Dear Sirs:

I have your envoice dated December 1, 1970, in the amount of $42.22. Before paying same, I would request you inform me whether Mr. Lester Redman has returned to you some four or five large flue liners which we did not use and which he said he could return to you. If he has not returned them, I will pay your bill in full and try to collect from him.

Yours sincerely,

Ogden Williams
