Dear Col. Metzner,

I want to thank you for coming to our class and talking to us about the Vietnam War.

It makes the war seem so much more personal. When we learn about wars in class, it seems so long ago that it happened, or it seems like it ~~was~~ didn't have that big of an impact on me personally. After hearing you tell us about the war, it seemed so much more real. Hearing an actual person tell war stories, rather than read about it in an article.

I also want to thank you for fighting for our country. It must have been very tough fighting in the Vietnam War and I know I'll never realize everything soldiers went through so I'd just like to thank you for fighting for our country. Thanks again for coming to our class and talk to us.

Sincerely,

Marian Monckton
