Dear Dave,

"HI MONEY": Here's that for a starter. I received your letter today as you can tell. I sure wouldn't want you to have a lot of complaints about me. You might get together with my brother & he might start telling you about his complaint about me. Then I would really be in trouble. I am only kidding you.

Heck Again, last night when I was writing this letter & fell asleep. I couldn't find my pen, so I had to use a different color.

I went out last night with Lenny, a girl in Toms River. We went to Buckwalds for a drink. We got home pretty late & I was so tired I just ~~dropped off~~ ^{fell off}. Can't take that ^{high life} ~~that~~ ^{the whole}. In your letter you said you couldn't find the picture. Do you know why, because I forgot to send it, that's me. I am sure you have it now. I hope so anyway.

I appreciate your letters also and really, I enjoy sitting and writing to you.

I am off from work today. I have a day of relaxation. H.P.

My sister-in-law called & we are going to go shopping. So I will have to cut this letter short.

Now write again soon.

I like to slow dance also.
I like it alot, but I like fast dances also.

I don't mind your writing, really. I enjoy your letters very much. I hope my letters interest you also.

Make sure - keep an eye on Art for me. Tell him I said hello.

P.S. write again (3)

Always
Love,

Always
 Love
