Between 1000 - 1040 hours, 14 Mar 70, I interviewed Le Thi HIEN, in the presence of STG Raymond O. WALDEN, acting as interpreter. Personal data of HIEN is as follows:

NAME: Le Thi HIEN
 ID#: Unknown
 ADDRESS: Co Pha hamlet, Tu Hien Village, Tu Nghia District, Quang Ngai Province, RVN.
 DOB: 1898
 POB: My Hoi sub-hamlet, Co Luy Hamlet, Son My Village, Son Tinh District, Quang Ngai Province, RVN
 OCCUPATION: Fisherwoman - houseworker

HIEN stated substantially as follows: The day the Americans came and killed the women and children was the 18th day of the 2nd lunar month, 1968. At about 1000 hours when the sun had been up about 3½ hours, she saw the Americans coming across the bridge near My Khe. Villagers from My Khe were fleeing in front of the soldiers and warning the people of My Hoi to hide that the Americans were killing everyone and burning homes as they came. The people from My Khe said that the soldiers were dragging people from their homes and bunkers saying "You VC, you VC" and killing them. She saw houses being burned and saw fires in the sky. She took three children into a bunker near the sea and hid with them. She kept peeking out from where she was hidden and saw that homes were being burned and also crops. She saw one group of American soldiers, five or six all white skinned. She remained hidden in the bunker undiscovered until three or four hours after mid day. When she emerged from hiding, she discovered many bodies, seeing in all about 22 bodies. She saw also that all the homes were destroyed, and the crops. She had lived with her son and his family, her son had been out fishing at the time and was spared, however her daughter-in-law went into the family bunker with all the family children and was killed. The following members of her family lost their lives that day: Ngo Thi NGAN, 32 years, daughter-in-law; Nguyen Thi BUI, 12, ~~daughter~~ granddaughter; Nguyen KHAI, 10, grandson; Nguyen KHOI, 8, grandson and Nguyen Thi KIANG, granddaughter, 6 years old. They had been killed by having a grenade thrown in to the bunker where they were at, and also by having rifle fire directed into this bunker. She helped to bury the bodies of her daughter-in-law and grandchildren and then went to the refugee center along with everyone else. There was haste to leave before the soldiers came back. In addition to her family, she knew that Le NUO, 16 year old girl was burned on the face from the fires but did not die and that Le THI a 12 year old girl had been killed. She did not know the names of any other person who died that day at My Hoi, ~~but~~ however after they had gathered together in the area of Son My Village in a refugee center, some officials made a count of persons killed there that day, and she was told that 97 persons were killed at My Hoi.
