[Text] Hanoi VNA May 3--The first plane bearing the flag of the Provisional Revolutionary Government landed at Tan Son Nhut airport (Saigon) at 1200 a.m. yesterday, 2 days after the liberation of Saigon, according to GIAI PHONG PRESS AGENCY (LPA).

Pilot Le Dinh Ky, a native of Danang, told LPA correspondent: "I have taken part in the resistance war for 22 years. Today I have the honour to fly this first plane of the revolution to heroic Ho Chi Minh City. I'm profoundly moved."

The liberation fighters who took part in the capture of Tan Son Nhut on April 30 warmly welcomed the crew on the runway.
