

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Saigon, February 18, 1975

Dear Mr. Williams:

Mr. Jacobson has shown me a copy of your letter of January 27, 1975 to Senator McGovern.

I think yours is a marvellous statement which says the things that need to be said so urgently on the subject of Vietnam. Perhaps you will find a way of making your letter public. The device of an "open letter" has, after all, been used on many issues and has certainly been used by the opponents of our Vietnam policy.

In any event, it is good to know of such support as that expressed by yourself and I wish you the best of luck in any future efforts you may undertake.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "W. J. Lehmann", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
