Ambassador Le Van Bang

Dear Ambassador Le:

Our Association is writing to request discuss our program for the Vietnamese political prison interested in talking with you about the processing of the prisoners from Vietnam for resettlement in the United States issue of exit permits.

We would like to share idea with about the no-show rate of 70% among the cases covered the McCain amendment reported by the Organization for the Detention Program (ODP). We find this difficult to understand since we have received hundreds of inquiries from these families asking about the status of the cases. The term "no-show" implies that the eligible applicants have been informed of their eligibility and interview date and either they do not respond to the notice or fail to show up for the interview.

Our Association believes that many persons covered by the McCain amendment are not reached. We have some suggestions about the use of radio and print media in Vietnam to reach these eligible applicants and we would like any suggestion you have as well.

As I wrote to you in my letter of August 27, 1997, I had the opportunity during my trip to Vietnam to meet with officials at of the Ministry of Interior at their invitation. I met with Mr. Thanh Tam, Mr. Tu and Nguyen Ha of the consular affairs section (Cục Quản Lý Xuất Nhập Cảnh) in the IOI. We shared views on the processing the of the former Vietnamese political prisoners.

These officials appeared to understand the goal of our Association that the MOI issue exit permits as soon as the applicant presents proof of approval from the US government and they indicated that the MOI will do this. On behalf of our Association, I thanked these officials for their offer of cooperation for the timely issuance of exit permits.

Our Association is pleased with this understanding about the processing because the issuance of the exit permits will expedite and simplify the departure of the applicants and their families from Vietnam. We look forward to talking with you about how we can reinforce this cooperation between the US and Vietnamese governments.

This meeting will also give me an opportunity to meet you and to talk to you about our country, Vietnam.

Sincerely,
