Don, love,

Your trip sounds very well planned to me. I live in Buena Park which is about 90 miles North of San Diego and about 60 miles South of L.A. I'm North of Laguna Niguel about 20 miles. I'm teaching summer school from 10am to 2pm on M, T, W, and Th. Friday, Saturday and Sunday are mostly open. You and Colby probably know about the traffic situation here.

Try to go to San Diego or L.A. after 10am or before 2pm. I can meet you anywhere. What I need is the address so I can get directions from Mapquest.com. Love, Cindy
