Dear Gary:

Thanks for your letter of 11-24-96 with its notations on the Nomination Slate. Yes, you're correct on my omission of Les Hines' name and on the mis-spelling of Heroux's name. So far, Dutch DeGroot and Lloyd Morrell, besides you, have caught my oversights. I really miss not having Barbara around all the time to do my proof-reading and editing of my typographical work. I'll correct the master copy of nominee names before sending it in to Bernie Chase.

Attached is a copy of my letter to Rick Olsen - FYI.

Touch.

Dear Rick:

Your Financial Statements for October 1996 contain all the information necessary to have an overview of the ADVA assets. You're doing a much better job using a computer that I ever did with my handwritten data. Keep up the excellent work! On your ADVA Account Balance Report, I think there's a typo on the third asset - Books - $3,188.50. The maturity date should be 97 Oct 11, not 97 Apr 1.

If you can do better investing in another type of interest-bearing account, you should do so. The First Quarter of 1997 would be the ideal time to cash in the C.D.'s maturing then, and there will be six (6) of them.

Happy Holidays to you and your family.

Joe C.
