Date of ODP interview April 25th , 1994

Dear Mr. Director,

I am writing on behalf of my daughter, her name is Nguyen Thi Thu Cuc. I believe that her status is under the eligibility guidelines of the ODP is affected by the extend Mc Cain Amendment of the 1997 Foreign Operations Act which restores eligibility to the unmarried over 21 year old children of the former Vietnamese political prisoners before.

I have a daughter still live in Viet Nam. Her name is Nguyen Thi Thu Cuc. She was born in November 2nd , 1965. The date my family got an interview on May 25th , 1994 , she was rejected by the U.S. team at Sai Gon. In spite of her name had enrolled in all my documents for that interview. The reason of the rejected that is she did not had her passport at that time.

They promised that they would call her for an interview whenever she had her passport.

She got her passport after 3 months. I have been sending the letter many times with enclosed all supplemental record to O.D.P. office in Bangkok and Sai Gon wish for my daughter's case to be reconsideration, but I did not received any responds.

In 1997 I made a change of my daughter's case to Immigration status. Now, request the O.D.P. check again my daughter's case according to case number provided above. Please confirm me about the decided of the O.D.P. officer following the extend Mc Cain Amendment Act.

I hope that my family will be reunited in the near future. On behalf of my family, I am very much thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

My daughter address in Viet Nam.
