Mr. Alexander Shatton
American Embassy
Saigon, Viet-Nam

Dear Alex:

Many thanks for your hospitality in Saigon. It was a very great pleasure to see you again, and in such good form. I confess I do not much enjoy living out of a suitcase and traipsing around the periphery of other people's activities and concerns. Nevertheless, the personal reunions with you, Mimi and others were very rewarding. My airplane did not return from Nha Trang until very late and I left the next morning.

Please stay in touch and accept again my great thanks for your hospitality and good fellowship in Saigon.

All the best.

Sincerely,

Ogden Williams
