Dear Susan:

I hope this letter reaches you before you take off for Viet-Nam. I returned from Thailand on Saturday after your graduation and thus was too late to say goodby to CORDS 19. The principle purpose of this letter is to urge you to get in touch with Leonard Maynard at USAID II on Ngo Thoi Nghiem Street as soon as you reach Saigon. I have written him to expect you and asked him to take a personal interest in seeing to it that you get an assignment which will be interesting and meaningful.

In order to get your home address for this letter, I had to get out your file and thus had a chance to read your final Evaluation Report which shows what a splendid job you did at VTC. I certainly wish you all the best in Viet-Nam. If you can avoid to an adequate degree the frustrations of CORDS' bureaucracy, I think you will enjoy the rest of it. I will be interested in hearing where the CORDS 19 crowd ends up if you ever get a chance to drop a line.

All the best,

Sincerely,

Ogden Williams
