

WOLFGRAM

Seawolf (HAL-3) Assoc.

Volume 5

Fall 1990

Number 3

REUNION FACTS

Date June 14th, 15th, 16th 1991.

Where In San Diego at the Holiday Inn on Hotel Circle. Reservation and deposit information will be forthcoming.

Transportation Discounts available through Northwest Airlines, flyer enclosed.

Guest Speaker Admiral Price, bibliography to follow.

The Moving Wall A replica of the Vietnam War Memorial may be available.

Game Warden Wreath Ceremony at NTC on Saturday June 15. We are invited to share in this event.

The Seawolf Association is going backwards! That's right. The pitifully sad fact is that our membership is declining. How can that be, you say. Well, the mailman brought at about 25 newsletters back to me marked No Forwarding Address on File, ect. The Lost Wolves List, you will recall, are Wolves we have lost touch with.

IT PAYS TO WEAR A SEAWOLF CAP

While traveling through the western portion of New York State last summer I managed to lock my keys in my car. Stupid, @#^>/!! . Here I was traveling alone at service area on the interstate. The gas attendant was kind enough to lend me the use of a Slim bar which, being from Wisconsin, I don't know how to work. It's seven in the morning and there I stand looking stupid and very dumb trying to break into my own car. A group of fine looking Harley Riders are watching me from the corner of the lot. I know that I'm the best entertainment around. When one of them, the biggest ugliest and dirtiest one of the bunch marches over to me and yanks the Slim bar from my hand. He gets right in my face and says. Twenty years, everything same-same. F_____ Seawolves still need a Black Pony to haul their sorry asses out of trouble.

With a mere flick of his wrist he opened the door. Then we went inside and I bought him breakfast and exchanged sea stories for three hours. Wear the Hat!

Seawolf Merchandise

Contact - Larry Augsberger, 345 Strathmore Rd., Havertown, PA

Bumper Sticker $1. Seawolf Patch $4. Large Seawolf Jacket Patch $11 Hats -- I'm working on placing an order. T Shirts -- Tom Olby will be ordering more. Seawolf Challenge Coin Should be available at the reunion.

Did you know Jim Burke KIA 8/1/67? If so call or write Jim's daughter.
Jamie Schkade, tel 6

Northwest airlines will be granting us a group discount. As with the Pensacola reunion Northwest will give us one free round trip ticket for every 40 tickets sold to Seawolves. In Pensacola we raffled the ticket off.

DUES

Due to a snafu with the last newsletter's labels the dues information was not presented as the newsletter stated. This has been corrected, look at your address label, the date your paid up membership expires will be listed there. If there is no date, than your membership fee is due. Membership fee's are $20, payable to Seawolf Association. Send to Howard Jacobs, 44420.

Tax Exempt Status was granted to us late last month. Meaning that donations to Seawolf Association are tax deductible.

I will try to get a flyer prepared and inclosed in this newsletter announcing the reunion. Please feel free to make copies and spread it around. Surprisingly this works, we found quite a few New Wolves using this flyer.

President Tom Thalmann

Vice President Tom Olby

Treasurer Howard Jacobs

Historian

Don Thompson
C-45

San Diego Rich Hargis
Reunion

San Diego
Reunion

Marty Twite

Next Newsletter Late January 1991, Newsletter info date January 10, 1991
I will be expecting Officer reports on -- Life Membership -- Membership Committee finding Lost Wolves.