Communal house (Dinh)

The communal house was located in the hamlet of My Thanh, near the bank of the river the land of which is being washed away by the water, in consequence of which it moved to My Duc hamlet in 1953. The village has the Royal Decree for village Spirits. According to the notables in the village, My Hoi Dong is quite a large village before, but, late on, part of its land is given to Nhon My and Chau Thanh district.

Comment:

The village council sides with Mr. Tuong's faction.
