Dear Mn. Khuc

This is in response to your inquiry of November 13, 1989 regarding the above mentioned ODP applicants.

This case is based on Mn. Le 's 9 years in reeducation camp.

On July 30, 1989 the United States and Vietnam initialed an agreement to begin a resettlement program for released re-education center detainees. Interviews under this program began in October 1989 at an initial rate of 1,000 persons per month, and we anticipate that interviews will continue at about the same rate in the future.

The U.S. side is submitting lists of former re-education center detainees to the Vietnamese side beginning with those individuals who served the longest terms in re-education centers. We also are receiving lists of individuals with re-education time from the Vietnamese side. When a former detainee's name appears on a list submitted by the Vietnamese side and meets ODP eligibility criteria, ODP requests that the Vietnamese authorities schedule an interview for the principal applicant and any accompanying immediate family members eligible to be included on the case.

^{On re-issuing}
We are no longer issuing Letters of Introduction (LOI's) for cases which qualify for ODP solely on the basis of time spent in re-education. The current procedure of informing the Vietnamese directly by way of lists of those individuals who qualify is believed to be more effective and reliable. We have requested that the Vietnamese side refer to our lists when compiling their interview lists.

If anyone in the U.S. is eligible to file an immigrant visa petition for the individuals on this case and has not done so already, it is recommended that they do so. Our experience has been that the Vietnamese react more favorably to requests for emigration for cases of family reunification. Attached is information on the filing of petitions.

Please assure that ODP is kept apprised of any address or family composition changes relating to this case.

Sincerely,

BB
