

4621 Q Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20007

December 29, 1970

Mr. John G. Williams
831 Black Rock Road
Gladwyne, Pennsylvania

Dear John:

Enclosed herewith is a Will which would be useful if my airplane dropped in the Pacific Ocean. For your information, many of my important papers such as property deeds, securities, etc., are located in a safe-deposit box at The National Bank of Washington, Liberty Branch, 15th and I Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. According to the key in my possession, the safe-deposit box is No. 292.

During my absence, January 5 to February 3, a young Foreign Service Officer named Allen Keiswetter will be staying at my house in Washington to fend off burglars, hopefully. I will be in Viet-Nam from January 10-20 and could be reached at the following address:

CORDS/Chieu Hoi
APO San Francisco 96243

I will return via Europe.

All the best,

Ogden Williams

Enclosure