

NORMALIZATION ACTIVITIES IN TUY HOA CITY DETAILED

Businessmen Meet, Discuss Responsibilities

Liberation Radio [Clandestine] in Vietnamese to South Vietnam 0730 GMT 17 Apr 75 SG

[Text] On the afternoon of 9 April, 217 industrialists and traders, including 62 Chinese, met in Tuy Hoa city, Phu Yen Province to celebrate the complete liberation of the city and province.

A representative of the revolutionary administration in Tuy Hoa city and a representative of the provincial National Liberation Front cited the industrialists and traders who, in the recent past, had maintained vigilance, clearly realized the enemy's scheme, and did not evacuate but resolutely stayed where they were to live under the revolutionary administration. Many industrialists and traders quickly reopened their shops to contribute to stabilizing the people's livelihood.

The representative of the revolutionary administration in Tuy Hoa introduced to the industrialists and traders a number of the policies of the revolutionary administration and guidelines for business transactions in the days ahead. He stressed the responsibilities and honor of the industrialists and traders who have contributed to developing an independent economy planned by the people, quickly healing the wounds of war and restoring and developing the economy so as to make our people wealthy and our country powerful.

Many industrialists and traders expressed their views and enthusiasm over the great victories of our entire people and country.