Dear Mr. Funseth:

We are looking forward to your visit to Oklahoma City on April 20th. We would be pleased if you would consider visiting our center at ten-thirty in the morning; we could plan to leave for the restaurant at eleven o'clock.

We feel very honored that you have consented to speak at our luncheon. Our invitation list includes a vast representation of our minority groups in the metro area along with state representatives, U.S. senators, Department of Human Services supervisors and directors, and members of the ministries who have offered assistance to our refugees in need. Our invitation list also includes those employers who have provided jobs for our refugees; we are especially thankful for these people who have given our refugees the opportunity to work and maintain their self sufficiency.

Please find enclosed the formal invitation and the program agenda. We will be glad to answer any questions or help in any way that we can to make your visit to our city a most pleasant day.
