. infantrymen pause beside a wrecked building before pushing on to their objective on hill 122 20 July 1944.
- A-345 Wounded German is given 1st Aid by a U.S. Medic, T/4F. Showalter. This German still gasping for breath, was hit on hill 97. 320th Regt. 35th Div. 20 July 1944.
- A-346 Medics of 3rd Bn. 5th Inf. Regt. 4th Inf. Div. in a jeep pass a tank awaiting orders to move into the front lines. 23 July 1944.
- A-347 The 175th Inf. Regt. dig in behind a hedgerow getting ready for a new offensive 15 July 1944.
- A-348 Tanks move to support infantry west of St Lo 24 July 1944.

- A-349 Pvt Morley Futz 120th Inf. 30th Inf. Div., looks over the sniper he has just killed near the front lines 15 Aug 1944.
- A-350 GIs cautiously examine a German blockhouse in St Lo 27 July 1944.
- A-351 An American patrol pass two bodies of Nazis who died defending the city 26 July 1944.
- A-352 An American tank lumbers thru the streets of the city 20 July 1944.
- A-353 Litter-bearers are carrying a wounded soldier in to the aid station of an infantry unit near St Lo 14 July 1944.
- A-354 A tank rifleman helps to clear the ruins of snipers. 29 July 1944.
- A-355 A knocked out U.S. tank destroyer and dead yank in back of it at the entrance to St Lo 19 July 1944.
- A-356 Yank infantryman dashes down street, past knocked out tank destroyer, 19 July 1944
- A-357 Troops of the 29th Inf. Div. move down the main st of the city to clean up. 19 July 1944
- A-358 Two American soldiers get a French welcome complete with wine. 25 July 1944.

PHOTO A-318

BATTLE OF THE BULGE - BASTONE, BELGIUM

U.S. ARMY SIGNAL CORP PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN DURING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE. Relive this famous battle through these front line battle action photos.

IDEAL FOR FRAMING
FOR DEN, HOME OR OFFICE

BATTLE OF THE BULGE - BASTOGNE, BELGIUM

- A-401 Tanks and infantrymen of the 82nd Airborne Div. Co "G", 740th Tank Battalion 504th Regt., push through the snow toward their objective near Herresbach, Belgium.
- A-402 American infantrymen of the 87th Div. enter the town of St Hubert, Belgium, right after the Germans fled the town. 1945
- A-403 German-held positions over the L'Amblene River, in Stavelot, Belgium, as seen from the front lines 30 Dec. 1944
- A-404 Infantrymen of the 290th Regt. 75th Div. move along a road through Beffe, Belgium. Jeep in the photo has just been hit by a mortar shell 1/5/45.
- A-405 Weary infantrymen of the 110th Regt. 28th Div. U.S. First Army, following the German breakthrough in that area. Pvt Adam H. Davis and T/5 Milford A. Sillars 19 Dec, 1944
- A-406 Men of Co. M, 3rd Bn., 18th Inf. Regt. lay in wait for German paratroopers being driven out of the woods in Sourbrodt, Belgium by other men of the Regt. 12/19/44.
- A-407 Men of the 3rd Armored Division, patrol the bulge as vapor trails from high-flying bombers streak the sky over the Ardennes forest 703rd TD Bn. 1/14/45.
- A-408 Pfc. Frank Vukasin, of Co. C, 331st Inf. Regt. 83rd Div., stops to load the clip in his rifle while advancing at Houffalize, Belgium over the bodies of two dead Germans.
- A-409 Enroute to the front lines, beyond Malmady, 3 infantrymen pause to rest. Left to right Sgt. Lyle Greene, S/Sgt J. DeMott, and F. Mozzoni. 12/29/44
- A-410 Dugouts, built into a bank near Vaux Chavanne, Belgium, offer protection from enemy artillery fire and cold wintery blasts. 82nd Airborne Div. Belgium 12/29/44.
- A-411 American soldiers of the 75th Div. 2nd Battalion, 289th Inf. Regt. march along the snow covered road on their way to cut off the Vith-Houffgliz road in Belgium 1/24/45.

- A-412 Infantrymen of the 26th Regt, 1st Div. 1st U.S. Army, move up to cut off Germans threatening Bullingen, Belgium 17 Dec 1944
- A-413 American infantrymen of Co. "C", 23rd Armored Inf. Battalion, 7th Armored Div. march up a road southeast of Born, Belgium 1/22/45
- A-414 Inf. of the 517th A/B Regt, 7th Armored Div, Hq Co, 2nd Bn, US First Army, march along the edge of a woods, near Ivelingen, in the drive to recapture St. Vith 1/20/45.
- A-415 On the lookout for German snipers, a squad of Third Army infantrymen move cautiously through the streets of Moircy, Belgium 12/31/44.
- Co. C, 1st Bn, 345th Regt. 87th Inf Div.
- A-416 Road signs left behind by U.S. troops occupying the Belgian town of Malmedy before it was retaken by the Germans in their counter offensive 12/28/44.
- A-417 Inf. of the 10th Armd. Inf. Regt. 4th Armd. Div. fire at German troops in the American advance to relive surrounded A/B troops 27 Dec 1944.
- A-418 American troops of Co C, 1st Battalion, 325th Glider Regt, 82nd Airborne Div. drag a loaded ammo, sled through the snow as they move for an attack on Horresbach, Belgium. 28 Jan 1945.
- A-419 A patrol of Co "A", 1st Battalion, 290th Inf. 7th Div. attacks German snipers discovered on the outskirts of the newly captured town of Beffe, Belgium. 12 Nazis were killed in this action 1/7/45.
- A-420 American soldiers of Co I, 333rd Inf Regt. 84th Div. move up to new positions through the snow near Dites Forge A La Plez. 1/5/45.
- A-421 S/Sgt U. Minicozzi Hqs Co, and Pfc A. Masiero Co A, both of 1st Bn, 290th Inf. Regt, 75th Inf Div, 7th Corps, Troop B, 4th Cav. Recon Sq, stop to reload while sniping snipers from the roof of a building 1/7/45.
- A-422 Soldiers of the 101st Airborne Div. move out of Bastogne, Belgium to attack the Germans in A neighboring town. This photo was taken while Bastogne was still under siege 12/29/44.
- A-423 Members of the 101st Airborne Div. walk past dead comrades in Bastogne, the town in which this Div. was besieged for ten days. This photo was taken on Christmas day 1944.
- A-424 Troops of Co L, 3rd Bn, 1st Div. march down a fog-shrouded road into Murringen, Belgium 1/31/45.
- A-425 Infantrymen of the 504th Regt, plod through heavy snow, toward Heersbach, Belgium 1/28/1945.
- A-426 Troops of the 504th Regt, 82nd Airborne Div. go by way of a fire-break in the woods, as they move up to Heersbach 28 Jan. 1945.
- A-427 Troops of the 317th Inf Regt, 80th Inf. Div. stop to eat chow. Bockholtz, Luxembourg 1/27/45.
- A-428 Tanks of the 42nd Armd Bn, move into attack. Mabompre, Belgium 16 Jan. 1945.
- A-429 Generals of the 101st Airborne Div. review the 101st Div. in the town of Bastogne, Belgium. They are in front of the "Bastion of the Battered Bastards of the 101st" 18 Jan 1945

- A-430 Men of the 2nd Bn, 325th Glider Regt, 82nd A/B Div move up a road through heavy fog 20 Dec 1944.
- A-431 Bomb damage to Bastogne as a result of the 10 day siege of the 101st Air-borne Div. 12/26/44
- A-432 Infantrymen of the 2nd Inf. Div. move up towards Krinkelt, Belgium. The orange circles painted on the backs of their snow capes are for identification. 31 Jan 1945
- A-433 An American jeep enters the shell torn town of Houffalize, by the main road after the town was retaken from the Germans by the 2nd Armd. Div. 18 Jan 1945.
- A-434 A patrol of Co F, 3rd Bn, 18th Regt, 1st Div, searches the woods between Eupen and Butgenbach, Belgium, for German parachutists who were dropped in that area 12/18/44.
- A-435 GIs inspect a Focke-Wulfe 190 which was shot-down by an American gun crew of multiple 50 Cal. guns 12/23/44 Rotgen, Germany.
- A-436 Men of the 75th Div move past a tank in Bussanville Belgium on their way to knock out small pockets of German resistance 12/26/44.
- A-437 Patrols of Co F, 3rd Bn, 18th Regt, 1st Div V Corps, US First Army, cautiously move through a woods between Eupen and Butgenbach, Belgium. 12/18/44
- A-438 Men of the 630th Tank Destroyer Battalion, Co "B" who lost their vehicles during advancement into Belgium, take infantry positions on a hill covering an approach in Wiltz, Bastogne, Belgium 12/20/44.
- A-439 Men of the 30th Inf. Div. crawl prone while crossing open terrain near Pont, Belgium (Co. E, 2nd Bn.) 1/17/45.
- A-440 Elements of two American units, 44th Armored Inf. and 6th Armored Div. move forward across a field on the outskirts of Bastogne, Belgium 12/31/44.
- A-441 Men of the 84th Inf. Div. enroute to Samree Hour and La Roche, Belgium. Tank helps to cover infantrymen who are under enemy observation and sporadic artillery fire 1/10/45.
- A-442 American Recon. troops of the 83rd Inf. Div. move up the main street in Bihain, Belgium to attack Nazi troops "dug in" in the woods beyond the town 11 Jan 1945.
- A-443 Infantrymen of Co. "E" 2nd Bn. 30th Div, 117th Regt, at the outskirts of Sart-Log-St. Vith, (Rodi), Belgium, during their advance on St. Vith 1/23/45.
- A-444 Members of a 2nd Inf. combat patrol lie flat on the ground to escape harassing enemy machine gun fire on a narrow road near Ondenval, Belgium, Co. G, 23rd Regt., FUSA 1/16/45.
- A-445 Burning home near Lomre, Belgium drew a heavy barrage of enemy shell fire which wounded a signal corps photographer 1/16/45.

BATTLE OF THE HURTGEN FOREST - GERMANY

U.S. ARMY SIGNAL CORP PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN DURING THE FIGHTING
IN THE HURTGEN FOREST, GERMANY.

BATTLE OF HURTGEN FOREST-GERMANY 1944 PHOTO NUMBER

- A201 With rifles held for quick action, Yank Infantrymen push through the Hurtgen Forest near Vossenack, Germany Co E 110th Inf Regt, 28th Inf Div. 11/2/44
- A202 A105 mm howitzer opens up from it's camouflaged position west of Duren, Germany 29th F.A. 4th Div 11/17/44
- A203 Mortar men fire shells toward enemy positions near Hurtgen Forest 759th Lt. TK Bn. 12/13/44
- A204 The No. 1 gun of an American artillery unit fires from an emplacement Btry A, 76th Field Artillery.
- A205 An American tank of the US First Army partially camouflaged by a wrecked building, guards the entrance to a street in Hurtgen Germany. 12/5/44
- A206 An American Sherman tank of the 121st Regt., 8th Inf. Div., V Corps, U.S. First Army, proceeds through the streets of the shell torn town of Hurtgen, 11/30/44
- A207 Two yank soldiers of the 3rd Bn., 121st Inf. Regt. 8th Div. FUSA., walk through the wreckage and desolation of the town of Hurtgen 12/4/44
- A208 American Infantrymen move through the town of Hurtgen on the way to the front lines 12/6/44.
- A209 75mm assault guns US 1st Army fire at Hurtgen 12/7/44.
- A210 PFC L.B. Mihalic and PFC J. Peterson scrounge material to make a dugout in the Hurtgen Forest sector near Kleinhau, Germany Both men are members of Co. B 13th Regt., 8th Inf. Div. XIX Corps 9th U.S. Army. 1/5/45
- A211 Soldiers of Hd Qtrs Battery, 903rd F.A. Battalion, attached to the 78th Inf. Div. try to push a truck out of deep snow Hurtgen Forest 1/18/45.
- A212 Inf. replacements for the 8th Div., XIX Corps, US 9th Army get instructions from an officer before being assignment to units 1/8/45.

PHOTO A-212

- A213 A 155mm howitzer of the 985th F.A. Battalion is fired against a German anti-aircraft battery on the Roer River front, 82nd Airborne Div. sector 2/15/45.
- A214 Engineers use sheet metal captured from the Germans to roof the log huts. The huts will be used by the troops of Co, "B" 12th Eng. Combat Battalion, 8th Inf Div XIX Corps, Ninth US Army 1/10/45
- A215 Infantrymen of Co. "B" 110th Inf. Regt, 28th Inf. Div move through the Hurtgen Forest near Vossenack, Germany 11/2/44
- A225 Battle weary Nazis who surrendered in the Hurtgen Forest near Jungersdorf, Germany 12/12/44 Co 1, 2Bn, 39th Regt, 9th Inf Div.
- A226 GIs of an Inf. unit near Zweifall, Germany welcome the first batch of Christmas presents to come their way 1st Sgt. P.R. Muckrud, plays santa claus. 3rd Battalion 4th Inf Div. 11/14/44
- A227 Engineers of the 4th Inf. Div construct a corduroy road through Hurtgen Forest near Zweifall, Germany 11/13/44
- A228 GIs sawing logs for huts near Zweifall, Germany Pfc B.E. Young, S. Sadlon, and Pfc. J. Pelberg Hq Co., 22nd Inf Regt 4th Div 11/13/44
- A229 American tanks move on narrow roads through the forest, 803rd Bn. 3rd Armd Div. Southwest of Duren, Germany 11/18/44
- A230 Weary infantrymen take a brief rest on a slope in the Hurtgen Forest Pfc M. Berzon S/Sgt B. Spurr, and S/Sgt H. Glessler Co 1 3rd Bn. 8th Regt, 4th Inf Div., Duren, Germany 11/18/44
- A216 Shell torn house being used by U.S. troops in Hurtgen is affectionately known as the "Hurtgen Hotel" by the men who are quartered there. Hd. Qtrs. Co 121st Inf. Regt, 8th Inf. Div., XIX Corps, 9th U.S. Army. 1/8/45
- A217 S/Sgt. J.V. Verhagen observes effect of fire from his tank gun upon enemy positions in Hurtgen 709th Battalion, 8th Inf Div 12/4/1944
- A218 The 18th Inf Regt Band in the ETO preforms in the woods of battle. 1st Div 2/17/45
- A219 Near Duren, Germany. American Infantrymen, carrying heavy weapons on their backs, give one another a helping hand as they climb a steep trail Co. 1, 3rd Bn., 8th Regt 4th Armored Div. 11/18/44
- A220 Men of the 13th Inf. Regt. 8th Div., U.S. Army move along a road through Hurtgen forest, 12/9/44
- A221 Pvt. C. Barloe builds a log cabin while Pvt. Eugene Dougherty of Scranton, Pa. Keeps guard with a light machine gun. U.S. 9th Army XIX Corps 8th Inf Div, 817 TD Bn Co A 12/30/44
- A222 German civilians conscripted from Stolberg, Germany repair roads near Germater, Germany. 503rd Engr. 8th Inf Div. XIX Corps (9th Army 1/27/45
- A223 A jeep of the 121st Inf. Regt., 8th Div. 21st Corps passes through a flooded street in Hurtgen 1/31/45
- A224 Pvt. W.B. Sperry wipes a "8" howitzer shell 1st Section Battery 997th Field Artillery in support of the 28th Regt, 1st Inf Div. 12/7/44

44 photos in this group, see order form for prices.

- A231 A Yank casualty is carried down a slope - 4th Inf Div. 8th Regt., 3rd Bn. Co 1, Duren area, Germany 11/18/44
- A232 American soldiers move across a small bridge, a tank can be seen in the background. Co 1, 3rd Bn. 8th Regt., 4th Inf Duren area Germany. 11/18/44
- A233 Yank Infantrymen eat their first hot meal after 15 days in the field. Soldier is S. Longstreth Co 1 121st Regt 8th Inf Div 12/5/44
- A234 Captured German prisoners are marched to the rear by Infantrymen of the 22nd Regt., 4th Inf Div. 11/30/44
- A235 Men of the 121st Inf. Regt., 8th Inf. Div., U.S. First Army after 15 days at the front move back along the road from Hurtgen 12/5/44
- A236 U.S. Infantrymen move into the forest, as they advance against a German installation Col 3rd Bn. 8th Regt., 4th Inf. Div. 11/18/44
- A237 Pfc. A. Moore in a mortar emplacement 759th Lt. TK Bn 12/13/44
- A238 Discarded ammo. boxes and shell cases indicate the barrage that was maintained against Hurtgen, Germany by the 43rd F.A. 8th Inf Div 11/17/44
- A239 Pvt. J. Brown cleaning 8" howitzer shells. 1st section Battery B 28th Regt 8th Inf Div. 12/7/44
- A240 A 1st Div half-track plows it's way through a muddy road. 1st Inf Div, U.S. First Army 2/15/45
- A241 Pfc B. Barrow gives a helping hand to a buddy as they climb a hill in the Hurtgen Forest southwest of Duren, Germany Co 1 3rd Bn. 8th Regt. 4th Inf. Div. 11/18/44
- A242 Battery A, 18th F.A. Bn, reloads their rocket launchers to fire a second volley, northwest of Kleinhau. V Corps U.S. First Army 11/26/44
- A243 Men of the 18th F.A. reload rockets in Hurtgen Germany. 11/30/44
- A244 Battery A, 18th field arty Bn. V Corps U.S. First Army fires a volley from their rocket launchers. 11/26/44

PHOTO A-208

METZ, FRANCE (95th Infantry Div.)

- A-747 American combat Engineers on lookout for German snipers hidden in buildings in Metz. Co A 156 Combat Eng. Corps 3rd Army, Nov 22, 1944.
- A-748 An American M-10 tank of the Third U.S. Army fires at fleeing Germans near Koenigs macher Fort, near Thionville in the Metz sector in France, 11/21/44.
- A-749 American Infantrymen patrol the streets of battered Maizieres les Metz, France, looking for German snipers.
- A-750 Men of the 377th Inf. Regt., 95th Inf. Div cautiously move a .30 cal. machine gun through the streets of Metz in search of German snipers, 11/22/44.
- A-751 American Infantrymen lug a boat down to the banks of the Moselle River at Dornot, France as they prepare to cross over to Metz.
- A-752 US soldiers and machines of the Third Army advance under fire into the outskirts of Metz where American soldiers began battling in the streets, Nov 18, 1944.
- A-753 Infantrymen of the US Third Army advance through the outskirts of Metz.
- A-754 A machine gunner of the Third Army keeps constant watch for movement of enemy soldiers in a Nazi-held fortress near Metz. the gunner is Pvt. Pat H Lambert of Wichita Falls, Tx. Nov 1944.
- A-755 Troops of the Third US Army smash in a door of a house in Metz to clean out Nazis in hiding, 11/22/44.
- A-756 American Infantrymen take shelter from German mortar fire on a slope on the Moselle River front, Nov 1944.
- A-757 Last Metz fort falls to US Third Army. German officers walk beneath the white flag of surrender toward Fort Joanne d Arc. A group of Gen Patton's men follow the German officers to take over the Fort, Nov 1944.
- A-758 Pfc. Lawrence Hoyle, left, of Bangham, Ill., Browning automatic rifleman and Pvt. Andrew Fechak, right, of McKeesport, Pa. take shelter behind a blasted wall and keep a sharp eye for enemy snipers, near Maizieres Les Metz, 11/1/44.
- A-759 GIs fire a captured German 88 at retreating German army at Metz.
- A-760 Yank infantrymen rush across railway toward the Moselle River near Metz, 9/8/44.

- A-761 A patrol of US Infantrymen cautiously through the streets of Metz, France clearing out remaining German snipers, 11/20/44.
- A-762 A tank destroyer with a 90mm gun takes up a position overlooking Herman Goring Street in Metz, 11/21/44.
- A-763 American Infantrymen patrol a section of Metz in search of snipers, 11/20/44.
- A-764 GIs move up into Metz as artillery shells fall in buildings and on fields all around them, 11/17/44.
- A-765 US Artillery and Infantrymen, 2nd Bn. 377th Regt., 95th Inf. Div., move in as American forces enter Metz, 11/17/44.
- A-766 Men of the 377th Inf. Regt. cautiously move a .30 cal. machine gun through the streets of Metz in search of German snipers still lurking in the city, 11/22/44.
- A-767 US Combat Engineers on lookout for German Snipers hidden in buildings of Metz. Co. A., 166 Combat Eng. 3rd Army, 11/22/44.
- A-768 An M-36 Tank Destroyer with a 90mm gun takes up a position in Metz. Co. C., 607th T.D. Bn., 11/20/44.
- A-769 Wreckage at a German airdrome near Metz was caused by US Artillery bombardment, 12/20/44.
- A-770 GIs of the 1st Bn., 95th Div. move towards center of town during fighting for Metz, 11/17/44.
- A-771 Same caption as photo A-770 different view.
- A-772 Nazi prisoners of war are lined up in the streets of Metz waiting to be marched to the rear, 11/19/44.

AACHEN, GERMANY

- A-460 From the turret of a medium tank, Cpl. Eugene McKay, Calumet City, IL., searches for Germans in Aachen, Germany while a tank destroyer in the background moves on German positions, Oct. 20, 1944.
- A-461 American infantrymen advance down a street in the city of Aachen, 10/15/44.
- A-462 An American infantryman, his weapon ready advances down a street in Aachen, Oct. 15, 1944.
- A-463 Members of the Belgium underground army point the way toward the Germans. Aachen, Oct 1944.
- A-464 Col. Wilck, German Commander of the surrendered Nazi garrison at Aachen, is shown in an American jeep. He is accompanied by three of his staff officers. Oct. 21, 1944.
- A-465 Crouching in the shelter of a knocked out German 47 mm. antitank gun in Aachen, Pvt. Wm Zukerbrow draws a bead on a Nazi sniper, 10/19/44.
- A-466 German observation posts in Aachen are targets for these MIO's and their three- inch guns of Co. "A" 634th T D Bn, Oct 14, 1944.
- A-467 Aided by an armored force infantry men move forward to engage the enemy in Aachen, 10/25/44.
- A-468 A U.S. tank fires point blank at a target, as wary American infantrymen peer from cover in the doorways on either side of a battle scared street in Aachen, 10/15/44.
- A-469 A tank fires on a Nazi strong point in Aachen. It is a tower in the background where the Germans fired from the windows, 10/15/44.
- A-470 American tanks move up to engage the enemy in Aachen, Oct 15, 1944.
- A-471 German collaborators work with Americans to unload shells from a truck near Aachen, 12/8/44.
- A-472 A US Chaplain talks with a Nazi Maj. who was taken prisoner with others during the siege of Aachen. The vehicle carries SS troops and wounded German soldiers, 10/24/44.
- A-473 Nazi prisoners are marched through the streets of Aachen under the gaze of German civilians, 10/15/44.
- A-474 Same caption as photo A-473 different view.
- A-475 Surrender of Germans at Aachen, Nazi half-track armored vehicles, filled with Germans bearing white surrender flags, Oct. 24, 1944.
- A-476 Two American MP's patrol along the Einbahnstrabe in Aachen, 10/24/44.
- A-477 A American machine gun crew in action against the Germans in the streets of Aachen, Oct 15, 1944.
- A-478 An American infantryman of the 1st Div. crouches behind a building and returns the fire of a German sniper in Aachen, 10/19/44.
- A-479 American infantrymen advance cautiously down the streets of Aachen, 10/15/44.
- A-480 Army engineers began to clear debris from the streets of Aachen as soon as possible after the fighting in Aachen, 10/13/44.
- A-481 An American motor squad fires its 81mm mortar in the back yard of a house in Aachen as American forces fight their way into the city, 10/13/44.
- A-482 American infantrymen rest and in a pill box of the Siegfried line, 10/4/44.
- A-483 Damage caused to the railroad station at Aachen, 10/24/44.
- A-484 The terrible damage caused by Yank Artillery in an attack on Aachen, 10/24/44.
- A-485 Aerial ruins of the city of Aachen caused by American dive bombers and artillery, Oct 24, 1944.
- A-486 An American anti-tank gun sets up in the streets of Aachen, Oct 1944.
- A-487 Aachen is given the once over by American P-38's 47's after it's refusal of the allied surrender terms, 10/12/44.
- A-488 American soldiers inspect German prisoners of war in the streets of Aachen, Nov. 24, 1944.
- A-489 An American Army office of the 9th US Army tour the Belgian side of the frontier in a jeep, Jan 8, 1945.
- A-490 American partake in house to house fighting in Aachen, Oct. 1944.

REMAGEN GERMANY

- A-270 The Ludendorff railroad bridge as seen from the east bank of the Rhine river along with 400 U S First Army troops who were on it at the time, the bridge collapsed four hours after this picture was taken. Remagen and Unkel Germany, 3/17/45.- 276th Combat Eng. Bn.
- A-271 Troops of an Inf. Div. US First Army march along a street in Remagen, Germany, close to buildings which afford some protection from the German artillery coming from across the Rhine River, 3/9/45.
- A-272 After crossing the Remagen railroad bridge over the Rhine River First Army Infantrymen proceed to move inland towards the city which is still under heavy German shellfire, 3/11/45.
- A-273 Lt. Thomas J Foley finds his brothers name, Maj. James E Foley, first on the list of men of 276th Eng. Battalion who died when the Remagen bridge collapsed. 506th MP Bn. Remagen, Germany, 4/25/45.
- A-274 A tank rolls off the east end of Remagen bridge, under constant German fire, as First Army Infantrymen move in to consolidate and expand bridgehead, 3/11/45.
- A-275 Army medics and Engineers dig for possible survivors amid debris of western span of the Ludendorf bridge at Remagen, Germany. The bridge weakened by constant shelling and heavy traffic collapsed on March 17, 1945.
- A-276 U S Army Engineers of the 341st Eng. General Service Regt. stop repair work on the Remagen bridge to have lunch. March 1945.
- A-277 First Army vehicles were caught by a German artillery barrage on the road leading to the Remagen bridge. Soldiers walk through the smoke of the burning trucks, 3/11/45.
- A-278 Gun crew and their 40mm AA gun of the 376th AA Battalion, 9th Inf. Div., First US Army, 3/16/45.
- A-279 First Army's Eng. heavy pontoon Bn., to reach the Rhine River, the 86th, loads the first heavy tank on a ferry to cross over to the enemy shore, Remagen, Germany, 3/12/45.
- A-280 M-8 reconaissance vehicles of the U S First Army halt near a Nazi propaganda sign in Remagen. Translated, the sign reads: "Persons who listen to the enemy and rumor mongers are traitors to the nation and are as good as dead", 3/10/45.
- A-281 A gunner on a half-track is on the alert for German aircraft trying to bomb the bridge across the Rhine at Remagen, 3/9/45.
- A-282 Sgt. Edward Schwanke of Michigan City, Ind., machine gunner, guards pontoon bridges over the Rhine River at Remagen. He is with the 32nd Cavalry, Troop E, First Army, 3/2/45.
- A-283 Pfc. Richard Schramer of West Chicago, Ill., stands by his multiple mount 50 cal. machine guns watching for enemy planes near the Remagen Railway bridge. Photo is made on the east side of the river in Erpel. 639th A.A.A. Bn. First Army, 3/17/45.
- A-284 Infantrymen of the 78th "Lighting Division" US First Army, clean rifles when they get their first breathing spell after fighting for 24 consecutive days. Fighting took them across the Roer River, over the Rhine River, and deep into the Remagen bridgehead. L to R Pvt. Charles R Edgar, Newark, N.J.; Pfc. George Kirczek NYC.; Pfc. Vincent Scopel-lite, Brooklyn, NY.; and Pvt. Harry Shaprio Brooklyn, NY., 309th Regt., 3/28/45.
- A-285 "The Watch on the Rhine" is maintained by a US soldier, T/5 Wm. Goodwin from Mayflower, Ark. who guards one of the entrances to the Remagen bridge from atop an armored recon. car., March 1945.
- A-286 Men of the 1st US Army, and equipt. pour across the Remagen Bridge, 3/13/45.
- A-287 Looking down the Ludendorff Bridge at Remagen. This photo was taken at 11 AM and at 3:15 PM the bridge collapsed with 400 1st US Army troops who were on it at the time, 3/17/43.
- A-288 1st Lt. E.M. Borsuk from Milwaukee, Wis and Sgt Gary Cronan from New Haven, Ct. describe flak cover and German planes diving on the Remagen Bridge on a recording designed for broadcast purposes, 3/45.
- A-289 Entrance of the Remagen Bridge, 3/45.
- A-290 Infantrymen of the 309th Regt. 78th "Lighting" Division 1st US Army, enjoy soft drinks during their first rest period after 24 consecutive days of fighting which took them deep in the Remagen Bridgehead, 3/28/45.

REMAGEN - GERMANY (cont)

- A-291 Member of the Eng. 164th mans an 8 million candle power searchlight to spot targets at night. Remagen, 69th Div. US First Army, 3/21/45.
- A-292 AA unit protects the Remagen Bridge, 3/45.
- A-293 Men of the 741st Tank Battalion, 78th Inf. Div. ride Medium tanks on their way to the Rhine River, 3/9/45.
- A-294 Pfc. Vernon H Bradbury, Abbeville, S.C. left and Robert L Nims, Laurens, S.C. Members of the 821st M.P. Co. standing in front of the heavy pontoon bridge Linking Remagen and lines across the river, 3/19/45.

FRANKFORT - GERMANY

- A-250 Infantrymen of the 5th Div advance cautiously in street fighting in Frankfort, 3/27/45.
- A-251 The Cathedral of Frankfort, the buildings surrounding it, and the wrecked bridges across the Main River were demolished in the fierce battle for the city, 3/31/45.
- A-252 View of shell torn Frankfort smoldering in ruins, 5th Div. Third US Army, 3/27/45.
- A-253 A monument stands intact amid the ruins of Frankfort, 3/31/45.
- A-254 Nazi graves of soldiers buried where they fell in futile defense of Frankfort, Germany, April 22, 1945.
- A-255 Field Marshal Bernard L Montgomery, Gen. Dwight D Eisenhower and Marshal of the Soviet Army, Gregory Zhukov, offer a toast to the Victory of the United States at Frankfort, Germany, 6/10/45.
- A-256 A German ME-262, the first German Jet propelled plane to be captured intact, was surrendered by its pilot during a test flight over American lines in Frankfort, Rheinmain Airport, 4/2/45.
- A-257 View of the F.W. Woolworth store in Frankfort showing damage caused by allied bombing, 3/31/45.
- A-258 Fires still smolder in the train station at Frankfort, 3/30/45.
- A-259 A US Army tank destroyer passes two dead Nazis of a bazooka team on the outskirts of Frankfort, 3/27/45.
- A-260 US Third Army Infantrymen keep a sharp watch for enemy snipers along the Main River, Frankfort, 5th Inf. Div., 3/27/45.

- A-261 U S Third Army Infantrymen advance along the Reichsautobhan Highway in their drive on Frankfort, 3/27/45.
- A-262 An AA unit in front of the Opera House in Frankfort, 3/27/45.
- A-263 Infantrymen of the 5th Div. , Third Army, advance cautiously over rubble as they hunt snipers in newly taken Frankfort, 3/27/45.
- A-264 Infantrymen of the 5th Div. advance in early street fighting in Frankfort, 3/27/45.

IX CORP

- A-775 Artillerymen of the IX Corp near Metz board up their dugout for protection against the cold winter, 10/7/44.
- A-776 Coffee is loaded for shipment to troops of the IX Corp a few miles behind the front at Briay, France, 1/3/45.
- A-777 Soldiers of the IX Corp carry pierce planks on a advanced fighter base south of Metz, France, 12/15/44.
- A-778 Maj Gen. Walton H. Walker , Commanding Officer of the IX Corp , and French officials after ceremony of the presentation of Metz, France to the French, Nov. 22, 1944.
- A-780 Yank soldiers salvage a German 88mm and than used it against the Nazis, Sept. 29, 1944.

MONTE CASSINO (ITALY)

- A-814 View of Mt Cassino in front of Mt Cairo and hills 593, 569, 5/30/44.
- A-815 Cassino Rapids river area. Litter bearers bring back a man who was wounded trying to cross the river, 1/22/44.
- A-816 An American tank, M-4 is bogged down in a marshland near Cassino, 2/8/44.
- A-817 Sign set up at the entrance to Cassino, Italy, 1945.
- A-818 A train enters the cassino Sions RR yard, 1945.
- A-819 Ruins of the Continental Hotel in Cassino Sions, Italy, 1945.
- A-820 Co. B 2nd Chem. Bn firing mortars, 3/6/44.
- A-821 Co B 2nd Chem Bn moves up mountain side at Cassino. 3/6/44.
- A-822 A group of Infantry soldiers from 2nd New Zealand E.F. 28th Maori Bn watch for the enemy as the abby came under bombing attack, 2/15/44.
- A-823 Famous American tank "Dead Eye Dick" moves forward toward the abby, 5/30/44.
- A-824 An M-10 tank destroyer with a 3" gun speeds to front to engage Nazi enemy, 11/6/43.
- A-825 Cassino under bombardment from American artillery, 2/6/44.
- A-826 W P shells burst in German held area near Cassino.
- A-827 An Italian gun crew swabs out its 194mm railroad gun near Cassino, 3/8/44.
- A-828 Aerial bombardment of Monte Cassino, 3/15/44.
- A-829 A British gun crew fires 4.5 inch gun at Mt Cassino, 3/8/44.
- A-830 An American cemetary near Cassino, April 16, 1945.
- A-831 Soldiers inspect tanks knocked out in Cassino area, 9/20/45.
- A-832 American soldiers of mortar Sq Co N 133rd Inf 34th Div fire into Cassino, 2/24/44.
- A-833 Interior of a German bunker on the Gustav line north of Cassino, 2/10/44.
- A-834 Artillery bombardment of the Cassino Castle, 2/6/44.
- A-835 Soldiers of the 132nd F A stacking 105mm shells near Cassino, 2/17/44.
- A-836 90mm guns of Bty C 68th C.A.A.A, BM firing near Nignano, Italy area, 12/25/43.
- A-837 Members of Co B 2nd Chem. Bn assembles tail section of 4.2 mortar shells near Cassino, 3/6/44.
- A-838 A member of 132nd FA Bn Bty A 105mm howitzer dropping projectile from its container, 2/17/44. Near Cassino.
- A-839 Men of Co D 30th Inf Regt 3rd Inf Div pass near a bridge which was blown up by reating Germans, 11/6/43.
- A-840 3 members of the 715th operating Bn live in an old italian boxcar near Cassino 1945.
- A-841 Co B 2nd Chem Bn move up mountain at Cassino, 3/6/44.
- A-842 Photo of Cassino area. On left is left forward slope of Mt Trocchio below on bank of the Rapido River in the Liri Valley. In forground is Rapido River, 3/6/44.

PHOTOS AVAILABLE OF THE INVASION OF SICILY

- B-25019 LST-348 unloading on the beachhead at Licata, Sicily 10/14/43.
- B-25020 LST-310 entering Pielerte Harbor 8/4/43.
- B-25021 LSTs landing at Licata, Sicily 7/29/43, St Angelo castle in background, LST -393 on left.
- B-25022 Unloading supplies for the American 7th Army into "ducks" on the dock at Licata, Sicily 8/31/43.
- B-25025 Same as above B-25022 , different view.
- B-25024 Landing operations at Licata Harbor 11/11/43.
- B-25025 Loading LST bound for Sicily, at Bizerte, Tunisia 7/26/43.
- B-25-26 LSTs entering harbor at Bizerte. In foreground are six sunken hulks 8/1/43.
- B-25027 Line of LSTs receiving troops and cargo at Bizerte 7/26/43.
- B-25028 Landing operations at Salerno, Italy. American fighting men pour out of their landing ships. The MP in the foreground was in the act of ducking from the blast of a shell from a German 88mm gun Aug 43.
- B-25029 Landing operations at Salerno Sept 9, 1943. Landing craft pile mountains of equipment on the shore . A line of LST's nose the beach.
- B-25030 LST entering Pielerte Harbor..
- B-25031 The USS Buck DD-420 in harbor at Licata, Sicily.
- B-25032 The crew of an Italian submarine on the USS Buck DD0420 at Licata the day after their ship was sunk by the Buck.
- B-25033 Shore line of Licata, Sicily during the morning battle, taken from the USS Brooklyn CL-40 June 21 - July 15, 1943.
- B-25034 A relief map of Sicily is studied by personnel of the USS Brooklyn CL-40 June 21 - July 15, 1943.
- B-25035 The USS Brooklyn CL-40 convoys ships through the Mediterranean Sea en-route to Sicily June - July 1943.
- B-25036 The Brooklyn CL-40 refueling The USS Bristol DD-453 in the harbor at Licata June 21 - July 15, 1943.
- B-25037 The main battery of the USS Brooklyn CL-40 hurling shells at Licata.
- B-25038 Landing operations at Scoglitti, Sicily. Troops landing in shallow water, time; 0800. July 10, 1943.
- B-25039 Landing craft on the beach at Scoglitti, Sicily July 10, 1943.
- B-25040 U.S. troops on the beach at Scoglitti July 13, 1943.
- B-25041 Landing operations at Scoglitti. LCT unloading supplies on to dukws 7/10/43.
- B-25043 Landing operations at Scoglitti July 10, 1943 Time; 0800.
- B-25044 LCT 5s and LST unloading supplies onto beach. Time 1000 July 13, 1943.
- B-25047 Beach at Scoglitti viewed from an LST July 13, 1943.
- B-25048 Unloading of men, equipment and supplies on beach Scoglitti 7/13/43.
- B-25056 The USS Commodore YP-518 passing word from convoy to SC boat, en-route to Sicily.

SOUTHERN FRANCE LANDING

- B-23963 With hands aloft, Nazi prisoners are passed to the rear under heavy guard on beach of Southern France. Landing craft in background, 8/15/44.
- B-23964 Allied invasion troops coming ashore in Southern France. Large fires and thick smoke on shore, 8/15/44.
- B-23968-A Allied task force approaching invasion coast of Southern France, 8/44.
- B-23968-B LST-914 unloading on beach of Southern France.
- B-23969 Landing barges from the USS Samuel Chase APA-26 and the USS Andromeda AKA-15 on the beach of Southern France, Aug. 23, 1944.
- B-23969 A LSM-222 and LST-914 unload troops and armored vehicles on the beach of Southern France, 8/23/44.
- B-23969-B LST-286 loads for invasion of Southern France in Italy, 8/10/44.
- B-23970 LST-173 unloads on D-day on the beach of Southern France, 8/44.
- B-23970A LST-286 and LST-174 loading somewhere in Italy for the invasion of Southern France, 8/16/44.
- N-24064 Allied Task Force approaching invasion coast of Southern France. Taken from the USS Frederick C. Davis DE-136.
- N-24063 Same caption as photo N-24064, different view.

RENDOVA ISLAND

- B-24646 Landing operations on Rendova Is. Solomon Is., beginning June 30, 1943. Attacking at the break of day in a heavy rain storm, the first Americans ashore huddle behind tree trunks and any other cover they can find.
- B-24647 Man wounded in the face by a Jap missile, is given first aid treatment.
- B-24648 Catching 40 winks in between his duties of supplying a 155mm gun with shells, this soldier finds a bed atop his shells.
- B-24649 Gunnery during invasion of Rendova Island beginning June 30, 1943.
- B-24650 Another view of landing operations. troops leaving transports.
- B-24651 Troops hitting the beach.
- B-24652 Unloading supplies from LSTs.
- B-24653 118th engineers in a field kitchen on Rendova during invasion.
- B-24654 Soldier firing at Japs.
- B-24655 Road through jungle on Rendova Is. during invasion.
- B-24656 Troops pushing thru the jungle in search of Japanese troops.
- B-24657 Unloading supplies on beach on the island from LST-353.
- B-24658 Lines of men unloading ammunition from LCIs no. 328,330 and 335.
- B-24659 Flying at tree top height a US Army P-40 roars over a group of American troops charging across the beach.
- B-24660 Smoke from a Japanese bomb which landed near by drifts over a US Long Tom 155mm field piece on Rendova.
- B-24661 Two LSTs packed with supplies approach Rendova Is. after its capture from the Japanese and before the attack on Munda 8/11/43.
- B-24662 Over wire landing mats, rolls one of the big guns set up on Rendova to lob shells at Munda Point, New Georgia Island.
- B-24663 Wounded marine being given first aid at a front line dressing station on Rendova.