Ed-

Thanks again for coming in to talk to my class. You have such a rich background, we all benefit from your experience. In addition to the benefit of having the kids hear about the war firsthand, I always enjoy catching up with you and hearing how your family is. I also enjoyed reading your article in Vietnam magazine. Thank you so much for taking time to come by.

P.S. I ended up giving the book to Vee (the young lady who asked you a few questions). She was very excited and looking forward to reading your book.
