Dear Khac Minh Tho

This is in response to your inquiry of Jun 21, 1982 regarding the above mentioned ODP applicants.

This case is based on Pham Van Hien's 8 years in reeducation.

Cases of former political prisoners who spent time in reeducation are being reviewed in order of the time spent in reeducation. Given the large number of this type of case on file with the ODP it is impossible to determine when this case might be reviewed. If, at the time of review, it meets all ODP requirements a Letter of Introduction (LOI) will be issued. If further documentation or explanation is required we will contact the U.S. sponsor or the principal applicant in Vietnam directly.

If anyone in the U.S. is eligible to file an IV petition for the individuals on this case and has not done so already, it is recommended that they do so. Our experience has been that the Vietnamese react more favorably to requests for emigration for cases of family reunification. Attached is information on the filing of petitions.

There will be no further action taken on this case until it is eligible for review.

If the applicants on this case should appear on a list of names presented by the Vietnamese indicating that they will be available for interview, their eligibility for the program will be considered at that time.

Please assure that ODP is kept apprised of any address or family composition changes relating to this case.

If, at the time of review, it meets all ODP requirements a Letter of Introduction (LOI) will be issued.
