

3 November 1971

MEMORANDUM

From: Avionics/Weapons Officer
To : Sailor of the Month Selection Board
Via : Aircraft Maintenance Officer
Subj: Sailor of the Month, Nominations for October 1971

1. The below personnel are nominated for Sailor of the Month;

Weapons Branch-	A02	Darrell A. Cottle	B74 94 15	USN
Electronics Branch	AT2	Eugene D. Adkins	522 73 62	USN
Electrical Branch		NO NOMINEE

2. Justifying comments attached.

Very Respectfully

C.E. SISK

~~30~~ CMS
~~301~~ JKR

A02 Darrell A. Cottle

Petty Officer Cottle consistently demonstrates a high degree of professionalism in every assignment and is instrumental in maintaining a high state of readiness of the squadron weapons systems. He never has to be told to do a job because his nature is to always be available and ~~be~~ one step ahead of everyone in helping to reduce the workload. He follows all orders and commands without question while displaying a high degree of enthusiasm and initiative. His even temper and happy disposition greatly contribute to the good morale of the shop. Petty Officer Cottle is highly recommended for Sailor of the Month.

AT2 Eugene D. Adkins

Petty Officer Adkins constantly strives to improve the readiness of the squadron aircraft. He is very thorough in instructing his subordinates in the many facets of the electronics work required on the squadron aircraft. Through the conscientious training of Petty Officer Adkins, the men of the avionics shop are becoming more effective in accomplishing their mission. The new men entering the squadron readily seek him out to instruct them concerning the aircraft systems and the expeditious repairs of these systems. Petty Officer Adkins is a dedicated military man in all respects and sets a ~~fine~~ example for his subordinates in the area of personal appearance. He is highly recommended for Sailor of the Month.