THE IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE
OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Case # 291-652 H-44-32

Dear/Kính gửi Nguyễn Cảnh Sát & family IV# 1 H44-32
(ODP applicant/Tên người định dân)

1) We regret we are unable to approve your application for refugee resettlement admission to the United States.

To be resettled in the United States as a refugee, an applicant must meet the statutory definition of refugee contained in section 101(a)(42) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended. Refugee status can be approved only if the applicant establishes a credible claim of persecution or a well-founded fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion. Additionally, all applicants for refugee status in the United States must establish that they are not precluded from entry into the United States under other sections of law.

During your interview with an officer of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), your claim to having been persecuted or having a well-founded fear of persecution was reviewed. At that time, you were given the opportunity to present evidence, documentation, and/or an accumulation of detail through verbal testimony of the events or circumstances that support your claim of persecution or a well-founded fear of persecution. After carefully reviewing your account of these events and surrounding circumstances, it has been determined that you do not qualify for refugee status.

2) You may be eligible for Public Interest Parole (see attached letter).

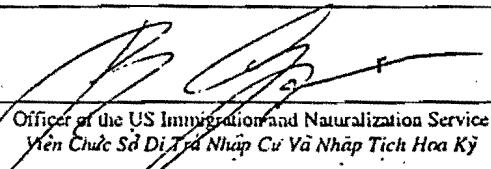

3) We are unable to approve your application for resettlement in the United States under the Public Interest Parole program because you do not meet the criteria indicated below:

3a) Married sons and daughters (of former re-education camp detainees who are eligible as refugees) must have approved petitions filed on their behalf, or on behalf of their spouse, by a sibling or closer relation who is currently residing in the United States, who is willing to pay transportation costs, and who demonstrates that he/she has the financial ability to support the parolees to ensure they do not become public charges.

3b) Former US government or private company employees who are not eligible for refugee status may be considered for public interest parole only if they have siblings or closer relations currently residing in the United States who are willing to pay transportation costs and demonstrate that they have the financial ability to support the parolees to ensure they do not become public charges.

3c) Unmarried children of former US government or private company employees who are approved as Public Interest Parolees are allowed to accompany their parents to the United States only if the children are under the age of twenty-one.

Refugee/PIP denial (12/92)

Case Number: 261650Date: 26 January 2011

The US Orderly Departure Program (ODP) has received your inquiry regarding the referenced ODP case. This case was interviewed and denied by a US Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) officer based on the evidence and testimony presented. There is no appeal from such a denial; however, US immigration law provides that any applicant may request to re-open a case if additional or new evidence or facts are presented in support of the original refugee claim. We have reviewed our records based on the information contained in your inquiry, however, insufficient evidence or facts are available to warrant reconsideration of the case. Please refer to the section(s) indicated below for further information. Please note that unlikely reconsideration will be given to derivative applicants once the principal applicant has departed Vietnam.

- The principal applicant has failed to submit sufficient, credible evidence to establish that he spent at least three years in re-education as a result of his association with the US prior to 1975. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of: original re-education release certificates; MOI verification of time spent in re-education; original restoration of civil rights documents; old photographs; letters of explanation.
- Based on the information presented at interview, the applicants have failed to establish that they meet the definition of a refugee as defined in Section 101(a)(42) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). ODP policy indicates that refugee applicants must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the interviewing officer that they have been subject to persecution in Vietnam as a result of their association with the US prior to 1975. In some cases, evidence presented may have been denied as not credible and therefore not considered. Further consideration may be given if additional or new evidence or facts are presented in support of the original refugee claim.
- Based on the documents and testimony presented at interview, the family relationship between the applicants on this case have not been established. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of: original birth certificates or certified birth extracts; original marriage certificates or extracts; birth registers; school records; hospital records or maternity receipts; old photographs.
- The applicants have failed to establish that they have continuously resided in the principal applicant's household, which is required for derivative eligibility in this refugee category. Further consideration may be given (to spouses and unmarried applicants under the age of 21) upon receipt of: birth registers; school records; old photographs; letters of explanation.
- The applicants on this case are married and/or over the age of twenty-one and are therefore not eligible to accompany their parents to the US as refugees. Once their parents arrive in the US and become lawful permanent residents, they may file immigrant visa petitions (Form I-130) on behalf of their unmarried children in Vietnam; once they become US citizens, they may file immigrant visa petitions for their married children (and their families).
- Based on the evidence and testimony presented, the applicants do not meet current ODP eligibility requirements. Further consideration of this case is unlikely. Relatives in the US may consult their local Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) office about the possibility of filing immigrant visa petitions (Form I-130) or a refugee petition (Form I-730) on behalf of the applicants.
- Based on the documents and testimony presented at interview, the identity of the applicants on this case have not been established. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of: original birth certificates or certified birth extracts; original marriage certificates or extracts; old photographs.

INTERNATIONAL CATHOLIC MIGRATION COMMISSION (ICMC)

Joint Voluntary Agency for the US Orderly Departure Program, American Embassy, Bangkok

Case Number: 941-152/HHQ-CC32

Date: 19 JUL 1997

The US Orderly Departure Program (ODP) has received your inquiry regarding the referenced ODP case. This case was interviewed and denied by a US Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) officer, based on the evidence and testimony presented. There is no appeal from such a denial; however, US immigration law provides that any applicant may request to re-open a case if additional or new evidence or facts are presented in support of the original refugee claim. Please refer to the section(s) indicated below for further information. When submitting additional documents to ODP, please submit photocopies; DO NOT SUBMIT THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS. Please DO NOT submit evidence which was previously seen by ODP; repeated submission of the same documents will delay the processing of your case.

We have reviewed our records based on the information contained in your inquiry, however, no further evidence or facts are available to warrant reconsideration of the case.

The documents you submitted: _____

were already seen and determined by the interviewing officer to be insufficient proof of your refugee claim. These documents do not warrant an officer's review of your case.

The principal applicant has failed to submit sufficient, credible evidence to establish that he spent at least three years in re-education as a result of his association with the US prior to 1975. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of:

<input type="checkbox"/> re-education release certificates	<input type="checkbox"/> evidence of pre-1975 activities
<input type="checkbox"/> MOL verification of time spent in re-education	<input type="checkbox"/> old photographs
<input type="checkbox"/> restoration of civil rights documents	<input type="checkbox"/> letters of explanation

Based on the information presented at interview, the applicants have failed to establish that they meet the definition of a refugee as defined in Section 101(a)(42) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). ODP policy indicates that refugee applicants must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the interviewing officer that they have been subject to persecution in Vietnam as a result of their association with the US prior to 1975. In some cases, evidence presented may have been determined not credible and therefore not considered. Further consideration may be given if additional new evidence or facts are presented in support of the original refugee claim.

Based on the documents and testimony presented at interview, the family relationships between the applicants on this case have not been established. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of birth certificates or certified birth extracts; marriage certificates or extracts; old family registers; school records; hospital records or maternity receipts; old photographs.

Based on the evidence and testimony presented, the applicants do not meet current ODP criteria requirements. Further consideration of this case is unlikely. Relatives in the US may consult the local Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) office about the possibility of filing immigrant petitions (Form I-130) or a refugee petition (Form I-730) on behalf of the applicants.

Based on the documents and testimony presented at interview, the identity of the applicants on this case have not been established. Further consideration may be given upon receipt of photocopies of old identification cards; birth certificates or certified birth extracts; marriage certificates or extracts; old family registers; school records; hospital records or maternity receipts; old photographs.
