Tom-

Received the hard copy of the HAL-3 inventory and the accompanying disc. Its a fine piece of work and an important contribution to naval aviation history. You are to be heartily commended. I'm sure Roy is pleased. For my part, it will certainly make my task much easier.

My book on the Seawolves has been on hold while I worked on two other writing contracts that had strict deadlines. Plan to pick up the book project in earnest again in December.

Many thanks for your help.

Dick

Dick-

I just mailed to you the completed HAL-3 collection inventory, along with a listing of the inventory by SSIC and subject. I included a paper copy of both the collection inventory, and the inventory by subject, and a 3.5-inch disk with both files in electronic form in MicroSoft Word. If you find any obvious mistakes or inconsistencies, let Roy Grossnick or myself know, and we'll correct the on-line versions at AVH. Thanks,

Tom
