SCHOOLS REOPENED IN HOI AN PROVINCIAL CAPITAL

LPA From North Vietnam [Clandestine] in English to East Europe and the Far East 1519
GMT 6 Apr 75 EK

[Text] South Vietnam April 6 LPA--With the assistance of the revolutionary administration, all the primary and secondary schools in Hoi An provincial capital have reopened [and] resumed their work as usual. Thousands of children of families who opposed Thieu's forcible evacuation go to schools.

On April 4, 1975 all the teachers and pupils of the primary and secondary schools in Hoi An provincial capital held a meeting to hail the great victories of the South Vietnamese people and the liberation combatants. In Danang city, Quang Nam Province teachers and pupils also expressed their welcome to the revolutionary administration and determination to wipe off the vestige of the reactionary enslaving education of the Thieu regime.
