DEPARTMENT OF STATE MEETING AGENDA

1. Can the Orientation Program's personnel in Bangkok provide to every detainee and/or family a list of Vietnamese voluntary groups which include telephone numbers and types of services provided. This would be of assistance upon their arrival.
2. In reference to the free cases, we would prefer to have them resettled close to their friends or supportive Vietnamese communities in order that they will have the network they will need to be successful.
3. The Families of Vietnamese Political Prisoners Association needs to be provided with a list of Re-education Detainee Interview statistics.
4. What is the quota that has been established for detainees arriving in 1991 and 1992?
5. What is the feasibility of having married children (sons and daughters) of detainees to be interviewed together with their parents in the future (e.g. next year)?
6. For families of detainees who are deceased, will it be necessary to have these families acquire sponsors. It is our assumption that processing will be the same as former detainee's procedures.
7. Request that all deceased detainees families, after being released, and having spent three (3) years or more in re-education camps, be granted admission to the United States as refugees in the same status as those of living detainees' families.

8. Do the married children of deceased detainees assume the status of their fathers? (e.g. interview and process for admission).
9. Does the ODP issue the LOI to deceased detainees' families?
10. Need for discussion and clarification of issues and concerns expressed over difficulties between refugees and volags.
11. Do former political prisoners and their families, in Southeast Asia camps, need sponsors?
