

the dock.

LPA REPORTS ON YOUTHS, WORKERS ACTIVITIES IN SAIGON

LPA From North Vietnam [Clandestine] in English to East Europe and the Far East 1552 GMT
6 May 75 OW

[Text] South Vietnam May 6 LPA--Right after the liberation of the city, youths and students in Saigon enthusiastically took part in various social activities. They participated in clearing away all the enemy's depraved culture and maintained security and public order in the city.

Workers of sanitary service in many sectors returned to work on the morning of May Day. All heaps of garbage in the streets were removed. Traffic is brought back to normal.

Many people informed the military management commission of acts of sabotage and hostile activities of reactionaries and hooligans.

On May 2, 1975, hundreds of people, youths and students together with armed propaganda teams pulled down and tore up all reactionary slogans and placards in the streets of the city.

In Precinct 7, on May 1, 1975, the revolutionary administration distributed five tons of rice to poor families. The revolutionary administration in Tan Son Phu village of the same precinct in time gave rice relief to dozens of families.