Dear Mom + Dad:

I'm sure glad you liked the present I sent, glad to see it arrived, I sent it airmail and it still took over a month to get here.

I've really been doing some flying & straight days, but mostly sitting around the weather has been rainy and cold. It gets cold enough that I can see my breath at night in Laos. Many because of the dew point and altitude.

I'm going to Singapore for my leave mainly to check on some jobs, the way things are going on around here I'm not too secure at the moment.

I can't get any tickets for Aunt Wang the privilege is for immediate relatives only.

I found the candle holder that you wanted and I can send it in the near future also found a pretty painting of snow covered trees, but the price is too high.

Thanks for the pictures, I should have some for you in a little while.

Next letter should be from Singapore I hope?
