To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Thanh N. Nguyen, a former political prisoner of the Vietnamese communist regime. I am currently residing at

Before April 1975, I was a second lieutenant (platoon leader) of special force police in the armed force of the Republic of South Vietnam. After the communists came to power, I was imprisoned in a re-education camp from 4-16-76 to 4-17-78 at Kim Son Binh Binh.

Because of that experience I have been admitted to the United States on 5-31-96 in accordance with a subprogram of the ODP program for former political prisoners under a bilateral Agreement between Vietnam and the United States. While I am grateful for the chance to resettle in the United States, my resettlement has been made extremely difficult because I do not speak English, do not drive a car, and am in very poor health due to my previous imprisonment. When I came from Vietnam, I brought my two younger children, ages 6 and 21. My son is working long hours to try to support the family. However, to successfully resettle will depend on the help of my two sons still in Vietnam. I would like the U.S. government to help my family be reunited with my sons so that we may be together again and contribute to this society.
