It is with a great deal of pleasure that I am accepting the invitation on behalf of the Families of Vietnamese Political Prisoners Association to attend the Colloquium commemorating the Forty-Second Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Bicentennial of the United States Bill of Rights to be held on Monday, December 10, 1990.

As you are aware, in October 1990, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Viet Nam, Nguyen Co Thach, announced that he would release all political prisoners. On behalf of our loved ones, we hoped that you will strongly encourage the Minister of Foreign Affairs to release them as soon as possible.

After waiting for nearly 16 years and with the approaching season of peace and good will to all mankind, we feel that a true celebration and declaration of Human Rights would be to extend the hand of humanitarianism and ask to intervene with the Vietnamese Government to effect the release of all political prisoners, and allow them to emigrate to any country they wish in order to enjoy the bounties of freedom.

Thanking you in advance for your continued support and recognition of the humanitarian efforts of people around the world in support of the release of the political prisoners.

Sincerely,

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I am accepting the invitation on behalf of the Families of Vietnamese Political Prisoners Association to attend the Colloquium commemorating the Forty-Second Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Bicentennial of the United States Bill of Rights to be held on Monday, December 10, 1990.

As you are aware, in October 1990, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Viet Nam, Mr. Nguyen Co Thach, announced that he would released all political prisoners. On behalf of our loved ones we hope that you will strongly encourage the Minister of Foreign Affairs to release them as soon as possible.

After waiting for nearly 16 years and with the approaching season of peace and good will to all mankind, we feel that a true celebration and declaration of Human Rights would be to extend the hand of humanitarianism and ask to intervene with the Vietnamese Government to effect the release of all political prisoners, and allow them to emigrate to any country they wish in order to enjoy the bounties of freedom.

Thank you in advance for your continued support and recognition of the humanitarian efforts of people around the world in support of the release of the political prisoners.

Dear Congressman Snowe:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I am accepting the invitation on behalf of the Families of Vietnamese Political Prisoners Association to attend the Colloquium commemorating the Forty-Second Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Bicentennial of the United States Bill of Rights to be held on Monday, December 10, 1990.

As you are aware, in October 1990, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Viet Nam, Mr. Nguyen Co Thach, announced that he would released all political prisoners. On behalf of our loved ones we hope that you will strongly encourage the Minister of Foreign Affairs to release them as soon as possible.

After waiting for nearly 16 years and with the approaching season of peace and good will to all mankind, we feel that a true celebration and declaration of Human Rights would be to extend the hand of humanitarianism and ask to intervene with the Vietnamese Government to effect the release of all political prisoners, and allow them to emigrate to any country they wish in order to enjoy the bounties of freedom.

Thank you in advance for your continued support and recognition of the humanitarian efforts of people around the world in support of the release of the political prisoners.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Khuc Minh Tho
