Dear Shipmate &
fellow Wolf,

Received my Wolfgram
yesterday. Was very surprised to say the least. I had often wondered about my
"brothers" I left behind.
I didn't desert them;
I was on the Kitty Hawk off-shore flying air-

cover over them.
Requested to fly
into Vung Tau via Heho but the Skipper refused; so I had to just wonder and hope
for the best.

Anyway, It's good to get in touch again.
I just wrote one of my men, hoping he
might be in touch
with some of the others. I lost touch as I was ordered to VR-24 in Rhodé, Spain
as dispatcher for Europe. What a job.
I retired after that order. Gave me a far reaching view
of the U.S. Navy though.

There's something about the MIA/POW list that bothers me. I believe that Olt ADJ-1 and LCDR Johnson were in the same helo that was shot down. Wish you'd try to locate Chief Bond; he may have been on the same mission. He went as door-gunner also, and one of the best.

Saw Chief Vlass and Guibodeaux in Rhoda, Spain. The only two I met in Europe.

Some others I'd like to mention is CDR Hollinsworth (HAL-3 Mznk. Off.), HS-10 skipper

later on. Avionics
Div. Off., LCDR Pequin, my buddy in "Comshaw."

Anyway, those are
a few of the backbones
of the "Famous Navy Seawolves." Hope they are at our re-union.

And don't forget the Seabee det. led by Chief Powell who built our barracks, offices, shops,
and a deep well of
water with hot showers,
which the French never
had. He was also my buddy. Drove an old Chevy pick-up with mortar holes through
and through, but it
would still run.

Those are some of the

happier memories
I have of So. Vietnam.

Oh yes, where can
I get another Beret?
My ex-wife walked off with mine. She looked real cute in
it. I've never seen it since. I know if I wrote her for it, I'd get a "bouncing-betty"
delivered to me. <sup>HA</sup>

No, I'll write her for
it. We are still friends so long as we stay
out of gun range of one-another, like the Hatfields and McCoys.

Wonder why Cpt. B
sent our battle flags via Cdr. Nichols to Ekhsow. I thought Rezw

Field was our home station. Think it had changed in '72 though. I was out there in '78. It wasn't the same anymore. The "ARC" was named "Whirly Bird." Although the "Bamboo Inn" was still there. I caught the next Greyhound back to Dallas.

Oh yes, the main reason I wrote:

1. I sent my dues and menu fee 3h in one check to Jacobs; didn't read thoroughly the directions.
  2. My address is wrong in the Wohlfgrum.
- Can't think of anything else to gripe about

so I'll clothes 'em off.

F.S.: You guys are doing a great
job. Guess I'm
The only Eskie
Seawolf - alone
here in these
mountains with
all these wild
waters -

See ya in Pensacola.
