Dear Mr. Williams:

Please accept my apologies for not having gotten back to you sooner in response to your inquiry about the possibility of a position in the General Counsel's Office of this new agency. As you can imagine, we have been extremely busy.

It now appears that our employment of attorneys will be extremely limited, probably resulting in adding only one or two lawyers to our present complement in the next few months.

I would like to keep your application in my files for future review at such time as opportunities may develop here. I do thank you for displaying interest and wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely yours,
