SWORN STATEMENT

I, Kenneth Paul McJellen, WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH.
INVESTIGATOR'S STATEMENT

On 13 Jan 70 an interview with Nguyen KHOA, conducted through SA Nicholas A. VONTZLAIDES, Interpreter, began at 1300 hours and terminated at 1345 hours. KHOA's personal data is:

Name: Nguyen KHOA
ID#: None
Address: Son My Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Province, RVN
DOB: 1930
POB: Tu Cung, Son My Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Province, RVN
Occupation: Farmer
Sex: Male
Marital Status: Married

KHOA stated substantially as follows: He formerly resided in Tu Cung and his home was located between the coast road and the village just west of the main trail. Early one morning, date unknown, during the second month of the lunar calendar (Mar), 1968 he left his home to work in the rice fields located about one mile west of Tu Cung. His wife Vo Thi Mai, age 35; and his sons Nguyen KINH, age 6; and Nguyen TRIEU, age 4; left their home at the same time he went to work. They took the two family water buffalo to the fields outside the village. His brother Nguyen TAI, age 48; his wife Do Thi GAI, age 40; and their two daughters Nguyen Thi LANH, age 10; and Nguyen Thi THANH, age 8; who lived with him were in the home when he and his family left. While working in the fields he thought he saw airplanes flying around the vicinity of Tu Cung. Later that day he was told by some people from another village that met him working in the fields that American soldiers had been to Tu Cung and killed many people. He was scared to return to his home and he slept in the fields overnight. The next morning he went to his home in Tu Cung and found his brother and the family of his brother dead in his home from gunshot wounds. The home had been burnt and destroyed. He buried his brother and the family just east of the main trail near his home. He saw some dead bodies that villagers were burying along the main trail, but he did not know any of them by name. He also saw many homes that were destroyed. After burying his brother and family he went to Truong An Village and found his wife their the next day. His wife told him that when she saw the soldiers coming she fled to Truong An with the children and that one of their water buffalo was killed. He could not add anything further concerning the incident. American soldiers had been to the village on two previous occasions and there was no trouble. He had no knowledge of Viet Cong ever being in the village. He indicated the general location of his home, the burial site of his brother and family, and the watchtower at the main entrance to the village on a sketch of Tu Cung. A photograph of KHOA was obtained.
