

Back to Freedom

Back! Let's go back

And engrave in our minds July 30th.

Let's go back in crowds

While the flowers of freedom are in full bloom.

Rubbing shoulders with each other, we are going back,

Our steps so gleeful like fish freed to rivers,

And birds to the jungles,

Bringing only our blissful and forgiving hearts,

The hearts full of LAC HONG blood

Of a forever peace loving race.

Chorus

① Oh, the days of imprisonment have passed!

Oh, today you are going back, hand in hand, with faces full of joy.

You are going back bringing the beautiful sun of Spring
And the love of Democracy and Peace.

② Oh, the days of back bending chains are gone!

Oh, today the freedom exhales fragrance embalmed with human love.

You are going back in fresh and hopeful sunshine
Chasing away darkness for a brilliant future.
