OBJECTIVES: The Committee, composed of academics, physicians, and scholars from universities, has been one of the principal conduits for contact between American scientific and academic communities and the people of Viet Nam. One of the Committee's priorities has been to support projects and programs that empower people to pursue their own development rather than becoming passively dependent on infusions of financial and material aid from external sources.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: Founded in 1978, the Committee was originally aimed at facilitating exchanges and joint research between U.S. scientists and physicians and their Vietnamese counterparts. Later it expanded its area of focus to include assisting gifted Vietnamese graduate students to obtain additional academic training in the U.S., providing material assistance to scientific laboratories and hospitals, and support for cultural and social programs.

FUNDING SOURCES: Foundations, World Health Organization, ICCO (Holland), UICC, U.N. Organizations, and individual donors.

COLLABORATING AGENCIES: Centers for Disease Control, University of Wisconsin, U.S.-Viet Nam Friendship and Aid Association, Americans for International Aid, International Crane Foundation, Helen Keller Internatioanl, Massachussetts General Hospital, Task Force "Sight and Life" (Switzerland), Asian Art Museum (San Francisco), Universities throughout the U.S., and the Asia Society.

OBJECTIVES: To improve understanding between the people of the U.S. and those of Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia through academic, cultural and other exchanges. To bring the perspective of non-governmental advocacy into private and public policy discussions. To foster communication and cooperation among American NGOs active in Indochina. To provide a channel for small scale humanitarian assistance.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: USIRP, organized in 1985, is devolved from peace education work of the American Friends Service Committee (1972-1982). It has sent twelve academic, professional and foundation delegations to Indochina, hosted the visit of economist Nguyen Xuan Oanh, organized a summer program to study Vietnamese language in Ha Noi and assisted Vietnamese undertaking advanced English and Ph.D. study in the U.S. USIRP is also responsible for administrative work of the U.S. NGO Forum on Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos and its annual national conference.

A primary purpose of USIRP delegations is to introduce new agencies to Viet Nam and assist them in establishing their own programs of cooperation. Trip participants from the following institutions have undertaken follow-up activities: Social Science Research Council, William Joiner Center, Indochina Arts Project, Volunteers in Asia, Smithsonian Institution, Georgetown University, University of Puget Sound, State University of New York at Buffalo, University of Pittsburgh, Southwest Missouri State University, the United Board for Higher Education in Asia, and the Albert Kunstadter Family Foundation. USIRP also assisted Colby and Calvin Colleges, and the Universities of Utah and Miami to organize student-faculty study tours.

Humanitarian assistance has been provided in Ha Noi to Bach Mai Hospital and in Ho Chi Minh City to the Rehabilitation Center for Undernourished Orphans and the May 15th Education and Vocational School. USIRP publishes Indochina Interchange, a quarterly newsletter covering programs of aid to and exchange with Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos.

BUDGET: FY 1990: US$ 250-300,000 (includes Cambodia program)
1991: 350,000 "

OBJECTIVES: To promote aid, trade, travel, and cultural exchange; and to carry on education about Viet Nam in North America, ultimately leading to normalization of relations and reconciliation between Viet Nam and the United States.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: The Association was established in 1978 by U.S. people wishing to end all wars in Indochina. Since 1983, the Association has been seeking support for humanitarian (education and medical) aid to help Viet Nam recover from decades of military and now economic warfare waged against it. In 1984 the Viet Nam-U.S. Association in Ha Noi formally recognized the Association as an active solidarity group and friend of the Vietnamese people.

BUDGET: Yearly estimate US$ 14,000

FUNDING SOURCES: Individual contributions; sales of educational materials.

OBJECTIVES: To provide assistance in special projects to universities in Viet Nam, through material assistance, setting up demonstrations and research guidance in specific problem areas; to serve as a conduit for information and materials helpful to Vietnamese and third world countries as appropriate. Emphasis is on small-plot, sustainable agriculture, family preparedness and family health.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: From 1985 to 1988, VASAA contributed to projects sponsored by Protection (Needs) International and the US Committee for Scientific Cooperation with Viet Nam. VASAA sponsored the visit of two officials from the University of Can Tho to the U.S. in 1988. In May and November of 1989, two VASAA teams went to Viet Nam bringing medical, surgical and agricultural supplies. These teams also visited agricultural projects and discussed with Vietnamese farmers crop damage problems, herd disease control and clean water supply. In 1990, VASAA donated a gamma camera to the hospital in Can Tho and sent a technician there in 1991 to set it up and train local technicians in its use.

OBJECTIVES: To send teams of veterans back to Viet Nam to build medical clinics and to see that these facilities are equipped and stocked. We are helping veterans and all Americans to heal from the war through the process of reconciliation and we are making a unique contribution to the process of normalization of relations between the U.S. and Viet Nam.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: In April, 1989 our first team of veterans opened the Friendship Clinic in Vung Tau. In September, 1989 our second team completed work on the Vinh Children's Hospital. In 1990 a team of 15 veterans built a 2,500 square foot primary health care facility in Yen Vien (Ha Noi).

OBJECTIVES: Viet Nam Assistance for the Handicapped (VNAH) is a non-profit, charitable organization of Vietnamese-Americans and others. It is dedicated to providing artificial legs to amputees in Viet Nam. Recipients of the prosthetic devices are war victims and other amputee victims of accidents and disease.

VNAH is building U.S. popular support for expanded assistance for prosthetics clinics and rehabilitation programs in Viet Nam.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: When Ca Van Tran returned to Viet Nam in 1990 to visit his ailing father, he was saddened to see the desperate need of the amputees there. VNAH was formed to help get the amputees back on their feet. A second trip in August, 1991, resulted in the Vietnamese government welcoming the VNAH program. In January, 1992, eighteen amputees were given new legs and another fifty legs were ordered for local production. In 1992, Disabled American Veterans made a grant to VNAH to help launch expanded assistance to Vietnamese veterans in the south. Many other groups are now contributing legs, doctors' services and financing.

BUDGET: FY 1991: US$ 29,000

FUNDING SOURCES: Private organizations and individuals.

COLLABORATING AGENCIES: Disabled American Veterans, Hanger Orthopedic Group, Phoenix International Medical Ministries, World Rehabilitation Fund, Southeast Asia Relief Foundation and others.

HEALTH Supply of artificial limbs for amutees and support for prosthetics clinic	Can Tho,	Can Tho Prosth. and Rehab. Center

FUTURE PLANS:

1. Provision of Can Tho Clinic with potable water, equipment for fitting limbs, equipped facilities for overnight accomodations, materials, training, and supplies for a much larger program of artificial legs for amputees and a rehabilitation program.
2. Development of a national network across the United States to support the VNAH program in southern Viet Nam.
3. Expansion of support to other prosthetics clinics in southern Viet Nam.
4. Assistance to amputee victims of war, accident, and disease who have come to the United States from Viet Nam.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: VNAH welcomes requests to borrow its video(s) that show the desperate needs of the amputees in Viet Nam and showing how we can help get them on their feet again. Volunteers are welcome from anywhere in the U.S.

OBJECTIVES: As a project-oriented NGO, VNHELP seeks to provide direct, people-to-people aid through locally managed self-help programs in the fields of health, health education, education and literature.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: In recent years, many Vietnamese-Americans have returned home to visit their families and friends, and witnessed their compatriots facing deep problems of poverty and underdevelopment. This has led to many isolated efforts among individuals and friends pooling their resources to provide humanitarian assistance to people in Viet Nam. In order to coordinate and reinforce these efforts, VNHELP was formed in July 1991 to continue and expand current projects while seeking to initiate additional projects throughout Viet Nam.

OBJECTIVES: VIA has two basic purposes: to provide young Americans with an opportunity to live and work in Asian cultures, and to respond to the needs of Asian institutions for volunteer assistance. In addition to its volunteer program, VIA operates other programs which foster cross-cultural exchange and understanding.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: VIA briefly operated a summer English teaching program in Viet Nam from 1966-68, withdrawing when the war prevented opportunities for meaningful cross-cultural exchange on the level VIA sought. More recently we began a new English teaching program at the university level with three volunteers in Ha Noi beginning in September 1990, and a fourth volunteer starting in Ha Noi in January 1991.

BUDGET: Approximately US$ 42,000 per year

OBJECTIVES: The mission of Winrock International is to reduce poverty and hunger through sustainable agricultural and rural development. Winrock helps peoples of developing areas to strengthen their agricultural institutions, develop their human resources, design sustainable agricultural systems and strategies, and improve policies for agricultural and rural development.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: In 1989 Winrock began selecting and managing fellows in graduate programs in agricultural economics at Asian and Australian universities. The program expanded the number of fellows in 1990 and 1991, and broadened the focus of subjects related to the environment. Winrock will soon have 25 fellows studying at Asian universities.

BUDGET: FY 1989: US$ 15,000
1990: 60,000
1991: 150,000

FUNDING SOURCES: AIDAB (Australian International Development Assistance Bureau), Ford Foundation.

OBJECTIVES: To help improve the quality of medical care in Viet Nam through education, and to establish medical exchanges.

HISTORY OF INVOLVEMENT IN VIET NAM: This program was created by Dr. Vecchi after spending two months working in Viet Nam, with the support of Dr. Edwin Cadman (Chairman of the Department of Internal Medicine at Yale), and after numerous discussions with different departments at Yale who agreed to help provide training for Vietnamese physicians. The two health care professionals who had gone to Viet Nam subsequently are from Yale University.

BUDGET: Participants have paid all their expenses partly with grants from the university (for which they had applied on their own) and partly with private fundings.

FUNDING SOURCES: Assistance is being sought from foundations and private individuals.
