NFLSV CLAIMS LIBERATION OF LAM DONG PROVINCE, CHON THANH SUBSECTOR

Liberation Radio [Clandestine] in Vietnamese to South Vietnam 1000 GMT 3 Apr 75 SG

[Text] After launching offensives and staging uprisings to seize many enemy bases along Route 20, on 28 March, the PLAF, taking advantage of their victories, attacked and seized the Bao Loc military subsector and enemy military targets in Bao Loc city, the provincial capital of Lam Dong. Compatriots in the city rose up and with the PLAF smashed the enemy's control apparatus. Many troops, officers and personnel of the puppet administration have returned to the people with weapons and documents.

The same day, the Lam Dong armed forces and people hotly pursued and exterminated the enemy and rose up to gain control of the Di Linh military subsector and district capital and completely liberated Di Linh district. All of Lam Dong province and Bao Loc city have been completely liberated. Nearly 80,000 compatriots in Lam Dong Province have regained mastership.

On the afternoon of 2 April, the Binh Long armed forces and people launched offensives, wiping out or disbanding enemy troops in the Chon Thanh enemy military subsector and district capital. They completely liberated the military subsector and this important district capital, captured many prisoners of war and seized many weapons.
