Re: Nguyen Nhat Tuyen
IV-45138

Dear Mr. Solis,

This is my personal appeal to you to review the Request For Reconsideration for Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen and his family members. I have read Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen's appeal, his personal explanation of the events surrounding his original denial and talked to his relatives in the U.S and Mrs Khuc Minh Tho, the President of the Former Political Prisoners Group. Based on this information, I truly believe Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen and his family members deserve to be reconsidered for resettlement in the U.S.

Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen was a Captain in the Engineering Corps of the South Viet Nam Government. During his military service, he received some trainings in the U.S from November 1966 to April 1967. After 1975, he was sent to a re-education camp from April 5, 1995 to July 1, 1976.

After his release, he was restricted in travel and forced by the Communist to de-mine the areas around the airports. His house was expropriated without compensation because it was near an airport and military base. After this, he was forced to sign a statement agreeing to voluntary go to a new economic zone in Cu Bi with his family members. His children were denied further education because of his background. They were forced to do hard labor, digging irrigation channels endlessly. He was accused of being a lackey for the American and a CIA agent because of his training in the U.S. The local authorities had him and his family members under constant surveillance. They were repeatedly humiliated by the local authorities. Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen and his family members are living in constant fear not knowing what will happen to them the next day. Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen compared himself and his family as a Jewish family who lived under the Nazi control.

As Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen's appeals explained he and his family members were extremely anxious and on edge before this meeting because of the importance they attached to it as their only path out of the constant persecution to freedom. As Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen explained, this nervousness heightened as he and his family members entered the room when the INS officer scolded him about closing the door. According to Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen, the whole interview leading to his denial was based on the following questions:

- Which ethnic group did he belong to ? Was he Chinese ?
- Was he a member of any party or any political organisation ?
- Was his property confiscated ?

He had trouble understanding the context of being a member of a political organisation and the time period in question. To him before 1975 any military member must join the Democratic Party of President Nguyen Van Thieu. He had hesitated in answering this because he was afraid to be misunderstood that he was a member of the Communist Party which he was not.

Regarding the question on confiscation of his property, he replied "no" because he understood the translation of the word confiscation applied only to the rich. He did not associate this with what happen to his home. Indeed his house was confiscated as I indicated above.

Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen and his family members were immediatly denied after these brief questions. His wife fainted and his children started to cry. The INS officer told them " go ahead and cry and get out of here"

The interview appeared to be very brief and did not allow Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen to explain adequately their persecution under the Communist regime.

I appeal to you for a compassionate review of Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen" Request For Reconsideration with its new evidence. Mr. Nguyen Nhat Tuyen's story seems very credible and deserves your attention.

Sincerely,

Ngoc-Anh Davis

Dear Mr. Thomas,

I am writing to you concerning the case of Nguyen Nhat Tuyen and his family, IV-45138.

I understand from the family that they were re-interviewed by an INS officer on 9/25/1995. It has been two months since the last interview took place. However, to date they have not heard of the INS's decision.

I would greatly appreciate it if you could inform us if a decision has been reached or when it could be expected.

Sincerely,
