WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

On 24 Dec 69, Mr Do THIET was interviewed by ~~me~~ in the presence of SP4 Arthur D. HARRIS, SSAN, 25th Inf. Div, APO SF 96222, acting as an interpreter. The interview was started at 0930 hours and was completed at 1200 hours. THIET had no conception of numbers, distances and/or directions. This investigator's statement reflects the end result of the interview after THIET had been repeatedly questioned on some of the aspects of the incident under investigation. Personal data of THIET is as follows:

NAME: DO THIET
 ADDRESS: Tu Cung hamlet, Xom Lang Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Providence, RVN.
 DOB: 1955
 POB: Tu Cung hamlet, Xom Lang Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Providence RVN.

Sometime in March 1968, he could not state the exact date, he heard the Artillery shells hit on the outside perimeter of the village. He became afraid and sought shelter in the family's tunnel complex located underneath their house. Later after the American's had left he came back into the house and discovered that his mother Pham Thi TUU had been shot in the right side and in the left wrist. He also learned that his sister-in-law TRAN Thi DO and her four children, Do Thi HUU (daughter, age 13), Do Thi THUAN (daughter, age 12), Do THAN, (son, age 9) and Do Thi TANG (daughter, age 6) were marched to the dirt road leading from the main road to the village along with other members of the village by the Americans. There DO, HUU, THUAN, THAN and TANG were able to slip away and hide in the rice fields nearby. From there they watched the Americans shoot the rest of the villagers on the road. THIET stated that TUU, DO, HUU, THUAN, THAN and THANG presently reside in Sam Hoa village with his other sister Do Thi MAU. THIET stated he has one brother Do GIEN, who is living in Xom Lang as a fugitive from the Government of Vietnam. His brother in law Nguyen THO is in a jail but he does not know where. THIET further stated that the Americans also shot his uncle Do NGUYEN and his cousin Do Thi BAY in their house then set fire to the house and their bodies were cremated in the fire. His paternal uncle Phan XE, age 50, had been one of those shot on the dirt road and the uncle's survivors HUONG, age 49, (wife), Pham Thi SON (daughter, age 25), Pham Thi NGO (daughter, age 13), and Pham CO, (son, age 12) are residing some place in Quang Ngai Providence but he does not know the name of the village.

He also heard that a woman named Ba HAI, age 55, had also been shot by the Americans and her two surviving daughters, HOA, age 23 and HAI, age 17 were residing in Xom Mai, Hamlet, Son My Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Providence, RVN. He further heard that Mrs NHO (NFI) had been raped, shot and her body left in her burning house.

THIET stated that he had obtained most of this information from Mrs Ba TUC, who
