Sir:

I had the rare privilege of hearing your discussion on "Some Perspectives on the Vietnam Problem and its Solution", at the New York Avenue Church today.

As a frequent visitor to Vietnam, I was particularly pleased to hear it told "like it is".

May I also say, sir, I thought the discussion was handled with outstanding adroitness.

I was disappointed, though, in hearing Vietna-am instead of Vietnahm, from a long time resident.

Respectfully,
Bierschenk
