CLARK/SAIGON RELEASE NUMBER 75-27

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following numbered photograph cutlines support the Clark Air Base, Republic of the Philippines, missions that airlifted people from South Vietnam over a 19 day period (4-22 Apr).

PHOTO NUMBER 1: VOLUNTEERS AT CLARK Air Base, Republic of the Philippines, help passengers from an Air Force C-141 Starlifter after the flight from Saigon.

PHOTO NUMBER 2: CONCERN HAS BECOME part of the daily lives of people at Clark Air Base, Republic of the Philippines. Both on-duty military and military and dependent volunteers have worked meeting flights since the beginning of airlifts from Saigon. Weeks of long days and nights have become part of a regular routine for these people who are doing their best to make the stay at this base a little less painful.

PHOTO NUMBER 4: MRS. CHIN THI HEBBE, wife of SSgt David Hebbe, stationed at Clark Air Base, Republic of the Philippines, weeps with joy as she greets one of her two boys, Nguyen Tri Khai Hebbe. She had not seen the two boys, who were staying with an aunt in Saigon, for four years. The woman had been notified at 4 p.m. that afternoon that her sons would be on one of the aircraft that day. The other son, Nguyen Tri Dung Hebbe, who was also on the aircraft, was not shown in the photograph.
