Dear Mrs. Tho,

My name is Mai Tan Van, born on March 4, 1942 in Khanh Hoa, Vietnam. After my graduation from college, I was drafted to serve as a lieutenant in the Armed Forces of the Republic of Vietnam (RVN) from 1969 to 1975.

I spent my time in different communist concentration camps until my release on November 24, 1982. During this period of time, I sent many letters home to my former wife Vo Thi Nhung, born June 26, 1942 in An Giang, Vietnam but I received no single reply. Nor did I received any visit from her.

Upon my return home I found my wife has divorced me in absentia. I understood that I had to accept the new and bitter condition of my fate: no job, no place to live, no family.

I came back to my home town in Khanh Hoa following a series of mistreatments and disappointments.

I tried to rebuild my life, making an honest living by teaching. I was remarried on December 30, 1985 to Phung Thi Kim Huong, born April 2, 1959 who bore me a child named Mai Tan Thuc, born November 11, 1989.

I applied to go to the U.S.A. under the ODP/HO Program. I have been assigned case H26-186. Later, after a series of interview by INS officials between January 31 and June 15, 1994, my family and I were given vaccinations from February 1 to February 10, 1994 to get ready to depart to the U.S.A.

For a certain reason my case has been pending since.

I would like to point to the fact that Vo Thi Nhung does not want to sponsor my case, due to her divorce; and my children, being in school, have no financial means to sponsor me either. I believe that the refugee status is the avenue of choice for my case at this time.

Now, my case is clear. We would like to respectfully ask your kindness to assist in this case so that my family and I can go to live in freedom.

My regards,

Mai Tan Van

Subject Mai Tan Van
Case Number H26-186

Dear Sir/ Madam

I am addressing this letter to ask your favor to help review the case of my friend that I have known for many years, Mr Mai Tan Van, case H26-186, who deserves you attention.

Please find enclosed a copy of the divorce document between Vo thi Nhung and Mai Tan Van. submitted to you for a favorable consideration.

Due to the fact that they have been divorced, his former wife is in no position to sponsor him nor any of his children who, now living under her auspice, have any financial resources to sponsor Mr Mai Tan Van to come to the United States.

We appreciate your time and attention on this matter.

Sincerely,

Mr Tan Nguyen
