TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Mr. Gus Constantine is a reporter for the Washington Evening Star who will be visiting the Far East within the next few months. While in Viet-Nam, he will request accreditation and courtesies from the U.S. and Vietnamese authorities.

Mr. Constantine has had occasion to do one story on the Viet-Nam Training Center over a period of several weeks. We found him to be a responsible and conscientious professional newsman and hope that he will be extended all appropriate courtesies during his visit to Viet-Nam.
