

Marriott

HOTELS & RESORTS

Kansas City Airport Marriott / Kansas City International Airport /

June 8, 1987

Mr. Don Thomson
SEAWOLF

Dear Mr. Thomson;

It is a pleasure to enclose copies of our Banquet Event Orders outlining the details of your upcoming meeting at the Kansas City Airport Marriott.

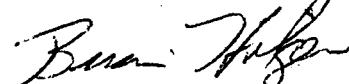

In order to ensure the total success of your event, carefully review these contents and note any changes. Please sign and return the extra copy to serve as our mutual agreement. Your assistance will assure that our staff is aware of your expectations.

Also, to assist in providing you the freshest products available, we will be calling you seventy-two hours prior to your function in order to update your meal counts. If we do not receive a guarantee count seventy-two hours in advance, your expected number will be used for your guarantee.

Mr. Thomson, thank you for your support of the Kansas City Airport Marriott. We appreciate your business and look forward to hosting your group. Should you have any questions or need any further assistance in the meantime, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

KANSAS CITY AIRPORT MARRIOTT HOTEL

Brian Hilger
Catering Sales Manager

BH/djc
Enclosures

Authorized Signature

Date