I am very proud and emotional when I spoke with you in telephone. The first time and the first advice, did this with a Vietnamese officer. I am very proud to have a brother as you. I never forget brother! In writing this letter, I cannot help crying, because I miss you very much. I hope, one fine day, I meet you soon either at the U.S or V.N. Brother! After some years with your family, I hope you come back to share with us the sadness and joy. I dream the day, we meet together, I am sure that I must cry in joy. I have emotion so that I forgot to say hello to my Sister in law and my dear nephews at the beginning of this letter. I ^{wish} ~~hope~~ all a good health and good luck and for ever. Your Sister in law and nephews are very fine now and she said that next time, she will try to write to you and my Sister too. So, right now, I must teach her in English.
