

WHY IN THE !@ WOULD ANYONE
WANT TO GO BACK TO VIET NAM?

A collage of black and white photographs from a travel agency's website, featuring various travel destinations and activities. The images include: a group of men in t-shirts standing outdoors; a display of Coca-Cola products with a sign that says 'SNAKE WINE'; a river scene with a boat; a group of people on a boat; a man in a cowboy hat and a man in a tie standing together; a group of people standing in a field; two men sitting on a beach; a man standing in a field; a group of people standing in front of a building; a display of various carved wooden faces; and a view of a temple complex.

What they had to say...

The places I had been stationed out of 1966-1969 brought back many fond memories. Tom Fungerson

It fulfilled more than my expectations...I'd like to return and explore more of the country. John Vickery

We're bushed, but it was a stupendous trip. Jim Adams

I hope to do a trip with you again, keep me on your mailing list. Jeff Wacker

Thank you for a wonderful experience! Carmen Steigman

It was perfect. Keep up the good work. Susan McLean

Not a day goes by that I don't think about how great a time I had. Jay Sheets

Wonderful trip. It was a trip of a lifetime. Tom Butler

I had some reservations, but everything was run so effectively, that it turned out to be a fabulous adventure. Scott Anderson

Better than expected. Beautiful country, wonderful people. Jean Galloway

A truly marvelous itinerary...exceptionally well planned. Robert Clewell

My hat is off to you guys. Everything went smoothly. Mark Doyle

It was truly a grand adventure...I shall never forget the experience. John Johnson

The itinerary and arrangements were superb. Everything lived up to our expectations and more. Tom Morgan
