Dear Friend:

IV# 94,106 3C

We have received your letter requesting World Relief to assist you in coming to the United States. It appears that you are eligible for the Orderly Departure Program if you are able to document the claims you have made—that is, U.S. involvement or Amerasian child.

We have submitted a World Relief interest on your case and are forwarding your letter and any documents you may have sent us to the ODP Office in Bangkok. In the future, please do not send us any further documents. If your case already has an IV#, we have indicated it above. You should send all future correspondence and documents which ODP requests carefully marking all papers with the IV# to the following address: Orderly Departure Program
Panjabhum Building
127 Sathorn Tai Road
Bangkok 10120, Thailand

If you do not have an IV# and the ODP Office determines that you are eligible, that office will be in touch with you directly. It is not necessary for you to correspond further with us. We trust your future plans will work for the best.

With warm regards,

Orderly Departure Program Department
World Relief
